

Ladies Tip Your husband, father, brother, or sweetheart off the big Special Bargains in men's suits and overcoats to be had at the store of J. Levitt. By buying here will leave them more money to spend on you for other holiday gifts. "A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT." Are you next, if so see that they investigate our big Xmas Sales. J. LEVITT Ask for Premium Tickets.

Nielsen & Lindberg HIGH CLASS TAILORING 308 Seeling Bldg., Portland. Phone Main 5151.

meeting held at the Commercial Club rooms. Mrs. Van Hoy, of Eugene, has arrived in Oregon City and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Eastham. Mrs. Van Hoy is a sister of Mr. Eastham. Nobel has plenty of good cheese in stock. Cream, Swiss and Lindburger. Any quantity, 713 Main street. Thomas Grace, of Clarksville, was in this city Wednesday. He was accompanied home by U. B. Grace, of Denver, Col., who will visit in Oregon for several weeks. Mrs. C. C. Williams and daughter, Miss Elsie Williams, have gone to North Yakima, Wash., where they will remain for the winter with the former's son, Wallace B. Williams. James W. Smith, of Mackaburg, president of the Clackamas County Fair Association, was in this city on business Wednesday, and while here attended the road meeting held at the Commercial Club parlors. Mrs. Lillie Wink, who has been in this city for the past six weeks at the home of Mrs. G. W. Grace, will leave for her home at New Era Sunday. Mrs. Wink is improving rapidly from her recent surgical operation. Charles Babcock, of Portland, who has been very ill with typhoid fever at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Babcock, of Thirteenth and Washington streets, is improving rapidly, and is now able to be up. He will probably leave for his home in Portland the latter part of the week.

ENGLISH VETERAN OF TWO WARS TO LECTURE

E. D. Sexton, a veteran of the Indian and Afghanistan campaigns under Lord Roberts, will lecture in Willamette Hall, tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Sexton, a speaker of striking personality and exceptional ability, is touring America under the auspices of the International Bible Students Association. This lecture is entirely free, the speaker refusing to even allow a collection to be taken at any of his appointments. The Christian people of Oregon City are promised a rare treat in this free lecture.

Stories from Out of Town

JENNINGS LODGE. The East Side Capital Highway Association organized for the purpose of obtaining better roads in Clackamas County and more particularly a main trunk road, or highway between Portland and Salem, met with the Jennings Lodge Community at the school house at this place on Tuesday evening. Judge Dimick spoke and those attending obtained a better understanding of the proposed highway. Mrs. DeForest had the misfortune to leave her handbag containing a sum of money and also a diamond ring on the 12 o'clock car bound for Oregon City on Monday. It has not been found at this writing. The box social and spelling match held on Friday evening was quite a success. The spelling match between the Circle and Community Club was the first on the evening's program. Mrs. Alice Panton spelling the largest number of words correctly on the Circle side. While Mr. Conway remained on the floor the longest of the Community Club. In the general spelling contest Mr. Card spelled fifty down that took part. Proceeds from boxes amounted to twenty-five dollars. Mrs. Geo. A. Shaver is visiting friends at Molalla. Mr. Van Hay has purchased an acre of land on county road and is proceeding to improve it. Frank Davy, who returned here recently from North Plains has purchased acreage on the County Road near Meldrum and is making preparations to build an up to date house with all modern conveniences. Ira Hart and J. S. Roberts spent Saturday in Portland. E. M. Horne of Kenton was a Lodge visitor on Monday. Little Ruth Travers was confined to her home last week with illness. Mrs. Emily Shaw, supervisor of this district, made her third monthly visit to our school on Monday. The new fixtures have arrived for the room recently completed at the school house. New blackboards were placed in the new school room which is now in use. Miss Broute Jennings, a former teacher of this place, has been hired by the board to teach the primary grades as soon as the room is ready. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Jennings attended the Willamette Club Dance in Oregon City on Wednesday evening of last week. County Superintendent Gary attended the Lodge school Thursday. Mrs. T. J. Spooner and sons have taken apartments in Portland for the winter. Roy Stover and Manson Rose returned from a duck hunting trip near Canby. A. F. Russel was caller at the G. D. Boardman's home at Silver Springs on Wednesday. Mrs. Sloan of Albany is visiting her uncle, Mr. T. J. Spooner. Miss Edna Westfield of Jones Mill was Mrs. Steinhaus' guest on Saturday of last week. Mrs. Emily DeForest and daughter Miss Gussie arrived from Washington, D. C., on Thursday and are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Albert Pierce Mrs. DeForest and daughter expect to make Oregon their home. Mr. Harvey of Oak Grove, delivered a load of fruit trees to Mr. Snow of East Jennings Lodge during the week. The T. J. Spooner family have taken apartments in Portland for the winter. Meadames A. F. Russel, H. C. Panton and R. Near are the committee planning for the 3 1/2 acre tree and program to be held at Grace Chapel. MULINO. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith of Eldorado entertained at their home a number of their friends and relatives on Thanksgiving day. A bounteous dinner was served. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith and daughter Iva, Ethel and Arleta, also their son, Otis, Mrs. Bert Kidder and daughter, Pearl of Willamette City, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wallace and daughters Dora and Pearl, and son, William of Shubel and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Evans, Mr. T. R. Orem and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dix of Mulino. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all. BEAVER CREEK. A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. John Bohlander Tuesday evening, in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. The following people were present: Mr. and Mrs. H. Lindley, V. Bohlander, F. Steiner, W. Herman, Chris and Ben Fisher, Miss Blodwen and William Barry, Max and George Hollman, Otto Lyman, Jack Jones, Abel Thomas and Misses Ona Carey, Blodwen Thomas, Leora Bennett, Laura Parry and Clara Bohlander, Messrs. A. S. and H. Richter, also Mr. and Mrs. Esinger and other friends from Portland. The evening was spent in playing games after which refreshments were served, the guests returning home at a late hour, having had a very enjoyable time. Miss Leora Bennett, spent Thanksgiving with her sister at Oregoo last week. Mrs. D. W. Thomas visited in Gladstone last week. Mrs. E. White has been on the sick list the past few days. John Westberg was in the city the first of the week. The Beaver Creek bachelors have settled in their new home. Now girls look out. S. P. Londergan and Becker are busy blowing stumps. Remember the Indian program and social to be given at Beaver Creek Hall, Dec. 8, 1911 at 8 p. m. ESTACADA. Peter Rhyming returned from the mountains Sunday. He had been working near the Oak Grove Creek for the railroad company. J. J. Davis came out from his intermountain homestead Friday and made a business trip to Portland Saturday. Road district number ten held special road meeting at the Garfield Grange hall and voted a seven mill special road tax. It is proposed to macadam the main highway form, the top of the Wilson hill to the macadam at the Stubbs place. A span now covered with worn out plank. $200 is to be used in the neighborhood of the Rigan farm. Any sum remaining after these improvements are made is to be distributed over the district. Nearly every tax payer in the district was present and the vote for the tax carried by a large majority. CLARKES. Miss Elma Elmer came home Thanksgiving to spend her vacation. Rev. Hartzler of Portland preached in the German M. E. church on Thanksgiving. Ruddle Miller spent his Thanksgiving with his uncle, Richard Miller at Highland. Mr. Bottmiller sowed oats last week. Garrett Martin is working for Pete Sager at the sawmill. There was a taffy-pulling party given last Saturday night by W. G. Klein-smith. Games were played. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Klein-smith, Olga, Elma and Edna Elmer, Hazle Tailman, Ida and Mary Bottmiller, Laura and Ruby Gard, Irene and Emma Lee, Hazle Ringo, Dora and Elda Marquardt, Lydia Klein-smith, Ed and Otto Buel, Charlie and Arthur Henton, Jay Dix, Bill Robbins, Garrett Martin, Vernon Larkens, Elmer and Willie Klein-smith, Elva Gard, Willie Johnson, Theodore Sager, Edwin Bottmiller, Archie Cumins, Albert and Julius Schiewe, Randle Mueller and Walter Kellensmith. The Macabees held their regular meeting Saturday night. The Grangers met Saturday. Miss Ida Haag is working in Portland. Mr. Marquardt was in town last week. SHUBEL. The Shubel Debating Society reorganized last Friday evening for the winter. A number of our young people attended the dance at Clarkes Thanksgiving eve. Fred Lindan and family, of Clarkes, visited with E. W. Hornschuh and family last Sunday. Some relatives of John Blum are here from Canada visiting with him. Fall sown grain looks well. Henry Glitner has gone to Chehalis, Washington. Will Heitman, of Colton, spent yesterday in our community. Will Debow is making great improvements on his place. David Moehke has moved back to his old place. Robert Glitner and family visited with Mr. Swope's Monday. Olaf Oss and family, of Maple Lane, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hornschuh today. In regard to the school supervisors being "leeches," etc., it remains to be proven. I believe we should give the new plan a fair trial before condemning it. SANDY. Mr. and Mrs. Schminky attended the theatre in Portland Saturday. Alice McGoogan has returned from a visit in Portland. W. A. Proctor is able to be around again after a week's illness. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dixon spent Saturday in Portland shopping. W. J. Wirtz preached at Firwood hall Sunday. Caspar Junker and daughters have returned from a visit in Portland. A dance will be held at Meling's hall Saturday night followed by chicken dinner at Sandy Hotel. E. F. Donahue of the Sandy-Boring stage line, has put a new Pope-Hartford seven passenger touring car in commission on the stage line. The new car will make all the regular trips hereafter, and the price has been raised from fifty to seventy-five cents. A. G. Hornstedt was in Portland Saturday on business. Mrs. Bosholt, who underwent an operation in the hospital at Portland, last week, is reported as doing nicely at this writing. The first regular city election was held Tuesday. The spots in this vicinity are a good crop and are nearly all harvested. Most ranchers will hold them for better prices. Oscar Dahlgren, H. S. Eddy, W. A. Proctor, Geo. Weight and Ed Bruns attended Masonic lodge at Arleta Wednesday evening where they saw the third degree exemplified. There are fifty-five legal voters in the city of Sandy. The saloons were closed election day and everything was quiet. The Mt. Hood Hotel has changed hands and Mrs. E. M. Douglas is the landlady again. EAGLE CREEK. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Douglas returned home Saturday evening from Molalla where they had been attending Thanksgiving with Mrs. Douglas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clester. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie entertained at dinner last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. C. Murphy, Meda and Perry Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie and family. Misses Myrtle and Mary Woodie were over last Friday calling on relatives in the neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas, Virgil Glenn, Mildred and Floris Douglas, and Peter Reschel at dinner Thanksgiving. H. S. and R. B. Gibson were Estacada visitors Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Huntington returned home last Saturday from Spokane, where they had been attending the apple show and having a general good time. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas was over from Estacada Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett and her children. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and children, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Udell and children visited with James Gibson Sunday. OAK GROVE. Mrs. Lindsay returned home Saturday evening from a pleasant trip of several weeks with relatives and friends in the Eastern states. Tracy Moore spent Thanksgiving at home with his father and family, returning Monday to the Willamette University where he is a student. Mrs. Jack Sweeney has rented the storeroom in the Green building and will open a bakery and delicatessen about the 15th of December. The Bazaar held Saturday by the Parents and Teachers Association of Concord district netted the school $55. A meeting will be held by the Association Friday to decide what they will use the money for. Miss Nettie Gleason and Charles P. Stewart was married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. H. Sleeton, of Hood River, Or., November 11. Miss Gleason is the daughter of Mrs. J. Gleason and well known here where they have resided the past two years. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are living on a large ranch near Buhl, Idaho. MILWAUKIE. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Thomas entertained at dinner Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Purdy and Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Armstrong, of Portland. All report a very enjoyable time. Several of the Milwaukee Elks attended the Memorial services held in Oregon City Sunday at the Congregational church. The Bazaar given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. John's Catholic church will be held in the bank building December 13 and 14, afternoon and evening. The booths will consist of a country store, candy, fancy work, wheel of fortune, birds, fish pond, etc. Several beautiful articles will be raffled. A good program will be rendered Wednesday evening, December 13 at 8 o'clock. A cafeteria lunch will be served at any hour. The proceeds will go to the building fund of the new Catholic church now under construction. The school clerk has finished the school enumeration and reports 259 children under school age. There were 213 last year, making an increase of nearly 25 per cent. A new teacher will be added to the school staff by February 1st. The regular all-day Grange meeting will be held Saturday, December 9 with routine business and election of officers. Dinner will be served at noon. The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. John's Catholic church will meet at the parsonage Friday at 3 p. m. to make final arrangements for the Bazaar. Mayor Streib, Warren Knight, Judge Kulas and Fred Lahman went to Oregon City Wednesday to attend the good road meeting. The City Council met Tuesday evening and passed an ordinance to accept Main street. It is all finished and is a credit to the city. The contractor was W. H. Counsel. Several other streets are nearing completion and will soon be turned over to the council to accept. The Girls' Club elected the following officers: Marie Duffy, president; Hazel Mullin, vice-president; Bessie Koek, secretary; Ruth Alexander, treasurer; Ester Spring, sergeant-at-arms. The club meets every Wednesday evening and is instructed by Professor Gens. Francis Johnson, who has been sick for two weeks, is reported as improving slowly. Mrs. Maggie Johnson was in Portland on business Wednesday afternoon. Tuesday afternoon the neighbors friends of Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Island Station, gave her a pleasant surprise party in honor of her sixtieth birthday. The ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. H. E. Sharrow and went in a body to the home of Mrs. Thompson, taking baskets of groceries and good things to eat, enough to last her many days. Mrs. Thompson was greatly surprised and could not thank them enough. They all sang several hymns and then departed, wishing her many more happy birthdays. William Shinder & Company are erecting a very handsome bungalow for Jacob Ankle near the Kilgreen property. At the special school meeting held last Monday evening it was the opinion of those present that if district No. 123 was willing to combine with them a four years' course in high school would be decided upon, and if possible, at a later date to build another school house in this district to better accommodate those who live in the edge of the district. Mr. Lindsay, of the firm of Lindsay & Lindsay, of Oak Grove, was here on business Tuesday.

$10 REWARD For the arrest and conviction of any person or persons, who unlawfully remove copies of The Morning Enterprise from the premises of subscribers after a carrier has been placed there by...

Deserved Promotion. "And so your husband is a white washer?" "Yes, indeed, and a fine whitewasher he is, too, if I do mention it. And instead of whitewashing basements and fences around the village it is down in Washington he ought to be whitewashing of them statesmen that need it."

LOCAL BRIEFS

George Brown, of Clairmont, was in this city Wednesday. A Jones, of Carus, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Ernest Guenther, of Shubel, was in this city Wednesday. Rowland Edwards, of Beaver Creek, was in this city Tuesday. James Beaty, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Tuesday. H. Wenger, of Salem, was in this city on business Wednesday. The largest fancy-work line and Richardson's silks at D. C. Ely's. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bullard, of Redland, were in this city Tuesday. L. A. Brown, of Wenatchee, Wash., was in this city on business Wednesday. L. H. Judd, a prominent farmer of Molalla, was in Oregon City Wednesday. L. P. Lowe, of Bull Run, is in this city, and is registered at the Electric Hotel. Mrs. H. Fisher, of Redland, was in this city transacting business Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Howard and grandson, of Mulino, were in Oregon City Wednesday. It will pay you to see D. C. Ely before purchasing toys elsewhere. R. S. Coe, one of the prominent fruitgrowers, of Canby, was in this city Wednesday. Mrs. Monroe Irish, of Union Hall, was in this city Wednesday visiting with Mrs. Frank Irish. John Mulvany, accompanied by his sister, of Union Hall, were in Oregon City Wednesday. Emil Gelbrich, of New Era, one of the well known farmers of that place, was in this city Wednesday. Mrs. Nettie Wright, of Arizona, has arrived in Oregon City, and will spend the week with Mrs. G. W. Grace. J. G. DeShazer, one of the prominent farmers, of Boring, and Guy Woodie, of Eagle Creek, were in Oregon City on business Wednesday. Mrs. D. C. Robbins and Mrs. Mary Burley, attended the opera, "Madam Butterfly" at The Hellig Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schuebel, of Shubel, were in Oregon City Tuesday, and while here visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel. Miss Nunda Wolfer, of this city, went to Portland on Tuesday, where she visited her sister, Mrs. William Grimm. W. E. Grace, of Portland, and U. B. Grace, of Denver, Col., were in Oregon City Wednesday, guests at the home of Mrs. G. W. Grace. The Sons of Veterans will meet at Willamette Hall Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at which time an organization will be made. Best line of furs in Oregon City for Christmas gifts at D. C. Ely's. The Thursday Afternoon Auction Bridge Club will be entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. T. Griffith, in Portland. W. P. Kireham, of Logan, was in this city Wednesday, and was one of the representatives of Logan at the

OPPORTUNITY

Did You Hear It Knock, or were You Asleep You can't make money by waiting until opportunity has passed, it is calling you now to MULINO. The majority of fortunes throughout the country have been made through the increase in real estate values

Mulino has two stores, a blacksmith shop, a school, a church, a shingle mill, a lumber mill, and a flour mill. A railroad will be completed to Mulino in six months, don't you think that is a healthy start for an infant?

Buy in Mulino now the prices will be double by the time the railroad is there. Terms easy, a little down and a little each month. Let us know when you wish to see it, we will call for you, no expense to you

Mulino Townsite Company, Incorporated, Room 9 Beaver Building, Oregon City. Telephone Main 360.

M. L. BOWMAN Agent