COMMITTEE NAMED TO REVISE CHARTER

good one, but was willing that the other be tried. W. A. Shewman suggested that one man be put in charge and held responsible. His idea was to provide a government similar to the boards of directors of corporations, to make the chairman of the board, so to speak, the responsible head.

After the names had been submitted and approved Mayor Brownell said that mass meetings could be held, and the proposed charter thoroughly discussed before the special election which will be called to vote upon it.
The mayor also promised that the revised instrument would be published in the newspapers so the voters could make a study of it. The motions that the suggestion of the mayor be adopted and the names submitted by him be approved were made by Councilman Meyer. The following members of the board were present: Burke, Roake, Andresen, Meyer, Michels, Pope and Holman. The absentees were Strickland and Hall, both of whom, it is understood, are favorable to giving the commission form a trial.

Best Men Named.
Mayor Brownell said after the meeting that he was delighted that the council had passed upon his suggestion unanimously and had taken so kindly to the plan. It was generally agreed that he could not have named better men on the commission.

A remonstrance, which it was said was signed by eighty per cent of the taxpayers on Monroe street, against improving the street from Third to Fourteenth at the present time was received. It was held that the remonstrance should have been presented earlier and before the contract for the work was let. H. E. Cross spoke against building the street, this winter, and F. J. Toozie urged that the work be started at once. Mr. Cross gave notice that he would fight to the last the taking of earth from the street in front of his property for use in building up the grade elsewhere.
He said he would need the earth to fill several lots. Mr. Toozie said that he had been misrepresented by persons wanting the work delayed. He declared that the city would be liable for damages to the contractor if the contract were broken. Mr. Toozie called attention to many of the property owners who had not signed the remonstrance, and questioned the statement that eighty per cent had signed it. He and Mr. Cross had several verbal talks, but the best of feeling was maintained by both.

The council approved an eight mill levy, the same as last year, for the street improvement fund. An ordinance providing for the improvement of Fourteenth street, between Main and Washington, was passed.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY HAS OMAHA EXHIBIT

The "live wires" of the four great Willamette Valley counties: Benton, Marion, Linn and Lane, through the co-operative efforts of the county courts and commercial clubs in Corvallis, Salem, Albany and Eugene, will have what is thought to be one of the best exhibits of varied commercial products of the Willamette Valley that has ever been assembled, at the Omaha Land Show which opened Tuesday.
The officials of the Southern Pacific system have taken a very active interest in this enterprise and already the exhibit has been sent to Omaha.
The car is packed with a really remarkable collection of horticultural and agricultural exhibits. The exhibits include fruits, preserved and fresh; cereals, hops, wool and the manufactured articles.

One space, 48 feet in length and 15 feet in width, on a prominent aisle of the great Coliseum at Omaha, will be packed with exhibits from Benton, Linn and Lane counties. Supplementing this will be an annex devoted to Marion county, which will occupy a separate space about forty feet in width and in which will be displayed the animated panorama that was shown at the State Fair.

This panorama, which attracted a great deal of attention at the State Fair, is the work of George L. Schryver, who will be in charge of this section. With three assistants, he is at work installing this panorama at the land show.

W. F. Groves, of Corvallis, whose clever arrangement of the displays of Benton county at the State Fair won many encomiums, is designing and consolidating the exhibits of the counties. These will be surmounted by a large sign reading "Famous Willamette Valley, Oregon," and followed by the names of the counties represented. Lectures, illustrated by illuminated transparencies and pictures, will be given twice daily in the lecture dormitory on the wonders and beauties of the Willamette Valley and the opportunities for homeseekers will be exploited. The work is in charge of D. C. Freeman, manager of the Eugene Commercial Club, who worked up the consolidated exhibit plan, and J. C.
Holbrook, of Albany.

Towards the expenses of the exhibit A. F. Hofer, secretary of the Salem Board of Trade, succeeded in getting the county court of Marion county to make an appropriation. The Linn county court appropriated a substantial sum, as did the Lane county court.

EAST NOT READY FOR NORTHWEST WHEAT

A special meeting sent to one of the leading grain houses of Minneapolis by a local party disposes of the report that the East is ready to purchase remaining supplies of Oregon-Washington-Idaho wheat.

According to the message the wheat grown in the Pacific northwest is too soft for use there at the prices quoted for Eastern hard wheats, therefore the value of the Eastern product cannot be judged with the Eastern stock.

The talk of heavy shipments to the East originated by the receipt here of two messages from two houses of Minneapolis, who wanted to purchase 5,000 bushels of the local product.
Practically every dealer in this section received the same inquiries. One large operator here offered the Minneapolis people several hundred thousand bushels on the local price basis but the Eastern interests came back with an offer several cents less. That disposed of the Eastern business.
