WORLD PAYS HOMAGE TO ROBERT BURNS

(The anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, the great Scotch poet, will be observed throughout the civilized world today. The Oregon City Burns Society will celebrate the anniversary at Woodman Hall next Monday night.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN.

Is there for honest poverty
That tings his head, an' a' that;
The coward slave—we pass him by,
We dare be poor for a' that!
For a' that, an' a' that,
Our toils obscure an' a' that,
The rank is but the guinea's stamp,
The man's the gowd for a' that.

What though on hamely fare we dine,
Wear hoddin grey, an' a' that?
Gie fools their silks, and knaves their wine,
A man's a man for a' that.

For a' that, an' a' that,
Their tinsel show, an' a' that,
The honest man, tho' e'er sae poor,
Is king o' men for a' that.

Ye see you birkie ca'd a lord,
Wha struts, an' stares, an' a' that;
Tho' hundreds worship at his word,
He's but a coof for a' that.

For a' that, an' a' that,
His ribband, star, an' a' that,
The man o' independent mind,
He looks an' laughs at a' that.

A prince can mak a belted knight,
A marquis, duke, an' a' that;
But an honest man's aboon his might,
Gude faith, he maunna fa' that!

For a' that, an' a' that,
Their dignities an' a' that,
The pitch o' sense, an' pride o' worth,
Are higher rank than a' that.

Then let us pray that come it may,
(As come it will for a' that),
That Sense and Worth, o'er a' the earth,
Shall bear the gree, an' a' that.

For a' that, an' a' that,
It's coming yet for a' that,
That man to man, the world o'er,
Shall brithers be for a' that.

A marquis, duke, an' a' that;
But an honest man's aboon his might,
Gude faith, he maunna fa' that!

For a' that, an' a' that,
Their dignities an' a' that,
The pitch o' sense, an' pride o' worth,
Are higher rank than a' that.

Then let us pray that come it may,
(As come it will for a' that),
That Sense and Worth, o'er a' the earth,
Shall bear the gree, an' a' that.

For a' that, an' a' that,
It's coming yet for a' that,
That man to man, the world o'er,
Shall brithers be for a' that.

PASS IT BY.

If you hear a scandalous story,
Pass it by.
There's no reason "your" lips should tell a lie.
Your soul will be the whiter,
Surely life will be much brighter,
So pass it by.

If by others you are hurt,
Pass it by.
When an explanation's made,
You will feel so well repaid,
And in time these faults will fade.
If passed by.

If a temper seems to brew,
Pass it by.
It is better far for you,
And you'll get a broader view,
A life of peace pursue.
Then pass it by.

Things that happen oft in life,
If passed by,
Will smooth o'er the cause of strife,
With which this life is rife.
Let us lead a pleasant life.
Pass it by.

Let us pass wrong by,
Pass then by.
Of life's sweetness let us take,
And life's troubles let us shake,
Life's so short for our own sake
Let us pass wrong by.

Refrain—Pass it by. O pass it by,
There's no time to cherish grudges,
Time's so near when God will judge
us.

Pass wrongs by.
—Emma Jennings.

REMONSTRANCE.

To the Honorable County Court of Clackamas County, Oregon:

We, the undersigned residents and legal voters of Oak Grove Precinct, and having been such for a period exceeding thirty days prior to the signing of this petition, do hereby remonstrate against the granting of a license to W. J. Alexander, or any other person, to sell spirituous, malt and vinous liquors or operate a saloon within the bounds of Oak Grove precinct.

We allege that the petition by which such a license is now asked does not contain a majority of the legal voters of said precinct at the present time, and that many names contained therein are not either residents or legal voters in Oak Grove precinct.

MRS. RUSSELL BURIED IN MOUNTAIN VIEW

Mrs. Celestia M. Russell, of Myrtle Point, Or., but formerly of this city, died in Wenatchee, Wash., January 16. The body was brought to this city and buried in the Mountain View Cemetery, last Sunday. After her husband's death, which occurred in August, she came to this city, thinking a change of climate would prove beneficial to her health. From here, she went to Wenatchee, but ill health still followed her and after many weeks of suffering she died. Her age was thirty-three years nine months and twenty-seven days. She is survived by four children. Two daughters, age respectively eleven and nine years, one son age three and a daughter of fifteen months. Her father and mother, one sister and one brother of this city, one sister in Texas, and three brothers in New Mexico, also survive her.

CORRESPONDENCE

CLARKES.

We are having rather cold, foggy weather at present.

Quite a number are on the sick list with bad colds.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullard and children spent Sunday at the Wallace home.

Mr. Orem was buried Saturday in the Clarkes cemetery.

Mr. Stark and nephew were in Oregon City one day last week on busi-ness.

W. H. Wallace is busy clearing land for potatoes.

Our school teacher has left Mrs. Kirbyson and is boarding with L. Sagar.

The cold weather did not injure the grain.

The price of fresh eggs seems coming down daily, but people would rather have China eggs five years old anyway.

Will Dix passed through this burg Sunday.

Sam Elmer and his hired man were plowing last week, getting ready to sow grain.

Mr. Bottemiller is plowing to sow wheat.

Mr. Wettlauffer was plowing and getting ready to sow grain.

Mr. Buckner moved a man into the hills last Saturday.

Mr. Marguardt was in town last week.

The literary society met Wednes-day night and the question for debate was "Resolved, that great men make circumstances and circumstances do not make great men." Those on the affirmative side were Ruby Gard, Fred Wilcox, J. L. Gard, Laura Gard, Archie Cumins, and those on the negative—Clyde Ringo, Mrs. G. R. Miller, J. Dix, Edna Elmer. The negative side won.

DOVER.

Mr. Rice is entertaining his friend, Mr. Haines, from British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ragland and daughter, from Santa Rosa, California, visited old friends in Dover the past week.

Mr. Root and son moved away last week.

C. A. Keith made a trip to the Douglas neighborhood Monday.

The Leap Year social given by Mrs. Reid's Sunday school class at the church Friday night, was well attend-ed. Everyone present enjoyed the program. The fish pond afforded much amusement. The refreshments were pie and punch. Proceeds amount-ed to $12.20.

Mrs. Summer entertained a few friends Saturday evening at her par-ents' home.

The Dover-Firwood Telephone Com-pany has its line in working order again.

Mr. Tennant and bride came out from Portland Saturday and will soon be settled in their home. At present they are boarding at the Imperial.
