SOCIAL SIDE OF OUR CITY.

The Enterprise believes that the remarkable interest which is being taken in the study and practice of music throughout the city this winter, is the best possible evidence of the substantial prosperity of our citizens.

It is in the social life of a city that bed-rock conditions are to be seen. Apart from the numerous Literary, Social, Dancing and Recreational Clubs which without exception are in a particularly flourishing condition this year, all our churches are making a special point of the musical features of their services.

The Philharmonic Society with over a hundred voices is the center of musical activity, and represents the musical life of the city in the broadest sense. It is without doubt the most ambitious undertaking we have had, and its officers are to be congratulated on the success which is meeting their efforts.

LENGTH OF A DRINK.

What is whisky has been disposed of as a vexatious question and now appropriate enough comes an official definition as to the length of a drink of whisky, of course.

Senator John Worth Kern, of Indiana, who once upon a time attracted general attention by sailing across the political horizon as a tall to the Bryan presidential comet, is responsible for the definition.

During the Lorimer investigation the senator was interrogating a witness named Sturmer, who excused or explained his inability to remember by the plea that he had been rather bibulous.

"How many drinks had you had?" asked Senator Kern of Sturmer. "That depends on how much you think makes a drink," was the reply of the witness.

The man who seeks to borrow trouble is never refused a loan. The Indiana State Board of Health proposes to abolish the "all-day sucker." Every state should follow the example of Hoosierdom.

Civilized World Will Soon Be Cookless

THE CIVILIZED WORLD BY THE NEXT GENERATION WILL HAVE NO COOKS. It takes BRAINS to be a GOOD COOK, and today the very announcement by a man that he is a cook is sufficient to keep him in a LOWER SOCIAL SCALE than that to which he BELONGS.

"Madonna of the Stars," Stolen, but Soon Recovered

ENCOURAGED perhaps by the success of the thief or thieves who stole the "Mona Lisa" from the Louvre, a robber removed the famous "Madonna of the Stars" from the Monastery of San Marco, in Florence, but was subsequently captured with the picture, which was undamaged.

precincts of New Mexico are reported missing. Tammany could do no better than that. Dr. Wiley says that a man can live for a month on a bushel of wheat costing from 84 cents to 1$. Now why worry about the cost of living?

The Postoffice Department shows a surplus for the first time since 1883. Yet when he was appointed there were those who insisted that Mr. Hitchcock was only a politician.

After we have Mr. Edison's concrete house, furnished with concrete furniture, we shall probably know no more hard times. Wisdom from the Syracuse Post-Standard: "Secretary Stimson says that we are not prepared for war. Then let's not have one."

The booster is one of the most useful assets in any community. It must be conceded that Champ Clark is maintaining a heroic silence. Mayor Gaynor has decided that women do not want to vote. His honor must have overlooked the returns from the Los Angeles election.

Mr. Stokes will also admit that he was blown up from the outside. Handkerchiefs. The words "pocket handkerchief" have a curious history. The syllable "ker" is short for the French "couvert," to cover, and "chief" is nothing else but "chief," the head. Kerchiefs were used also for the neck, and that made them neckerchiefs. Finally when they became what they now are and were carried in the hand they expanded into handkerchiefs.

The Yaqui Indians, like some politicians in this country insure from mere force of habit. Representative Sulzer thinks he looks like Henry Clay, but that doesn't bring him any mention for President.

A New Use. Quite a novel method of announcing an engagement was that employed by a clever young lady in the west. She telegraphed a girl friend in Boston: "Solomon, six, three." Looking up that chapter and verse the friend read: "I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine."—Boston Transcript.

EXAMPLE. We are all of us more or less echoes, repeating involuntarily the virtues, the defects, the movements and the characters of those among whom we live.—Joubert.

MRS. ROBINSON AND COCKRELL TO MARRY

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Mrs. Edna Robinson, of Portland, Or., who eloped Saturday, and Frank Cockrell are expected to marry. They passed most of yesterday in her private room at the hospital. His presence and his cheering words have helped surgery to start her on the road to recovery.

12 KILLED; 20 HURT IN TRAIN COLLISION (Continued from page 1.) found two bodies in the crumpled sleeper, cut to pieces. Identification of these is impossible.

Although both the diner and sleeper were of steel, the former sheared the upper portion of the sleeper from the floor as if it had been cardboard. In the impact the diner's floor became elevated slightly above that of the sleeper's and with the force of section No. 7's engine behind, the sleeper was jammed along for fully twenty-five feet, while the diner, as a sign of knife, cut away the upper structure.

Heart to Heart Talks.

WHAT DO YOU WANT? Over and above the necessities and the ordinary comforts of life what do you want? You must want something. That is proved by the fact that you are dissatisfied. The cheaper things of life do not satisfy you. Then what is it you want?

Second.—You want to be as useful in your day and generation as you were designed to be. I care not how stupidly selfish you may have succeeded in making yourself, you can never quite get over the feeling that you are under obligation to help your fellow.

Third.—You want to be remembered when you are gone. He is very low down in whose heart is no desire to live in the esteem of his kind after he is dead.

What course of conduct will lead to the accomplishment of these natural desires? Ah, that finds the sore place! Which proves that you are not always quite willing to try to be what you would like to be.

How Willie Wren. Mother—Did you do as I told you at Mrs. Winters' and not ask the second time for pie? Willie—Yes, ma. I didn't have to ask only once. I got the first piece without asking.—Boston Transcript.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS WILL NOT BE MERGED. Willaburg school district will not consolidate with the Milwaukie district at present. At a meeting of the Willaburg taxpayers it was voted to lay on the table the proposition to consolidate the district directors to the Milwaukie district directors, which was a mistake. A letter was sent to the Milwaukie directors, asking them for the invitation but stating that as the Willaburg pupils can use the present schoolhouse, which was annexed to Portland at the last election, it was not considered wise to merge at this time. Mrs. Maggie E. Donovan, clerk of Milwaukie, reports that pupils in the district, which is a portion of seventy-two over last year. The district employs nine teachers. A building will be erected in the West Side next year.
