CHINESE REBELS CAPTURE TOWNS

HUKOW AND KIU-KIANG FALL IN-TO HANDS OF ENEMIES OF

OFFICIALS ARE REPORTED KILLED

Foreign Warships Are Giving Aid To Aliens—Government General
 Refuses To Advance
 Against Rebels

PEKIN, Oct. 24.—The City of Sian, regarded as one of the government's surest strongholds, has gone over to the rebels without a blow having been struck. Sian is the capital of Shenan province, with a population of 750,000. The Minister of War, General Yin Tehang, holds his main force still at Sin Yang Chow. He says that the rebels have 400 guns, and he declines to move unless supplied with additional guns and ammunition and pay for his troops.

Hukow, a fortified town fifteen miles east of Kiu-Kiang, was also captured by the rebels. The fall of Hukow and Kiu-Kiang indicates the spread of the revolution eastward. It also interrupts communication between Shanghai and Hankow.

When the rebels took Kiu-Kiang and burned the government house, it is reported that several officials were killed. The British, French, German and Japanese warships are sheltering the foreigners. Kiu-Kiang has several military stations. Americans at Pa Chow, in the Province of Kiang-Si, and at Pa-Chow, in Fo-Kien province, have asked that warships be sent there.

The province of Shanghai, Chekiang and Fokien are showing great unrest, and in fact the entire southwest corner of the Chinese Empire below Hankow and farther east removed from Manchurian influence is rapidly becoming inflamed.

Report has it that the revolutionists have demanded that the total of Shanghai surrender the native city and port to them on condition that order will be maintained.

There has been trouble for some time over the boundary. The Kerns have a private road which adjoins the Mulvaney property, and the controversy started over the place of joining the fences.

Members of the County Board of Equalization announced Tuesday that there had been fewer complaints against the assessments this year than ever before, which is believed to be due to the care of Assessor Jack and his deputies. Only seven complaints have been received. Among the complaints is the Waverly Golf Association. The valuation placed upon the property in 1910 was $800 an acre and it has been increased to $1,000 an acre. The association says no improvements have been made and urges that the assessment be the same as in 1910.

Home Tracts

FINEST SOIL IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

We have 24 tracts of land containing from one to six acres each, beautifully located within one-half mile of the corporate limits of Oregon City, with excellent view of the surrounding country. The grade of the Clackamas Southern Railway Company has been completed through the original farm and a forty-foot roadway passes each tract. The man who depends on his labor for his livelihood should have land enough to raise his own fruit and vegetables and thereby save a large part of his earnings.

These tracts are sold at reasonable rates and on easy payments.

This is not a real estate boom but an opportunity for a man to get a home near town, conveniently located and with sufficient space about his home to raise his own fruit and vegetables.

All of this soil is rich and productive and free from rock and gravel.

ATHLETICS WIN; BAKER AGAIN HERO

MACK'S STAR THIRD-BASEMAN BRINGS IN RUNS WITH TWO SMASHES.

"PEERLESS MATTY" POUNDED HARD

Bender Is Almost Invincible After Giants Make Two in First—
 Wittse Does Well
 In Box.

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—With J. Franklin Baker once more starring as chief trouble maker for the New York Giants, Connie Mack's Athletics today made it three to one in the world's championship series over the National league leaders. The score was 4 to 2.

The Athletics batted Mathewson all over the lot. He was yanked in as a forlorn hope. It proved forlorn. With two runs in the first inning, following a triple by Doyle, it looked dark for the Mackmen until the fourth. Then Baker started the woe for New York. A hot double from his bat to left was followed by a double from Murphy, and troublesome Baker came home. Then Davis doubled, and Murphy romped in. The "Old Man" tossed over the plate on a sacrifice fly by Thomas, and the Giants never again had a real chance.

Just to make it good, Baker stung the ball again for two sacks in the last half of the sixth, scoring Collins, who had led off with a single.

In the Giants' half of the sixth, Doyle pulled off the prize bonthead play of the series. Barry fooled him by pretending to catch a grounder which went to Baker, and Doyle was caught thirty feet off first. Throughout the whole game the once invincible Matty was in trouble. He had several narrow squeaks. In the eighth his string was played out, and Becker went in to bat for him. He failed to deliver. Then Wittse went on the mound for the Giants and kept the Athletics' score from growing larger, although the play against him was the most ragged of the game. Bender, after his first disastrous inning, pitched steady ball throughout.

First Inning.
 New York—Devore singled; Doyle tripled, scoring Devore; Snodgrass flied to Lord; Doyle scoring on the throw in; Snodgrass is credited with a sacrifice; Murray out, Davis, unassisted; Merkle fanned. Two runs.

Second Inning.
 New York—Herzog flied to Oldring; Fletcher singled to left; Meyers forced Fletcher, Thomas to Collins; Mathewson out, Bender to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Murphy doubled into right field crowd; Murphy took third on Mathewson's wild throw trying to catch him off second; Murphy spiked Fletcher slightly; Davis out; Mathewson flied the squeeze play and Murphy was caught between third and home when Barry failed to bunt; Meyers retired Murphy unassisted; Barry safe on infield hit; Thomas fouled to Meyers. No runs.

Third Inning.
 New York—Devore flied to Oldring; Doyle flied to Baker; Snodgrass was blown as he came to bat in the third; Snodgrass out, Barry to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Bender out, Fletcher to Merkle; Lord singled to right; Oldring forced Lord, Fletcher to Doyle; Collins fanned. No runs.

Fourth Inning.
 New York—Murray flied to Baker; Merkle fanned; Herzog flied to bunt but was out to Davis, unassisted. No runs.

Philadelphia—Baker doubled to left; Snodgrass slipping on the soggy field and overrunning the ball; Murphy doubled to left, scoring Baker; Davis doubled, scoring Murphy; Barry out; Herzog to Merkle; Davis taking third; Marquand, Ames and Crandall are warming up; Thomas flied to Murray; Davis scoring; Bender out, Fletcher to Merkle. Three runs.

Fifth Inning.
 New York—Fletcher out, Baker to Davis; Meyers doubled to right; Meyers out; Thomas to Baker, attempting to reach third on short passed ball; Mathewson walked; Devore flied to Lord. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord out, Merkle to Mathewson; Oldring out, Herzog to Merkle; Collins singled to center; Baker doubled to center, scoring Collins. One run.

Sixth Inning.
 New York—Doyle walked; Snodgrass fanned; Murray flied to Baker and Doyle was doubled, Baker to Davis. No runs.

Doyle was doubled up on a brilliant play. Doyle started for second with the crack of Murray's bat, but was fooled when Barry pretended he had caught a grounder, Collins covering second. Doyle was caught thirty feet off first. If he had watched the play he would not have been doubled. Doyle's play was the prize bonthead stunt of the series.

Philadelphia—Davis out, Herzog to Merkle; Barry doubled to center; Thomas out, Fletcher to Merkle; Bender out, Herzog to Merkle. No runs.

Seventh Inning.
 New York—Merkle fanned; Herzog flied to Oldring; Fletcher singled to center; Meyers out, Collins to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord safe, Fletcher's fumble; Oldring sacrificed, Merkle to Doyle; Collins sacrificed to Merkle unassisted; Lord taking third; Baker walked; Murphy out to Merkle unassisted, on an attempted hit and run play. No runs.

Eighth Inning.
 New York—Becker, batting for

CITIZENS URGED TO AID FORMATION OF BAND

Whether Oregon City is to have an orchestra rests with the business and professional men of the city. There is sufficient talent here for a fine orchestra and the men are willing to give their time gratis, but it is necessary to raise some money for defraying the expenses incident to the organization of the band. M. D. LaTourrette, secretary of the Commercial Club, under the auspices of which the band is being organized, Tuesday sent letters, of which the following is a copy, to the business and professional men of the city:

"Arrangements have been made with Professor J. A. Sager, of Miles, Okla., to take charge and direct the band. The musicians will donate their time, and we ask you to kindly donate one dollar to help perfect the organization. Please mail me a check today. The scheme is a worthy one, and your co-operation and prompt attention is solicited."

NOTRE DAME MOURNS FOR RALPH DIMICK

The following telegram received Tuesday by Judge G. B. Dimick from John Cavanaugh, president of Notre Dame University, is an evidence of the high esteem in which the late Ralph Dimick was held there:

"We are shocked and grieved at sad news; university mourns. Few students had the respect and friendship of all in such a degree as Ralph Dimick. Our flag is at half mast and we will hold memorial services Thursday."

Mr. Dimick was a star football player at the university and stood high in his classes. It is doubtful if there was ever a more popular student at Notre Dame than he. Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock this afternoon at Hubbard, where Mr. Dimick was born. Members of the Elks will leave this city on the 9:17 train for Hubbard.

ATTENTION OREGON CITY ELKS.

All members are earnestly requested to attend funeral services of our departed brother, Ralph Dimick, to be held at Hubbard, Or., Wednesday at 1 o'clock p. m. Southern Pacific train leaves Oregon City at 9:17 a. m. and Hubbard at 3:50 p. m.

REV. ROBINSON IS MENACED BY AUTO

MINISTER'S HORSE STRUCK BY MACHINE AND SHOE TORN FROM ITS FOOT.

DRIVER CONTINUES ON MAD COURSE

Clergyman And Dr. Mount Engaged In Conversation When Car Appears—Physician Pursues
 Reckless Autoist.

The Rev. C. W. Robinson, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church had a narrow escape from death Tuesday night when the horse he was riding was struck by an automobile driven by a reckless driver. Mr. Robinson, who had been visiting a member of his congregation on the Mount Pleasant road, was on his way home when he met Dr. H. S. Mount in his automobile about a mile this side of the Mount Pleasant schoolhouse. They stopped and while they were engaged in a conversation Mr. Robinson noticed an automobile striking a hind leg of the animal as he did so. A shoe which had been put on the animal a few days ago was ripped off and hurled thirty feet. Mr. Robinson, being a good rider, was not thrown, and he looked around in time to see the number of the machine as it disappeared in the dark. Dr. Mount also got the number of the automobile, and pursued the man for about a mile without overhauling him. Mr. Robinson walked to the city with his horse and his injured leg was bandaged by Dr. Eddy.

There was plenty room for the machine to pass them, and Mr. Robinson thought the driver would certainly slacken speed. But he did not, and the minister, who was directly in the line of the machine, swerved his horse around, the automobile striking a hind leg of the animal as he did so. A shoe which had been put on the animal a few days ago was ripped off and hurled thirty feet. Mr. Robinson, being a good rider, was not thrown, and he looked around in time to see the number of the machine as it disappeared in the dark. Dr. Mount also got the number of the automobile, and pursued the man for about a mile without overhauling him. Mr. Robinson walked to the city with his horse and his injured leg was bandaged by Dr. Eddy.

FIGHT ON SOCIAL EVIL STARTS HERE

Preliminary arrangements were made at the banquet of the Congregational Brotherhood Tuesday evening for the education of the young regarding the social evil. Norman Pease, secretary of the society for the promotion of social hygiene, and H. H. Moore, an organizer of the society, of Portland, spoke. They told of the work that had been accomplished in Portland and other large cities, and recommended a campaign of education here. Among the others who spoke on the subject were C. A. Miller, E. P. Carter, C. H. Dye, I. D. Taylor, Major Noble, William Howell, L. Adams, G. W. H. Miller, J. A. Roake, Deacon Wilkinson, E. T. Avison and F. J. Tooze. It was agreed by the speakers that parents should begin educating their children early in social matters, and that there should be no double standard. It was suggested that fathers should make confidantes of their sons, and mothers confidantes of their daughters.

The banquet was attended by about fifty members, and was one of the most enjoyable of the brotherhood. The Ladies' Aid Society of the church prepared the dinner. President Gary was authorized to name a committee of citizens to formulate plans for a campaign of education along social hygienic lines. Mr. Gary said he would name the committee in a few days.
