SANDY.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Odell are visiting in Portland. C. F. Barber is in Portland on business. Peter Gray has received a car load of feed and is ready for customers at his new store. Miss Bachman spent the weekend in Clackamas. Jim Wolf has returned from a two weeks' visit in Portland. H. F. Hogmer has sufficient stock subscribed to insure the establishment of a creamery here. The common council has decided to erect a jail in the near future. A site will probably be leased in the rear of Henry Perret's blacksmith shop. Parent-Teacher meeting, Meinig's hall, Sandy, Saturday, February 17, 1912. Program: 10, "Limitation of the Faculties," J. W. Wirtz; 10:45, "Management of the Rural School," Mrs. A. Malar; 11:30, "A Plea for a High School," George Bornstedt; 12, basket dinner by patrons; 1, program by pupils of the Sandy and Firwood schools; 2, "Education of the Blind," J. W. Howard; 2:30, "What the Parent Can Do to Help the School," C. F. Anderson.

EAGLE CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie spent a couple of days in Portland last week. Will Douglass broke out with the measles last Saturday, but he was not very sick as he was able to be up in a couple of days, and at work again. Last Saturday evening about 28 of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass gathered at their home and spent the evening with them. The time was spent socially in playing games. Refreshments were served at midnight, all returning home soon after, tired and sleepy, but longing for another party to attend in the near future. Mrs. R. B. Gibson and Miss Duncan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Howlett. Walter Douglass made a return trip to Portland Sunday.

ESTACADA.

Rainy weather, but warm. Mrs. Martha Davis remains about the same. Mrs. Stella Woodard of Oregon City, is visiting relatives at Estacada this week. A Sunday school will be organized at the Nora Memorial church at Garfield Sunday. Garfield Grange will discuss the single tax on the fourth Saturday. At the last meeting of Garfield Grange J. D. Chitwood, of Damascus, installed E. F. Davis, master of Garfield Grange; L. J. Palmateer, overseer; C. F. Frazier, secretary; F. M. Gill, lecturer, and seven other officers. Some farmers were seeding grain the last week.

SPRINGWATER.

We are all sorry to lose good neighbors and friends who have helped to better this community, but on account of better school advantages Mr. Mewhiter has decided to move. An exciting and interesting game of basket ball was witnessed last Saturday night between the Springwater and Y. M. C. A. boys, of Portland. When time was called the score stood 17 to 27 in Springwater's favor. Friday evening, Feb. 9, both the boys and girls teams will go to Gresham. An interesting game is promised to all visitors. Miss Elvada Schmidt, who was accidentally shot, is getting along nicely. The Springwater social club will hold its third meeting next Tuesday evening, Feb. 13.

ELWOOD.

All predict an early spring. Pussy willows and a few spring beautys are in bloom, yet old Mt. Hood's breath is very chilly the last 2 days. Mr. Zerkel, the man who had the railroad land lease, has after partly building a shack, gone back to Portland. Other parties have been out to look at the same piece of land but all feel somewhat afraid to invest.

Jessie Cox was badly bruised by a log rolling over him while he was sawing out road lumber in his own mill. No serious injuries are feared.

Mr. Johnson, Mr. Anderson and Miss Lulu Miller spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. and Mrs. Stahlnecker's home. All had a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Vallen spent a few days in Portland. Also visited Mrs. Ball, a relative, at Oswego.

Mrs. Surtus has returned home from Seattle where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ostred. Mrs. Surtus has been gone three months and during that time she was made happy by seeing her first grandson.

Dan Stahlnecker is constructing a line fence upon his premises. A. Vallen, with team, is helping C. E. Surtus in his clearing.

The Elwood Telephone Company met and reorganized. It is a great advantage as many report over the former route, as all trade at Springwater and Estacada.

Mrs. Lydia Park spent an afternoon at Mrs. Dan Stahlnecker's. Mrs. Ida Park visited her brother and father Sunday.

John Park and Matt Dibble met with the ill luck of losing their hounds by poison.

Mrs. Schverine is recovering from an illness. We all hope for a speedy recovery.

Dan Stahlnecker insured Mrs. Repke's house and barn this week. Rev. John Park has been sick with lagrippe. We are glad to learn he is recovering.

Miss Ruth Mapiethorpe was pleasantly surprised by a party of Elwood friends on the evening she was visiting her grandparents, Rev. Parks and wife. Miss Ruth is working in Estacada.

The Friday evening spelling school is growing more interesting. A pleasant evening is reported.

DOVER.

Miss Mary Bewg was absent from school several days last week on account of a severe cold.

Mr. Shirley is staying with Mr. Kelt for a month. He has been in the hospital since last August as a result of an accident in the logging camp.

Dover school now has a fine flag pole. The directors and a few others raised it last Saturday.

H. H. Udell and Augustine Miller went to Barton and Eagle Creek Monday after road graders.

Sunday evening the young people met at the church and organized the Epworth League. M. M. Reid was elected president for six months; Mrs. M. M. Reid, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Bertha Miller, 2nd vice-president; Miss Iva Reid, organist; Miss Eleanor Bows, assistant; Augustine Miller, secretary and treasurer.

H. H. Udell and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fisk.

Mrs. Bews entertained Mrs. H. Miller and son, Harold, George Roberts, Helen Kelt, Iva and Clinton Reid to dinner Sunday.

Mr. Thayer fell last Saturday and sprained his left knee quite badly.

Mr. Rice went to Portland last Thursday.

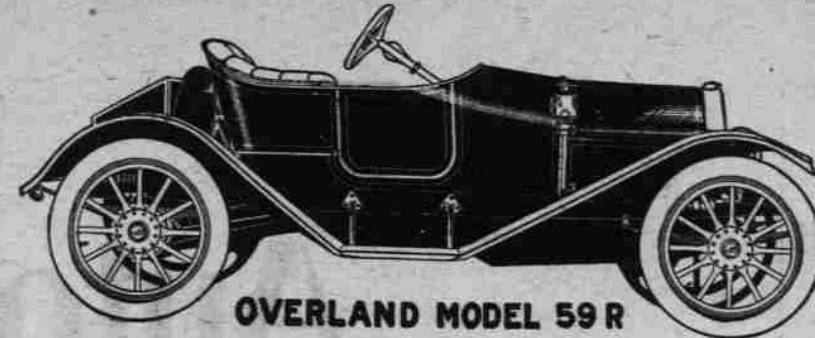

C. A. Kelt went to Oregon City last Wednesday to attend court.

Mrs. Reid was a Portland visitor the latter part of the week. Everyone is invited to attend the "Old Folks Social" at the church Friday evening, Feb. 17. The old folks and the wee, young folks will furnish the program and refreshments—cocca and cake.

DAMASCUS.

Miss Sophia Svenden tendered her parents a surprise party Friday evening. An enjoyable time was had and at a late hour refreshments were served which the guests did ample justice to. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Eckert, Mrs. A. Newell, Mae and Lester Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eckert and family, Mr. and Mrs. N. Rawley, Blanche Rawley. Peter Moritz has sold his farm. We understand they will move to Albany.

Alberta school house February 10 and was called to order by the chairman, Hugo Hansen. Miss Pearl Miller was appointed secretary pro tem. Minutes were read and approved. Alberta accepted the challenge of Shubel for a joint debate. The question submitted by Shubel Debating Society was, "Resolved, that the world is growing morally worse," and it was agreed upon as satisfactory by Alberta. Shubel taking the affirmative. After the transaction of usual business Chris Schuebel gave a very interesting lecture on single tax, which was very much appreciated by all present, and Mr. Schuebel was extended a vote of thanks by the society. All are invited to attend the debate between Shubel and Alberta February 17th at Alberta school house. There are very fluent speakers on both sides and it will no doubt prove very interesting.
