by the engineers. While I do not know what policy of economy our Democratic friends may adopt in the matter of a rivers and harbors bill for this session, this matter of improvement at a very small cost appeared to be favorably regarded by the committee. I will continue to do all I possibly can in the matter."

Craving For Variety.
The servant girl who had been given an afternoon off to attend a matinee returned unusually early.
"Why," said her mistress, "you surely couldn't have waited to see the whole performance?"
"No, ma'am," was the reply. "It said on the program that act 3 was the same as act 1 and I don't want to see it again."

WOMAN THROWN BY PONY SERIOUSLY HURT

While trying to ride a wild pony, Mrs. May Yonce, of Estacada, was thrown and seriously injured Monday. Her left arm and left hip were dislocated and her face was badly lacerated. She was attended by Dr. Addix. Mrs. Yonce is the wife of Willis Yonce, a prominent farmer. Her ten-year-old son for whom the pony was bought, witnessed the accident to his mother. Mrs. Yonce will be confined to her home for several weeks.

DUKE OVERLOOKS GREAT 'WHITE WAY'

made its way to automobiles.
The royal visitors tonight met nearly 300 of New York's society folk at a ball in the home of Ambassador Reid.
The impressions New York has made upon the Duke have been but meagerly told in the exclamation that the city has changed wonderfully since his visit here as Prince Arthur in 1868. He has given no interviews, but he has seen much of the New York newspapermen, especially the reporters.
The party's trip today included a visit to the private art galleries of J. P. Morgan. This was followed by a luncheon at the Reid home, at which Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was a guest. The afternoon also included trips to Grant's tomb, Columbia University and to the new Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine.
The formal dinner at the Reids' tonight was set for about sixty persons, and the dance was afterward.
How it Looked.
"You think she married him for his money?"
"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "It didn't seem to me as much like a wedding as like a speculation."—Washington Star.

HOW SMALL STORES CAN DRAW TRADE By Electric Light

Using MAZDA lamps in show windows and electric signs outside will draw trade from larger stores not so well equipped. We will be glad to tell you how this can be done with these lamps which give more light for less money than any other illuminant.
