Stories from Out of Town

MILWAUKIE.

The Circle, a woman's club was organized in the early fall, and in many ways has done good by helping now resident here, as well as looking after the sick in the immediate neighborhood and their thrice monthly meetings being well attended by the twenty members. Three monthly socials have been given by this circle with the first being a most successful one. The club is well organized and persistent co-operation that all genuine progress in bettering neighborhood conditions can be brought about by such organizations, and let us resolve that during the coming year we will do our best to establish high standards in religious, social and commercial matters, and to bring about purer, sounder and better conditions in this neighborhood.

Many new families have come into our midst during the year past and 12 new modern residences have been built besides a number remodelled. We have also been granted a postoffice and ticket office. Royal Stover being Postmaster and ticket agent.

A number of little bundles of humanity have come to gladden our homes, little daughters coming to the homes of Harry Panton, Cal Morse, Vivian Fiske, and Mrs. Stander and Standish Shepherds in 1911.

Death entered two of our homes during 1911 taking the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shepard and the passing away of Mrs. Mary Morse cast a sorrow over our neighborhood for a time.

Through the efforts of Will L. Finley leaders have been organized among the school children of Oregon to give information on bird life. In the course of study introduced by State Superintendent Alderman every child will be required to build a bird house each year during the season.

The regular meeting of the State Audubon Society will be held January 6. William Finley, who spends his summers at this place is the president.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. May has been the scene of a very pretty children's party when fifteen were invited to a luncheon at noon Saturday, December 30. The house decorations were holly, Christmas ferns and poinsettias were used very tastefully in the table decorations. Various games were enjoyed during the afternoon hours. Those invited were the Misses Aileen, Ruby and Irene Warner, Helen, Doris and Mary Pierce, Annie Russell, Bessie Roberts, Doris Reid and Alice Mac Farlane, and Messrs. WINTER SPORTS TOWN'S DELIGHT transformed everything. Before some pedestrians were conscious it was beginning to snow, a local liverman drove up Main street with jingling sleigh bells, winter furs and ear-protectors.

Being a skillful driver he succeeded after a while in getting the runners of his cutter over a few snowflakes. One flake, however, more crafty than the others, located itself on a loose pebble, tried to pass itself off for a snow bank, and nearly succeeded in upsetting the cutter.

Snowballing became a popular diversion toward nightfall, many business men deserting their mid-winter suits, offices and desks to go out and revel in the snow.

Chief of Police Shaw, after conferring with Mayor Dimick, announced early in the evening that coasting would be allowed only on Washington street. The snow at one time was more than two inches deep.

U. S. TAKES CUSTOMS TO SECURE MORGAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—The United States Government has taken over the Nicaraguan custom-houses and Colonel C. G. Ham, of New York, has been placed in charge. Accompanied by Francis Capel Harrison, representing Great Britain, and Charles A. Conant, representing the United States, who are commissioned to readjust the currency of the Central American republic, Colonel Ham was landed by the Pacific Mail liner City of Sydney at Corinto, December 22.

Colonel Ham took immediate charge of the custom-house at Corinto and will also take charge of the customs at Bluefields and Managua.

The movement was made, it is said, to secure the $10,000,000 loan recently made to Nicaragua by J. Pierpont Morgan.

Origin of an English Custom.

Parliament's custom of assembling for a new session on Tuesday instead of on the first working day of the week originated in the religious scruples of legislators of a century ago. In 1809 it was proposed that Monday should be made the day of meeting, but William Wilberforce, member of parliament for the county of York, pointed out that for himself and many other members this would involve Sunday traveling, a thing he abhorred. So the day was changed to Tuesday, and a Sabbatarian scruple has ruled the action of parliament to an era which sees more motor cars on London than on any day of the week.—London Spectator.
