THE VICKSBURG CONFEDERATE BILL.

The bill by Senator John S. Williams, of Mississippi, for the erection by the government of a monument at Vicksburg for the Confederates has, at last, been killed. Williams introduced it in 1911, but it not only found no favor from Northern Democrats but was opposed by some of them and was disliked by practically all of them. Chairman Underwood of Alabama was particularly anxious that the measure be sidetracked in the upper chamber, where it originated, as he wanted to avert any talk which would arouse, even for a monument, any of the sectional passions of a half a century ago. He is an aspirant for the presidential nomination, and consequently he wants the geographical line to be shut out of the Baltimore Convention, if possible.

After dodging a vote on it for a long time, some of the Democrats joined with the Republicans in defeating it in the committee. By refusing to take it from the calendar the measure is sidetracked for this session, which means that it will not come up at any time in this Congress. Williams is a rather small and vain personage. He prates about the waving of the bloody shirt by an occasional Republican, when, in reality, he has been the only member of either House to do anything of that sort in recent times. except Senator Heyburn of Idaho, and he has done it only when provoked by Williams, as in this instance. Democrats as well as Republicans, and South as well as North, want to bury war issues so that they will stay buried but this marplot seeks to resurrect them. There is no demand, so far as anybody has heard, from the Confederates to get the government to do them any such honor as Williams proposes. They are anxious to let the dead past remain dead, and to give their attention to the vital issues of the hour. A great many things have taken place since 1861-65 and no good citizen of any locality will resurrect any of the prejudices of that day wantonly. Williams' constituents should warn him that he is obsolete.

PETITIONS OF TAFT FILED AT CAPITAL.

who hunted up the petitions and affixed his signature thereto, with the possible exception of a few names in the outlying county precincts, where petitions were sent for signatures. In Salem, however, every name attached was done so by a person who sought the petitions, rather than by those who were sought by the petition peddlers. Several other completed petitions were received today. Notably among them were W. C. Hawley, candidate for Representative in Congress from the First District; A. W. Lafferty, candidate for Representative in Congress from the Third District, and N. J. Simont, candidate for Representative in Congress from the Second District. One hundred and thirty-one candidates have filed petitions.

DRISCOLL AFTER ATTELL.

English Featherweight Plans Another Trip to This Country. Jem Driscoll, one of the greatest featherweights ever produced in England, is seriously considering paying his another visit. Since Jeems left over a year ago he has been up against it in his country. The worst blow struck him was when the officials stepped in and put the skids under his match with

JEM DRISCOLL, ENGLISH FEATHERWEIGHT CHAMPION.

Owen Moran. That affair meant many quids to Jeems, and he has not recovered from the shock. Driscoll wants to come over here once more to take another whack at Abe Attell. The two masters met several years ago in New York, and Jeems showed Able a whole lot of that "step in, hit and get away" stuff. We all knew that Attell was one of the best little featherweights in this land, but when Driscoll finished he slipped the honors to the Englishman without any comments.

Dimick, Mayor of Oregon City, were not satisfactory to the City Council of said Oregon City and said City Council refused to confirm said appointments and said Oregon City was without the service of a Chief of Police and required the services of such officer and whereas at the special request of the City Council of Oregon City, E. Picturesque Fire Fighting In The Capital of Fair Japan

THE accompanying illustration is not of a troupe of circus performers, much as it resembles the exhibitions sometimes given "under the big tent." It is a photograph of a fire drill which was part of a big parade and demonstration in Tokyo. The bamboo ladders on which the firemen (who belong to the regular municipal force of the Japanese capital) are seen balancing themselves are of the type used in fighting the conflagrations which are so frequent in Japanese cities, with their multitudes of flimsy wooden buildings, which offer little opportunity for the placing of ladders against their walls. The ladders shown in the photograph, it will be observed, are held upright by ropes which the firemen on the ground keep strained taut. The uniforms of the Tokyo fire fighters when they are at work carrying hose to the tops of these improvised water towers are not so ornamental as the dress parade garb shown in this picture, but even their workaday clothes are sufficiently picturesque to western eyes.

Council of Oregon City and filed with the Recorder thereof within ten days after the first publication of this notice will be heard and determined by the said City Council before the passage of any Ordinance assessing the cost of said improvement.

The property assessed for said improvement lies on both sides of the part of said Fourteenth Street proposed to be improved and the line of lots abutting on said part of said Fourteenth Street furthest from said part of Fourteenth Street and said part of said Fourteenth Street.

This notice is published in the "Morning Enterprise" the first publication being the 8th day of February, 1912, and the City Council has set the 18th day of March, 1912, at 8 o'clock, p. m. at the Council Chamber of Oregon City as the time and place for the passing upon said objections. L. Stipp, Recorder.

Ordinance No.— An ordinance vacating the lots and the alley in Block No. 13, in Oregon City, Oregon.

Read first time at the regular meeting of the Council, March 6th, 1912, and ordered published. L. STIPPE, Recorder.

The Greatest Dangers With Which Society Is Threatened

By the Rev. BERNARD VAUGHAN, Jesuit Priest and Orator THE greatest dangers threatening society today are a LAX SYSTEM OF DIVORCE AND MARRIAGE, cradleless nurseries and a system of education which demotes Christ from the rank of headmaster to a place on the back seat and instead of drilling an army is only arming a mob. ONLY BY RESTORING CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES IN ALL THINGS CAN SOCIETY BE SAVED FROM APPROACHING THE LOW LEVEL OF PAGAN ROME IN THE MUDDIEST STAGE OF ITS MUDDY GOLDEN AGE.

Present day society, while not yet at the cemetery, is heading rapidly toward it. One of the causes of the decadence of the age is the system of divorce, which, if not improved, will be RUINOUS TO THE COUNTRY.

We are careless managers where we should be most careful. Man and woman are in nothing alike. Each gives to the other what the other has not. Each completes and is completed by the other. Their union should be INDISSOLUBLE. Careless marriages bring about cradleless nurseries.

LIKE DECADENT ROME, TOO, WE ARE FALLING INTO THRIFTESS LIVES. WE WANT PLEASURE, AND WE WANT IT AT ONCE. WE LOVE PLEASURE INSTEAD OF WORK. RECREATION WE NEED, BUT NOT DISSIPATION. IN THE EVENING NOWADAYS MEN TALK ABOUT THE SPORT THEY HAVE HAD, WHEN THEY SHOULD SAY THE SPORT THEY HAVE NOT HAD. IN SUCH LIVES THERE IS NOTHING UPBUILDING. AS A RESULT TODAY WE ARE LIVING IN AN AGE OF SUFFRAGETTES, BECAUSE MEN HAVE LOST THEIR HOLD AND WOMEN ARE GETTING THE UPPER HAND.

Wisdom is cherished by the few, neglected by the many and hired by the powerful.—Life. "He comes from a good family." "He seems to have come a long way."—Birmingham Age-Herald.
