CHARTER BOARD IS

The charter commission copleted its work Thusday night and will file its report with the city council March 19. The council will be asked to call a special election for the voters to pass upon the revised charter. The most important changes are those reducing the number of councilmen from nine to five, one from each ward and two from the city at large, and the appointment of a mayor and a bus-iness manager by the council. The revised charter provides that the may-or shall be chosen from the membership of the council. ExMayor Brownell and the city council appointed the charter commission, which is composed of the following: George A. Harding, chairman; C. Schuebel, Livy Stipp William Andresen, F. J. Tooze, H. E.

DEMOCRATS ELECT OFFICERS TOMORROW

The Democratic County Central Committee will meet tomorrow morning at ten o'clock in Willamette Hall to elect officers. Dr. A. L. Beatle, the present chairman will be urged to offer for re-election, but he has said he would prefer that the honor went to another. G. F. Johnson, secretary H. E. Draper, treasurer, probably will be re-elected. After the election of officers the political situation in the county will be discussed and plans made for the campaign. ## BALL TEAM ENGAGED FOR CHAUTAUQUA

The fast Woodburn baseball team has been engaged by Secretary Cross as one of the five teams that will compete at the Chautauqua this summer. The team is one of the best amateur nines in the state and Mr. Cross says the Chautauqua is fortunate in having closed the deal. The directors of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Asso-ciation will meet at two o'clock this afternoon to appoint a permanent com-mittee, to examine the applications to furnish music and attend to other business.. Secretary Cross urges all directors to be present.
