

TO-DAY WE THROW OUR DOORS OPEN

with the greatest bona fide SALE ever attempted. We must close out our entire Dry Goods and Ladies ready to wear garments and Ladies Shoes in the shortest time possible so be on hand, don't let nothing stop you. We have no competition in this sale as we are positively going to close out the dry goods.

Sale starts to-day. J. LEVITT

Beyond Computation.

"A race war in which twenty-five lives were lost was started by a promissory note."

"Humph! What a slaughter would happen if the umpire turned down the home team!"

LOCAL BRIEFS

Born, Wednesday, March 6, to the wife of Fred A. Maslin, a daughter, Earl Wink, of New Era, was in this city Wednesday and Thursday.

N. Blair of Hubbard, was in this city Wednesday.

Miss Helen Pollock is visiting with friends in Portland for a few days.

William Guenther, of Shubel, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Elmer Bly, of Carus, was in this city Thursday.

Mrs. Ferris Mayfield, of Highland, was in this city Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Schuebel, of Shubel, were in this city Wednesday.

John E. Jones, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Thursday.

B. Driscoll, of Carus, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Mrs. J. L. Ashton, of Canby, was in this city on business Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Driscoll, of Carus, were in Oregon City Thursday.

M. J. Lee, of Canby, was in this city on business Thursday, being on his way to Portland.

C. Schuebel, who has been in California on legal business, has returned to his home in this city.

Reduced prices on Mazda Tantalum electric lights at Huntley Bros.

Mrs. Robert Ringo, of Highland, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

George Gregory, of Molalla, was transacting business in Oregon City Thursday.

A cut of 20 to 25 per cent on electric lamps at Huntleys. See prices on front page.

Schmid Brothers, of Shubel, well known residents of that place, were in this city on business Wednesday.

Jesse Cox, one of the leading farmers of Elwood, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

John Spellman, of Holyoke, Mass., is in this city on business and is registered at the Electric Hotel.

Dr. J. A. van Brakle, licensed osteopathic physician, 806 Washington Street.

Mrs. F. M. McCown and daughter, Cornelia, of Portland, were the guests of relatives and friends in this city Thursday.

Mrs. Adkins, who has been visiting with her daughters, Mrs. Harry Woodward and Mrs. Ransom Pursifull, has returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Rahfield, who have resided in Oregon City for sometime, will move to Eastern Oregon, where they will make their future home.

Miss Laura Schatzman, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Woodward, has returned to her home in Molalla.

Martin Sellar, who has been very ill for sometime, suffering from inflammatory rheumatism, was able to be on the streets Thursday, and is improving slowly from his siege.

Mrs. Cramer, wife of Captain Cramer, of San Francisco, Cal., who has been in Oregon City visiting with her mother, Mrs. Peter Shynville, has returned to her home. She was in this city for three weeks.

Prof. Ringler of Portland has opened a new dancing school at Busch's hall; meets every Thursday eve. A class of 40 is enrolled. Full course $5.00. Beginners and advanced class in latest society dances. Come next time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steiner and baby who recently returned from Wisconsin, and who have been visiting with Mrs. Steiner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kent, of Parkplace, have moved to this city, and have taken up their residence on Fourth and Washington Streets.

The Ladies of the Eastern Star will serve a 25c boiled dinner at the Masonic Hall today from 11 a. m. until 1:30 p. m.

GIVEN SURPRISE, SHE PUTS GUESTS TO WORK

The friends of Mrs. Paul Praeger gave a surprise party at her home at Parkplace Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Praeger in turn gave her visitors a surprise and put them to work on a quilt. The quilt was finished before the departure of the guests. Mrs. Praeger served a delicious luncheon. She was presented with several pretty articles.

Present were Mrs. Vallet, Mrs. Ware, Miss Retta Ware, Mrs. James Charles, Mrs. Survalis, Mrs. Lena Zinsler, Mrs. Charles Heidy, Mrs. John Kent, Mrs. Fred Steiner, Mrs. Maple Glass, Grandma Praeger, Mrs. R. Steadman.

JACK FROST IS IN RACE FOR CONSTABLE

Jack Frost, who has the distinction of being the only policeman in Oregon City supported by the Mayor and City Council, is seeking new honors. He has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for constable. His petitions are being circulated. Mr. Frost has served as constable on several occasions and declares the position is a better one than that of policeman. In case of his election he would not enter upon his new duties until Mayor Dimick's term of office expires.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

C. E. Cook to John E. Bustin, lot 2, block "A", Wilsonville, $10.

R. E. Bundy to Robert Aistrop, lots 4 and 5, block 15, Windsor, $1.

Waldmar and Dottie Seton to A. E. Lindsey, 54 acres of Clackamas county, $150.

C. and Rosalie P. Clodfelter to W. D. Ordway, 1 1/2 acres of sections 1, 2, 11, 12, township 2 south, range 1 east, $100.

James Mortensen to William A. Rathbone, land in section 5, township 6 south, range 1 east, $1000.

Lena E. and Nathaniel Stevens to Edward G. Blaker land in Robertson; $10.

Edward G. and Jennie N. Blaker to Lena Stevens, north half of lot 6, block 3, Robertson; $10.

J. W. and Eliza Roots to Elmer and Jessie Hickey, land in Boring Junction north half of lot 3, tract 13; $225.

J. W. and Eliza Roots to F. E. and Mary Kollman, east half of tract "E" Roots addition to Boring; $1.

Mrs. F. J. Overland to W. J. Kinney, land in Gladstone; $1.

The time to read the Morning Enterprise is at the breakfast table or a little before.

Stories from Out of Town

WILSONVILLE.

Jake Peters, our busy hardware merchant, spent some time in Portland this week on business.

Dr. Brown and family were in Portland Friday.

Miss Hazen, who is teaching school at St. Helens, was the guest of Mrs. H. D. Aden Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Walters were in the Rose City the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pearl and children, of Portland, visited with the Melvin family the last of the week.

Mr. Black and family, who formerly resided here, were calling on friends last week.

Several real estate dealers were in Wilsonville this week on business.

Quite a large number of Wilsonville people attended the funeral of Perry Sharp at Frog Pond Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gould returned Tuesday from an extended visit in Minnesota, and their many friends here will be sorry to learn that they are now to reside in Salem.

The W. A. C. played a game of basketball on Saturday evening, March 2nd, with the Y. M. C. A., of Portland, the Wilsonville team winning by the score of 32 to 16. This is the second game won by the home team last week, the other game being played with the Firwood team. The usual players were in the line-up and they seem hard to beat.

Miss Murray, assisted by the up-to-date trustees of our school, has organized a girls' sewing class, which spends a couple of hours each Friday afternoon in sewing, with Miss Elma Sumner as instructress. The girls are delighted with the plan.

Gerald Baker is getting along very nicely and is now able to walk around.

Norman Say went to Oregon City Friday and was sworn in for justice of the peace for District number 1.

We have been without a justice of the peace since Mr. Darby moved away.

John Butson bought property in Wilsonville last week and it is reported that he will return here to reside permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Baker of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Baker's parents near our village.

EAGLE CREEK.

H. S. Gibson lost a valuable horse last week.

J. P. Woodlee was over last week and papared Mrs. Howlett's parlor.

Mrs. Walter Douglass and Mrs. Will Douglass called on Mrs. Roy Douglass Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlee went to Estacada Saturday and visited with Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodlee, until Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson and Miss Anna Duncan attended church in Estacada Sunday.

Shard Jones was visiting in Estacada Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Hoffmeister is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntington went to Portland last Saturday to make their son a visit, forgetting to give Mr. Gillette, their hired man, the key to the house. But he managed to get in through a window, so wasn't locked out very long.

Elmer Baker's house caught fire on Monday but we did not hear that it was much damaged, but it frightened his little boy.

Henry Udell sowed some land plaster for Dick Gibson Saturday.

Mr. Gillette visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howlett Sunday.

The farmers are busy these days with their spring work.

Walter Douglass went to Eastern Oregon last week on business.

Supervisor Anderson visited the school Monday.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson, Miss Anna Duncan and Edward Chapman called on Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass Tuesday evening, spending a pleasant evening with them.

German Stone, of Barton, is working for H. S. Gibson.

SANDY.

The Sandy Creamery Company has purchased a lot on the Sandy Land Company's plat at the corner of Center street and Park avenue. This site seems to be satisfactory to all concerned in the new enterprise.

Oscar Dahlgren spent the latter part of the week in Portland.

David Schwartz is on the sick list. The real estate business is becoming somewhat active in and around Sandy.

Gus Dahlgren has returned to his home at Red Deer, Alberta.

The Junker house has been thoroughly repaired and Dr. Barendrick, wife and two children, from Portland, have taken up their residence there.

Dr. Barendrick will practice in and around Sandy.

J. N. McCallen, of Hood River, is spending a few days investigating fruit conditions near Sandy.

W. J. Wirtz will move his barber shop from the old stand to the Shelley building.

Watch for the initial copy of the Sandy Valley News.

C. F. Anderson is holding parent-teacher meetings at Marmot, Brightwood and Welches this week.

District Fruit Inspector A. C. Goodrich, of Yamhill, and County Inspector Freytag, of Oregon City, discussed fruit pests and disease, also pruning and spraying at Meinig's hall Monday.

H. M. Williamson, of Portland, gave a very interesting address on the development of fruit districts. More ranchers should have availed themselves of this opportunity to get better acquainted with the fruit growing industry.

Jan. McGugin has purchased the Max Davis residence on Main street and also the vacant block next.

Mrs. Winnie Bissell, Mrs. James, Mrs. Mary Porter, Mrs. Agnes Haines, Mrs. Lew Griffin, Mrs. Coe, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. W. R. Porter, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. O. R. Mack, Mrs. M. J. Lee, Mrs. Katie Berkholder, Mrs. M. T. Mack, Grandma Earls, Grandma Lowery, Mrs. Etta Douglass, Mrs. Vesta Clark, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. William Knight, Mrs. E. E. Braddell and Mrs. Anna Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. W. R. Porter and Verna Porter left last Friday for a week's visit with Mrs. Porter's daughter, Mrs. Anna Smith, at Long Beach, Washington.

Mr. Sannes will soon have his new house completed. He intends to occupy the new house and rent the one where he now lives.

Ashe Mack is on the sick list this week.

LOGAN.

Little Francis Hutchins is slowly getting better of his scalp trouble.

Alma Boss is out of school this week, the result of running against the guard on a binder, cutting a severe gash below the knee.

B. C. Hawley, of Corvallis, was a Logan visitor this week and also attended Grange, he being one of the charter members here.

Grange convened in regular session Saturday with forty members and a few visitors present. A very enjoyable time was had. The subject, "Civil Service and Commission Government," was discussed. O. D. Bohlman leading. L. Funk spoke on this subject. Miss M. Gill explained the Juvenile Fair for school children. She has charge of several districts including Lower and Upper Logan, Stone, Redland and others.

Ernest Gerber and Harry Babler are to give a grand ball at Logan next Saturday night, March 9. They have a piano now to aid in the music line, so we are informed.

The young folks of the Grange are to give an entertainment Saturday evening, March 16. Come and have a good time; we always do at Harding.

Saturday, March 16th, Supt. Gary will conduct a parent-teacher meeting at the Grange hall. Patrons of the schools will serve lunch, come prepared. Upper, Lower and North Logan, also Stone, are in this district.

All others are cordially invited to come. Miss Coover, principal of the Lower Logan school, is preparing a program.

C. C. Robbins and family, of Portland, visited relatives here Sunday.

CLACKAMAS.

The Rebekahs held a social last Friday evening for the benefit of the order. Fifteen cents admission was charged, which included supper. About sixty-five were present to enjoy the program and social entertainment. This lodge is making a rapid growth this winter in membership and interest.

Rev. J. L. Jones has been up in the Sound country looking up a location. At his annual meeting the Congregational church of this place gave Brother Jones a unanimous call to this pastorate for another year beginning April 1, but circumstances render his acceptance somewhat uncertain.

Miss Crowe, sister of the principal of the Clackamas school, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is much improved though not yet able to get around.

Marshall Shearer, of East Clackamas, is reported to be very ill with Bright's disease. Mr. Shearer has had a long struggle with poor health in one form and another and he and his family have the sympathy of their many friends.

Plowing, seeding and other farm work has been in progress during the

"Hylo" Economical

Turn Down Lamps Save 85 per cent.

of current when the small, one-candle-power filament is burning. Useful as an all-night light in hallway, bedroom, bathroom, or elsewhere in the house. Fit any ordinary socket.

A gentle pull on one string gives the full 16 candle-power; on the other, the low light or out as desired. Save their cost the first month.

PORTLAND RAILWAY, LIGHT & POWER CO.

MAIN OFFICE 7th and Alder Streets

favorable weather, but a little rain will be very welcome to Oregonians.

The C. E. Society of the Congregational church is preparing to give a social in honor of St. Patrick's day, Friday evening, March 15, at the Grange hall. There will be a good program, social hour, and refreshments.

A number from here attended the basket social at Eldorado last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Daniels called on Mrs. Daniels' sister, Mrs. V. Bohlander last Sunday.

The home of Charlie Baker was completely destroyed by fire last Saturday morning. While Mrs. Baker was out getting some water she heard the explosion and on returning found the house ablaze.

Mrs. Fred Steiner called on Mrs. Fred Henrici one day last week.

M. O. Thomas and sister, Sarah Thomas, of Portland, are visiting friends at Beaver Creek.

SHUBEL.

Jacob Grossmiller is building a new board fence along the road which improves the appearance of his farm.

Will Dolbow is surely making great changes in his new home, clearing up the wild land, etc. Will is a hustler.

Mr. Smith is gradually but surely transforming the what was formerly known as the Clark place, into a good home. He does not seem to fear rocks nor stumps.

Henry Hettman and Mr. Swope, we believe, have gone to Eastern Oregon to look for horses.

The pie social at the school house Saturday night was a success. About $35 was realized. A cake in the beauty contest brought $17.

E. W. Hornschuh has purchased an automobile.

John Moehneke and Hans Schroeder are plowing for Mr. Fine.

Mrs. Hansen is quite low.

Robert Ginther and family attended Grange at Clarkes Saturday.

BEAVER CREEK.

Mike Moehneke keeps warm these wintry days by clearing land for exercise.

Phillip Maassinger, Jr., is clearing a good strip of land this winter on his place.

The road supervisor, Fred Kamrath, is improving the Beaver Creek road.

Fred Steiner has been on the sick

NOT EXPENSIVE

Treatment at Hot Lake, including medical attention, board and baths, costs no more than you would pay to live at any first class hotel. Rooms can be had from 75 cents to $2.50 per day. Meats in the cafeteria are served from 20 cents up and in the grill at the usual grill prices. Baths range from 50 cents to $1.00.

We Do Cure Rheumatism

Hot Lake Mineral Baths and mud given under scientific direction have cured thousands. Write for illustrated booklet descriptive of Hot Lake Sanatorium and the methods employed. Hot Lake Sanatorium is accessible as it is located directly on the main line of the O-W. R. & N. railway, and special excursion rates are to be had at all times. Ask agents.

HOT LAKE SANATORIUM

HOT LAKE, OREGON.
WALTER M. PIERCE, Pres.-Mgr.

Mrs. Meyer & Mrs. Hiatt
Formerly with John Adams Store
Invite you to call and see their line of Spring Millinery
You will find prices reasonable and receive personal attention.
Red Front Building, 9th and Main St. Oregon City