

SECOND BASE MADE FAMOUS BY FOUR MEN, SAYS ANSON.

"Four men have made second base famous," said Adrian C. Anson recently. "They are Larry Lajoie, Johnny Evers, Eddie Collins and Fred Merkle." And then Anson proceeded to explain what he meant by adding:

"The kind of work they have done to make second base famous differs. Merkle's is far separated from that of the other three. Merkle made it famous by forgetting it.

"But Merkle had nothing on Mike Kelly. Why, Kelly would often forget to touch it. He would cut across from first to third when he thought he could get away with it.

"Whenever we would start a series away from home Kelly would get in his best work. Of course they had only one umpire then, and if he happened to see Mike 'cut' second and called his attention to it Mike would pass the matter off by quietly explaining that the park was new to him and he did not know where second base was located."

HOPPE AND SUTTON AGAIN.

Two Billiard Wizards to Meet in New York Feb. 7.

Willie Hoppe, the 182 ball line billiard champion, will defend his title against George Sutton in New York Feb. 7. Sutton was disappointed by his showing against Hoppe in the match played in Gotham in November and challenged again.

Sutton is exhibiting unusual skill in his daily workouts in Chicago and is confident that he will make a far better showing than he did last fall. As the match will be one night's play of 500 points the "dope" may be upset. Hoppe figures as almost a sure winner, but he may have an off night or Sutton may play far above his average championship game. The pair will also play for the 18.1 title early in March.

WOLVERTON HAS NERVE.

Only Player to Be Hit on Head Three Times in One Game and Not Quit.

"The annals of baseball are probably full of good stories about Harry Wolverton, the new manager of the New York Americans," said a prominent player recently, "and I know one on him that shows that nothing can stop him. He is the only player on any team who was hit three times on the head with the ball in one game and would not quit playing. That shows how gritty he is.

"This happened several years ago, when Dan McGann was playing first base for the St. Louis Nationals and Wolverton was on third for Philadelphia. In running out a grounder Wolverton bumped into McGann at first and Dan was so mad that he grabbed the ball, and slinging it at Wolverton, hit him a terrific crack on the head.

"Later on in the game Wolverton was walking near the Philadelphia bench when a line foul hit him over the ear and laid him out for a time. In the very next inning when Wolverton went to bat the pitcher hit him on the top of the head with a wild pitch. Can you beat this kind of business?"

WILL NUMBER BALL PLAYERS.

Pacific Coast Leaguers to Wear Numbers on Left Sleeve.

Directors of the Pacific Coast Baseball league at their annual meeting in Los Angeles recently adopted a schedule and decided to number all players. According to plans agreed upon, each player will wear on his left sleeve a number assigned to him. This number also will appear upon the score card.

The season will open April 2 and close Oct. 27.

Wesley Was an Early Riser.

John Wesley was a strong advocate of early rising, which he asserted was beneficial to weak eyes. "When I was young," he stated in a sermon on "The Duty and Advantage of Early Rising," "my sight was very weak, but it is stronger now than forty years ago. I impute this principally to the blessing of God, who fits us for whatever he calls us to do," but undoubtedly the outward means which he blessed was rising early every morning.—London Chronicle.

Heart to Heart Talks.
By EDWIN A. NYE

MONOMANIACS.

A woman died in Peru, Ind., the other day in a mean and ugly room and supposedly dependent upon charity. In an old leather bag was $47,000, which was discovered by wondering neighbors.

Miserable creature! Consider what the bag of gold might have brought the woman. She could have had pretty clothes and comfortable surroundings, plenty to eat, medical attendance in her sickness, perhaps a prolongation of life.

She might have had the countless little delicacies and the attentions craved by the normal woman who can afford them.

But— She evidently preferred barren and comfortless surroundings, rags and bare subsistence. Why? That she might close the shutters of her windows and run her fingers through the gold pieces and gloat over their yellow faces.

Strange obsession? It certainly was. But when you come to think of it there are many ways by which one may sell himself for gold.

There are business men who will deny themselves the common joys of friendship, the companionship of their families, the vacations they sorely need, not for the sake of a living, but merely in order to pile up money they do not need.

Like the woman, they are money mad.

They are monomaniacs.

Also there are women who care more for social pleasures than for the welfare of their children and others who will imperil their husbands' business because of their mania for dress or equipage.

Everywhere are those who sell their birthrights for a mess of pottage. Why?

Because of a misconception of the value of things. Emphasis is laid upon things that are not worth while, things that cannot permanently satisfy, things that do not abide.

He only is sane who is content with the simple, everyday things of a well balanced life and who strives toward the attainment of that which is best and noblest.

Explained. "Jane, I've told you over and over again I will have cleanliness, yet why is it I'm always finding cobwebs on the drawing room ceiling?" "I think it must be the spiders, miss."—London Punch.

Seeing From Above. "At the height of 3,000 feet a man in an aeroplane can see a submarine gliding along thirty feet under water."

The Natural Result. "Pop, when you sow wild oats what crop do you get?" "Lemons, my son."—Exchange.

SUPPLY OF CATTLE GREATER THAN DEMAND

The Portland Union Stock Yards Company reports as follows:

Receipts for the past week have been as follows: Cattle, 1780; Calves 118; hogs, 1093; sheep, 2839; horses and mules, 20.

The cattle market continues weak with more offering than the buyers care to handle. This depression is no doubt due to the fact that trade in dressed beef is very light as compared to former seasons, as well as the heavy runs we have had for the last month. Although the quality of cattle was exceptionally good the market was badly demoralized and prices fell off at least 15c from last week's quotations. Best steers are selling around $5.90 to $5.95, cows from $4.75 to $5 for the very best grades. Bulls and stags are weak at $4 to $4.25 for the best. A very drabby market in the cattle division has characterized this week's trade.

The hog market has stiffened up somewhat, the run for the week was comparatively light and buyers showed a disposition to take hold of what was offered. Market closed strong for the week at $6.70, and advance over last week's quotations.

Demand for mutton continues good and all sheep arriving on the market this week found ready sale at prices previously quoted. Week closed steady to strong with lambs selling around 5c, wethers $4.75 to $4.85, best ewes $4 to $4.25.

Following sales are representative of this week's trading:

99 Steers	1216	6.00
250 Steers	1250	5.95
74 Steers	1196	5.90
126 Steers	1156	5.95
