ST. JOHN'S CLUB TO HAVE ENTERTAINMENT

The St. John's Young People's Club met at the McLoughlin hall Monday evening, and arrangements were made for the "At Home" to be given next Sunday afternoon, at the McLoughlin hall. The entertainment is to be for the members of the Catholic church and friends of the church, and promises to be a most delightful affair. Thomas Burns, Michael Kojac, Henry Ast, Miss Martina Flanagan, Miss Frances Draper and Dan McMahon were elected members.
After business was transacted the remainder of the evening was devoted to games and music. The following program will be given Sunday afternoon at the "At Home": Solo, Miss Marie Friedrich; solo, Miss Irene Hanny; duet, Miss Marie Sheahan and Miss Zena Moore; violin solo, Frank Busch; duet, Miss Cla Pratt and Joe Sheahan; solo, "Holy City," Everett Downey.

CHARTER COMMISSION MEETS TOMORROW

Mayor Brownell sent out notices Tuesday to the members of the charter commission to meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the council chamber to take the preliminary steps toward revising the charter so as to provide for the commission form of government. The members of the commission are Livy Stupp, R. L. Holman, George A. Harding, H. C. Stevens, William Andresen, F. J. Tooze and C. Schuebel. All residents of the city are invited to attend and give their views. It is planned to revise the charter so as to incorporate the commission form of government and call a special election to vote upon it.

GLADSTONE TO ASK BIDS FOR WATER BONDS

The Gladstone City Council, at a meeting tonight, will make arrangements for advertising for bonds for building the city water works as provided for under the charter recently adopted. The plant is to be built at a cost not to exceed $20,000. Bonds were recently advertised for, but it has been decided to make a change in the proposition. L. C. Kelly, an engineer of Portland and formerly city engineer of Salt Lake City, has drawn plans for the proposed plant.

PHILLIP SINNOTT GETS FINE PLACE

Phillip J. Sinnott came in last night to make Klamath Falls his home and will be connected with the Pioneer Press in the future, taking the place of J. Scott Taylor, who has been news man on this paper since its disposal by him to A. C. Wreen, says the Pioneer Press.
Mr. Sinnott was formerly with the Evening Herald as city editor, where he proved himself a versatile news-gatherer and in which position he made a host of friends in this city. Some weeks ago he left for Oregon City, but he had become so imbued with the Klamath spirit he was not satisfied and determined to return. The Pioneer Press is congratulating itself on adding Mr. Sinnott to its news staff, as he is a live wire beside being one of the cleanest-cut young fellows going.

KENT WILSON HEADS SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore class of the Oregon City high school met in the assembly room Tuesday afternoon and elected the following officers: Kent Wilson, president; Mary Confer, vice-president; Alice Downer, secretary; Joe Hedges, treasurer; Lyle Gaul, sergeant-at-arms; Norma Holman, class editor.
A committee was appointed to arrange for the party to be given in the near future for the new members. This promises to be a most enjoyable affair, and much interest is being manifested in it by the members of the class. The committee is composed of Ineta Dixon, Olive Zimmerman and Ray Norris.

large veranda front on Sixth street. There will be a reception hall twelve by fifteen feet, and from this on the east side will be a wide stairway. At the rear is the dining room, fifteen by nineteen feet, and at the rear of this room is the kitchen, ten by sixteen feet with wood lifts, built-in cupboards and other modern conveniences, and adjoining is the pantry. On the west side of the hallway and fronting Center street is the living room, eighteen by twenty-six feet with fireplace, and at the rear of this room is a sewing room eleven by sixteen feet. There are four bedrooms on the second floor and also a sleeping porch. The bedrooms open from a hallway. Each room will have clothes closets. The room fronting Center street over the living room will have a fireplace. At the rear of the hallway is the bathroom, with genuine tile floors and walls. The sleeping apartments are of large size and airy, the largest of which is fourteen by eighteen feet. There is a full cement basement with stationary washubs. The floors on the first floor will be of hardwood. Mr. Petzold has gone to an expense of having a home that will be attractive to the city and of comfort to him and his family.

The Smallest Shop Best Lighted

Will do more business than a large store poorly lighted. The new MAZDA Economy Diffusers make it possible to flood small business places with electric light at a very small cost. The light from these new lamps is so brilliant and is so perfectly diffused that often only one cluster is needed. The turn-down switch gives just the degree of light desired. You will be interested in the terms we can offer you on these lights. Ask about them.
