

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID CHRISTIAN HORNSCHUCH

The funeral of the late Christian Hornschuch, who died suddenly at his home on Seventh and Monroe streets Saturday morning, was held at the Evangelical church, Eighth and Madison streets, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Wiestek, pastor, delivering a sermon in German, and Rev. Shucknecht, of Portland, delivering a sermon in English. The church was crowded to its capacity with relatives and friends of the deceased. Mr. Hornschuch had been a resident of Clackamas county for thirty-three years. The pallbearers, who are sons of the deceased, were E. G. Hornschuch, of Bellingham; Otto Hornschuch, of Seattle; Lawrence Hornschuch, of San Francisco; Emil Hornschuch, of Seattle; Theodore Hornschuch, of Tacoma; and Albert Hornschuch, of Portland. The interment was in the Mountain View cemetery. This is the first time in Oregon City that automobiles have been brought into use at a funeral, and there were ten in line. Many friends attended the services at the grave. The floral offerings were in profusion and were beautiful.

This is the first death that has occurred in Mr. and Mrs. Hornschuch's family, although there are ten children. They are as follows: Emil Hornschuch, of Seattle; Theodore, of Tacoma; and Albert Hornschuch, of Portland. The interment was in the Mountain View cemetery. This is the first time in Oregon City that automobiles have been brought into use at a funeral, and there were ten in line. Many friends attended the services at the grave. The floral offerings were in profusion and were beautiful.

A quartet composed of Mrs. W. C. Green, Mrs. E. H. Cooper, Mrs. Leon DeLarosa, and Mrs. E. C. Cooper rendered impressively several selections, among them being "Shall We Gather at the River," and "Saved By Grace."

"When I Shall Be No More" was rendered in German by the congregation.

POOR CHILDREN TO HAVE MERRY XMAS

An enthusiastic meeting was held at St. Paul's church Tuesday evening, the object of which was to provide a Christmas gift for every poor child in Oregon City. At a meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in St. Paul's church a few weeks ago, it was proposed by P. T. Barlow that this good work be done. The aid of the men and women of the parish was solicited and their hearty co-operation was offered.

What the Brotherhood desires to convey to the public is this:

If anyone knows of a poor child and will notify William Hammond, of Cross & Hammond that child will be sent a Christmas gift. And also any one who desires to help give a happy Christmas to a poor child is asked to send to Mr. Hammond or any one of the undersigned committee, money, gifts or orders. The matter is entirely confidential, the only aim being to make the poor children of Oregon City happy. Information as to details may be had from T. P. Randall, postoffice; Mrs. J. J. Tobin, Electric Hotel; T. R. Humphreys, Oregon City Bank; and Mrs. F. Barlow, 611 Main street.

The city has been divided into districts and those who know of any deserving poor children should notify the following:

Bolton—Mrs. Hettman.
West Side—Mrs. Norman Lang.
Miss Marion Lewthwaite.
Canemah—Mrs. R. C. Ganong.
Mt. Pleasant—Mrs. A. C. Warner.
Mt. View—Miss Holmes, Mr. Stafford.

Kansas City—Mrs. Harry Payne.
Park Place—Mr. H. H. Hedges.
Green Point—Mrs. V. Harris.
Seventh to Fourteenth streets—Mrs. George Harding, Mrs. Augusta Warner.

First to Seventh streets—Mrs. J. J. Tobin.
Center Street District—Mrs. Rosina Fouts, Miss Edith Dawson.
Seventh street to Kansas City—Mrs. Goodfellow, Mrs. Chapman.
Barclay School District—Mrs. T. R. Humphreys.

St. Paul's Brotherhood hopes by this means to make every little child's heart which otherwise would be sad, happy at this Christmastide. Please send contributions to any of the committee or to Mr. William Hammond, treasurer, care of Cross & Hammond, Oregon City.

A Bear That Failed.
There is a playful apologue by Wendell Holmes about a great experiment on a universal scale. He describes mankind as arranging to combine on a certain New Year's eve to raise a shout in unison, to see if it would reach to Mars. It didn't, for the simple reason that when the crisis arrived there was no cry at all; everybody was too busy listening.

NATTY NOTIONS.

For Much Used on Evening Wraps This Season.

The natural Australian opossum is being featured in the huge revers and cuffs of some of the new evening wraps. It tones in well with velvet in a gray model and is an effective contrast with the delicate coloring in one of violet velvet.

A VERY NEW SKIRT.

Girls who are fond of making their own lingerie are cutting nightgowns over French kimono patterns and embroidering the neck and edges of the sleeves in plain scallops. Sometimes these scallops are done in delicate colors, and ribbons to match are run through the embroidered eyelets around the neck. The gowns are cut from the softest nainsook or long cloth and are beautiful because of their absolute simplicity.

The skirt that is lapped over a panel is one of the newest of the season. Here is a model that will be heartily welcomed, for it may be carried out with or without an inverted seam.

Braid Trims Many of the Handsomest Gowns.

Value of Good Kickers Clearly Shown This Year

By TOMMY CLARK.

THE absolute necessity of having a consistently good punter imposed upon the modern football eleven by the revised code was never made more strikingly apparent than when in a recent game one eleven, hopelessly outclassed by a heavier, faster and better drilled opponent, escaped complete annihilation.

THREE KICKERS OF ABILITY.

by kicking almost immediately whenever it was fortunate enough to secure the ball.

The Value of a Kicker.

In approximately forty minutes of play the team in question tried only three times to advance the ball rushing. The net gain was less than a yard. The opposition on the other hand found it comparatively easy to make first downs. On the attack it cut and tore through the weaker team's line or around its flanks almost as readily as it staved off the other's puny attempts at offensive play.

Under the old rules the score would probably have run up into the sixties or seventies, yet the game was not an uninteresting one to the spectators, simply because there was one department in which the two contesting teams were of almost, if not quite, equal strength. The loser's punts averaged almost as long as the winner's, and his ends, though not a star pair by any manner of means, were yet fast enough and knew enough about tackling to prevent long runbacks.

Brilliant Plays to Come.

The really good teams, with the burden of having to play for a championship this month upon them, have not shown their best form yet. There are flashes, brilliant enough at times, of real form, but it will be in the big games that the real stuff will be shown. Then, unless everything, including the granddaddy, goes astray, there will be the prettiest duels between kickers and ends, on one side and backs on the other, that it has ever been the good fortune of the football rooster to witness.

The very rules make for such encounters. Perhaps the kicking side has an advantage, but it is of a sort that is bound to make the play all the more spectacular. There may be fewer of the sensational forty and fifty yard runs through broken fields, but the change will of itself create a faster, shifter class of backs, which in turn will necessitate an increasingly open game.

Harder to Block Kicker.

Given two opposing lines of practically equal strength, it will be almost impossible to block kicks. Since the three inside men are now permitted to lock legs, one set of forwards must be immensely superior to the other to get through in time to "gum up" a kicking play. Add two good tackles and the chances of interfering with a punt are not one-tenth as good as they were in the old days.

Even after the ball is kicked the advantage is with the kicker. Unless the leather strikes the ground within the neutral zone a player on the kicking side may not be legitimately interfered with until he has gone twenty yards beyond the line of scrimmage. This rule in itself makes clean handling of kicked balls imperative, with the loss of it as the most probable alternative.

Good Kickers Numerous.

Every one of the eastern teams has two or more reliable toe artists. Penn sylvania has four handy men in Mar shall, Minds, Thayer and Captain Mercer. Princeton has Pendleton, Andrews and Penfield. Harvard is well supplied with Potter, Felton and Wigginsworth. The latter was injured in the game with Holy Cross recently and will not be able to play until the real big game with Yale at New Haven.

Yale has Anderson, the former Wisconsin halfback; Francis and Captain Howe. The latter has developed into one of the greatest kickers in the country this season.

The Army is well fixed with Arnold, Dean and Hyatt, while the Annapolis men have a dandy in Dalton, in Thorpe Coach Warner of the Carlisle Indians has a noted boot man.

Cornell seems to have the best of them all in "Little Eddie" Butler, the Red and White quarterback. Butler's educated toe has won several games for the Ithaca team this season.

Nearly all the western conference teams have men of more or less ability in the kicking line this season. Captain Andy Gill of Indiana is probably the best in the west, his work being not only of the long distance variety, but extremely accurate. Minnesota has a man of great ability in Capron, who is said to be better than Johnny McGovern in the drop kicking line and far his superior in punts.

Illinois has Seiler, who won three games for his team last year merely through his ability to kick goals and who was hailed as one of the stars of the west on this account, although his work in other departments of the game was no better than ordinary.

In Keckie Moll Wisconsin has a noted kicker. During practice his work is accurate and his punts very long.

Chicago has not a man of ability, and Coach Stagg has been working night and day trying to find a player who will be able to cope with the stars of his four great western adversaries.

Michigan has three reliable men in Captain Conklin, Harrington and Thompson. Coach "Hurry Up" Yost thinks he has one of the finds of the season in Harrington.
