POLITICS IN OREGON.

Hardly a period of three days passes that The Enterprise does not receive by mail a batch of literature from the National Progressive Republican League, of which Senator J. Bourne, Jr., is president. Mr. Bourne has appointed his private secretary, A. W. Prescott, long correspondent for the Portland Oregonian at Salem, secretary of the League, and Mr. Prescott, who wields a facile pen, has issued tons of "dope" for the newspapers to print without digestion. All reading Republicans know that Ralph E. Williams, member of the National Committee for Oregon, does not like Mr. Bourne. His feeling for Oregon's Senator is reciprocated, no doubt. Mr. Williams is a Taft supporter. Mr. Bourne is for LaFollette, or any other anti-Taft candidate. Of course, Mr. Williams, like thousands of other Oregon Republicans who never voted the Populist ticket, doesn't want Bourne to go back to Washington for another term of six years as United States Senator from Oregon. And it is a dead certainty that Mr. Bourne knows this. He is not the man to stand on one foot and let another man poke holes in his armour, and he sends out this kind of political "dope" to the Oregon newspapers: Mr. Williams as member of the National Committee from Oregon, is a servant of the party and not its master. It is his duty to carry out the wishes of the members of the party so far as he can ascertain them. I believe that an overwhelming majority of Oregon republicans believe in the Oregon system and earnestly desire its extension to other states. Therefore, I respectfully suggest that Republicans throughout the state write Mr. Williams, expressing their desire that as a member of the National Committee he urge the adoption of the Oregon plan of presidential preference vote in all states where possible.

We would suggest that if Mr. Williams can take care of his own family political troubles in Oregon, he had better let the other states shift for themselves. It may be that Mr. Bourne has already placed Oregon in the LaFollette column, and believes that it is useless for Mr. Williams to put forth further efforts in a state where the Taft motion has been cut and found to be rotten.

The Enterprise doesn't know whether Taft will have the Oregon delegation in the Republican National Convention, or not. It does know that Taft will be the Republican candidate for President and it hazards the opinion that the Southern and Eastern Democrats will nominate Harmon, and that the Woodrow Wilson sentiment will blow away after a time.

Mark Sullivan, a political writer for Collier's Weekly, is a far-seeing gentleman who gets his Oregon views from Mr. Bourne's bureau. Sullivan comes from New York and is well informed. He predicts that all five of them (the states of North Dakota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Oregon, and New Jersey) will name Wilson as the Democrat, and that all except New Jersey will name LaFollette as the Republican.

It is easy to forecast! The weather man is always at it, and see what a mess he makes of it.

Champ Clark has discovered the secret of perpetual motion in the matter of handing out interviews.

The doctors have ordered President Taft to stop eating pie, but no one expects this ban to apply to those made by Aunt Della.

Abe Martin says: "The worst sudden adversity is getting married on a salary."

Dr. Woods Hutchinson says mince pie is a polysaccharid carbohydrate, of highly caloric efficient. He might have been a little considerate and held off until after Thanksgiving at least.

Champ Clark would rather say funny things than be President.

Judge Gary says the Steel Trust has always obeyed the law. He is at the head of it and ought to know.

Some people are not satisfied even after you agree with them.

The Chinese don't know much about the workings of a republic but they are willing to take chances with one.

After witnessing the naval review in New York the dove of peace felt that it has a good ally in the American navy.

Florida, Our Newest and Biggest Warship, Seen From 150 Feet Above

SOMETHING like $190,000,000 worth of warships was exhibited to a few hundred thousands of the millions of people who paid for them while the 100 vessels of the largest fleet America ever saw lay at anchor in New York harbor. It may interest the statistically inclined, by the way, to know that the sum just mentioned is approximately the same as New York City's budget estimate for the year 1912. All the types of modern naval construction were to be seen in the line which stretched seven miles up the Hudson, from the little submarines, like the Plunger, to the giant Dreadnoughts, the sister battleships Florida and Utah, with their displacement of 21,825 tons. The Florida is the newest ship in the navy and, with the Utah, the largest. She made her first public appearance at the time of the New York muster of sea fighters, having been towed by a fleet of tugs from the Brooklyn navy yard to her station in the North river. The photograph shows her on her way down the East river to the rendezvous.

HIGH GRADE SPUDS WANTED IN SOUTH

Jobbers report a fair demand for quality potatoes for shipment to the Southern markets, but for other than fancy stock the market outlook was declared to be anything but favorable, for the immediate future at least. Oregon potatoes now going to California have to sell in competition with the best produced in that state, and if the views of dealers are correct the proportion of high-grade stock in the Oregon crop this year is relatively small.

The output of strictly fancy potatoes in this state this year will probably be just about equal to that of 1910, said a buyer. "On the other hand, the state has a crop of second and third-grade spuds a good deal bigger than that of last year, and this inferior stuff is the weak factor in the market at this time."

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:

Fruits, Vegetables. DRIED FRUITS—(Buying)—Prunes on basis of 6 1-4 pounds for 45¢. HIDES—(Buying)—Green hides, 5¢ to 6¢; salted, 5¢ to 6¢; dry hides, 12¢ to 14¢; sheep pelts, 25¢ to 75¢ each. OATS—(Buying)—Gray, $25 to $27; wheat, $22 to $23; oil meal, $53; Shady Brook dairy feed, $1.25 per 100 pounds. FEED—Shorts, $27 to $28; rolled barley, $37.50; process barley, $38.50; whole corn, $37; cracked corn, $38; white, $26 to $27; bran $27 to $28. Butter, Poultry, Eggs. BE A GENTLEMAN.

What is it to be a gentleman? It is to have lofty aims, to lead a pure life, to keep your honor virgin, to have the esteem of your fellow citizens and the love of your friends, to bear good fortune meekly, to suffer evil with constancy and, through evil and good, to maintain truth always. Show me the happy man whose life exhibits these qualities, and him we will salute as gentleman, whatever his rank may be. —Thackeray.

MINISTER SCORES DRINKING HABIT

The effect on dogs was quite similar only more pronounced. Four pups were experimented on. "Bum" and "Topsy" were given regular rations of alcohol while "Nig" and "Topsy" were brought up to be total abstainers. When the age for training these pups came, they were all taken to the trainer. "Bum" and "Topsy" absolutely failed to respond to the trainer. Their retrieving faculties were destroyed and their affection for their master was dead and the trainers found it impossible to produce such affection. One day "Bum" and "Topsy" were seen out in the streets howling like wolves. They were apparently going backward in a process of degeneration.

VIOLENT STORM IN MIDDLE WEST LEAVES BEHIND DEATH AND MISERY.

PROPERTY DAMAGE IS $1,500,000

Twelve Parish in Tornado in Wisconsin, Three Die in Chicago, And Hospitals Are Filled.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—A score of persons are dead and great suffering prevails among the poor as the result of a violent storm which has been sweeping the Middle West for the past two days, leaving a trail of devastation in its wake. The property damage already totals $1,500,000. The weather is bitterly cold.

Revised reports received here indicate that twelve lives were lost in Wisconsin just across the Illinois border, the fatalities resulting from a tornado. The storm cut a swath half a mile wide over a section twenty miles in length and was followed by a deluge of rain. Today zero weather gripped the devastated territory. Communication has not yet been restored, and the reports are meager.

John Dudley of Grand Forks, N. D., and Joseph Ruppe of Rush City, Minn., were found frozen to death near their homes. Ruppe perished in trying to swim ashore after the high wind had swamped his hunting boat.

The storm is the worst in the history of the Great Lakes region for years. Half a score of lake vessels were beached by the violence of the tempest and several large ships were driven entirely across Lake Michigan. The government life savers were forced to keep a thirty-six hour vigil.

Three persons perished in Chicago as a result of the intense cold, and the hospitals are filled with other victims. The known dead are William Johnson, Theodore Linson and Harry Green. The county authorities here are distributing coal and household supplies to the needy.

Reports from Virginia, Ill., are that $200,000 damage was done by a tornado which swept that section Saturday night, and that several hundred persons are homeless.

The indications are that as a result of the sudden cold, lake shipping will be tied up for weeks. Along the Canadian border wheat traffic is congested. The elevators are jammed with grain and the railroads are unable to handle it rapidly enough.

How She Spelled Alice.

When Alice Jones was eighteen she became Miss E. Alyse Jones. When she went to enter a normal school she was asked her name by the dean.

She replied: "Miss E. Alyse Jones—A-l-y-s-e-s-e."

"Yes," said the dean "And how are you spelling 'Jones' now?"—Ladies Home Journal.

Remember the Finish.

The professor of elocution was instructing an ambitious young man in the art of public speaking.

"When you have finished your lecture," he said, "bow gracefully and leave the platform on tiptoe."

"Why on tiptoe?" queried the ambitious young man.

"So as not to wake the audience," replied the professor.—Red Hen.

eration. It took about ten thousand years for the wolf to become thoroughly domesticated and grow into the intelligent St. Bernard. But apparently only a short time was required through the effects of alcohol to send them back to the wolf stage. "Nig" and "Topsy," however, responded beautifully to the trainer and being free from the effects of alcohol on their bodies, had full retrieving power and their faculties for affection and obedience for their master were remarkable. If alcohol thus affects the growth of cats and dogs, is it not much more palpable that the human victim of alcohol, is similarly affected. The experiments of this committee upon a semi-savage nation of men, proved that by giving a ration of alcohol to them, the man had to be dropped and they were reduced to savagery. The Christian church in its effort to moralize and bring them into a state of manhood and civilization and character, has to contend with this manna Pharaoh. What can we do for a man who clings to his Master? Absolutely nothing can be done for him until he is willing to break away from his evil associates and join the people of faith and under the leadership of Jesus Christ and in the human victim of alcohol, is similarly affected. Christian Civilization In Danger Should General Labor Strike Occur

By W. BOURKE COCKRAN, Former Representative In Congress

THE possibility of a general strike in this country is the overwhelming CAPITAL question of this generation, involving not merely the prosperity of a country or the security of a government, but the existence of CHRISTIAN CIVILIZATION.

I do not apprehend any such catastrophe. I do not fear that intelligent laborers will destroy the SOURCES OF THEIR OWN LIVELIHOOD. Civilized men realize, I am confident, that even the worst conditions which survive under Christian civilization are a VAST IMPROVEMENT on the conditions they have displaced. It remains true none the less that throughout Christendom, especially in those countries where Christian civilization has culminated in the establishment of free institutions, UNREST IS DEEP and DISSENT IS GENERAL among workers. This revolt—for
