OLD AND NEW SINS.

The wave of conscience and confession which psychologists claim is now sweeping over the country will dash itself to pieces against that courtroom in Chicago where the packers of the meat trust are on trial. No matter who or what it may sweep away in its course before it gets there, at that place it will find pause. There is not the slightest sign of a wave of remorse, or a psychological wave of any kind, breaking down the immemorial and historic landmarks of a trust now old enough to have acquired a number of them.

Ways to Success For Young Men. By HUDSON MAXIM. Inventor of Explosives. Image of a man in a cap.

REMEMBER that all pleasure and all happiness depend upon the normal exercise of faculty and that by consequence happiness is a function of the trained and active body and mind. NEVER look for something for nothing. Make up your mind to earn everything, and remember that opportunity is the only thing that any one can donate you without demoralizing you and doing you an injury. REMEMBER that work, always work, for the acquirement of knowledge, possessions and power is to yield you all your happiness and that there will never come a time to quit. REMEMBER that every one else has equal right with yourself to opportunity for the exercise of faculty and to the enjoyment of possessions. REMEMBER that one enslaves himself just in proportion as he enslaves others, that he is unjust to himself in proportion as he is unjust to others, that he robs himself in proportion as he robs others and that no man has the ability to get the best of the world or to get more out of life than he earns out of it. THERE is a medical truism that whatever enters into a man either does him good or harm. By consequence, then, remember that whatever food, drink or drug one may partake of which is not

George V. Entering the King's Gate For the Delhi Durbar

Copyright by American Press Association, 1912.

DELHI, the city of the Moguls, has celebrated the great durbar, and the gorgeous pavilions which housed the king-emperor and his splendor loving vassals have vanished. One of the most impressive features of the pageant was that depicted in our illustration when King George, proclaimed emperor of India, rode through the "king's gate" into the ancient city. This entrance, with its flanking elephants, is so called because in the days of the Mogul sway only the king of Delhi and Oudh was allowed to pass through it, as he did when he went to perform his devotions at the famous Jumma Masjid mosque.

would undertake to explain it on scientific grounds, and their explanation is not so much scientific as sentimental. They claim that there is something in the air at intervals moving the wicked to confession and repentance. But among the cases they cite there is none of a trust magnate-raising price of food products to inordinate levels, or of trust magnates in clothing, or in fuel, or in any of the necessities of life. Nor does their list include the name of an adulterator of foods, or drinks or medicines, or any other of that peculiarly fiendish class of criminals.

Our Uncle Shelby M. Cullom has answered the suggestion that he is too old to run again by getting first to the office of Secretary of State at Springfield with his notice of candidacy. This puts his name at the head of the list of senatorial candidates at the beginning, which, from the roar being raised by the distanced, is taken as meaning that there is where it will be at the end. Maybe the Cubans are mad because Uncle Sam raised the battle ship Maine. If Congress is playing politics a new term has been discovered for doing nothing in particular. President Taft is so much in earnest on the subject of economy that Congress is somewhat pressed for time to catch up.

Less than 28,000,000 cubic yards remain to be excavated in the Panama Canal. Culebra may be referred to in the past tense. Mme. Schumann-Heink is not so young as she once was, but her voice is still too great to need such advertising as a divorce suit. Cuban veterans should reflect that they are no better qualified to govern the island than to liberate it, a job they turned over to Uncle Sam. If a combine is running up the price of butter the movement will do more to boom oleomargarine than butter dealers seem to understand.

Live Wirelets (By Edgar Bates.) Generally recognized as an important factor in the upbuilding of any community the daily newspaper holds an important place in any city. Easterners who are seeking a location to make investments first get the newspapers and from the papers they obtain their first impressions of the city or country in question. Thus it is that a newspaper is the advance agent of the city or community and upon the appearance of the paper the investor is favorably or not favorably impressed. The success of any paper is determined by the advertising it carries. If the merchants of a city do not have the faith in their merchandise and their city to advertise in their own daily paper, the community at large as well as the paper and the merchant will suffer. If, on the other hand, the merchant does have faith in his goods, does have faith in the city where he seeks to make his living, and does seek his faith by advertising in the daily paper, then the owners of the paper are able to turn out issues that are a credit to themselves and the city they represent. A live newspaper is the biggest booster in any city, and does more advertising of the city and county and their wonderful resources than all other mediums of publicity combined. Consequently the newspaper merits the support, both morally and financially of every business man in a town. But spending money advertising in a paper is not like paying a subscription to a Publicity Department of a Commercial Club. Advertising pays, and pays well. Advertising in the daily paper not only helps the merchant and his business, but in assisting the paper in its support, advertises the whole county in the credible issues that are only possible when supported by advertisers. The amount of advertising done by any paper in December is always greater than that carried in the following two months. When the big Xmas rush is over trade falls back to its normal condition and it is at just such times that it pays best to advertise. When business needs stimulating the best possible medium is the daily newspaper. It carries your message right into the homes of the prospective customers you seek. The paper is now as necessary to most people as their breakfasts, and the reading of the paper is looked forward to as a daily pleasure. The one best way to increase your business, enhance the value of your own property, stimulate trade, turn a quiet month into a busy one and help the community as a whole is to advertise in the daily newspaper.

BRYAN PEACEMAKER FOR FOLK AND CLARK

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 25.—W. J. Bryan, after he had missed a train here today, tried to patch up the difference between the factions of Speaker Clark and ex-Governor Folk, who are seeking Missouri's indorsement for the Presidential nomination. The Democratic candidate was met at the railway station by Mr. Folk, who conferred with him for more than an hour. Later two of the leading supporters of the ex-Governor were called into the conference. A short time after the Folk men departed, two local leaders for Speaker Clark, ex-Governor Stephens and "Big" Rule, had a talk with Mr. Bryan. National Committeeman Goltz was the last Democrat who conferred with Mr. Bryan.

A Johnsonian Pun. When Dr. Johnson visited the University of St. Andrews he took occasion to inquire of one of the professors as to the state of their funds and being told that they were not so affluent as many of their neighbors, replied, "No matter; persevere in the plan you have formed and you will get rich by degrees."

The Laziest Man. "He was so lazy," said the Billville citizen, "he actually depended on the zigzag lightning to write his name for him and on the thunder to bellow it out if you happened to ask him for his entitlement!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Question For Question. Creditor—How often must I climb these five flights of stairs before I get the amount of this little account? Debtor—Do you think I am going to rent a place on the first floor to accommodate my creditors?

Lacked Opportunity. Little Willis, a cherub of seven or eight years, returned home glumly one evening from a party. "Well, did you have a good time?" his uncle asked. "No," Willis snarled. "No? Why not?" said the uncle. "Because," grumbled Willis, "mother told me to eat as much as I wanted—and I couldn't!"

BIG INCREASE IN DEMAND FOR SPUDS

There is several times as heavy a demand for potatoes coming forward as the trade is able to take care of. The season is getting rather late, but still growers are not offering supplies freely. Most of them are inclined to hold for almost double the present price and all efforts to dislodge this opinion have failed.

Texas and Arizona are at present very anxious to take hold of Oregon potatoes but the price available will not allow dealers to pay more than $1 per cental f. o. b. cars Willamette Valley points. While the price in the southwest is high, the freight rate from here absorbs so much of it that there is not very much left. Some of the potatoes that are going from here to Southwestern points command as high as 90c per cental freight charge.

The potato market here at this time is somewhat below that of a year ago. Outside potato markets along the coast are showing practically no change and there has been no revision of the figures being offered by shippers.

Demand for seed is not quite so good and some stock is being offered fractionally lower.

GREENPOINT HAS SMALLPOX VICTIMS

There was some uneasiness at Greenpoint Thursday when it was announced there were cases of smallpox in that vicinity, the victims of the disease being James Baxter, who with his wife have rooms in the house formerly occupied and owned by the late Mrs. Gibbons, and Mrs. Strauser, formerly Miss Bessie Bunce, who also has housekeeping rooms at the same place. There is another family, a man, wife and two children occupying rooms in this house. The cases are mild. City School Superintendent Toose, who is chairman of the health committee of the City Council, made an investigation. There is no danger of the disease spreading and every precaution is being taken to prevent it. Health Officer Norris has vaccinated all persons living in the houses occupied by the victims of the disease.
