'GOOD ROADS WEEK' NAMED BY WEST

come within our borders but much of this good has been nullified by some of the things we have failed to do and chief among these is our neglect in the matter of the construction of good roads.

Without good roads there can be no great development and no great progress. What we need most is more people—more people in the rural districts. And in order to attract people to the rural district we must make rural life pleasant and attractive. You cannot maroon a new settler and his family on a farm in an ocean of mud, no matter how beautiful the spot, and expect to find him happy and content. He demands good roads leading to the church and the schools and good roads leading to the markets and he is going to locate in that section where these advantages are to be found.

It is not only our duty but it is in keeping with good business to build good roads. Money spent for good roads is money well spent. When we speak of spending several millions of dollars during the next few years in road construction many are staggered by the proposal and the figures. They apparently are not aware that the several counties in this state spent over ten million of dollars during the past six years for road work, much of which was lost through lack of system and knowledge as to scientific road building.

The question of good roads has been fairly well discussed of late and we have learned more about road building during the past few years than we ever knew before, but we still have much to learn and still have much to do before we undertake on a large scale the construction of a system of highways in this State.

We need—first: the passage of model good road laws. Second: a competent man at the head of the highway department. Third: funds sufficient to carry on the work.

These things will come only through united effort and united effort will come only through a clear understanding of the whole question by the whole people of this state. This understanding will come only through the study by, and education of, the whole people.

Numerous bills are about to be introduced or presented to the legislature by the friends of good roads in different parts of the state; and, whereas, it is most important that the people of Oregon should give deep and thoughtful attention to the consideration, study and discussion of these measures.

Now therefore, I, Oswald West, Governor of the State of Oregon, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim the week beginning the fourth day of February, and ending the tenth day of February, as "Good Roads Week," and I do hereby earnestly recommend to be people of this state that during this period the question of good roads legislation be given careful thought and study through public and private discussion and through the columns of the press, in order that knowledge pertaining thereto may be increased, public sentiment crystallized and effective legislation secured.

In Testimony Hereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed, on this the twenty-sixth day of January, 1912.

OSWALD WEST,
Governor.

By the Governor:
BEN W. OLCOTT,
Secretary of State.

MISS VEDA WILLIAMS TO BE BRIDE SOON

The engagement of Miss Veda Williams, of this city, to Herbert A. Berkman, of McMinnville, was announced Saturday night, when Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, of Portland, and Mrs. C. G. Miller, of Oregon City, entertained at the home of the latter in honor of the bride-elect. Miss Williams' marriage to Mr. Berkman will take place probably during the latter part of February, and McMinnville will be their home.

The decorations of the Miller home, on Seventh street, were beautifully arranged and were in keeping with the spirit of the affair. The living room was ornamented with cyclamens and evergreen, and the dining-room was a charming spectacle, with red hearts festooned from the electrolators to the corners of the room, and in the center Dan Cupid, with his ever-ready dart, was suspended. The center-piece was formed with red carnations and asparagus ferns in brass bowl, and hand-painted place cards were decorated with pictures of Cupid with miniature bags of rice. The names of Miss Williams and Mr. Berkman were inscribed on red hearts attached with red ribbons to the cards.

Supper was served in courses, the hostess being assisted by Miss Marian Pickens and Miss Marian Lawrence, and guessing contests and other games followed the prizes going to Miss Marjorie Caulfield, Miss Edna Caulfield and Miss Nan Cochran.

The affair was an unusually enjoyable one and the bride-elect was showered with the congratulations of her friends. Those present were Miss Helen Daulton, Miss Cis Barclay Pratt, Miss Marjorie Caulfield, Miss Aimee Bollack, Miss Juliet Cross, Miss Edna Caulfield, Miss Bess Daulton, Miss Elizabeth Roos, Miss Zida Goldsmith, Miss Emily O'Malley, Miss Veda Williams, Miss Marian Lawrence, Miss Nan Cochran, Miss Marian Pickens, Mrs. M. D. Latourrette, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, Mrs. L. A. Morris, Mrs. C. O. T. Williams, Mrs. C. G. Miller, and Mrs. Fred Smith, of Bend.

SHIPPERS BOOST PRICE OF POTATOES

Price of potatoes is being boosted 10 per cent at country points by competition. While no higher prices are available at outside points, some shippers who are very anxious to do business, have practically cut their profits in an effort to secure supplies. This has only aggravated the situation, for with the market seemingly higher, growers are in less mood to sell than ever before.

As high as $1.10 is being offered and paid for ordinary shipping stock f. o. b. country points, although the general market is not above $1.05. There was a report of one lot being sold at $1.15, but this was strictly a fight between dealers—and the grower received the benefit.

More carloads of potatoes are this season being shipped to Arizona and Texas by Willamette Valley persons than during any other two years. The demand is growing, but is unappreciated owing to the lack of heavy selling by growers.

CORRESPONDENCE

LOGAN.

Spud buyers are coming around now trying to convince people it is time to "let go."

Little Zella Mostul is not improving much.

Ollie Crader is on the sick list and had to have a substitute to take his place driving the cream wagon on the Damascus route.

Mrs. J. A. Byers, of Stone, remains about the same.

Edwin Gerber and bride arrived home from their honeymoon trip to Astoria Monday. A reception and supper was given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks, to a few invited relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Gerber have the best wishes of a host of friends. Now is the time boys to go and do likewise. "It is not good that man should live alone."

There was a meeting of citizens at Barton Saturday to discuss the proposition of a bridge across the Clackamas at that place. A committee was chosen, consisting of I. M. Tracy, Fred Gerber, W. C. Kirchem and H. Gibson, to locate a site and draw up a petition. The bridge is badly needed and they are not joking. It will give the people on the north side a better way to get to Oregon City and will be a link to and in holding the county together.

A delegation of the good citizens of Sandy called on the creamery people here, their object being to learn something about co-operative work, etc., with a view to starting a creamery of their own on that plan. Another committee called on the company here to see about Clear Creek taking their cream for awhile. Mr. Kirchem will go to Sandy soon to investigate the matter further.

Rev. Erastus Smith, of Oregon City, will conduct services at the church here the first and third Sundays of each month.

STAFFORD.

We have had but very little rain for a week and the growing grain and fields of grass look green and beautiful.

Some plows are at work finishing up here and there small patches that the late unpleasantness interrupted.

A couple of men, who left Michigan last spring for pastures new, blew in last Saturday. They had been to Alberta in July, when a half inch of ice froze on the wash dish. No attractions in Alberta for them. They had just returned from a trip over Columbia county, where they found nothing they wanted but appeared to like the country south of Portland best of any they had seen.

Mrs. Brink, in trying to save herself from a misstep, in some way wrenched her arm which has given her a good deal of pain.

Those who have been sick with colds, are better as far as heard from and no new cases reported.

The Ladies' Circle met with Mrs. Ida Delkar last week and spent the day pleasantly and profitably. Mrs. Seedling invited them to meet with her the third Thursday in February. All ladies are invited. Mrs. Gage was again elected president and Mrs. Elhgen secretary-treasurer for the coming year.

The Tualatin Grange at Frog Pond has a public installation of officers Saturday, January 27. The County Deputy, C. T. Dickenson, has been selected as installing officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas attended the public installation and banquet given by the local lodge of Workmen and ladies' lodge of Neighbors at Tualatin last Wednesday evening.

Assisted by contributions from the ladies of the neighborhood Mrs. Brink bought curtains for the new chapel and Mr. Nussbaum hung them a couple of weeks ago.

The clearing and grubbing of the several patches in the neighborhood make quite a difference in the looks of the country and incidentally has given employment to a number of men.

Mark Baker is helping Louis Nemic to get his hop field into good order for the coming spring.

The pleasant announcement came this week of the marriage next week, Wednesday, January 31, of our esteemed friend, Henry Aden and Miss Blanche Bliss, late of Idaho. We are confident that neither of them has made any mistake and they have the good wishes of the entire community. Mr. Aden has been well and favorably known from childhood to man's estate and is a prosperous young merchant of Wilsonville while his bride-to-be is loved by all who know her. Mrs. Gage, who expected her friend, Miss Fradenberg, last Saturday, received word instead that she had been taken to the hospital in Salem with a severe case of the grip, but was in hopes to be able to come Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Aerni went to Bethany last Thursday to visit her parents whom she had not seen for a year. Miss Lydia Aerni will be home for a couple of weeks which gives her mother a much needed rest.
