FORGERY AND THE REFERENDUM

Oregon has the recall of judges and our good friend William Galloway, judge of the Circuit Court, may feel that he is taking a long chance in deciding the University of Oregon referendum case against the people who initiated the petition for the referendum. Judge Galloway is expected to decide the case against the University and so permit the Supreme Court to pass upon the matter.

The Best Jail System—Pardon an Incentive to Lynch Law. By Governor JOHN E. SHAFROTH of Colorado.

INSTEAD of turning out from our Colorado penitentiary a crowd of men DESPONDENT, PALE, ANAEMIC, WEAK, we turn them out fresh from work that has kept their minds off the crimes they committed and that kept them in the open air and made their muscles strong as iron.

people of Oregon why he resorted to questionable practices in obtaining signatures to the petition. Parkison obtained a wad of money, which he distributed to his hired men.

Grant B. Dimick will receive the congratulatory of his lawyer friends upon his victory over the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company in obtaining the highest verdict ever awarded in an Oregon injury case.

State Game Warden Finley is no doubt a writer of note, and of course he knows all about the habits of birds. He has the further distinction of being one of the two men that Colonel Roosevelt wanted to see on his last visit to Oregon.

THE LIGHTKEEPER'S DAUGHTER.

Captain W. A. Beaman is the keeper of the light at Point Loma, the light southwest in the United States. For twenty-five years he has tended this and other Pacific Coast beacons to mariners, and thousands of tourists to San Diego have visited Point Loma, had the mechanism of the light explained to them, and have gazed out on the broad ocean as Balboa did when he, first of all white men, saw its broad, peaceful expanse.

"Lonesome," she exclaimed. "What the sea and the cliffs, and the roar of the breakers, and the chance of going fishing and not knowing what you'll catch, and the chance to swim and row, and to help keep the light? And then think of the ships coming in, and know that every one making the harbor, or leaving it, or passing out to sea, is looking at the light, and that by officers know that dad is here attending to his duty, and mamma is here and I am here. Why, you can't be lonesome when so many people are thinking of you. And think how important it is!"

EXPLOSIVE MOSQUITOES.

From Tarrytown, N. Y., comes a pleasant tale of mosquitoes which got on gasoline jugs and then exploded to the terror of the inhabitants of Tarrytown, and one James Brady is mentioned as having been badly burned by a fire in his mattress started by a mosquito with its tank full of gasoline, which came too near while Mr. Brady was filling his pipe and exploded. This is about the meanest thing the mosquito has done yet.
