The institute held at the school house Saturday was a great success.

The patrons of the school took a great interest and almost every family was represented. These institutes are a fine thing as they draw teachers and parents together and they understand each other better. Miss Benche, of the primary grade, explained her method of teaching those grades, so that we, the patrons of the school, could realize more fully the advanced methods of teaching the young ideas how to shoot, and perhaps feel less disposed to cavil at ideas which do not conform to the way a past generation was taught. Our principal, Mr. Nowles, handled the subject of hitting in a pleasing and masterly manner. The ladies served a bountiful dinner and so much was brought that were improvised in the primary room and coffee kept hot on the stoves. It is hoped by all that we will have more of such meetings. The teachers gave the usual vote of thanks for the good attendance and interest shown, good dinner, etc. and we certainly feel we are the debtors, as we have been many a new thought to come.
