OREGON CITY, OREGON

E. E. BRODIE, Editor and Publisher,

"Entered as second-class matter Jan-aary 2, 1911, at the post office at Oregon City, Oregon, under the Act of March 8, 1878."

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

CITY OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER.

THE MORNING ENTERPRISE ® is on sale at the following stores every day

Huntley Bros .- Druge Main Street. J. W. McAnulty-Cigars Seventh and Main. E. B. Auderson, Main near Sixth, M. E. Dunn-Confectionery Next door to P. O. City Drug Store Electric Hotel. Schoenborn-Confectionery Seventh and J. Q. Adams.

Jan. 30 In American History.

1835-Attempt to assassinate General Andrew Jackson, president of the United States. 1838-Osceola, famous Seminole chief.

died; born 1804. 1897-General Andrew Jackson Smith, U. S. A., retired, noted Federal commander, died; born 1815.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS. (From noon today to noon tomorrow.)

Sun sets 5:15, rises 7:11; moon sets 5:29 a. m.

BALTIMORE CONVENTION CITY.

In the days "befo' th' wah" Baltivention city of the Democrats. In that city Jackson was nominated in in 1858, and both Douglas and Breackenridge in 1860, a fateful year for the Democracy.

From 1860 the Democrats avoided Baltimore as a gathering place until 1872, when Horace Greely was made the standard bearer and led in a campaign resulting in his crushing de- Song-"The Star of Robbie Burns" heart. Of the nine conventions held at Baltimore the candidates of only four were successful at the polls.

the Democrats had looked upon Baltimore as a "Jonah" but a certified $100,000 check in the year of grace Solo-"Better Bide-a-Wee," Charlotte 1912 appears to have dissipated all

Baltimore is an ideal convention city. It has splendid hotels and resfacilities, well lighted, well paved and Sword clean streets and a citizenship unsurpassed in hospitality anywhere on the

THE HERO OF PEACE.

he died a hero in the discharge of his

Such is the tribute paid by Police Such is the tribute paid by Police Duncan. Every number on the pro-Battalion Chief Walsh, who was killed all responded to hearty encores. in the Equitable building fire.

It is a noteworthy character of fire department officers not only in New York, but in other cities not to stand Mathie and Marie Watson; bagpipe idly by and direct their men where selections by Piper John Smith; "Bon-defence of our lives and property are among the leading selections of the Publicity

Will Stop

Fraud

Large

Combines

as worthy of our admiration and grat- evening. upon the fields of battle. They are our heroes of peace.

"Sometimes a high brow indicates brains, but in some instances it is a monumental protuberance of osseous solidity." says the Los Angeles Tribune. Never touched us!

We refuse to believe that President J. McKillican, J. Kennedy.

Reception—T. B. Forbes, Rev. J.

R. Landsborough, Drugelliam Chal-Sun looks like some pictures of him

We regard it as downright cruelty ford, Robert Warner, Hugh Kennedy for the New York Globe to maintain that if Mr. Bryan were knocked into a cocked hat he would insist upon talking through it.

Fire will destroy even an insurance building.

in the Hall of Fame as the only one ard. who ever put one over on John D. Rockefeller.

Leap year hasn't made any difference with Nat Goodwin yet.

"I have not decided upon my candidate," says Mr. Bryan. Right you are, William. Keep them all guessing. They are better thus.

HOMAGE IS PAID SCOTTISH BARD

(Continued from page one.)

son. The hall was artistically decorated with evergreens, Oregon grape Baskets filled with ivy ed. and ferns. the walls, the ivy sprays adding much the platform was a large Scotch flag with the rampant lion, the latter being in red. The platform was also backed with evergreens. The decoration committee was composed of Miss Warner, Mrs. R. Wilson, E. C. Dye, Maxwell Telford and H. J. Bigger.

The early part of the evening was more was the favorite national con- devoted to the following musical and literary program: Overture-Patterson Brothers' Orchestra 1832, Polk in 1844, Cass in 1848, Pierce Introductory Remarks-Major C. S. Bagpipe Selections-Piper John Smith.

Solo-"Sing My Laddle," Mrs. John Oscar Woodfin, ac-Crawford. companist "Robert Burns"-William Wallace Mc-

Highland Fling-Miss Tootsie Williamson.

feat and ultimate death from a broken Highland Reel-Misses Marie Watson and Marguerette Mathie Song-"My Heart's in the Highlands" Robert Wallace.

Piano Solo-Marie Watson. For many years following the war Sailor's Hornpipe-The Pottage Sisters. Song-"Flow Gently Sweet Afton"

Master Sammy McLarty. Banfield.

Burns' quotations by members led by Rev. J. R. Landsborough. Duet,—"O Wert Thou in the Cauld Blast" Misses Banfield and Yeres taurants, unexcelled transportation Musical Selections-Telford Family. Dance-Tootsie Williamson, Marie Watson Solo-"Ye Banks and Braes," Miss Yeres. Song-"Bonnie, Jean' Kenneth Wood-

Irish Jig and Music-Mrs. Devlin. Gaelic Song-"Tan Voich," James

McKenzle. "He was a splendid fire-fighter and Highland Fling-The Pottage Sisters. 'Auld Lang Syne.

The accompanists of the evening were Mrs. John Crawford and Miss Highland Fling by Miss Tootsie Williamson of Portland; the "Sailor's Hornpipe" by the Pottage Sisters; Highland Reel, the Misses Marguerete to go, but to lead them in the discharge of their perilous duties.

nie Jean," by Master Kenneth Woodward; "Flow Gently Sweet Afton," by Master Sammy Molecular Common Molecular The firemen who risk their lives in lections by the Telford family were

Holding

Companies

Often

Masks

to Evade

the Law

Scotch dances were enjoyed. tertainment were as follows:

Ushers-H. Williamson, John Craw-

Unclaimed Letters.

Mrs. F. E. Men's List-Bruce, George Mr. Carnegie is entitled to a niche

Moore, T. R. (2); Smith, Frank C.

(2); Wells, W. A.; Williams, Leon-

15 CENT FARE TO PORTLAND ASKED

(Continued from page 1)

company had raised the rates to his station twice within the last six years. and the Portland rate was not lower-Lodge people traveling to and from Oregon City get on and off at Meldrum and walk the short distance remaining to Jennings Lodge. yet the interurban company demands nings, "and I know that with a cash fare of 5 cents there would be $5 spent here where there is $1 now." ing its line. He referred to the fact that the company formerly maintained

B. T. McBain, E. E. Brodie and W. A. Shewman will represent Oregon with the P. R., L. & P. Company officials; John F. Jennings and P. D. Newell will go from Jennings Lodge, and W. A. Hedges and S. L. Stevens will appear for Canemah.

EVANGELIST CONVERTS MORE THAN FIFT

of the largest on the Coast, having smote his thigh sharply exceeded the five hundred mark in point of members.

Mr. Evans will continue the services until Wednesday evening. The pastor will baptize candidates every

PARKPLACE WANTS

H. Dauchy, Jr., were appointed on the committee, and they will communi-General Superintendent Campbell of the Southern Pacific line to arrange a time and place for a conference. It was also suggested to the committee that it ask the railroad blackness and listened. Far ahead of officials to change the name of the him he thought he heard a faint sound. station from Paper Mills station, as it Again it came-a broken whistle. He

At the meeting it was reported that enough money is being paid to the O. W. P. line on local freight shipments each year to construct a freight depot, because of lack of proper facili-

he les out his voice until the pass re-The Whale's Appetite ford?"

in a minute."

Clintock, is it?"

you, Teddy?" he asked.

his unseen companion.

the answer came curtly:

you, Teddy?"

"Yes."

miration.

remarked.

suddenly.

No answer.

it was paternal.

calmly.

of hoofs

'Yes!" came back a chaking votee.

skin to a scrambling halt, "Where are

"Right bere," was a low toned reply

close beside him. "That isn't Mr.

"No. I'm Roger Webb, Mr. Clin-tock was called to North Fork and thought there was time enough to look

When they were riding slowly forward, allowing the horses to pick their way along the trail, Roger turned his head and resumed conversation with

"You're afraid of this place, aren't

"I don't blame you. Were you whis-

Teddy Belford did not answer, and

Roger concluded that he was ashamed of what might have been termed a display of cowardice. He had no idea of how old Teddy Belford might be or

"How old are you, Teddy?" he asked

"How old are you, Teddy, lad?" repeated Roger good humoredly, not that he cared greatly, but the low, contralto voice of Belford's kid interested have sent you to meet me if he had known how-how impertinent you were going to be," said Teddy Belford

"Impertinent - wow!" Roger was plainly disgusted. "I beg your pardon,

Mr. Teddy Belford," he ended sarcasti-

"Mr. Teddy Belford!" repeated Bel-ford's kid indignantly as they emerg-

the open plain where the trail lay white under the rays of a rising moon.

Before Roger could turn around and look at his companion he heard the swish-sh of a quirt through the air and

"The-little-dev-devil" panted Rog-

Mile after mile they pounded over

Roger sawed away at Buckskin's obstinate month without result. He realized that the horse was growing tired, and if the heast could escape

stepping into a prairie dog's hole or did not stumble he might be brought

But Buckskin stumbled, and it happened so suddenly that Roger was tossed over the animal's head and landed sand billock. For an instant he lay

there breathless and bruised watching

Buckskin's form waiting wearily near

"You old skyrocket!" he breathed at

Then another horse loomed into the moonlight, was turned loose to nip at the grass and a slender form hurried to Roger Webb's side and knelt down with a cool hand on his forehead.

Roger saw that the newcomer wore

"Oh. Mr. Webb, I am so sorry! I do hope you're not hurt!" cried the girl

"I'm all right," said the dazed cow-

"Why. I was following you through Black pass, you know, and you were rather impertinent. You know you were. You called me Teddy and kid and all that! But I should not have struck your horse. I am so ashamed, and I beg your pardon," she ended,

"Are you Teddy Belford?" demanded

"Yes: Theodora Belford. My friends

call me Teddy. Father and Boss Clin-tock call me kid. I don't mind from

"Of course not," said the chagrined

Roger. "Only, you see, nobody told me you were a girl-and I thought you were a boy! The apologies are on my "Well, we've got a whole lifetime to apologize to each other in." laughed

Teddy Belford as she leaped into her saddle unassisted. "But let's not waste any time over that. I really think we are quits, Mr. Webb. I am afraid to think what a narrow escape you had.

"I wouldn't have missed it for any-

"We will be late for supper." said

As they rode home through the moonlight Roger decided that he would buy

the ranch next to Belford's place. "It will be handy for her to run over and see her folks-after we are married,"

Of this decision, of course, Teddy Belford knew nothing until after they

Human Hitching Post.

ing, a suburban Elk found the following verse carefully pasted on the front of

When I could hardly see, And a man stepped from his wagon And tied his horse to me.

There was no signature, but the young man was not dense. He knew

I stood on the curb at midnight,

Arriving in his office the other morn

thing," said Roger sincerely, thinking

It would have been my fault if"-

of her cool hand on his forehead.

Teddy burriedly.

he said to himself.

became engaged.

with a dangerous quaver in her voice.

Roger

side."

them," she concluded.

boy, struggling to a sitting posture.

skirts, and his dizziness increased.

in the voice of Belford's kid.

"But where did you come from?"

to reason before long.

the dry grass, away from the trail and er as he realized that Buckskin was Buckskin shot forward like a rocket,

his companion was merely a voice.

"You're a plucky kid," be Dark' to keep up your spirits?"

afraid," was Teddy's crisp reply.

A whale's appetite is phenomenal. His chief diet consists of jellyfish. He has simly to open his mouth and paddle along leisurely in order to take in jellyfish by the wagon load. Such is the method adopted by the whalebone whale. The sperm whale, on the con-Refreshments-Mrs. M. Martin, trary, captures hugs squids weighing Mrs. William McLarty, Miss Phillips, often several tons. Like his brother the whalebone whale, he must be constantly on the lookout for food; other wise he would starve. As many as fourteen seals have been taken from a thirty foot "killer."

Patronize our advertisers.

Belford's Kid

Nicknames Sometimes Prove Deceptive -:-

By CLARISSA MACKIE

Roger Webb was the last to finish his dinner, and he was just leaving the mess house when Boss Clintock galloped up to the door and intercepted

"Say, Webb, have the others gone?" "Yes; they are just rounding the last

"Anything I can do?" "No-yes, of course you can. I've been called up to North Fork to iden tify a bunch of cattle, and I've just had a phone from Belford that his kid's coming over for a visit. It's thirty miles from Belford's place over here and a tiresome ride. He wants me to meet Teddy on the other side of Black | It sent a thrill of paternal tenderness pass or send a trusty man. I'll have to through his being. At least he thought send vou."

"Very well," returned Roger. "Shall I start now?"

"You better go right off and be sure and get on the other side of the pass, for the kid's afraid to come through in the dark.'

"I'll be there," assured Roger, and he went away to saddle his horse. Roger whistled and Buckskin pounded the turf lightly as they covered mile after mile of the twenty that lay between the Lone Bull ranch and the far-

Now, when Roger and Buckskin threaded their way down its narrow, winding trail the sun had passed over 10 cents to this point.

"Oregon City is the natural place deep twilight was drawing down. As for us to trade," declared Mr. Jenhe went out at the other end he looked expectantly around the sunlit plain for a glimpse of Teddy Belford, but the lad was nowhere in sight. "I suppose his dad has told him to wait here at the pass for me, and, as

and have a look at that place Clintock ahead Roger turned to the right and followed directions he had received from the boss of the Lone Bull. In an hour be had found the ranch be was looking for, had a long talk with its owner and taken a hasty survey of the ed with the place and believed it would make a good opening for him; also, it was well within the limit he had set for expenditure. He decided to talk it

He was halfway back to the south membered Belford's kid. He glanced Baptist church of this city is now one outlines in the gathering dusk and

> "Great horn! If I haven't forgotten the kid! I wonder"- He spurred Buckskin into a run without complet ing his sentence.

> Long before he reached the pass he was straining his eyes for a glimpse of a horse and rider waiting for him. But he saw nothing, and when he finally pulled to a breathless standstill there he appeared to be all alone in the

"I don't believe he's arrived yet." he said uneasily. "If he was afraid of the pass he would be sure to wait for

Roger waited anxiously, listening for the faintest sound that might presage the approach of Teddy Belford. He rebuked himself bitterly for his neglect Lone Bull ranch. All at once darkness fell completely, and there were his roll top desk: out of a dim blue sky. Roger swore softly and turned Buck skin into the pass. He rode until he came to the middle of the pit of velvet the rime had reference to an incident urged Buckskin forward until be heard in which he involuntarily played a plainly the tremulously whistled notes prominent part when he was trying to get home after a long evening at his

"The doggoned, plucky little kid!" ejaculated Roger thankfully, and then Wants, For Sale, Etc. "Hello there! That you, Teddy Bel-

Notices under these classified nea "Wait for me, Teddy. I'll be there In a few seconds he brought Buck-

> Cash must accompany order unless has an open account with the paper. financial responsibility for errors; wheneverrors occur free corrected notice will be printed for patron. Minimum charge 15c sent me instead. I was to wait on the WANTED-Everybody to know that other side of the pass for you, but I I carry the largest stock of secondhand furniture in town. Tourists or at a piece of property I was interested local people looking for curios In-dian arrow heads, old stamps or Indian trinkets should see me. Will buy anything of value. Young, Main street, near Fifth.

WANTED.

WANTED-Girl for housework. quire "C," Enterprise.

WANTED-Plain sewing to do There was a little hesitation before home. Phone Farmers 54.

$10 REWARD.

tling 'I'm Afraid to Go Home In the $10 REWARD for return of opera glasses, camera, spectacles, fountain pen and rifle taken from Thomas "Yes; to shame myself for being Warner's residence January 21. No Roger laughed with unconcealed adquestions asked.

> FOR SALE FOR SALE-Dry cord wood, will deliver when ordered. Phone Farmers 138, Oregon City. FOR SALE-A first-class carpet loom.

whether he was large or small. So far Fred Erickson, 711 Jackson street, FOR SALE-Pool hall and grocery. good location, good business, want him without his knowing exactly why. FOR RENT-Good eight-room house, modern, with bath, hot and cold Inquire Schoenborn's con-"I don't believe Mr. Clintock would fectionery, Seventh street.

> Caras, near S. P. Depot. FOR RENT.

WOOD AND COAL.

OREGON CITY WOOD AND FUEL CO., F. M. Bluhm. Wood and coal delivered to all parts of the city. SAWING A SPECIALTY. Phone tem of the past year. your orders. Pacific 3502, Home B 110.

FARM LOANS. FARM LOANS-Dimick & Dimick,

Lawyers, Oregon City, Or.

ATTORNEYS.

O. D. EBY, Attorney-at-Law, Money loaned, abstracts furnished, land titles examined, estates settled, gen- done eral law business. Over Bank of Oregon City.

U'REN & SCHUEBEL, Attorneys-at-Law, Deutscher Advokat, will practice in all courts, make collections the itemized statement of material and settlements. Office in Enterprise Bldg., Oregon City, Oregon.

INSURANCE.

and Real Estate. Let us handle sidewalks. your properties—we buy, sell and exchange. Office in Enterprise Bldg., Oregon City, Oregon.

CLEANING AND PRESSING.

surprised and dizzy on a crumbling CHICAGO TAILORS suits made to order from $10 and up. We also do Three doors south of postoffce.

MUSICIANS.

J. ALBA SAGER, teacher of wind and string instruments, director of hand and orchestra. Will furnish music tuned, at moderate cost, Piano-Tuner at Electric Hotel. Strongly endorsed by the director Signed of the Philharmonic, who will per sonally vouch for his work.

PIANO TUNING.

NOTICES.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Clackamas County. Besse Hollowell, Plaintiff.

William C. Hollowell, Defendant, To William C. Hollowell, the above named defendant:

answer the plaintiff will apply to to Southern California, the Court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, which is, that the

and the plaintiff be forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of her minor child, Dorothy. This summons is served upon you by publication by order of the Hon. B. Beatle, judge of the County Court, which order is dated the 18th day of December, A. D. 1911, and date of the first publication of this summons is the 19th day of December, 1911, and the last publication is the 30th day of January, > WHEELOCK & WILLIAMS, Portland, Or. Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Notice to Creditors.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Clacka-

Notice is hereby given that E. B. Holmes was on January 4, 1912, appointed by the above entitled court administrator with the will annexed of the estate in Oregon of Allen Koch deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present them, with the proper vouchers, within six months from the date of this notice to the said E. B. Holmes, administrator aforesaid, at the office of the county clerk of Clackamas county, Oregon, or at the of-fice of said E. B. Holmes, No. 89 Third street, Portland, Oregon.

E. B. HOLMES.

intersection, from there he makes his monthly estimates due the contrac-

In the previous administration the monthly estimate for contractors were handed in to the council showing the work done the previous month only. The new system of monthly estimates at the end of each month show not only the work done that month, but all the work previously done and allowed for. This system is a check upon the possibility of allowing twice for the same material or allowing too much over the total.

As a matter of fact, owing to the

Some material has been allowed contractors more than had been used or called for and to find this, required by the different contractors, showing number of men at work, where they are, and what kind of work is being This daily report is entered into a spector's Daily Report." Another large record book contains and the money paid contractors. Another book contains stubbs and particulars of all permits issued for

There is an index book for all plans filed away, also an engineer's payroll time-book The engineer payroll and contractor's menthly estimates are made in ate, one filed with the recorder, one copy given the contractors and a

Besides the general plans and procleaning, pressing and repairing files of sewers, we also find a complete large detail of the sewers showing measurements to all Ys connec tions, etc.

At present the engineering force consists only of a city engineer and can be looked after and attended to a question of a few days when Fourteenth street and Sewer District No. 7 will be finished, which will leave only Monroe street to be attended to, could be paid for the time he actually gives the city.

ROSWELL L. HOLMAN. Finance Committee

day Club Court and cause, on or before the the scenic grandeur of the Columbia, lat day of February, A. D. 1912, and if you fail so to appear or hills, cities from Spokane and Seattle

Patronize our advertisers.

CASH is a very slippery from every side. To secure your cash and avoid temptation to spend,

The Bank of Oregon City OLDEST BANK IN THE COUNTY

D. C. LATOURETTE President

F J. MEYER, Cashies

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of OREGON CITY, OREGON

Fransacts a Jeneral Banking Business.

Stafford's Bargain Store

More for the money. Best for the price.

Remember the little store on the corner, opposite Bank of Oregon City when in need of Dry Goods Ladies', Gents' and Children's Furnishings, Notions, etc. McCall's Patterns in stock.

By Congressman OSCAR W. From UNDERWOOD, Alabama HE railroads have long since and often demonstrated how, when free from regulation, it is within their power by discrimination either to KILL OR MAKE ALIVE. It has only been after legislative regulation and judicial contests thereupon that much progress has been made in clearing up the questions that have been raised in connection with the public du ties and responsibilities of carriers, One of the most effective means of eliminating fraudulent and indefensible practices resulting in discriminations and other violations of the act to regulate commerce is the LIGHT OF PUBLICITY, the power to require disclosure.

which some artists of the legal profession have found a way to ac-

The holding company is often a MASK OR SHIELD through complish indirectly that which under the law could not be directly effected. This device is successful only when the form is permitted to encloud the substance. IT IS ENCOURAGING THAT MORE AND MORE THE LEGISLA-TION AND THE INTERPRETATION AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAW, INTENDED TO SECURE EQUALITY OF TREATMENT, REASON-ABLE RATES AND FAIR DEALING TEND, THOUGH TOO SLOWLY, TOWARD ELIMINATING THESE INDIRECT METHODS OF CONCEAL. MENT AND DEMAND OPENNESS AND DIRECTNESS.

MORNING ENTERPRISE itude as those who go forth for us of the affair is deserving of mach credit for the manner the program was carried out.

At the close of the program refreshments were served, after which many The committees assisting in the en-

Mrs. E. Roberts, Mrs. A. White, Mrs. H. Cadell. Hall-John Younger, Hugh McLarty, mers Schultze, William Beard.

The list of unclaimed letters at the Oregon City postoffice for the week ending January 26, 1912, follows: Woman's List-Rose, Mary; Smith, had obtained a renewal of its Oregon City franchise next fall. John F. Jennings declared that the

Prior to the acquisition of the line by the present corporation, the commutation rate between Jennings Lodge and Portland was 11 cents with a 5cent fare to Oregon City. The station gate," said Roger, pointing to a half was moved to conform with the establishment of the main street 100 yards distant and the rate to Oregon City immediately went up to 10 cents Un to the time the State Railand Oregon grape were hung along road Commission made its recent order the Jennings Lodge people ento the artistic effect. At the rear of joyed a commutation rate of 7 cents to Oregon City, and since this rate was abolished most of the Jennings

> Mr. Jennings said the commutation rate to Portland was later increased to 12 1-2 cents and now it is 13 cents. The Railroad Commission reduced the cash fare to Portland 5 cents and increased the commutation rate, though the residents of Jennings Lodge would rather have had the cash fare increased than the commutation rate lowered. Mr. Jennings pointed out that the distance from Portland to Jennings Lodge is 10.675 miles, for which a fare of 15 cents is charged, while the distance to Oregon City is only a trifle more than three miles,

> B. T. McBain explained that Gladstone formerly had a commutation rate of 3 cents from Oregon City and later a 4 1-2 cent fare, which could be obtained by the purchase of a 50-ride book. The traction company discontinued the use of these books, and now the fare to Oregon City is 5 cents, with no commutation rate and the fare to Portland is 20 cents, which is the same rate as Gladstone had before the Railroad Commission changed the passenger tariff. Mr. McBain said that the company could well afford to give Oregon City a round trip rate of 25 cents and a single trip rate of 15 cents to Portland by double trackan excursion fare on Sundays of 25 cents and was compelled to run long trains to carry the crowds. He believed the Southern end of the line was being discriminated against. The Live Wires committee, consisting of M. D. Latourette, H. E. Cross, City and Gladstone at the conference

The interest in the revival at the Baptist church continues unabated. Sunday was the fourth Sunday of the campaign and many persons were turned away from the church Sunday evening owing to the fact that there premises. He was favorably impresswas not even standing room. Mr. Evans is a remarkable speaker from the standpoint of simplicity of utterance, intensity of purpose and drama-He holds the closest attention of his audience. Mr. Hay-worth, the pastor, is delighted with the excellent results of the campaign. About fifty additions by baptism will be made to the church roll and a large Feeling that the Southern Pacific Railroad Company has not been giving them a square deal, citizens of Parkplace met at Abernathy Grange hall and appointed a committee to confer with the railway officials rela- of duty-for running off to attend to tive to giving Parkplace a flag sta. his own affairs when he had assured tion, stopping all local passenger Mr. Clintock that he would safely estrains there, and to allow Parkplace cord Teddy through Black pass to the

is now known, to Parkplace.

TO BE FLAG STATION

a freight station. T. Apperson, Hugh Hall and C.

ed from the gloom of the pass into ther entrance to Black pass. having things his own med way. far to the east of the Lone Bull ranch, Roger did not know what had become of Teddy Relford, and he did not care. He was aware that away off behind somewhere there was a faint thudding

HE URGED BUCKSEIN FORWARD he isn't here, I believe I'll nose around was telling me about." With a last glauce along the trail over with Clintock before closing a deal. entrance to Black pass before he renumber by experience and letter. The around at the gray plain fast losing its only the distant stars winking down

of "I'm Afraid to Go Home In the

Subscribe for the Daily Enterprise

favorite club.-New York Herald.

nsertion, half a cent additional inser tions. One inch card, 12 per month; haif noh card, (4 Imes) H per month.

In the matter of the estate of Allen Koch deceased.

Dated this 16th day of January,

(Continued from page 1) ment of work done in each block and to seli on account of leaving town. Address 217 Seventh street. Tom A. tors > manner of presenting the estimates of work done previous to the new sys-

> the search of the warrants in the re-corder's office at the cost of considerable time and work as there was nothing in the office to show why these quantities had been allowed. We find that a printed form of daily reports is filed away of all work done big record book, gotten up by the present engineer and entitled "In-sewer connection, to the public at large. Also a book for permits issued E. H. COOPER, For Fire Insurance to citizens for streets and concrete copy filed in the engineer's office.

one rodman The work on hand left to be finished for any occasion. Call at Electric by this force, and we think it is only PIANO TUNING-If you want your this should not require the entire time piano thoroughly and accurately of a city engineer and a city engineer

F. J. MYERS

Church To Have Picture Show. There is nothing that broadens and cultivates the mind like travel, and it is not all persons who have the opportunity to travel, so the Saturof the Congregational church in connection with the Boy Scouts has arranged a good substi-tute for Thursday evening. The Har-In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed higited. The views will be described against you in the above entitled so that all may become familiar with in the hands of the wage-earner the temptation to spend it coming

CAPITAL, $50,000.00 Open from 9 A. M. to 5 P. C

SUCCESSORS TO EDDY & SON.

C. I. STAFFORD, 608 Main St.