U. S. TELLS CUBA SHE MUST BEHAVE

GOMEZ ORDERED TO ENFORCE LAWS OR INTERVENTION WILL FOLLOW.

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT MENACED

President Taft Takes Firm Stand In Trouble Which Is Now Blamed On Veterans In Service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Notice was served on Cuba by the State Department today that the United States would intervene unless the veteran organization of the republic ceased to nullify the laws guaranteeing a republican form of government in the island. The government's attitude was set forth in the following note, presented formally today to the Cuban government:

"The situation in Cuba, as now reported, causes grave concern to the government of the United States. That the laws intended to safeguard free republican government shall be enforced, and not defied, is obviously essential to the maintenance of law, order and stability indispensable to the status of the Republic of Cuba in the continued well-being of which the United States has always evinced and cannot escape a vital interest.

"The President of the United States therefore looks to the President and government of Cuba to prevent the threatened situation which would compel the government of the United States to take its desires, to consider what measures it must take in pursuance of the obligations of its relations to Cuba."

It was upon reports of Minister Beaupre that today's note was based. Minister Beaupre reported from Havana that in defiance of a decree issued by President Gomez, forbidding officers of the army and rural guards to participate in politics, many army officers and rurales attended a meeting Sunday night of the National Council of Veterans an organization of veterans of the Cuban War of Independence. Such participation also is prohibited by law.

The veterans have been active in the past three months in attempting to have displaced from the civil service persons who sympathized with the Spanish cause in the rebellion. Press dispatches today indicated that the veterans were threatening to coerce members of Congress to nullify the law regarding the participation of the military in politics.

BUTTER IN CHICAGO NEARS SIXTY CENTS

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Sixty-cent butter! Chicagoans faced such a possible record-breaking situation today, when the retail price of Elgin creamery butter—the staple of the market—reached 47 cents in many stores—the highest price in the city's history, dealers declared.

The wholesale price, 42.1-2 cents a pound, fixed by the Elgin Butter Board, broke all wholesale records for twenty-four years and commission men declared that advances in the price seemed inevitable.

Thursday The Three Bears

A very acceptable juvenile picture telling the well-known nursery rhyme about the three bears, a great big bear, a middle sized bear, and a very little bear, who had porridge for dinner and went for a walk to let it cool. The scenes are often very cute. The actors in bearskins fill the bill remarkably well. It will greatly please the little children.

INTEREST GROWS IN BIG REVIVAL

EVANGELIST EVANS DOES NOT BELIEVE IN MAKING CONVERTS BY "NAGGING"

'DOUBTING THOMASES,' HIS THEME

"Many Sinners White-Washed, But Only Christ's Atoning Blood Can Wash White," Declares Speaker.

The revival campaign at the First Baptist church continues with unabated interest. Evangelist Evans gives daily Bible reading at 2:30 p. m.; conducts a meeting for school boys and girls at 3:30 and preaches every evening at 7:30. He is a busy man. The working forces of the church are engaged heartily in the work. Special plans are being laid for effective personal work outside the services. Mr. Evans will not allow promiscuous personal work to be done in the audience during the time he is giving the invitation. No one need feel that he is going to be nagged at to become a Christian in Mr. Evans' meetings. He presents the gospel with its appeal to the human heart and then asks men to act in accordance with their convictions. Mr. Evans Tuesday night spoke on "Doubting Thomases." The following excerpts are from addresses delivered Tuesday:

"There is a difference between white-washing and washing white. They white-washed Balenger but they did not wash him white. So many sinners are white-washed but only Christ's atoning blood can wash white.

"A mother seeing her neighbor's child in mischief thinks that child ought to be severely corrected; but when that same mischievous deed is done by her own child she thinks it cute. So love covereth a multitude of sins. No mother can long remain away from a crying baby in distress. So God the Father and a penitent man soon come together.

"I am not very much interested in heaven or hell, but what I want is a gospel that can make me be what I ought to be here in Oregon City and then I can trust God for a heaven. There are two classes of Christians, first those who have too much starch and second those who have too much indigo mixed in their faith. Too much worldly pride will ruin the usefulness of a Christian and too much pessimism is just as hurtful.

"Some people's religion is a burden to them. They act as if their religion were either a bun on the foot or a carbuncle on the neck, whereas God intended religion should make people happy.

FIGHT NEARLY WON, SAYS RUM ENEMY

F. C. BURK, ANTI-SALOON HEAD, ADDRESSES CHURCH BROTHERHOOD.

MOVEMENT GAINS, HE DECLARES

Judge Cleeton Says Consumers And Producers Are Not Getting Square Deal—Jubilee Singers Entertain.

The prohibition movement has gained such headway that our grandchildren will have to go to the dictionary to find the meaning of the word saloon," said F. C. Burk, president of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon at the banquet of the Congregational Brotherhood Tuesday evening. "The saloon is not supported by the rich or the middle classes, but by the poorer class. There are 350 saloons in Portland making $5,000 a year, and this money comes from the laborers. This is the reason there are so many men destitute when they are out of work.

"Although there has been an active prohibition movement only eighteen years, it is effective in every state in the union but Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Nevada."

Mr. Burk's subject was "Liberty Under the Law."

Judge Cleeton, of Multnomah county, spoke upon "Unequal Distribution of Wealth," declaring that the producers were receiving too little for their products and the consumers were paying too much for what they purchased. He thought the middlemen were deriving too large a profit, and suggested that public markets be established. The speaker said that the army and navy entailed a needless expense, and urged that peace be established between nations.

Mayor Dimick agreed with Mr. Burk that the saloons had caused much evil and urged their regulation.

HAWLEY WILL URGE RIVER IMPROVEMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Representative Hawley will go before the rivers and harbors committee tomorrow to present arguments in support of appropriations recommended for waterways improvements in Western Oregon.

For the Willamette River Mr. Hawley will urge the adoption of a project looking to improvement between Portland and Oregon City and a project calling for an annual expenditure of $40,000 for confining the river between its banks at points above Oregon City.

Mr. Hawley will also ask for estimates of the cost of installing a system of locks in the river above Oregon City, with a view to increasing the channel depth to six feet.

WATER RECEDING; MILLS TO RESUME

CHINESE GARDENS AT GREENPOINT AND OTHER PROPERTY INUNDATED.

ABERNETHY IS OUT OF ITS BANKS

Railway Crossing Near Parkplace Under Water—Residences Are In Danger of Being Flooded.

The water was receding at 4 o'clock Wednesday morning and it is believed that all departments of the mills will be in operation Thursday. The crest of the flood was reached about 6 o'clock Wednesday morning and by noon there had been a fall of two and one-half inches. The Willamette Pulp & Paper Company mill will probably be able to resume operation in all departments Thursday afternoon. The Oregon City Woolen Mill will not resume work in its picking department until Thursday.

The Chinese gardens near Greenpoint are under water, and the lower flat in the northern part of the city is almost inundated. The roadway leading from Parkplace near St. Agnes' Baby Home and the track on the Southern Pacific railroad, is under water. Last year the O. W. P. suffered from a big washout of their roadbed but this was repaired and there is no danger of this happening at that point with the high waters of this year. The Abernethy is overflowing its banks near Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Washington streets. The water of that creek is nearing several homes.

B. T. McBain manager of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, said that all departments except the pulp mill, wood mills 1 and 2 would be operated as usual Thursday. The pulp mill closed on Monday, and will remain closed until the water recedes. The Crown Pulp & Paper Company on the West Side closed and many men are out of employment. At the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company only one large paper machine is in operation.

MISS SCHUEBEL BECOMES BRIDE

YOUNG OREGON CITY WOMAN AND PORTLAND MAN ARE MARRIED.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY PERFORMED

Lee H. Bequaith And Charming Bride, After Receiving Congratulations Start On Honeymoon.

One of the prettiest home weddings in this city for several months was solemnized at the Schuebel home on Seventh and Jefferson streets Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Eula, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel, was married to Mr. Lee H. Bequaith, of Portland, the impressive marriage ceremony being performed by Rev. J. H. Landsborough, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Leon DesLarzes sang impressively, "Oh Flower of all the World," and at the conclusion six former schoolmates of the bride entered the dining room and into the parlor from the library and formed an aisle with cedar ropes, these being Miss Evelyn Harding, in blue; Miss Louise Huntley, also in blue; Miss Clara Mused and Miss Smith, of Portland, attired in white, while Mrs. Charles Thomas, of Drain, Or., and cousin of the bride, and Roberta Schuebel, sister of the bride, wore pink. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, rendered by Melvin Ogden, musical director of the Oregon Glee Club at Eugene, the bride, preceded by the little flower girl, Ruth Schuebel, scattering carnations in the pathway and the bride's maid, Miss Hazel Tooze, entered the living room, passing through the aisle formed of evergreens. Beneath a canopy of evergreens and carnations they were met by Mr. Bequaith and his best man, John Bellis, of Los Angeles, and where Rev. J. R. Landsborough performed the ceremony. The young couple received the best wishes and congratulations of their friends and relatives attending, and refreshments were served.

The bride wore a beautiful princess empire gown of white crepe meteor, elaborately decorated in pearls and with silk fringe trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses and lilies of the valley. In her cofers she wore Bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Hazel Tooze, wore Nile green chiffon over silk, and carried pink carnations, while the little flower girl, sister of the bride, Ruth Schuebel, wore white China silk.

During the evening, after the marriage ceremony was performed, Misses Roberta Schuebel and Edith Aldredge presided over the refreshments, and Misses Alene Phillips and Zena Moore served, while the punch bowl was presided over by the Misses Freda Martin and Morietta Hickman. The decorations of the rooms were very attractive. The reception hall was in Oregon grape, ferns and magnolia, the stairway being entwined with the Oregon grape, while the living room where the ceremony was performed, was in evergreens and white carnations. A canopy was formed with ferns and from this was suspended a basket of smilax and carnations. At the rear were potted begonias. Between the dining room and living room was an archway of Oregon grape. The dining room was in smilax and Oregon grape. The table was correspondingly decorated, white sprays of smilax were used from center of the table to each corner, the center piece being of carnations. The library was in evergreens. Many beautiful wedding gifts were received by the young couple, including silver, cutglass, brass, Haviland china and linen.

Mr. and Mrs. Bequaith left Tuesday evening on their honeymoon, and upon their return will live in Portland.

The bride is well known in this city, where she has spent most of her life. She has taken an active part in church work, being a member of the Presbyterian church of this city, and is also a musician as well as an elocutionist and has appeared many times before Oregon City audiences. The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bequaith, of Portland.

CHARTER BOARD MAKES PROGRESS

BUSINESS MANAGER FOR CITY IS MOST RADICAL SUGGESTION.

MAYOR TO BE CHOSEN BY COUNCIL

Chief of Police Will Recommend Men For Night Service—Plan Tentative And May Be Changed.

The charter committee appointed by Mayor Brownell and the City Council of 1911, composed of George A. Harding, chairman; Lavy Stipp, C. Schuebel, R. L. Holman, F. J. Tooze, H. E. Stevens and William Andresen, has come to a tentative agreement regarding the revised charter to be submitted to the voters for approval. When the committee was appointed it was thought by many taxpayers that the city should have a commission form of government, and while no definite agreement has been reached, the committee at present is under the opinion that a business form of government would be the better plan.

In conformity with this plan the committee has taken the charter up, chapter by chapter and while making as few changes as possible, has provided a scheme of government which it is thought will best serve the interests of the city. Messrs. Stipp and Schuebel have been appointed a committee to have a typewritten copy of the charter as revised prepared, and this will be given the same careful consideration as was the old charter. The entire scheme of government may be changed. When the committee has made all changes it is deemed necessary it is probable that a meeting of the taxpayers will be called and the instrument submitted to them. The revised charter will again be considered and eventually the voters will pass upon it.

The tentative plan is to have five councilmen, one from each ward, and two from the city at large. The councilmen are to elect the Mayor, the business manager, the city engineer, the street commissioner and the chief of police. The council will name the night policemen upon recommendation of the chief.

WOMAN'S CLUB DINNER TO BE FEBRUARY 22

The Woman's Club has changed the date for its annual banquet from February 14, which is the date of the British Club's annual meeting, to February 22. It was desired not to have a conflict of dates. The colonial period will be depicted at the banquet of the Woman's Club, the decorations and costumes being of that time. The banquet has been arranged for the husbands and sweethearts of the members of the club. Mrs. Mollie Straight is in charge of the program.

Oregon Specialty Co. PROGRESS EDITION RAPIDLY GOING

You've undoubtedly seen it, but have you got one? That's the question. The Progress Edition of the Morning Enterprise is admittedly a publication worthy of the biggest city in these United States. The Enterprise has done its share and now its up to you.

A thousand personal letters could not describe your home town as does this remarkable production. In text, picture, and letterpress the story of Oregon City is fascinatingly told and magnificently printed.

Nothing like it has ever been attempted in this town before. Its cost price—TEN CENTS—doesn't even pay for materials, never mind writing, printing and binding the edition is exhausted. Keep a copy for yourself and send the rest to your friends back East. They'll appreciate it even more than you will, if such a thing could be possible.

TEN CENTS.
