MISS LOUISE HUNTLEY WILL GIVE RECITAL

Oregon City lovers of music will do well to secure an invitation to the piano recital to be given at Eller's Music Hall, Friday evening, February 2, 1912. Miss Louise Huntley, daughter of W. A. Huntley, a pupil of W. Gifford Nash, will give a recital on that night. Miss Huntley possesses the two great requisites of the piano virtuoso—temperament and technique, and her teacher is thoroughly justified in presenting her as a finished artist. The program follows:
Prelude and Fugue in C major (W. T. K.) Bach
Suite op. 1 D'Albert
Allemande-Courante-Sarabande Gavotte and Musette-Gigue
Prelude D flat Chopin
Mazurka B flat Chopin
Nocturn C minor Chopin
Etude C minor Westerbout
Bel d'Enfants R. Straus
Reverie Scriabine
Prelude (left hand) Scriabine
Humoresque Grieg
Gnomesreigen Liszt
Liebestraum No. 3 Liszt
Fledermaus (Waltz transcription) Strauss-Schutt

The Code of Honor.
Duelling is a survival from the ancient judicial combats which were at their height in the middle ages. The first formal duel among English speaking peoples was in 1096. France seems to have been the land in which the "code" had its most flourishing times. From France the practice passed over to England, and from England it came over to America. In the early days of our country duels were quite common, but since Burr killed Hamilton the practice has been steadily on the decline. It is today a very rare thing for a duel to take place in any civilized land, and in the United States the foolish custom is practically extinct.—New York American.

Memory Feat.
Our notion of a wonderful memory is that possessed by a man who can tell how many days there are in a given month without going through the "thirty days hath September" thing.—Metropolitan Magazine.

At the sign of Suspended Absalom.
M. Camille Flammarion mentions that on the boulevard near the Port St. Denis there used to be a wig-maker's shop which had for its sign a large picture showing Absalom hanging by his hair from a branch and pierced through with Joab's spear, and underneath was a quatrain which may be translated:
O passerby, see the woe of the rig
Of Absalom hung by the nape
Of his neck! If he'd worn a wig
He'd have avoided this terrible scrape.
—Paris Liberte.

Depends on Where He is.
"How old would you say she is?"
"To her face or behind her back?"
—Detroit Free Press.

HOW SMALL STORES CAN DRAW TRADE By Electric Light

Using MAZDA lamps in show windows and electric signs outside will draw trade from larger stores not so well equipped. We will be glad to tell you how this can be done with these lamps which give more light for less money than any other illuminant.
