

M'NAMARA MADE BOAST OF BRIBE

REMARK OF DYNAMITEF SAID TO HAVE CAUSED M'NAMIGAL TO CONFESS.

$30,000 SUM REPORTED OFFERED

Federal Grand Jury Hears Confession in the Probe of Alleged Gigantic Dynamite Conspiracies.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 7.—"I've got hundreds of thousands of dollars and the American Federation of Labor back of me. It took only $30,000 to clear Vincent Altman, of Chicago, and if they couldn't convict him they can't convict me."

This boast, attributed today by Detective Malcolm McLaren to James B. McNamara as McNamara was being taken on a train from Detroit to Chicago on the night of April 2 last, caused Orrie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered with McNamara for his indiscreet statement and was the first circumstance that led McManigal to break from his companion and eventually confess his connection with various dynamite explosions throughout the country.

McManigal's real confession had been saved for the trial of James B. and John J. McNamara, now under sentence, after their pleas of guilty, but this evidence, as well as all that had been gathered by the state, was turned over today to the United States Government.

The Federal Grand Jury heard McManigal's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow, laying the foundations for the probe into the alleged dynamiting conspiracies that extended from coast to coast in the last three years.

The McNamaras were not taken before the Federal Grand Jury and it may be that McManigal's story will be regarded as sufficient and the other two be removed to San Quentin without further interrogation here.

That McManigal's story implicated other men in the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers became known through various sources. McManigal alleges that persons other than John J. McNamara, the secretary-treasurer, paid him for the twenty "jobs" of dynamiting which he accomplished since 1907. As a question probably will be raised as to the competency of testimony from convicted felons, it was considered unlikely that the revelations of the McNamaras, if any, would be of consequence, for such testimony could not be used in court against those indicted. The story of McManigal, who has not yet even been brought to trial, will be of great value, however, to the government's investigators and the state will not try him on the indictments against him until the Federal authorities are through.

SCHOOL EXPENSES HELD WITHIN LEVY

DIRECTORS WILL MAKE SUGGESTIONS TO TAXPAYERS AT BIG MEETING.

NO INCREASE WILL BE NECESSARY

Salary of Teachers For 1912 is Estimated at $20,000—Total Expenses Placed at $30,465.

Notwithstanding the extraordinary expenditures for the operation and maintenance of the public schools during the current year, the board of directors has managed to keep the disbursements well within the estimates made one year ago, when a special levy of nine mills was made, and after carefully considering the estimates for 1912, the board has concluded to recommend to the taxpayers that no increase be made in the levy. The report and recommendations of the board will be made at a special meeting of the taxpayers of the school district to be held next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in the courthouse.

The one item that stands out above all others is the salary of teachers, estimated at $20,000 for 1912. There are in the Oregon City schools at the present time twenty-seven teachers, not including City Superintendent Toole, whose duties are administrative. The minimum salary for grade teachers is $55 per month and the maximum for high school instructors is $70 to $90 per month and special instructors and principals receive more, salaries of the buildings head ranging from $1,000 to $1,200. The only increase in the salaries of teachers estimated in the next year is embraced in those scheduled raise that will go to those teachers whose terms of service will entitle them to higher pay. There is no increase in the salaries of the clerk and janitors. Other items have been materially reduced from last year's estimates and the basis upon which the schools will be operated next year follows:

Teachers' salaries	$20,000
Clerk's salary	240
Janitors' salaries	1,800
Repairs and improvements	1,500
Supplies	1,300
Fuel	800
Water rent, light and power	350
Apparatus and furniture	500
Printing and advertising	250
Interest on bonds	2,875
Interest on loans	300
Miscellaneous expenditures	750
Total	$30,465

The board estimates that $9,000 will be the income from the county school fund, $2,800 from the state school fund and $1,000 from tuition, a total of $12,800, leaving a balance of $17,665, to which must be added $1,500 that the law provides shall go into a sinking fund to take care of the bond issues at maturity. The excess

W. L. MULVEY AND MISS SHANNON WED

REV. HILLEBRAND OFFICIATES AT IMPRESSIVE CHURCH CEREMONY.

EDIFICE IS BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED

Breakfast Served at Home of Bride's Mother After Which Young Couple Leave For San Francisco.

A very pretty wedding ceremony was performed at St. John's Catholic church Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock when Miss Alice Mary Shannon, daughter of Mrs. Kate Shannon, of this city, and of the late L. I. Shannon, was married to Mr. William Lloyd Mulvey, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. A. Hillebrand in the presence of about 100 relatives and friends of the young couple.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Miss Lou Draper, the bride and bridesmaid, Miss Clea Barclay Pratt, entered the church, and the groomsmen and his best man, Mr. Harry Draper, the bride and her bridesmaid passing up the left aisle, while the bridegroom and his best man walked up the right aisle, and stood at the altar. After the ceremony the choir of about twenty rendered beautifully High Mass in honor of St. Louis, Miss Clementine Compton, of Portland, rendering impressively Paula's Sancta Maria. The close of the company relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple repaired to the Shannon home on Seventh and Water streets, where a wedding breakfast was served.

The decorations of the church were in charge of the young ladies of the Catholic church, friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mulvey, and were very pretty, being in white chrysanthemums, ferns, Oregon grape and trailing vines, while the decorations of the Shannon home were simple and they showed artistic taste. They were of white chrysanthemums, and white roses and asparagus ferns.

The bride looked very pretty in her Grecian gown of white marquisette over white messaline, and wore a wreath of Japanese orange blossoms and Japanese maidenhair fern. The only jewels worn by her was a handsome bracelet of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried an arm bouquet of brides' roses, from which was suspended clusters of Japanese orange blossoms. The bridesmaid, Miss Pratt, wore a becoming gown of pink marquisette over yellow messaline, and carried an arm bouquet of bridesmaid roses.

Those attending the reception at the Shannon home were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shannon, of St. Johns; Mr. and Mrs. Moomy, of Clackamas; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Kuppenbender, Mrs. Margaret L. Mulvey, Mrs. Kate Shannon, Mrs. Callahan, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenneth Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McCall and daughter, Jeanette, Lee Shannon, Miss Margaret Mulvey, Rev. A. Hillebrand, Miss Clea Barclay Pratt, Miss Dolly Pratt, Dr. Clyde Mount, Miss Stipp, Harry Draper, James Cary, Miss Compton.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulvey received many handsome wedding gifts, including cutglass, china, silver and brassware and linen. The bride and bridegroom left by automobile about 3 o'clock for Portland, and from that city went to San Francisco by the Shasta's Limited. Upon their return to this city in about two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Mulvey will occupy their handsome bungalow on Fifth and Madison street, which they have purchased from Frank Andrews.

The bride is well and favorably known in this city, where she has spent most of her life. For some time she was an instructor in the Oregon City public schools, but for the past several years she has been a teacher of the Portland schools. The bridegroom has been a resident of Clackamas county all his life, having spent his boyhood days near Meadowbrook, where the family owned a farm. After moving to this city he accepted a position in the office of the county clerk, and was elected to the office of County Clerk last November by a large majority. He is well known throughout Clackamas county, and he and his bride have a host of friends here.
