CANAL COMMISSION COMING TOMORROW

Secretary Latourette, of the Commercial Club, Thursday sent invitations to all business men of the city to assist in receiving the State Canal Commission, including Governor West, Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, who will arrive here tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock to inspect the locks and canal and look over the routes proposed for the new canal and locks on the east side. It is expected that the commission will be in the city almost all day, and Secretary of State Olcott has notified President Hedges, of the Commercial Club, that the investigation will be thorough. The commission will be given all the information possible to obtain regarding the proposed canal and locks. The visitors will be the guests of the Commercial Club at luncheon.

GLEE SINGERS TO BE HERE MONDAY NIGHT

There is no doubt that the entertainment to be given by the Royal English Glee Singers and Bell Ringers at the Shively opera house Monday night will be largely attended. These high class artists have been before the public for many years and have always drawn large crowds. Their playing is marvelous, and the entertainment is looked forward to by the music-loving public of Oregon City. The bell ringers were among the greatest attractions at the Chautauqua, and there were only four in that company, while there will be nine in the coming entertainment. There will be four other entertainments of the Britt Lyceum Course, and the season tickets, which cost $1.75 provide the best seats. Single tickets are thirty-five and fifty cents each. School children will be admitted for twenty-five cents.

RAILWAY BONDS ARE READY FOR DELIVERY

The bank in Portland acting as trustee for the Clackamas Southern Railway Company has notified the officers of the company that the bond issue has been printed and is ready for delivery. The bonds are issued in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000, and draw interest at 5 per cent. The earnings power of the Clackamas Southern Railway is assured as the vast resources which the road will have to draw from, is known as the richest and most productive section in Oregon. From the data gathered by the company, it appears that the bond issue of the Clackamas Southern Railway is the lowest of any road in this state, and that has been brought about by building the roadbed and grade by stock subscriptions. The amount derived from the bonds will be used only for rails and equipment for the road. Railroad bonds are always considered the best of security, and that is demonstrated by the fact that there never has been a loss of a cent on railroad bonds in five decades, and the bonds and interest have always been paid in full. The officers of the company will begin to deliver bonds to the purchasers by Saturday.

Louis Sommers, of Boring, was locked up in the county jail Friday on a charge of attacking a man with a butcher knife. The prisoner was brought here by Constable Morgan and turned over to Sheriff Mass. He had been held in $1,000 bail by Justice of the Peace Harger. The man he attacked is said to have been cut on the arm and body. Sommers will be unable to furnish bonds, and will probably remain in jail until his trial.

HAROLD NASH HURT AS BUGGY OVERTURNS

Harold Nash, fifteen years of age, son of C. A. Nash, of Kansas City, has been injured. While driving Monday afternoon the buggy in which he was riding was overturned and two of his ribs, which were fractured several weeks ago, were broken again. The lad had previously sustained fractures of his left ankle and left arm, a broken nose and a lacerated ear. His ribs were broken in the first instance of his falling down the cellar steps at his home. Despite his series of misfortunes the boy is in good health, and is unusually husky for his age.

CHARGE IS DISMISSED

A charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct against Charles Criswell was dismissed Thursday by Recorder Stipp, upon motion of Attorney Stipp. Criswell was arrested in a restaurant. Gilbert H. Hedges, who represented him, said that in case of a conviction he would appeal the case. The defendant had always borne a good reputation, and for this reason Mr. Stipp asked that the charge be dismissed.

TO HOLD POSTAL EXAMINATION

An examination will be held at the Oregon City postoffice, November 18, for a clerk and carrier. Several are expected to try the examination.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS HISTORICAL TALKS

The Woman's Club met at the Commercial Club parlors Thursday afternoon, the hostess being Mrs. Anna M. Downey, who gave a delightful reading. Mrs. J. W. Norris, past president, who recently returned from Roseburg, where she attended the convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, gave an account of the meeting. This was followed by interesting talks by Mrs. M. M. Charman, one of the well known pioneer women of this city, and Miss M. L. Holmes. Their subject was on "Pioneer Days of Oregon." Mrs. Charman's address related to the history of the state from 1792 to 1840, and Miss Holmes' from 1840 to 1859.

ATHLETICS AGAIN WORLD CHAMPIONS

MACKMEN MAKE GIANTS LOOK LIKE BUSH LEAGUERS IN LAST GAME OF SERIES.

BENDER IS MASTER OF SITUATION

McGraw's Stalwarts Go To Pieces and Philadelphians Pile Up Seven Runs in One Inning.

Philadelphia. 00140170—13 13 5 New York. 100000001—2 4 3

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—(Special).—The Philadelphia Athletics are again world's champions. By a score of 13 to 2 the Mackmen today defeated the New York Giants after a game in which the National league leaders were simply slaughtered.

All the craft of Ames, Witse and Marquard failed to stay the fierce batting of the Athletics, while Big Chief Bender, on the American league team, although scored on in the first inning, held the Giants in the hollow of his hand until the last half of the ninth, when they were virtually presented with a run for charity's sake.

In the third inning Lord's double scored Thomas for the first Athletics run. In the fourth, Baker, the trouble-maker, rapped out a single, which started a rally and before it was over four runs had put the game on ice. No score was made in the fifth, but in the sixth the Mackmen added another tally.

Then came the lucky seventh. But it was not lucky for New York. Big Chief Bender held McGraw's men hitless, fanning two of them. Then the fireworks started. Bender flied to Doyle; then Lord singled. Snodgrass, who achieved fame as the prize bonhead of the game, misjudged Oldring's fly and Lord took third. Then came the squeeze play. Merkle crossed. Witse's throw of Collins' grounder and Lord came home. Then Baker singled and Oldring crossed the path. Then Murphy singled and Collins scored. Davis walked off and Baker came home. Then Barry doubled, scoring Murphy.

Ames was yanked and Marquard came in. His first effort was a wild pitch six feet to Meyer's right, and both Davis and Barry romped across the pan. Confused by the procession, Meyers argued with Umpire Connolly that three men were out, and was fired from the game.

Finally Bender fanned and the slaughter was done. There was no score in the eighth. In the ninth Oldring's fumble and a wild pitch put Herzog, who had singled, on third, and he scored on Fletcher's out.

The marvel of the game was the way New York went to pieces in the fourth and the seventh innings. When the big bats of the Athletics began to swing the New Yorkers played bush league ball. They were all over the shop, making wild pitches and ragged plays which were execrable. True class showed itself in the game and there is no longer doubt as to which league boasts the right to the championship of the national game.

STATE WINS POINT IN MONEY FIGHT

MRS. ROBINSON REMOVED AS ADMINISTRATRIX OF MAN MYSTERIOUSLY DEAD.

$633.80 FOUND IN HIS POCKETS

Escheat Proceedings Will Be Instituted By State—Judge Dimick's Ruling Is Upheld By Circuit Court.

Holding that the county judge had no right to set aside the order of his predecessor after the term of court in which it was made Circuit Judge Campbell Thursday reversed the decision of Judge Beatie in granting administration papers to Mrs. Effie B. Robinson, who alleges that she is a daughter and the only heir of an unidentified man who was found dead near Oswego, September 13, 1908.

Mrs. Robinson is seeking $633.80 found in the pockets of the dead man. There being no other claimant now for the money it is expected that the state will institute escheat proceedings for it.

The first hearing was before County Judge Dimick who decided against Mrs. Robinson. This decision was upheld by the circuit judge, but soon after Judge Beatie became county judge the case was reopened and he granted Mrs. Robinson letters of administration. Bernhard Haist also filed a petition alleging that the deceased was his brother Christian Haist. Mrs. Robinson filed an affidavit stating that the body was that of her father F. A. Williamson; that he was sixty-nine years of age, and that she last saw him August 7, 1908, in Oregon City. She said that he informed her that he intended to go across the Willamette river in the direction of Oswego, and to return to his home in Finland, Multnomah county. In the affidavit she said that she positively identified a pipe found on the body as one owned by her father.

Haist alleged that Mrs. Robinson's letters of administration had been obtained by fraud in order to obtain the money. H. Stacy Core, in a deposition, said he was the step-father of Mrs. Robinson. He declared that he had never heard of F. A. Williamson. Cynthia E. Lowery, a sister of Mrs. Robinson's mother, deposed that the young woman's father was Timothy Ashvory Moore. Meanwhile the action of Haist was dropped, and Judge Dimick revoked the letters of administration to Mrs. Robinson.

A coroner's jury decided that the unidentified man's death was a natural one. Judge Dimick served as county judge four and one-half years, and this was the nearest any of his decisions came to being reversed.

EDWARDS SUGGESTED FOR LOCAL PULPIT

Rev. George N. Edwards, of Douglas, Alaska, has reached Seattle on his way to Oregon City where he will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening. Those who know him predict that Mr. Edwards will be called to the Oregon City church. Considerable curiosity has been aroused on account of the flattering reports that have come from many sources. Rev. Edwards is leaving Alaska on account of his wife who dreads the long, cold snow winters at Douglas, where he has been eminently successful.

HARDING HEADS CHARTER BOARD

STIPP SECRETARY OF COMMITTEE TO PROVIDE COMMISSION GOVERNMENT.

PUBLIC URGED TO ATTEND MEETINGS

Charters Of Various Cities That Have Adopted New System Will Be Used As Basis Of Work.

The committee named by the Mayor and City Council to revise the charter so as to provide for the commission form of government, met Thursday evening in the council chamber and organized. George A. Harding and Lly Stipp were elected chairman and secretary respectively by a unanimous vote. Mayor Brownell, to whom credit is due for the appointment of the committee, called the meeting to order.

It was the opinion of all the members that the public be invited to attend the meetings and offer suggestions. A motion to this effect was adopted. Those in attendance were George A. Harding, Lly Stipp, R. L. Holman, F. J. Tooze, C. Schuebel and William Andrusen. H. C. Stevens was the only absentee.

A motion made by Mr. Schuebel that the secretary obtain copies of the charters of Spokane, Tacoma, Eugene, Salem and other cities for use by the committee was adopted. Mr. Tooze said much time could be saved by having these charters, and he also suggested that it would not be necessary to make many changes in the present charter. At the suggestion of Messrs. Andrusen and Tooze it was decided to have as a basis for discussion at the next meeting the legislative and administrative features of the proposed charter. Secretary Stipp promised to obtain copies of charters of a many cities as possible that have the commission form of government for use at the next meeting.

AGED MAN STRUCK BY CAR; WILL RECOVER

While on his way to visit a relative in this city John N. Johnson, a resident of Umatilla county, and was seventy-five years old, was struck by an Oregon City car near Gladstone, Thursday morning. The car crew saw that Johnson was staggering across the railway bridge toward the car, and as the car neared him he suddenly stepped in front of it. At the Seelwood hospital, to which Johnson was taken by the car crew after the accident, it was reported that Johnson attempted to board the car, but the car was started before he was safely aboard, and he was thrown under the left eye.
