MISS WILLIAMS BECOMES BRIDE

POPULAR OREGON CITY GIRL AND H. A. BERKMAN ARE MARRIED

FORTY SEE IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

Miss Huntley Plays Piano and Mrs. Burke Render Several Songs—Couple To Live In McMinnville

One of the prettiest home weddings ever solemnized in this city was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Miller, when the latter's sister, Miss Veda M. Williams and Mr. Herbert Alexander Berkman were married, the ceremony being performed Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the presence of about forty persons all of whom were relatives and most intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom.

Preceding the marriage ceremony Miss Louise Huntley, who presided at the piano, rendered in a charming manner Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," which was followed by a vocal duet, "Oh That We Two Were Marrying," by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burke, their voices blending beautifully. To the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March" played by Miss Louise Huntley the bridal party entered the parlor. The bride leaning on the arm of her uncle, Hon. J. E. Magers, of Portland, and was preceded by little Gordon Miller, nephew of the bride, who acted as ring bearer, and the little flower girl, Lucille George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert George, of Portland, and the bride's maid, Miss Marion Lawrence, niece of the bride, were met beneath a canopy formed of ivy and white cut flowers by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. H. O. Spring of Portland. During the impressive ceremony, which was performed by Rev. P. D. Davis, of this city, a friend of the bride's family for many years, the couple stood beneath a handsome wedding bed formed of white hydrangeas and white daisies, which were suspended from the center of the canopy of evergreens. During the ceremony Miss Huntley rendered impressively "To Spring." Congratulations were extended to the young couple and luncheon was served. Mrs. Miller being assisted by her sister, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, of Portland, Miss Louise Walker and Miss Louise Huntley. Mrs. J. W. Loder and Mrs. J. P. Clark pouring coffee.

The bride was very pretty in her handsome gown of cream colored messaline, with pearl and fringe trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Marion Lawrence wore a very becoming gown of white marquisette over yellow silk and carried white sweet peas and daffodils.

The color scheme of the decorations for the parlor, living and dining rooms was green and yellow, hundreds of daffodils being used entwined with Oregon Grape and ivy. The dining room was filled with ferns and daffodils were used in all of these rooms making a most artistic finish. The electroliers were entwined with ivy, as well as the stairway which was banked with ferns and festoons of ivy. The bride's table was in yellow, the candles of which shaded with corresponding color.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mary Williams and the late C. O. T. Williams. She was born and reared in Oregon City, and is one of the most popular young women of this city. She has won hundreds of friends by her sweet disposition, and her faithful church work, having been for the past year and a half superintendent of the junior work in the Baptist Sunday school, and has also been a Sunday school visitor of that denomination. During her work Mrs. Berkman visited the sick and poor. She is also one of the leading musicians of Oregon City, having been graduated from the Chicago Musical Conservatory in 1907 two years after entering. After her graduation from the musical college she was offered a position of musical instructor at the Campbell Hagerman College at Lexington, Ky., and was very successful, being in charge of the work for two years, when she returned to Oregon City, and from here went to Bend, Ore., where she made her home with her sister, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, for a year, and when she met Mr. Berkman who was a prominent real estate man of that city. She afterward returned to Oregon City, where she has since resided.

The bridegroom is a prominent real estate man of McMinnville, and is vice-president of the Wesley Trust Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkman departed in the midst of a shower of rice and old shoes on their honeymoon and will live in McMinnville, where they have a bungalow. Before the departure of the bride she threw away her bouquet which was caught by Miss

HANDSOME HOMES BEING ERRECTED

BUILDING OPERATIONS IN SMALL TOWNS SHOW BIG INCREASE

OAK GROVE IS ONE OF LEADERS

Several Business Houses In This City Undergoing Repairs—P. M. Hart Erecting Fine Garage

Throughout the county building operations are active. Several handsome homes have been and are being constructed in Oak Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Worthington have just taken possession of their new home on a lot commanding a fine view. The house is of bungalow style and is modern throughout. It has five rooms. The reception hall opens on the veranda, and into this room opens the living room, which is adjoining the dining room. The Dutch kitchen, bath and two bedrooms go to make up one of the neatest homes in the county. Among the comforts of the home is a large fireplace in the living room. The rooms are finished in light color highly polished. The building was constructed by Mr. Toates, of Millwaukie, E. C. Warren, of Oak Grove having charge.

A beautiful home to be erected in Oak Grove is that of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Warren, which will be completed about April 1. It will have large reception hall, in the rear of which is to be a handsome fireplace of white tiling over which will be two large electric lights. From this room will lead the living room and dining room on the east side, while on the west side will be the parlor and den, the parlor to be 16x16 feet and the living and dining rooms the same in size. There will be four archways.

On the second floor will be three bedrooms. The bath, which will be of white enamel, will be on the west side. Each bed room will be fitted with large closets. Among the conveniences will be the stationary wash trays in the full cement basement, woodlith, electric lights, lavatories on both floors and built-in buffet. Mr. Warren is in charge of the work. There will be two cupolas, each having three windows, on the first floor and three on the lower floor. Mr. Warren is a prominent business man of Oak Grove and takes an active interest in the town, and the residence will be a great addition to the residence section.

L. E. Armstrong, of Oak Grove, has under construction a nine room residence, which will be one of the most convenient and attractive in that section of the county. This building will have three dormer windows on the second floor and will have a reception hall, living room, dining room, kitchen, bath, sleeping apartments, den, etc.

Many building s in this city are undergoing improvements among them being the Duane Ely store, the Wilson & Cooke store and the building formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Deutte on Seventh Street, which is now owned by Fred Blum. A fine garage has been built by P. M. Hart on his property at Twelfth and Jackson Streets. The house belonging to T. L. Charman on Twelfth Street near the Barclay school house has been improved by having a veranda and the rear renovated the carpentry work of which was in charge of Joseph Wilson, contractor. The painting and paperhanging was done by S. S. Mohler.

S. P. AND BIG MILL PAY $45,000 TAXES

Two checks for taxes aggregating $45,477.48 were received by Sheriff Mass Saturday. One from the Southern Pacific Railway on its rolling stock and road bed in this county was for $29,316.24, and the other for $16,161.19 was from the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company. The checks were the largest that have been received since the collection of taxes for 1911 was started. The time limit for rebates expires March 16, and a big rush is expected by Chief Deputy Sheriff Staats, who is in charge of the collection of taxes, all this week.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED BY PHILIP SCHNOOR

The neighbors and friends of Philip Schnoor, a prominent resident of West Oregon City, helped him to celebrate his fiftieth birthday Friday evening. It was a joyous celebration. The first part of the evening was devoted to songs, games, etc., and about midnight a sumptuous luncheon was served, during which the guests sang, "For he is a jolly good fellow." The guests departed for their homes after wishing their host many more happy birthdays.

MAYOR DIMICK TO BE FORUM SPEAKER TONIGHT

Mayor Dimick will deliver an address this evening at the open forum meeting of the Methodist church. His subject will be "Christianity and Politics." Dr. T. B. Ford, pastor of the church, invites the public to attend. The meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock.

BROTHERHOOD TO MEET
The Congregational Brotherhood will hold an important meeting in the church tomorrow night. President Gary urges all members to attend.

John Bull: "Now, of what use are my navy and boy scouts?" —Taylor in New York Evening Sun.

ONE HUSBAND AND 2 WIVES WIN DECREES

Judge Campbell Saturday granted Anette Robinet a divorce from D. Z. Robinet, awarding the plaintiff the custody of their child. They were married in Gordon, Or., November 5, 1895. The plaintiff alleges that her husband spent 90 per cent of his earnings in saloons.

Henry Liebke was granted a decree from Ruth Liebke, desertion having been charged. The couple lived in Portland and the plaintiff charged his wife left him in September 1910. Lena Raa was awarded a decree from Charles Raa, and her maiden name, Lena Martinez, was restored.

WIFE HIT HIM WITH CUP, SAYS HUSBAND

Alleging that his wife February 28, struck him on the head with a cup, cutting a severe gash, A. E. Kuenzi has entered suit for divorce from Clara Kuenzi. They were married March 28, 1900. The plaintiff also avers that his spouse was cruel to him on various occasions. He asks the custody of their three children. Brownell & Stone represent the plaintiff.

E. D. Olds Enters Race For Legislature

E. D. Olds, a resident of Clackamas County for many years, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for representative. Mr. Olds is well known in Oregon City where he is now employed. He has been a worker for the success of the Republican party, and his friends say he will be one of the successful candidates in the present race.

U'REN AND DIMICK TO DEBATE HERE

SINGLE TAX LEADER IN OREGON ISSUES CHALLENGE WHICH IS ACCEPTED

MAYOR SAYS HE IS NOT UNEASY

Follower of Henry George Declares Comments On Beaver Creek Discussion Are Satisfactory To Him

Declaring that the "comments on the joint discussion at Beaver Creek Hall Friday night were so satisfactory from my point of view," W. S. U'ren the leader of the single tax movement in Oregon, Saturday issued a challenge to Grant B. Dimick to meet him on the hustings in this city in the near future. Mayor Dimick, when asked if he would accept the challenge, said: "I shall be delighted to meet Mr. U'ren in a debate of the single tax in this city or any other place when convenient. I expect to be busy with other matters for a few days, but after that no doubt Mr. U'ren and I can agree upon a date."

The single tax question has reached an animated state in this county and there is every reason to believe that U'ren, the leading exponent of the Henry George theory, and Judge Dimick, one of the strongest opponents of the theory, will be called upon to debate in all parts of the county and probably throughout the state. "So many of our mutual friends," says Mr. U'ren in his challenge, "have expressed a desire to bear a discussion of the county bill to exempt improvements, personal property and occupations in Clackamas County from taxation, commonly called the 'single tax bill,' that it affords me much pleasure to invite you to meet me at Shively's Hall at the earliest date that will be convenient, without expense on your part for the hall or for advertising. The comments on the joint discussion last night at Beaver Creek Hall were so satisfactory from my point of view that I extend an invitation to you for Oregon City with great pleasure."

WORK ON ELK HOME STARTS THIS WEEK

The Oregon City Lodge of Elks has awarded the contract for the club house on Water Street to Clarence Simmons & Company. Mr. Simmons said Saturday that work on the structure would be started this week, and the building would be pushed to completion. It will be one of the finest homes of Elks in the state. The officers who were elected two weeks ago will be installed the first Friday in April.

KENT WILSON IS AUTO CONTENDER

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT IS WELL UP IN LIST WITH 20,000 VOTES

MISS MCGORD NOW LEADS SHEAHAN

Young Woman Gasts More Than 15,000 Ballots In One Day—Brown Gains 7,000 During Special Contest

More than 20,000 votes is the record breaking result of one day's work made by Kent Wilson in the Enterprise contest Saturday. Hitherto an unknown factor in the race for the big Ford auto, Young Wilson in a few hours' work has placed himself well up in the list of candidates, causing the other leaders in the race no little unrest. The result of the count of votes Saturday evening brought out a number of surprises, one of the most astonishing of which was Miss McGord's forcing Sheahan from the leadership of the race by casting more than 15,000 votes.

Sheahan cast more than 3,000 votes in his attempt to retain the leadership. John Brown cast the third largest number of votes for the day, bringing his 7,000 up to 13,000. The special day was the most successful one of the entire contest to date—more votes being polled than on any other six days of the race combined. All day long one candidate after the other came to the Enterprise office to deposit big bunches of votes. Each entrant was eager to win the extra 2,000 free votes. Of course the most sensational feature of the day was the wonderful showing made by Kent Wilson, but Miss McGord's great gain of votes, and forcing Sheahan from first place was truly exciting.

This week will see all former records of votes cast shattered. Every entrant is determined to land the prize Friday, when the second of the special ten day contests will close. The $15 merchandise certificate on the J. Levitt store seems especially attractive just now, as with spring days coming on, one's thoughts naturally turn to new clothes, shoes, hats, etc.

KING PLANS ENDING BIG COAL STRIKE

GEORGE, ANGERED, PROPOSES DEALING PERSONALLY WITH SUBJECTS

SCENE WITH MINISTERS STORMY

Queen Is Believed To Have Caused King To Take Situation In To Own Hands—Mediation Fails

LONDON, March 9.—In court circles there are reports of interchanges between King George and Premier Asquith owing to the Premier's failure to settle the coal strike. The King is of an impatient temperament and unable to appreciate the irresistible force of trades union organization. He is bitterly surprised at the failure of the Cabinet's mediation and expresses amazement that Asquith was unprepared with an alternative scheme for compulsory settlement. Asquith found it impossible to satisfy the king that the Cabinet had done its utmost so Lloyd-George, in whom the King has great personal confidence was sent to reassure him. For once the Chancellor's brilliant powers of persuasion failed.

The King suggested that an emergency might arise in which he would be compelled to call to his councils the leaders of the opposition and ask whether they were prepared to carry on the government and deal with the present situation.

Lord Lansdowne was sounded, but Bonar-Law intimated that such a step in the present crisis must delay a settlement indefinitely and that it was the duty of the government to discharge its responsibility in that connection.

The King, greatly displeased, proposed to invite coal owners and the miners' representatives to Buckingham Palace, believing that he could force them to accept the government's proposal.

The Queen is believed to have influenced the King. Asquith had great difficulty in persuading him that the failure of such an extraordinary expedient would have the worst possible consequences. The King also wished to address a public appeal to owners and miners, but Asquith induced him to defer this unusual proceeding until further efforts to bring about a settlement have failed.

WOODMEN OF WORLD HAVE FINE ENTERTAINMENT

The Woodmen of the World held an open meeting at the Woodmen Hall Friday night for the members and families. The early part of the evening was devoted to a musical and literary program as follows: Piano solo, Leo Burdon; Address, W. L. Snidow; trio, piano, clarinet and mandolin, Oliver children; recitation, Sammy McLarty; duet, piano and mandolin, Leo and Hugh Burdon; whistling solo, Harold Swafford, accompanied by Miss Nellie Swafford on the piano; reading, William McLarty; solo, William Smith; reading, Ralph Barber; mandolin solo, A. L. Lambert. After the program was rendered refreshments were served.

SHERIFF MASS IS OUT FOR RE-ELECTION

Sheriff E. T. Mass, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for that office, filed his declaration Saturday. His petitions for signatures are being circulated. Mr. Mass will not have any opposition in the Democratic party, but he will be opposed at the regular election by E. C. Hackett. Mr. Mass defeated Mr. Hackett two years ago, but the Republicans insist that their man will make a much stronger showing at the next election.

L. P. HORTON HOST OF CIVIL WAR COMRADES

A delightful reunion of comrades in the Civil War was held Friday night at the home of L. P. Horton, the veterans present being Dr. W. J. Taylor, of Pipestone, Minn.; T. W. Tasker, of Portland and Mr. Horton. Dr. Taylor was accompanied by Mrs. Taylor. Mr. Horton, Mr. Tasker and Dr. Taylor were members of the same company and enlisted at the same time with five of their friends. The three comrades met the first time since the war at an encampment in Minnesota in 1906, and have since, corresponded. Dr. and Mrs. Taylor left Saturday for their home but will stop in Spokane to visit Mrs. Taylor's daughter. Mr. Horton met Mrs. Taylor in Wisconsin in 1863 before her marriage, but he did not remember the incident until she recalled it.

MILITARY BAND TO GIVE PARK CONCERTS

The Military Band will meet in the Armory next Tuesday for marching drill preparatory to outdoor playing. Several engagements have been made, and all indications point to an exceptionally busy summer and one which will be more than ordinarily profitable to the bandmen. Weather permitting, it is most likely the band will give an afternoon concert in the park Sunday, March 24. The program will consist of serious music. The orchestra will meet with the Philharmonic singers in the Armory Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. The first part of the evening will be devoted to Orchestra rehearsal, after which part songs will be rendered with orchestral accompaniment. The Orchestra Concert will be on March 26, or 27. The program will consist of Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel," Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman," Elgar's "Liebeslied," Tschalokowski's "Cantabile" from the Fourth Symphony, and Gounod's "Funeral March of a Marionette." There will be Pipe Organ, Piano and Vocal numbers, and two part songs with Orchestral accompaniment by members of the Philharmonic Society.
