The interior of the building is well fitted up for a market. A new marble counter and an eight foot ice chest has been installed. Fresh salt water fish are received from Newport twice a week, while crabs are received three times a week. The building has two large glass windows. Thomas Brown will be assisted in his business by George Brown and his wife. Mr. Brown was for many years connected with the government fish hatchery at Salmon River, and has been in business in this city for the past three years.

Stories from Out of Town

CHERRYVILLE. On Sunday evening a few young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Couper and passed a pleasant time with sacred songs and music. Owing to the difficulty of holding evening service in the Cherryville church Mr. and Mrs. Couper have offered to open their home to the neighbors on Sunday evening for a quiet hour of sacred music and hereby extend a welcome to all. The writer of these items wishes to add that he reported one of these Sunday evening song services recently but by some error it was printed as a social gathering with games, etc. It is only fair to all concerned to correct that impression. Jas. T. Edgerton, of Portland, accompanied by L. T. Sheldon, of Tacoma, spent a few days last week on his ranch near Cherryville. Charles Newland is back on his ranch again. Alex Brooks leaves next week for a trip to Hood River, Seattle and Tacoma. Dr. Boyd, pastor of First Presbyterian church, Portland, made two trips to Cherryville recently and is negotiating for a 20-acre tract of land for a new home, opposite Prof. Geo. Couper's. Vincent Friel and Miss Vida Friel and Miss Ruth Friel made a trip over to Hood River, Ore., last week to visit their sister, Mrs. Archie Crawford, formerly Miss Myrtle Friel, of Cherryville, and their little niece. ELWOOD. 'Twould keep a barometer guessing to announce the different changes of weather of late. The Xmas entertainment over, but not forgotten but highly praised. The tree was beautifully decorated and filled with presents for all. Mr. and Mrs. E. Rowan and little daughter, Norma, of Portland, were visitors of Mr. Freeman during holidays, the home of Mrs. Rowan's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson and daughters, Miss Myrtle and Leola, of Oregon City, spent Christmas at W. T. Henderson. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Vallen were guests of Mr. Amos Vallen Sunday. A birthday and New Year's dinner was served in favor of Lewis Vallen, Ed. Park, of Walton, Ore., spent part of the holidays at his parent's home, Mr. and Mrs. John Parks. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dibble have moved to Springfield where they are hired on Mr. Lawrence's farm. Matt Dibble killed eight wild cats and tracked a panther into the foot hills. The people of Elwood have the good road movement at heart. At a district board meeting a 10 mills tax was voted for the ensuing year. All express the wish for the roads to be placed on the county road survey and thus lay the foundation for better thoroughfares. The new year surely introduced itself in a wintry way—a foot of crusted snow. Miss Lulu Miller, the public school teacher of this district, spent the holidays at her home in Oregon City. Earnest Vallen, who is attending college in Washington, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vallen. The chicken pox has been making a round-up here; several have had it and some have it now. It is reported as very disagreeable. FIRWOOD. The Firwood school is having a two weeks' vacation and the teacher, Mrs. A. Malair, was in Portland last week attending institute. Miss Ruth Hart is in Portland this week visiting her sister, Ethel Hart. The Firwood-Dover telephone switchboard has been moved from Bornstedt's store to Esson's drug store. Austin C. Millon made a flying trip to Portland the first of the week. There was a New Year's party at J. G. Deshaizer's Sunday night, when about twenty-five of the neighbors enjoyed themselves with games, music and recitations. The supper, which was not served until 1912, was a leap year lap lunch, consisting of an abundance of good things to eat and a few practical jokes. E. P. Hagmore, a representative of the Hastings Industrial Company, of Chicago, which makes a business of building co-operative creameries and canneries throughout the United States, is in this district trying to interest the dairy men in a creamery to be built at or near Sandy. Mr. Hagmore has moved his family to Portland and is delighted with the country. EAGLE CREEK. Ed. Chapman visited with Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas Wednesday. Mrs. Lydia Woodie and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Huntington made a trip to Portland last week to see Mr. Huntington's mother, who has been ill, but is now some better. Ed. Chapman and Mrs. R. B. Gibson returned from Portland Saturday, where they had been visiting with their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chapman. Carl Huntington, of Spokane, was out spending a couple of days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Huntington. He returned to Portland Monday. G. A. Douglas, of Portland, was out this way the first of the week calling on relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas, Ed. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson, G. A. Douglas, Roy Douglas and Peter Peschel. Walter Douglas butchered hogs New Year's day. We are enjoying some snow for a change. Miss Anna Duncan returned Monday evening after a week's vacation and resumed her duties in the school room Tuesday morning. STONE. As the year 1912 came Monday, good wishes to the Enterprise family and the readers of the Enterprise. As the people living away out of the din of battle of city life, thus we are not troubled with so steady a din of noise. One big load of oats, one of hay and other smaller loads, went along here this morning, but there was not water squeezed out of the road. It has been a long time since we have seen the ground as solid as it is now, and old nature is holding hand and foot with out any sunshine to aid in loosening the solid frozen roads. Grant Mumpower's pole sawmill is as still as the wind. He has not got the steam raised yet today.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brown, who are staying at the latter's parents, at Elwood, called on Grandma Dix last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Reed Graham and daughter Helen went to Portland New Year's Day and were guests at a family dinner. Misses Annie and Emma Ridder returned Monday, from Cornelius, having spent the holidays with their sister, Mrs. Chas. Epler, who formerly resided here. Miss Jessie Bridenstine, of Bolton, arrived last week to spend the winter here with her aunt, Mrs. B. Cronin. The road from the corner down to the river at Wilsonville would be the better of a little fixing. There will be services in the church next Sunday evening. Sunday school in the morning as usual. Clarence Giles, who has been a resident of Wilsonville for over two years, was very seriously injured at Fulton on the river at Wilsonville while trying to operate a brake that refused to work. The unfortunate young man had one leg broken at the hip joint and serious internal injuries are feared. He was taken to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, where his hosts of friends here, wish for him a speedy recovery. The basket ball game Saturday evening, when the W. A. C. lined up against the Woodburn team, resulted in the former coming out victorious by the splendid score of 29 to 17. The following players led the village team to victory: Andy Hasselbrink, Elmer Seely, forwards; Doris Young, center; George Murray and George Stanzel, guards. After the game a social dance was much enjoyed by those who trip the light fantastic. The usual New Year salutes were fired off on schedule time here on Sunday evening at twelve o'clock. Even on the telephone bells were mixed up in a glorious medley of sound, and thrashing whistles, together with engine whistles of smaller mien, welcomed in the glad New Year. Don't forget to renew your subscription to the Enterprise through our agent, Chas. Ridder. He is conveniently located at the postoffice where he will be glad to renew old subscriptions or take new ones at any time. The January edition, especially gotten out for advertising Clackamas county, is to be a copy which we will all be proud to send to our friends who are freezing in the eastern states. Among the railway announcements for the Oregon Electric extension, is the one given from Wilsonville to McMinnville, a distance of 23 miles. This will mean a great deal to Wilsonville and now with our fertile farming land, and river advantages, if our oil well will have little left to ask for, as our cup of bounty for the year of 1912 seems to be overflowing so early in the year. MOUNTAIN VIEW. A cold wave has struck this locality. The thermometer registered 22° early Wednesday morning. Snow fell to the depth of about two inches Sunday morning. O. W. Griffin has city water in his house, also hot and cold water with bath tub and sewer connections. Claude Vanhoy is out again and went to Maple Lane Sunday to have chicken dinner with his friend, Douglas Thorne, who gave a special invitation. O. A.

All disreputable characters or uncivilized Indians will be refused admission to the hall. So be wise.
