GRUMPELT MAY NOT COMPETE

Business Reason Likely to Prevent High Jumper From Competing In Olympics. The American Olympic team may lose the services of Harry Grumpelt, the sensational high jumper of the New York Athletic club, because of his inability to leave his business for a sufficient length of time to make the trip to Sweden. Grumpelt is of the settled down type of athlete, which means that he is a married man. The national champion high jumper's hobby outside of his home is athletics, but he is not so fond of the game that he will neglect his business for the sport. It is possible that later on Grumpelt will be able to make some arrangement whereby he can get away for the trip to Sweden. Should Grumpelt be obliged to stay at home Uncle Sam will be badly crippled in the high jump championship, as the N. Y. A. C. leaper is one of the most reliable performers on the American continent when it comes to outdoor jumping.

LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

"THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER" AT HEILIG THEATRE FEB. 4, 5, 6, 7.

The world's greatest comic opera success, "The Chocolate Soldier," will be the attraction at The Heilig Theatre, 7th & Taylor streets, for 4 nights, beginning Sunday, February 4. Special price matinee Wednesday.

THE CHOCOLAE SOLDIER

Here it comes! To the Heilig theatre, for four nights and Wednesday matinee, open today. "The Chocolate Soldier" the biggest light opera success of Europe and America since the "Merry Widow," pretty as a picture, gay as a lark, with Strauss music as tuneful as all the Strausses in musical history, and Geo. Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man" for libretto. The opera fairly sparkles with wit, spirit and brightness, and the music is tuneful, catchy and dreamy and sensuous by turns. In fact the entire score is so dainty and charming that it fascinates as well as entertains its hearers. The Whitney Opera Company is associated in the public's stage memories with "The Fencing Master," "Rob Roy" Dolly Varden" and other sparkling successes, but it never in those earlier triumphs approached in richness the aggregation of excellent voices and admirable artists which are represented in the "Chocolate Soldier." The scenes are laid in the picturesque Dragoman Pass of Bulgaria, incident to a war between the Bulgarians and Servians, and Mr. F. C. Whitney has brought all the costumes, embroideries and uniforms directly from that vicinity. A young Swiss gentleman forced into the Servian army takes refuge in the home of a Bulgarian Colonel, who captivates his wife, her young cousin and also her daughter. The latter is engaged to a Bulgarian Major who poses as a hero. The Swiss chap is an engaging fellow whose diet has been restricted to chocolate drops, but he is a very vigorous fellow in his love making and creates no end of complications. The bogus Bulgarian hero is finally exposed and the Chocolate Soldier wins the hand of the Bulgarian maid after the difficulties have been ironed out. It develops that the real hero is the son of the leading hotel man in Switzerland and able to overcome all the terrors of modern house-keeping. The production is opera bouffe of a very high class with frequent humorous and sarcastic illusions.

MUSICAL COMEDY, "THE RED ROSE," AT HEILIG THEATRE.

of the New York Hippodrome, and the dances have been arranged by Jac. Mason. The locale of the story is Paris and deals with student life of the gay French capital. The author has written a book full of real humor and possessing a genuine plot and many neatly sketched character. The scenic environment calls for the highest praise, and the beauty of the chorus, and their elaborate costume effect the most beautiful stage pictures ever seen. Mr. Fisher has cast the company with the same care that was exercised in the New York company. It is by no means a road company and has been organized to play all of the big cities of the south and west. Sale of seats opens Tuesday Feb. 6th.

SCENE FROM "THE ROSARY"

First time in Portland—At Baker Theatre all next week starting Sunday Matinee. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

"THE ROSARY" COMING.

First Appearance in This City at the Baker Next Week. "The Rosary" which deals with a human interest theme of universal interest, will be presented at the Baker Theatre by a clever cast of principals all week starting today matinee. The plot concerns the domestic tragedy which follows when the love of a good woman is neglected by a selfish husband. The destinies of the characters are affected by the power of thought over the actions of man, and in his treatment of a psychological theme Edward E. Rose, the playwright, is regarded as a pioneer. Dealing with the fortunes of a small group of residents in Westchester county, near New York City, there are introduced a husband, who is a disbeliever in religion; his wife, who is a firm believer; a priest, Father Kelly, and more or less intimately associated members of the community. Father Kelly is a noble character, splendidly portrayed and the issues of the plot are beautifully manipulated in his pious hands. The stage will be elaborately mounted. This will be the first appearance in Portland and matinees will be given Wednesday and Saturday.

A Small Boy's Invention.

Sir Hiram Maxim began to invent almost as soon as he could lisp. When but a small boy he invented a sort of sextant made of wood, with sights, a piece of thread with a bullet at the end and an indicator for the thread to swing along. On a dark night he took his instrument outside, and while he sighted it to the north star his little sister read the indicator. "Forty-five, Hiram," she called out. This meant they were living in 45 degrees north latitude. The observation proved to be perfectly accurate.

Cats in Ancient Egypt.

The ancient Egyptians treated cats with great distinction. It was a crime to kill them, and when they died they received a public burial, at which the people mourned, having first shaved off their eyebrows as a token of sorrow. The most prominent cats upon their death embalmers in their palaces, and set in cases have been found side by side with those of kings.

ENDS HIS TROUBLES BY DRINKING ACID (Continued from page 1) considerable money, but after working several months at one of the mills, he invested the money in the Depot Saloon on Seventh Street. Trade was not good and he soon lost all he had. Meanwhile his mother married a second time, and he and his wife, his brother Michael, and his mother and her husband rented a house on Water Street in the rear of the Charman drug store. Gozesky obtained work at the woolen mill as a screen tender, where he worked until last Christmas, when he lost his place. He searched in vain for another place, and finally began drinking heavily. Gozesky purchased the drug at a Main Street pharmacy, telling the druggist that he wanted it to make a solution to use in dressing an leg of a friend. When told that he did not need four ounces for that purpose, he said he would take that amount anyway, and that he would probably have to use it several days. About an hour later the man's brother, Michael, informed the Chief of Police Shaw that Paul had drunk the acid, and was dying. The chief summoned Dr. J. W. Norris, but when the physician arrived at the house, it was evident the man could not be saved. He died in about fifteen minutes. Coroner Wilson held an inquest at 2 o'clock over the body at the Holman Undertaking Establishment, the jury, which was composed of T. J. Myers, T. P. Randall, F. A. Ely, H. S. Moody, R. W. Porter and H. W. Trembath, returning a verdict in accordance with the facts. Mrs. Gozesky, who works in one of the paper mills, will make arrangements for the funeral today. The suicide of Gozesky was the second one in Oregon City this week, the first having been Frederick Wilhelm Kerferstein, formerly a wealthy paper maker of Germany, who shot himself in the right temple early Wednesday morning. WILDE IS ACQUITTED BY ORDER OF JUDGE. PORTLAND Feb. 3.—Attended by a dramatic scene seldom witnessed in a courtroom, including a remarkable demonstration in which spectators and jurors joined, Louis J. Wilde, banker and promoter of San Diego, Cal., was acquitted today on an instructed verdict in Judge Kavanaugh's court of the charge of embezzling $90,000 of the funds of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, for which he was indicted jointly with W. Cooper Morris, ex-cashier of that institution.
