Wagenhals & Kemper present the comedy success, "A ven Days," at The Hellig Theatre, Seventh and Taylor streets, for four nights, beginning Thursday, December 21. Special price matinee Saturday.

Take a week of hilarious merriment and compress it into two hours and forty-five minutes, and the result is about as much laughter as mortal is capable of in that length of time. That is "Seven Days," the comedy by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, which Messrs. Wagenhals & Kemper will present at the Heilig Evenings: $1.50, $1, 75c, 50c, 35c, 25c. Theatre for four nights, commencing Thursday, December 21, with a special matinee Saturday.

"Seven Days" is a week of the jolliest, beartiest humor conceivable, and it is the biggest laughing hit the stage as ever seen. Said Matthew White, Jr., in Munsey's magazine: "Seven Days" is the finest comedy you can ever imagine. I use the word in every sense of the term, meaning that it not only contains enough fun to fit out three or four ordinary comedies, but it is also full of clever epigram and repartee." That description ought to convince everybody that this is a comedy to see and enjoy, for the writer's opinions on the drama are of recognized weight. If further assurance be required it can be had from thousands who have laughed themselves into convulsions over this play in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and inewhere. As a merry-maker "Seven Days" holds the record. In New York it ran two straight years and this sea-son reached a third. A third year on Broadway. That's what talks. And six months in Chicago, and more months in Boston and Philadelphia. more That talks, too, and says that "Seven Days" has more delightful humor, more laughter to the minute, more more laughter to the minute, more RUEF WILL TESTIFY plications in its two hours and three rters than any other play eve written-any three or four according Munsey's magazine. So go and It. See it acted by a company direct from the Astor Theatre, New York, and the comedy's third year

IDA LEWIS

Grace Darling of America is The

Do you remember among the exhibits of interest at the World's fair in Chicago the rowboat used by Ida Lewis in her work of saving lives in New port harbor?

The boat was presented to Miss Lewis by the people of Newport.

She was the daughter of the keeper of the old Lime Rock light, off New port, and no seaman could better handie a boat or battle with the waves as an expert swimmer.

And she was brave with the bravery of a woman.

Her record as a saver of human life is a matter of history. And among those rescued was a score of men. hardy sailors and tollers of the sea.

Personally Ida Lewis was a most gracious woman, but modest and seem ingly unconscious of her heroic endeavor.

Her womanly qualities no less than her intrepid spirit and daring gentieness made her the pride of Newport. The cadets of the Naval academy simply adored her.

As some one has suggested, had she been born before Grace Darling the latter might appropriately have been named "the Ida Lewis of the old world.'

And now she is dead!

Old Lime Rock still holds its bencon. and pilgrims go to visit the forts and the war college and the station and the barracks, but the brave spirit of Ids Lewis has departed.

And the memory of her is blessed. What, after all, is the one thing that makes mortals great-and long beloved 7

Is it not unselfishness?

Whoever would build a monument in the heart of humanity must forget self and live for others' sake.

Whoever would become great must be least: whoever would minister must be a servant; whoever would be loved must lead a strong hand to the perishing.

So long as the great Lime Rocks shall abide so long will the heroic evangel of Ida Lewis be told for a memorial Schmitz will go to trial some time in January, either on the charge of extorting bribes in connection with the granting of the United Railway trolley franchise, or with the fixing of the gas rate immediately after the great disaster of 1906. The principal wit-ness against Schmitz will be Abraham Ruef, the former political boss, now serving a term of fourteen years at San Quentin prison for bribery. The District Attorney's office made the definite announcement today that Ruef would be called.

The District Attorney was given until January 5 to select the charge on which Schmitz will be tried, and on that date the time for beginning the trial will be set. In view of the fact that Lawlor has already set the statute of limitation in motion, the trial must be begun next month.

Schmitz was indicted in July, 1907, for extorting money from the French restaurants but the judgment was set aside by the Appellate and Supreme Court on the ground that the indictment had failed to state that Schmitz was the Mayor and Ruef the political boss at the time of the extortion. Schmitz has been engaged in mining and oil operations, besides conducting an insurance business.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16.-18pec-Inl.)-Former Mayor Eugene E. PHONES MAN FRIEND THEN SHOOTS SELF

CHICAGO, Dec. 16 .- Telephoning to Frank B. Cockrell from her room in a hotel here, Mrs. Edna Robinson, repported to be a wealthy divorcee, and sister of Mrs. J C. Clark, of Portland, Or., asked him to listen and then shot herself

"I did it for him," she said before lapsing into unconsciousness. Mrs. Robinson is in a critical condition and may die. The bullet entered the left side of her body between the heart and the shoulder. Frank Cockrell, known simply as "a friend of Mrs. Robinson," dined with her last night. He refused to make any statement save to inform the police that he came from Jerseyville, Ill. Specific motive for the self-shooting is unknown, and Cockrell refuses to shed any light on the affair. Mrs. Clark, sister of Mrs. Robinso lives at 927 1-2 East Ankeny street, Portland. Mrs. Robinson made her home with the Clark family for some The room occupied by Mrs. Robinson was filled with Christmas presents ready for mailing.

Mrs. Robinson is in a critical condition because the man she loves refuses to wed her. The bullet barely missed her heart. At the hospital she told Sergeant Malone she had tried suicide "because life wasn't worth living without Frank " Cockrell declared the woman telephoned him twice this morning before the attempt at suicide.

At the hospital today Mrs. Robinson said: "I shot myself because Frank fused to marry me. We went to a restaurant last night and I asked Frank to marry me. He refused. I telephoned him again this morning. asking him again. He refused again and I decided I did not want to live any lonegr."

Cockrell said he met the woman in Portland on a business trip and called upon her irregularly after she came here. Last night she refused to go to a theatre with him and a man friend and the two men went alone. He said later he telephoned the wo-who accepted an invitation to man sup with Cockrell and a friend. He said they left the woman in front of the La Salle hotel, where she was stopping, at 1:30 this morning. At 3 o'clock she telephoned Cockrell saying of supervision amounts to about fourshe wanted him to breakfast with her An hour later, said Cockrell, she telephoned him, saying: Tm in trouble. Policemen are all around me." Then some one advised Cockrell the woman had shot herself. He denied that he and Mrs. Robinson were engaged.
