

The Fiend Cow.
Man—Now smile, please.
Cow—Why, what's the joke?

LOCAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. William Shatz, of Stamford, were in Oregon City on business Thursday afternoon. Mr. Shatz, who is one of the prominent farmers of Stamford, states that much work is being done in that vicinity by the farmers, where she was called to by the farmers, where she was called to by the farmers, where she was called to by the farmers...

Mrs. Dorothy Christenson, who has been in the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, where she underwent a serious operation, is rapidly improving and was able to be brought to her home in this city Wednesday. Mrs. Christenson has been a sufferer for two years, but is greatly improved since her operation.

Henry Edwards, who worked at the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company plant until he was stricken with paralysis, has opened a cigar stand at 619 Main street. Mr. Edwards underwent treatment in a Chicago hospital for several months and is much improved. He is a brother of William Edwards.

Mrs. Thomas Myers, who has been in Astoria, where she was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Van Buren, returned to Oregon City Wednesday evening. Mrs. Van Buren's health being improved.

Mrs. C. S. Bucy, of Portland, who has been in Oregon City as a guest of Miss Clara Moser, who is in this city giving a course of lectures, returned to her home Thursday afternoon.

Miss Vada Elliott, who was recently brought to her home from the St. Vincent's Hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis, is improving so that she is able to be in a wheel chair at her home.

Ray Grady, who has been visiting relatives at Sunnyside, Clackamas county, has returned to Oregon City. Mr. Grady will remain at Sunnyside several more days before returning to Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Reese, of McMinnville, are in Oregon City visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Robbins. Mrs. Reese is a sister of Mr. Robbins.

William Daniels, one of the well known residents of Beaver Creek, was transacting business in Oregon City Thursday.

Edward Jacobson, of Seattle, was in Oregon City Wednesday and Thursday, being registered at the Electric Hotel.

Mrs. Pelir and Mrs. Whitesides, of Portland, were in this city on Wednesday, guests of Mrs. A. Goldsmith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stephens, of Maple Lane, were in this city on business Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Volkmar, after visiting her mother, at Fairfield, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. Walter Johnson, of Portland, is in this city, and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Elliott.

Lou Patterson, of the Russell & Gilbert Company, of Portland, was in this city on business Thursday.

Ed Schmidt, a well known farmer of Shubel, was in this city Wednesday.

Miss Tony Gelbrich, of Central Point, was visiting friends in this city Thursday.

C. E. Reynolds, of Salem, is in this city on business and is registered at the Electric Hotel.

E. H. Brown, of Portland, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Chris Murait and daughter, of Momedale, were in Oregon City Thursday.

Mr. Doyle, of Portland, a business man of that city, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet at the Baptist church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

SELLING OUT IN A HURRY
Our Dry Goods and Ladies Ready To Wear

EVERY DAY brings new buyers to this store who know a GENUINE SALE when they see it. EVERY DAY our stock gets lower and lower. Don't wait until tomorrow, what you need buy today as the low prices are moving everything out in a hurry. Come today and buy what you need now and for further use. Lay in your supply, save your money by buying here. Big Bargains in Ladies Suits, Coats Furnishings and Shoes. Again we say you will regret it if you wait. HURRY!

J. LEVITT

HYACINTHS, white blue and pink, 35c pot, at Wells Fargo Express TODAY.

Miss Goldsmith has a beautiful line of street hats on display.

The time to read the Morning Enterprise is at the breakfast table or a little before.

LOOK LISTEN

I buy Indian relics and old U. S. Postage Stamps.

HENRY SCHOENBORN
1015, 7th Street
Oregon City

Friday March 15th

Will have a special display of trimmed hats; also MARCH 22. Will be glad to have you call.

Miss Goldsmith

Nobel, 714 Main street, has just received another shipment of that 60 cent port. The best place in Oregon City for all kinds of wines.

M. B. Briggs, of Spokane, Wash., was in this city Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. J. A. van Brakle, licensed osteopathic physician, 806 Washington Street.

Charles Spangler, of Carus, was in this city Wednesday.

Fred Lindsay, of Carus, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

George Holman, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Fred Lindau, of Clarkes, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

Herman Schmidt, of Carus, was in this city Thursday.

Ed Howard and grandson, of Carus, were in Oregon City Thursday.

John R. Lewis, of Carus, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

George Elkerton, of Portland, was in this city on business Thursday.

Stories from Out of Town

JENNINGS LODGE.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. MacFarlane have recently purchased acreage near Burlington and made a trip to the above place Saturday.

Mrs. P. D. Newell has returned from Portland where she spent a few days with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Ford, of Portland, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a little son. Mrs. Ford was formerly Miss Esma Newell of this place.

Hugh Allen has been the name given to the little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilcox who came to their home on March 6th.

Rev. Calvin Bergstresser preached the second series of sermons on the "Coming of Christ" on Sunday March 10th, choosing for his text, Matt. 26-64. Mr. Eby and Miss Eby, of Portland, sang very impressively, "In Yon Bright City."

The weekly meetings closed Friday evening when the pastor, Rev. Bergstresser, was assisted by Rev. Wieve-sick, of Oregon City. Special music was rendered by Mr. and Miss Eby, of Portland, and Mrs. H. C. Panton and Miss Helen Panton during these services which continued two weeks.

Warren Potter and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster, of Portland, were calling on lodge friends on Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Wilcox and little son, of Oak Grove, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox the first of the week.

Owing to the serious illness of Miss Florence Jennings, of Wichita, Miss Brown Jennings was called to her bedside during the week and her place in the school room was supplied by Mrs. Carl Smith. Miss Florence is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, pioneers of Oregon.

Miss Ethel B. Smith has recently returned from Anaconda, Washington, to visit her brother, Carl Smith. Gus Peterson, of Kansas, who has been visiting some time in Oregon, has returned to this place to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Warner, who were neighbors in the Sunflower state.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Panton and family spent Sunday in Oregon City at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Scripture.

Isalah Shenefield has recently purchased some land in Canby and expects to make his home at that place in the near future.

Mrs. Halmer Emmons was called to the bedside of her friend, Miss Henrietta Abbott, who underwent a serious surgical operation at the Good Samaritan hospital last week. Miss Abbott has been a frequent summer visitor at the Emmons home and her friends are hoping for an ultimate recovery.

Clinton Heath received a message last week from his home in Kansas, conveying the sad news of the passing away of his brother's wife, Mrs. J. R. Heath, at Hagerman, New Mexico, where the family had gone hoping the mild climate would be beneficial to her. The remains were shipped to her former home in Kansas. Mr. Heath was not able to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Stephen Card, of Montavilla, and Miss Hannah Pura, of Battleground, Wash., were visitors at the G. V. Card home last week.

Mr. Macdonald, traveling salesman for the Gault Heating Co., of Portland, returned from a trip to Walla Walla, Wash., and Boise, Idaho, and spent a few days this week with his family at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brute and son, Garcia, of Piedmont, and Miss Elizabeth Cook, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cook. Mr. Brute took a number of pictures of the scenery of the Willamette at this place.

Mrs. Barnhart and Mrs. Will Finley and children Sunday at their home here, returning to the Portland home in the evening.

The Concord school baseball team will play the Jennings Lodge boys on Saturday on the school grounds here.

Mrs. J. P. Strain is quite ill at her home at this place. Her sister, Miss Susie Smith, of Clarkes, visited at the Strain home Saturday.

Henry Smith left Tuesday evening for LeGrange, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lang and Mr. Farnum, of Portland, have been recent visitors at the H. J. Robinson home.

MILWAUKIE.

E. M. Kellog has charge of the pool room in the absence of A. M. Wachtel.

Rachel Berkermier is on the sick list.

Mrs. Carlton returned from the hospital last week much improved in health.

A. L. Harper has moved onto the vacant lot in the rear of Swaggart's place on Main street.

A. M. Wachtel, proprietor of the pool room, is expected home in a few days from a visit to his old home in Idaho.

E. D. Callahan, of Portland, moved into the James Oliver property on Washington street Saturday.

The State Bank Examiner put in an entire day with the First State bank and recently and gave the business a thorough overhauling. He was well pleased with conditions and pronounced everything O. K.

Dr. C. E. Kennedy, of Arlington, Oregon, who is a patient at the Open Air Sanatorium, was a caller on Mr. Thomas Tuesday.

Evangelical church notice—Sunday school, 10:30 a. m.; preaching, 11:30 a. m.; Y. P. A. at 7 p. m.; services at 8 p. m. All are cordially invited.

A special school meeting will be held at the school house Monday evening, March 15th, at 8 p. m. to decide what will be done to provide more school room for the present year, as the school is now overcrowded. All taxpayers are requested to be present.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club will meet March 21st at 3 p. m. at the school. Miss Jessie Hodge Millas, of Portland, will address the meeting on "Children's Reading."

The Grange will hold an all-day session Saturday, March 16th. After the regular routine business lunch will be served.

Mrs. C. Butt, Mrs. J. C. Elkins and Mrs. Grizzelle, of Portland, spent Wednesday.

COLUMBIA STABLES
LIVERY, FEED, BOARDING AND SALES STABLES
Horses bought and sold at all times on commission. Best accommodations for transients in the city.
302 Front St. Corner Columbia
PORTLAND, OREGON.
Phone A 1513. Main 3030

nesday with Mrs. Ella Maple. Sherman and Donald Maple, of Alberta street, Portland, spent the week-end at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Maple.

Clifford Hewitt has rented the L. L. Gray cottage at Island and moved his family there this week.

The city council met Tuesday evening and transacted the regular business. All bills were allowed for the month. Ordinance No. 69 was ordered posted regulating licensed saloons. Improvements on the Foster road was discussed but no action taken. The proposition of bonding the town for $5000 to procure fire fighting apparatus was discussed and a special meeting will be called to issue bonds. A. L. Bolsted tendered his resignation as city recorder and it was laid on the table.

Bert Riley and Miss Gertrude Miles were married Monday evening at 7 p. m. in Portland at the home of Father McDevitt, returning to their home here late that evening. Wednesday evening they were charitably by the young people and welcomed to their new home.

Mrs. Zipsy and daughter, Miss Clara, mother and sister of Mrs. A. J. Harmon, left the fore part of the week for a tour of Southern California.

Mrs. W. P. Coldfeiler received the news of the death of her father, which occurred March 2d at Weeping Water, Nebraska. Mrs. Coldfeiler is the mother of Mrs. Jessie Durbin.

Iva and Murdie Thomas spent a few days with their grandparents in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Purdy.

GARFIELD.

George Epperson, of Sandy Ridge, visited his sister, Mrs. Dock Palmer, Sunday.

Henry Anders is saying one more doesn't make so much difference. It's a 9 pound girl. Mother and babe doing nicely.

Dr. Adix tried the rural roads with his new automobile Sunday as far as H. Ander's place.

Ed. Miller took dinner with H. Epperson Friday.

W. E. Orsen's friend, Mr. Burlington, of Portland, spent Saturday with him at Mr. Snuffin's home.

The Wanlicats have written to friends. They are coming back to Garfield as it suits them better than Idaho.

Mr. Stokes is talking of moving the Garfield store building over onto his land, about 1/4 of a mile farther south of its present location.

Dr. J. Hewitt called at Dock Palmer's Sunday on his return to Portland from his Garfield farm.

Charles Wanicat is painting, papering and remodeling the residence on his apple farm.

W. E. Orison and friend desired a view of the Garfield orchards and not having their aeroplane did the next best. They climbed one of the mon-archs of our forest till the tree was so small they could go no higher. I guess they saw what they were looking for as Mr. Orison started his Monday morning's work with renewed energy. He went to Portland for his motorcycle to try the roads the farmers have been building since 1853. He is more than pleased with his 30-acre place in Garfield.

We are sorry to lose one of our families, the Dennis, and hope soon to have them with us again. John Dennis goes to Clatskanie to take charge of his uncle's large farm.

The Delf Creek Lumber Company has received their machinery for their sawmill, and soon will be heard the rest of the sawmill buzz.

Several are enjoying the smelt shipped direct from Kelso, Washington, by E. Willis.

Mrs. Wm. Davis is no better, and probably worse as she is suffering from a gathering in her head to add to her other ailments.

Mrs. Lee Willis is on the sick list.

ELWOOD.

Blustering March is upon us. She came in as a roaring lion; we hope she will go out as meek as a lamb.

J. Cox, road supervisor of District No. 45, has opened a new thoroughfare between Elwood and Colton, thus lessening the distance considerably between said places.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwerine were in Estacada one day last week.

J. Grindstaff is helping Mr. Beardsley clear Mr. Hall's land.

Mrs. Beardsley's sister, who was visiting here a few weeks, returned to Portland.

Mr. Mellike moved a family from Estacada—Mr. and Mrs. Cane—who left their homestead for a few months' stay in Portland.

William Freeman is breaking for Mr. Hall.

Mrs. Julia Lunn, of Portland, is visiting her home folks, Mr. Grantzki's.

C. Bittner had the ill luck of losing his horse.

Mrs. Julia Lunn was a visitor at Mr. Miller's school.

L. Baker, of Estacada, was a visitor in this vicinity.

C. Bittner was in Oregon City last week on business.

W. T. Henderson shipped a coop of extra fine Barred Plymouth Rock hens to Portland, which netted him over $9 per dozen by weight.

Mr. Mellike is the possessor of a new buggy.

Coyotes are stealing Mr. Cox's chickens.

We were sorry to hear of Mrs. Della Vallon having to undergo a surgical operation at a hospital in Portland, but glad to hear she is doing well.

Walter Cox and Misses Montie and Ellis attended the funeral of Mrs. Waterbury, of Estacada, their aunt.

Ed. Park, of Walton, Southern Oregon, visited relatives here last week. He reports that vicinity in a prosperous condition.

A great many papers wonder at the greater migration of the populace into the cities. They would not wonder long if they would start out anew on a farm and meet the burden of taxation now oppressing and we, with Mr. Riley, are sure single tax will only benefit the wealthy class and city taxpayers.

FIRWOOD.

School has been closed for a couple of weeks on account of the teacher's health. Mr. and Mrs. Malar went to Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Malar is expected to undergo an operation.

New Telephone Directory

FOR
Oregon City

WILL CLOSE

TODAY MARCH 15th

Any changes or additions to listings or advertising matter for this issue must be arranged for on or before this date.

Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Every Bell Telephone is the Center of the System

NOT EXPENSIVE

Treatment at Hot Lake, including medical attention, board and baths, costs no more than you would pay to live at any first class hotel. Rooms can be had from 75 cents to $2.50 per day. Meats in the cafeteria are served from 20 cents up and in the grill at the usual grill prices. Baths range from 50 cents to $1.00.

We Do Cure Rheumatism

Hot Lake Mineral Baths and mud given under scientific direction have cured thousands. Write for illustrated booklet descriptive of Hot Lake Sanatorium and the methods employed. Hot Lake Sanatorium is accessible as it is located directly on the main line of the O.-W. R. & N. railway, and special excursion rates are to be had at all times. Ask agents.

HOT LAKE SANATORIUM
HOT LAKE, OREGON.
WALTER M. PIERCE, Pres.-Mgr.

CLEAN SANITARY

THE NEW WRAPPED LOAF

BLUE RIBBON BREAD

FOR THE PARTICULAR CUSTOMER

At Your Grocers in Oregon City.

SWEET DELICIOUS
Made by the Log Cabin Baking Co.

White Nubuck Button Shoes

On the New BOULEVARD LAST

Oregon City Shoe Store

D. C. LATOURETTE, President F. J. MEYER, Cashier

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of OREGON CITY, OREGON
CAPITAL, $50,000.00

Transacts a General Banking Business. Open from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

weeks looking around the country. A. C. Milliron made a trip to Bull Run Monday.

Mrs. E. C. Strong returned from Portland Tuesday.

C. A. Stahl, of Portland, made a business trip to E. D. Hart's Monday. The officers of the Mt. Hood Co-operative Creamery Company held a business meeting Tuesday to make arrangements for digging a well on the lot recently purchased for the creamery.

Wm. Boshelm made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

A. Malar was transacting business in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Brownell, of Portland, visited their daughter, Mrs. Reed, the first of the week.

KELSO

A birthday party was given Wednesday March 6 at the home of C. J. Sindall in honor of his seventy-fifth birthday. In spite of the number of his years Mr. Sindall is hale and hearty and leads an active life. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Jonsend, Mr. and Mrs. John Lund, Mr. and Mrs. I. Scott, Mrs. Joel Jarl, and Mrs. Robert Jonsend. A sumptuous dinner was served, after which a pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present.

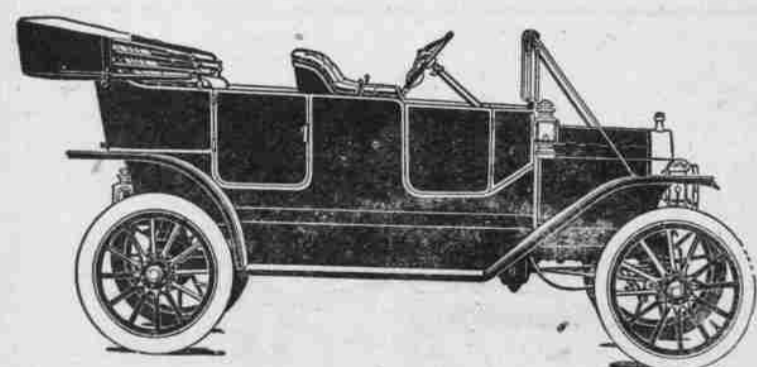

A pleasant surprise party was given Mrs. Mabel Jonsend Wednesday evening, March 6, by her schoolmates. Games and refreshments were enjoyed and all had a fine time.

Mr. Baumbach is fencing the Jonsend and Whipple tracts on the bluff. Jas. Wilson is building a new barn.

H. Whipple and Mr. Sheppard are each setting out orchards on their bluff tracts, and will soon commence building.

Gilbert Jonsend is building a new barn. His brother is doing the work. Ernest Bonett and Art Dickson have taken a contract to log for Jonsend Bros.

F. W. Canning, Miss Elizabeth Canning, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jonsend and Mrs. Max Kligel attended the Grange at Sandy last Saturday.

FORD 5-PASS. $785

A Penny

Will carry a post card across the continent. If you put a dollar stamp in the corner you couldn't get more service out of the government.

The Ford machine will take you just as far, just as quick and just as many of your friends as you wish to take.

Use as much common sense in selecting an automobile as you would in choosing a postage stamp.

Your money can't buy more than maximum service and you get a minimum cost in selecting a Ford.

Watch the 7-day non-stop Ford make good in Portland. The run now is on.

C. A. ELLIOT

Main St. Near 4th. Oregon City Ore.
Phones A72, Main 119.

WILLIAM W. McLAUGHLIN.

Ex-Inspector of New York Police
Figures in Brand Case.

Photo by American Press Association.

Misunderstood.
He—I am crazy to kiss you. She—Well, if you think so you needn't.—Exchange.