FORSEERG HOME ON WATER NEAR SIXTH OBTAINED BY LODGE FOR $4,000.

MAIN STREET PROPERTY COSTLY

Plan is To Build Magnificent Home In Year or Two-Many Other Sites Were Investigated.

With the intention of erecting a magnificent clubbouse within a year or two, the Oregon City Lodge of Elks has purchased a lot on Water street, near Sixth Street from Mrs. Oscar Forsberg, the price being $4,000. Although the location is a desirable one many members of the lodge favored purchasing a site on Main street.

A committee composed of J. E. Hedges, B. T. McBain, W. A. Huntley, Dr. M. C. Strickland, W. H. Howell and John F. Risley and Mrs. Forsberg reached an agreement Tuesday evening. The Elks have been looking for a site for a home for about a year and have negotiated for several. The majority of the members wanted the building on Main street, but the committee decided that the price of real estate on that thoroughfare was too high. The Hawley property at Eleventh and Main streets was virtually purchased about five months ago, but owing to a defect in the deed, the deal fell through. The committee elso negotiated with Mrs. Lena Charman, Mrs. M. M. Charman and the Logus estate for a Main street site.

This seems to have been a large church, numerically, probably about a million and a half who had arrived at the age of accountability beside the smaller children; but, what were they out for? Why did Jehovah, through Moses, organize them and give them set of laws for their government? Was it to get them out of bondage! If so they did not seem to appreciate it for they oftimes longed for, and spoke of returning to "the flesh spots of Egypt."

There was a great deal of formality about this church in the wilderness; and it took a lot of money to keep it going; a tenth of all the increas of a nation of 3,000,000 people; surely God had some great design in instituting so costly an organization; for organized as any religious or corpor But what was its mission?
