LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

THE COMEDY DRAMA, "ALIAS JIMMY VALENTINE" AT HEILIG THEATRE.

Liebler & Company present H. B. Warner in the comedy drama, "Alias Jimmy Valentine" at the Heilig Theatre, Seventh and Taylor streets, for four nights, beginning Sunday, November 12, with a special price matinee Wednesday.

The most talked about dramatic production that the United States has had in years starts at the Heilig Theatre, Seventh and Taylor streets, for four nights and a Wednesday matinee performance, Sunday evening, November 12. The attraction is H. B. Warner in "Alias Jimmy Valentine" under the direction of Liebler & Company. The production is noteworthy from every viewpoint. Mr. Warner and the play enjoyed a two years' run in New York, eight months in Chicago, played two weeks in San Francisco to almost $40,000, and gave the only performance ever permitted within the walls of San Quentin, and the only one ever allowed in any state's prison in the country.

It is not once in a dozen years that Portland is fortunate enough to get an original New York production in its entirety, with the star and supporting cast which first made it famous. Yet Liebler & Company are doing this precisely with Mr. Warner and "Alias Jimmy Valentine." It is the most splendid all-round organization which this firm of managers have yet sent west of Chicago. And he it remembered that Portland is indebted to Liebler & Company for such superb dramatic offerings as Gertrude Elliott in "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," Dustin Farnum in "The Squaw Man" and "Camo Kirby," Walker Whiteside, Margaret Anglin, Olga Nethersole, Mrs. Pat Campbell, and a dozen other notable stars and dramas.

"Alias Jimmy Valentine" is a dramatization by Paul Armstrong of O. Henry's famous short story—"A Retrieved Reformation." It is a huge, big human story of a crook who reforms through the love of a good girl. Armstrong's other story of the shady side of life—"The Un-derworld"—was recently seen here at the Orpheum. His "Deep Purple" comes later in the season. Seats for Mr. Warner and "Alias Jimmy Valentine" will go on sale Friday morning, November 10, at the Heilig, and from every indication, the attendance will be enormous.

AT BAKER THEATRE.

Starting Sunday matinee, November 12, "The Third Degree," Charles Klein's famous play of police methods, will be given at this theatre. "The Third Degree" process of extorting confessions dates back to long before the Christian era. Was practiced during the Caesar regime. It was instituted in Spain by Ferdinand and Isabella when Columbus was promoting his first voyage, and since then has been used by the police departments of every large city in the world. This attack by Charles Klein is the first blow ever struck at the process and the recent ruling of the Supreme Court of the United States fully demonstrates the coviding power of the remarkable drama, "The Third Degree." Since this play was launched a little over a year ago, sweating and abusing of prisoners has been restricted in several states. Chief of Police Kohler, of Cleveland, after witnessing a performance at the Euclid Avenue Theatre in that city, announced that no more prisoners would be questioned until counsel had been appointed. "The Third Degree" with a strong company, including Franklyn Gale Minnie Radcliffe, Charles Burnham, Neil Barrett, Harry Foreman, Kenneth Stuart, Wesley Todd and others, will be the attraction at the Baker all this week, starting with the usual matinee Sunday, and as this is the first time it has ever been seen here at popular prices, should prove one of the season's greatest successes. Seats are now selling.

MISS GLADYS CADWELL

With Sheehan Opera Company at Heilig Theatre, Nov. 16, 17 and 18. Joseph F. Sheehan (America's greatest tenor) and his splendid supporting company, will present "The Tales of Hoffmann," at the Heilig Theatre, Seventh and Taylor street, Thursday, Friday nights, November 16 and 17 and at special price matinee Saturday, Nov. 18. Saturday night, Verdi's masterpiece, "Il Trovatore," will be the bill.

"THE LOVE TALES OF HOFFMANN" Joseph F. Sheehan at the head of the Sheehan English Grand Opera Company comprising many of the foremost artists in the English singing operatic stage will be heard at the Heilig Theatre for four performances, beginning Thursday evening, November 16, in the world's famous opera comique, "The Love Tales of Hoffmann." Not only in New York and Chicago and other cities in this country, but in London, Paris, Berlin, and other music centres in Europe this delightful composition is the reigning sensation. "The Love Tales of Hoffmann" is entirely different from any other

OREGON DAIRYMEN TO MEET IN PORTLAND

Cheesemakers and dairymen of Oregon are preparing for a big gathering in Portland on the occasion of the annual joint convention of the Oregon Butter and Cheesemakers' Association and the Oregon Dairymen's Association, which will be held December 5 to 8.

A list of the premiums being offered for exhibits of creamery butter, dairy butter and American cheese has been printed and issued. The principal prizes, most of which are offered by manufacturing and business concerns, are the following:
Sweepstakes—$250 silver cup, to remain in possession of Oregon Butter and Cheese Makers' Association until won three times by individual maker; $100 silver cup, to remain in possession of Oregon Butter and Cheese Makers' Association until won twice by individual maker. Name of each winner to be engraved upon cup; $25 silver cup, to be awarded to the competitor making highest average score in three consecutive contests.
Highest Scoring Creamery Butter—$50 gold watch; second highest scoring creamery butter, $25 silver cup; third highest scoring creamery butter, parlor clock.

Special—To the six highest scoring entries of creamery butter by butter makers in attendance at the convention there will be awarded cream separators offered as follows:
No. 12 De Laval separator 500-pound separator, 400 pound International separator, No. 3 Sharples Tubular separator, No. 17 U. S. separator.
Highest scoring dairy butter (not less than 4 pounds in plain wrappers)—Registered Jersey bull calf, valued at $100.
Second highest scoring dairy butter—500 pound Reid cream separator, value $80.
Third highest scoring dairy butter—30 pound milk scale, value $4.50.
Fourth highest scoring dairy butter—Choice of two bottle Babcock tester or Champion, Jr., cream cooler, value $4.
Best average score—$20 in gold; second best average score, $10 in gold.

Early Marriage in China.
It is nothing rare in China for boys twelve to fourteen years old to marry. The physical, moral and intellectual development of the contracting parties has nothing to do with the matter. Other considerations entirely regulate the affair. An old Chinese aphorism says that the great business of life is ended when the sons and daughters are married. The Chinese parents do not care to run the danger of postponing the marriage of their children, especially of their sons, until after their own death.
