EAGLE CREEK.

Walter Douglas made a brief business visit to Eastern Oregon last week. Murray and Carl Clark were agreeably surprised Thursday night when a crowd of their friends and neighbors walked up to the door, giving a yell, thereby apprising them of their presence. About 48 were present and spent a pleasant evening playing games and enjoying a social time together. Shortly after 11 o'clock a fine supper was partaken of and soon after all returned home, tired but happy, and longing for another party to attend in the near future.

E. L. Palfrey, of Molalla, was in the neighborhood recently. Mr. and Mrs. Frash moved into their new house on the Carter place Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Douglas was a Portland visitor the latter part of last week. Miss Anna Duncan made her folks a short visit Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie and daughter, Nettie, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie Sunday. Dick Gibson was a Barton visitor Saturday.

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular meeting Saturday. After the usual routine of business a fine chicken dinner was served.

J. D. Whitwood was a Grange visitor Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howlett took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy and children, Miss Armada and Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie and Baby Leslie spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas.

George Kitzmiller and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie Sunday evening. George tied his team to the fence but when they went out to return home, no horses or vehicle was visible, they having broken loose and tearing the fence partly down, had gone up the road a short distance where they were found quietly feeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim DeShazer called on Mrs. DeShazer's mother, Mrs. Viola Douglas Sunday afternoon. F. W. Bates was seen over this way last Friday.

ESTACADA.

Several apple orchards are being planted at Garfield this fall. Wm. Wilcox, a pioneer of this section, is ill at his home.

G. T. Hunt, road supervisor of District No. 49, is opening the Honebon stream, lodging near the Clackamas River.

Mrs. Dan Griffin, who recently moved to Gladstone from Bonneville, is receiving medical treatment, is improving, and is able to walk about the room without the aid of her crutches. Mrs. Griffin has been an invalid for the past two years, and underwent two surgical operations of the spine. One was recently performed by Dr. C. A. Stuart.

The evening was devoted to guessing contests, games and music. In the doll dressing contest Mrs. L. G. Ice was awarded the first prize, and Miss Alice Sinnott the consolation prize. A luncheon was served. The decorations were very attractive, being of bright colored berries and ferns.

Those attending were Miss Hanifin, Miss Margaret Hanifin, Miss Kathryn Sinnott, Miss Alice Sinnott, Miss Stella Sullivan, Miss Zida Goldsmith, Mrs. L. G. Ice, Miss Lolla Lowry, Mrs. Walter Wentworth, and Mrs. Samuel Stevens.

SLANDER SUIT TRIED BEFORE 4 JURORS

A verdict for the defendant was rendered in the slander suit of George A. Clarke against his mother-in-law, Mrs. Augusta Haberlah in Judge Campbell's Court Wednesday. The plaintiff alleged that Mrs. Haberlah said in Oregon City, April 22, 1911, said to him: "You are a thief. You make your living by stealing property of other people, and I will get you in jail yet." He said the accusation was made in the presence of several persons and his reputation had been damaged in the sum of $5,000 for which amount he sued. A novel feature of the trial was that only four jurors heard the evidence and rendered the verdict.

FRETTING.

Too many persons permit themselves to fret over trifles. The habit of fretting is one that grows rapidly unless it is sternly repressed, and the best way to overcome it is to try always to look on the cheerful side of life.
