Police Keep All-Night Vigil At Place

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—A narrow cell in Charles Street Jail tonight holds the Rev. Clarence Virgil Thompson Richeson, the young pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church, Cambridge, who was arrested today for the alleged murder of Ayla Linnell, of Hoyaluis, Mass., to whom he had been engaged. His commitment to jail this afternoon on a charge of first degree murder marked a temporary end to a chain of circumstances which police detectives have followed since the death of Miss Linnell last Saturday by a verdict of potassium poisoning.

Miss Linnell, who was nineteen years old and a student at the Conservatory of Music, was found dead in the bathroom of the Young Women's Christian Association home here.

At first the police believed that she had committed suicide but later developments indicated that she had unknowingly taken cyanide of potassium sent her by some other person, in the belief that it would remedy her embarrassing physical condition.

For several days the police inquiry made little progress, but information received late yesterday that Mr. Richeson had bought cyanide of potassium at a drugstore in Newton led the officials to decide upon his arrest. A dozen officers, headed by Superintendent Watts, were forced to maintain an all-night vigil outside the fashionable home in Brookline of Grant Edmunds where the clergyman had been staying during the last week before his frequent pulls at the doorbells, rappings and shouts failed to bring any response from those within the house, and the police, who were without a warrant, were unwilling to make a forcible entrance.

Mr. Edmunds is the father of Miss Violet Edmunds for whose marriage to Mr. Richeson, on October 31, cards had been issued. These invitations were recalled today.

OREGON CITY AND LINCOLN PLAY TODAY

The Lincoln team weighs about 145 pounds and is a fast eleven which will make the Oregon City team fight hard if they win. The Oregon City team held their last practice last night and is primed up for the game. The team which will be used today is C. Gault, R. G.; J. Beattie, R. T.; Dambach, R. E.; Sheahan, L. G.; Quinn, L. T.; Rotter, L. E.; Graves, Q.; Wilson, R. H.; Cross, L. H.; Caulfield, F.; Michels, substitutes, C. Beattie, Waldron and Fredricks.

ANDRESEN WAITS TO SEE PETITION

William Andresen, president of the city council, who has been urged to make the race for mayor, said Friday: "I cannot make a definite statement until I see the petition, which I understand is being circulated. As soon as it is presented, and I have had time to look it over I will decide." The petition, it is said, has been signed by more than 400 representative citizens, and sentiment is strong in favor of Mr. Andresen, making the race. He has been a member of the city council six years, and it is urged that his experience as head of the financial affairs of the city and his most desirable man for the mayoralty.

WOODFIN PUPILS GIVE DELIGHTFUL RECITAL

One of the most enjoyable musical entertainments ever given in this city was that on Friday evening at the Congregational church when Oscar Lawrence Woodfin presented thirteen of his pupils in a piano recital. The auditorium of the church was crowded with friends and relatives of the pupils and of the instructor, Mr. Woodfin. The decorations were very artistic, and bright colored autumn leaves intermingled with ferns and cutflowers were used. Indian baskets filled with marguerites and autumn leaves completed the decorations and added to the beauty of the room.

The numbers of the program were arranged to splendid advantage, and were from favorite and well known composers—Grieg, Chopin, Schuman, Krogman, Beethoven and others. Every one taking part in this program did exceedingly well and showed much musical talent, and the instructor deserves great credit for the manner in which he has instructed his pupils. One deserving much credit is Miss Matilda Myers, who has had but one month of instruction and her rendition of "Evening Song" was well received.

Mr. Woodfin rendered six selections, including "Wedding Day," (cradle song), "Japanese Fan Waltz," "Nachtsuke," (Night Song), "Humoresque," "Waltz in D Flat." The latter was composed by Mr. Woodfin, and was well received. Mr. Woodfin has a bright future as a musician, and every number rendered by him was artistic, his technique was perfect and interpretations were pleasing.

Mr. Woodfin has many other pupils who will appear in public at a later date, the class being presented Friday evening were the beginners. Victor Gault acted as usher of the evening, and Little Arleigh Reed, of Gladstone, was flower bearer.

The following program was given:
"A Song of Contentment," "A Summer Moon," "Violet Beaulieu."
Waltz, March—Hazel Miller.
"Idle Moments," "Alice Faltz,"—Marjorie Reed.
"The Whistling Schoolboy"—Earl Frost.
"Goodnight"—Gladys January.
"The Doll's Waltz"—Noel Armstrong.
"The Fairies," "Sing Robin Sing," "Waltz—Willie Woodfin."
"The Robin's Lullaby" (Duet).
Frieda Martin and Gertrude Jeromiah.
"The Cuckoo," "The Princess" (Air de Ballet)—Gertrude Jeromiah.
"Santa Claus Guards," "Cradle Song"—Clyde Morrell.
"Farewell to the Piano"—Carrie Cross.
"Evening Song"—Matilda Myers.
"Wedding Day," "Berceuse" (Cradle Song), "Japanese Fan Waltz," "Nachtsuke," (Night Song), "Humoresque," "Waltz in D Flat"—Oscar Lawrence Woodfin.

BIG DANCE TONIGHT.
One of the social events of the season will be the dancing party given by Milton Price and Frank Busch, Jr., at the Busch hall this evening, when the orchestra of five pieces from San Francisco, will furnish the music for the dancing. A large attendance is expected.

AUTOMOBILE BIG AID IN HUNTING RABBITS

Lloyd Williams, Edward Rechner and Charles Ely, of this city, went to Molalla Wednesday evening, and from there they accompanied W. O. Vaughan and Sim Lindsey, of Canby, in the Vaughan automobile on a rabbit hunt. These men have a new scheme in chasing the rabbits, and do not use the dogs as is customary. The lights of the automobile are used as track. When the rabbits see the glaring light of the machine they run across the road in front and the men shoot them. Sim Lindsey was the champion of the evening, and shot more rabbits than the rest. Although the party remained out but a few hours they shot fourteen jack rabbits and one Cottontail rabbit.

A movement is on foot now to organize a rabbit club and has started with five charter members. Those wishing to become members may communicate with Sim Lindsey, Canby, care of the race track. There has been some complaint in the way the rabbits have multiplied in the past few years at Molalla, and it is planned to have them thinned out.

PLANS MADE FOR SONS OF VETERANS' CAMP

A Sons of Veterans' Camp will be organized in this city Wednesday afternoon and evening at Willamette Hall. The afternoon and evening will be devoted to speech-making and music. The afternoon session will be commenced at 2 o'clock and the evening session at 7. Kenneth Woodward will sing and Comrade Dauchy will speak on "Flags." Mr. Dauchy has the largest collection of Confederate flags in the state, having obtained them at Washington, D. C. Comrade J. A. Roman will talk on "Picket Duty," Comrade Clyde on "Battles," and Comrade Ockley, "Camp Duty in the Army." In the evening the Alldredge Brothers' Quartet will render several musical selections, and Hon. G. B. Dimick will speak. Miss Enla Schuebel will recite and Mayor George C. Brownell will deliver an address.

There is no doubt as to the organization having a large membership, as the movement has been on foot for some time and many have signified their intention of becoming members.

RAIN AGAIN HALTS WORLD'S SERIES

GIANTS AND ATHLETICS FAR FROM SOCIABLE AND TROU- BLE IS FEARED.

M'GRAW MAKES SERIOUS CHARGE

New York Leader, Angered By Reprimand, Says National Commission Wants Philadelphia To Win.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Wet grounds caused the national commission to again postpone the fourth game of the world's championship series between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants.

The game will be played tomorrow afternoon provided the weather conditions will permit.

The rain makes it possible for Athletics to pitch tomorrow and it is believed that McGraw will send him to the mound.

For the Athletics, Bender, the star Indian twirler, who lost the first game of the series after striking out 11 Giants and pitching a wonderful game, is crazy to get another chance to pitch his team to victory, but it is thought that Mack will send in Plank, using Bender in the fifth game.

The Athletics and Giants are far from being a sociable party at present, and it is feared that the next game will develop bad blood on both sides. McGraw is sore over the letter of reprimand sent him by the National Commission, while Fred Merkle is in a similar state of mind on account of the $100 fine which was imposed on him for improper language on the field last Tuesday. Baker's cuts, received from Snodgrass' spikes, are hurting, with the result that the Hitle Athletics' third baseman, is becoming beefed over the incident, while Snodgrass is angry and disgruntled over the charges of "dirty ball" which are being made against him.

That John J. McGraw openly accused the National Commission of having the world series "fixed" in favor of the Philadelphia Athletics during the tirades of abuse which he emitted on the diamond in last Tuesday's game here, is the statement made today by Ban Johnson, president of the American league.

Following the dispatch to McGraw by the commission of a letter warning him that further unseemly conduct on his part would cause his suspension for the remainder of the world series, Johnson said:

"During Tuesday's game McGraw, while coaching his players on the side lines, continually addressed remarks toward the box where the members of the National Commission were sitting. After Merkle was called out while trying to steal second base McGraw walked over to the Giants' bench, calling out to the members of the commission could hear: 'This is a sure thing game—Old American league methods—You always wanted 200 per cent the best of it, and you are getting it now. It is a fine thing to have Connolly, Mack's brother-in-law, to umpire for you. You've framed it up to rob us!'

"Connolly is not related to Mack, and is an eminently fair umpire," added Johnson. "Connolly treated the Giants squarely in every game. I called the attention of President Lynch and Garry Herrmann, members of the commission to McGraw's behavior, and they agreed with me that something should be done about it."

The umpires have been instructed by the commission to rule McGraw from the field the instant he shows any sign of an eruption, similar to that of Tuesday. Commissioner Herrmann declared today that the umpires have been ordered to enforce the rules fearlessly.

TAX LEVY URGED TO BUILD ROADS

RESIDENTS OF MOUNT PLEASANT DISTRICT HOLD ENTHU- SIASTIC MEETING.

DIMICK CALLS ATTENTION TO WASTE

Speakers Suggest Improvement Of Thoroughfares To Markets—Land Values Certain To Advance.

More than 100 residents of the Mount Pleasant neighborhood at a meeting held Friday night under the auspices of the East Side Capital Highway Association voted for a resolution providing for a special tax levy to be used in building roads. There was not a dissenting voice, as has been the case in other sections of the county.

The attendance was one of the largest at any of the meetings held by the association, and all present were enthusiastic over the prospect of the county soon having much better thoroughfares. Addresses were made by G. E. Dimick, member of the Capital Highway Commission; Gordon E. Hayes, J. F. Kertchem, George Laiselle, Tom Lindsey, C. Thomas, E. O. Dillman, W. E. Young, J. M. Warnock, Grant Crittser, Lou Philester and William Hedges.

Judge Dimick declared that the best roads in the county were in the Springwater district, where the money had been raised by assessments. He asserted that these roads should furnish an example for the rest of the county.

"The people must depend upon their own resources in building roads," said the speaker. "You cannot expect the county to assist, except to give its district its proportion of the general levy. Good roads bring the markets closer and enhance the value of the land. The only way to build them is to raise the money and go to work. At least one-third of the money has been wasted in building roads in many districts because of inexperience. The dirt roads should be built high in the center with the best possible drainage. Too much pains cannot be taken in building the macadam roads. The common farm travel does not hurt the thoroughfares. It is known that wood wagons in one district did $10,000 damage in a short period. We should bear in mind that speculators and settlers buy where there are good roads, good schools and the people are prosperous. We should work for the improvement of the thoroughfares to the market centers."

Judge Hayes declares that the way to improve land values was to improve the land and the roads. He said that Clackamas county virtually was in its infancy and it could be built up only through thrift, industry and efficient management.

Hayes lauds farmers as the backbone of the country, declared the speaker, "and much of the work rests with them. Good public schools and good roads will make this one of the greatest counties in any state. Persons who own ten or twenty acre farms

COMMITTEE NAMED TO REVISE CHARTER

MAYOR BROWNELL UPHELD IN PLAN TO TRY COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

COUNCIL UNANIMOUS IN SUPPORT

Stipp, Stevens, Schuebel, Harding, Andresen, Holman And Toose Named—Meet Next Thursday.

The city council, at a meeting Friday night, by a unanimous vote adopted the suggestion of Mayor Brownell that a committee of seven be appointed to revise the city charter to provide for a commission form of government. The following men suggested for membership by the mayor were unanimously approved by the council: Lly Stipp, H. C. Stevens, C. Schuebel, R. L. Holman, F. J. Toose, George A. Harding and William Andresen.

A meeting of the commission has been called for next Thursday evening at the office of Mr. Stipp when an organization will be effected and the work started. A feature of the meeting was the unanimity of sentiment regarding giving the proposed change a trial among the members of the council and the citizens present.

Mayor Outlines Plan.
In bringing the matter before the council Mayor Brownell said that there had been more or less dissatisfaction with the present charter and it was believed that with a commission form of government better results could be obtained. He declared that the plan had been successful wherever it had been tried, and he was confident it would be so in this city. Mayor Brownell was one of the first to suggest a commission form of government here, and he has been active in getting the matter before the public.

"I feel confident that the commission form would be a success here," said George Randall who was invited to give his views. "While the government is satisfactory at present we should not overlook an opportunity to improve it."

"The charter has many excellent features," said F. J. Toose, "but improvements can be made. Other cities find the commission form of government satisfactory, and I think it would prove so here. We should provide a means of saving every dollar possible to the taxpayers. Everything that is good in the old charter should be retained in the revised one. The people should have a chance to study the charter before they are called upon to vote upon it."

Stevens Favors Change.
H. C. Stevens said that he favored the commission form of government and that the charter should be revised as soon as possible. He opposed a plan suggested by Councilman Michels that the matter of naming a committee to revise the charter be voted upon at the coming election, declaring that it would be confusing.

J. W. Moffatt said that the water board and county court furnished an illustration of what could be expected of a commission government. He thought the present government a
