

Could Not Prove It

"I said in my haste all men are liars."

LOCAL BRIEFS

M. Henrick, of Clackamas, was in this city Friday. Mr. Henrick is one of the noted strawberry growers of Clackamas county, whose residence is near Stone, on the Clackamas river, and last year his crop of berries from 2 1/2 acres of land averaged $1025, the varieties being of the Clarkes, seedling and Magoon. His berries brought the best prices, and were among the finest brought to Portland and Oregon City markets. Mr. Henrick also has one of the latest prune dryers, and over 10,000 pounds of prunes were dried last summer, bringing 8 cents per pound. The Henrick farm is one of the finest in Clackamas county, most of which is under cultivation.

B. Roy Lee and Mr. Bryant have formed what is known as the Molalla Valley Company, real estate agents.

Rile Garrett has taken Ralph May's place in the Big Six store for a few days as Ralph is off on a happy vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. W. R. Porter and Verna Porter returned Saturday night from Long Beach, Wash., where they spent a week visiting Mrs. Porter's daughter, Mrs. Anna Smith.

Laurence Moshberger is moving back to Woodburn this week. The family will go the last of the week.

Mrs. Bradburn has moved into the house recently vacated by Rev. Rosing, the Norwegian minister.

Rev. A. H. Mulkey preached both morning and evening last Sunday at the Christian church.

The U. S. Flower Map Company held its annual election of officers March 5. The following officers were elected:

President, A. W. Butterfield; vice-president, O. R. Mack; secretary, J. E. Sutherland; treasurer, H. K. Stogsdill; directors, O. R. Mack, John Eid, A. W. Butterfield, H. K. Stogsdill, W. H. Bair, J. E. Sutherland. The company is in a flourishing condition and the prospects are better than ever before.

Emil Gordon was shaking hands with old friends one day last week and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. Roy Lee Friday night.

The Christian Sunday school gave a pie social last Tuesday night for the benefit of the Sunday school. Proceeds, $12 net. There was a big crowd. The coffee was excellent and very much appreciated by all.

The Christian Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. William Knight and finished up the work for her. A large number of ladies were present. Next place of meeting—Mrs. Ruth White's.

A surprise party was given on Mrs. William Drushel last Wednesday by 13 of her friends. Luncheon was served at noon. Everyone enjoyed themselves and had a nice, sociable time. Those present were Mrs. Geo. Koehler, Mrs. Coe, Mrs. Persons, Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. Chas. Lucke, Lily Lucke, Mrs. W. H. Lucke, Mrs. Sophia Koehler, Mrs. Mary Houshang, Mrs. Robert Vorphal, Mrs. John Koehler, Mrs. William Keller, Mrs. Drushel.

The Enterprise automobile contest is the most popular thing ever pulled off in the Willamette Valley.

ESTACADA.

Gov. Oswald West and State School Superintendent L. R. Alderman have accepted the invitation of the Grange to be the guests of the Grange at Estacada on Saturday. The Governor and Mr. Alderman will arrive at Estacada on the first car from Portland that morning and be conveyed by a committee of Grangers to the hall, three miles east of town. The Governor will speak at 2 P. M. on the subject of "The State of Oregon." Part of the proposition is to cut off a four or five mile strip in the north side of the county from the Willamette river eastward to Boring precinct and throw this into Multnomah county. It would be intimated from this that the new county would comprise Boring, Cascade, Dover, George, Eagle Creek, Estacada, Spring Hill, Viola, Highland and Elwood precincts with perhaps a portion of Harding precinct. It is claimed by the advocates of the proposal there will be more than $12,000,000 of property valuation in the territory. The property of Estacada precinct alone is valued now at more than a million. The farmers are taking very little interest in the matter. The opponents of the proposition say it will increase taxes without commensurate compensation.

Gus Burnett, of Eagle Creek, is being urged to be a candidate for the democratic nomination for county commissioner.

Mrs. Waterbury, of Estacada, died Thursday morning at 10:30. The interment took place at Springwater Friday.

M. M. Gill was at Springwater, Elwood, Viola, Eagle Creek, Boring and in Cascade precinct this week circulating his nominating petitions. He found the sentiment almost unanimous against the single tax. This was a topic uppermost in the minds of every one he met. The so-called West road bills were also severely condemned.

Sentiment in favor of a new county with Estacada as the county seat is developing rapidly here. At a meeting in Boring's theatre it was virtually decided to initiate a bill to create the new county. STAFFORD.

We are enjoying clear, bright days with some March wind, as must be expected at this time of year.

The sick are all improving and trained nurses discharged.

Mrs. Herbert Turner is so she is able to work about.

Mrs. Seidling went out to dinner with the family for the first time on Sunday last.

Mr. Lucas is improving and can sit up in bed. Nurse discharged Monday.

Mrs. Ed. Sharp is very weak yet, but looks brighter and Irving, her oldest boy, is about the house with a returning appetite. He had a severe cold with a painful gathering in one ear. The poor boy shows he has suffered. The doctor lanced the mother's ear, but it does not seem to get much easier.

Mrs. Fred Elligson, who has been caring for her sister, Mrs. Seidling, since the nurse left, was called to Woodburn by the illness of her eldest daughter, Mrs. Charles Seeley, and was to leave Tuesday for her home.

Isabel Miller was to come on Tuesday to stay with Mrs. Seidling.

Zack was to haul potatoes to load a car Wednesday.

A fish peddler came around Tuesday and was welcomed by nearly every housekeeper and soon the savory smell of frying smelt or halibut was filling various kitchens.

Mr. Bethka, the old reliable Oswego butcher, said last week he was going to again take up his route through Stafford, commencing next Saturday.

Mrs. Gage and her friend from Michigan called upon Mrs. Ida Delkar Tuesday afternoon.

A. Schatz's boy found the Pacific States, with twist near the corner and now the neighborhood can visit once more over the wires which we appreciate, as we had lived as it were in the backwoods without a telephone for some time.

There is plenty of flowers in bloom now for all the vases, which makes homes and yards look cheerful.

Mrs. Mary Saggart, Mr. Delkar's daughter, made them a visit last Sunday. She seems to have entirely recovered her health, which was very poor for so many years.

Mr. Aern's nephew, who got a steel splinter in his knee some time ago, is getting better gradually. Although the splinter was not located by the doctors he has resumed his work of getting out wood on Gus Gebhardt's place for his uncle, but still walks lame.

Cy Sweek, of Burns, visited his brother-in-law, Arden Gage, in Sheridan, last week, also John Q. Gage at St. Helens.

The Ladies' Circle meets with Mrs. Weddle next week on Thursday.

We have been asked the question, "Does the county or the city have to dig up for the senseless squabble going on between the mayor and the council?"

OAK GROVE.

Wednesday evening, March 13th, was the second anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Worthington's wedding and a few of the neighbors gave them a surprise party.

Whist was played and refreshments served by the ladies. The paper presents received were numerous and appropriate. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. L. Bonner, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bonner, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Skoog, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bennett, Bert Williams and George Huard. The guests left at a late hour wishing the young couple many more happy anniversaries.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ada Cosgriff on Court-avenue.

Remember the basket social to be given at the Concord school Saturday evening, March 23rd, by the parents and teachers association. The Oak Grove girls' band will play. All ladies are requested to bring baskets.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holt is building a four room bungalow on their lots on Cedar avenue and will occupy it when completed.

Mrs. Maude Ellis is working in the postoffice now and will move in as soon as Mrs. Holt retires, which will be in a few days.

Misses Rose Lakin and Maud Mabee were over night guests of Mrs. Chas. Worthington Sunday.

Myrtle Lakin and Theo. Worthington spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Worthington.

Mr. J. Buck, of Milwaukie, superintendent of the Industrial Fair for this part of the county, including twelve of thirteen districts, was here Monday morning to talk with Prof. Butler on the subject.

Virgil Clark went to McMinnville Monday on business, returning home Tuesday morning.

Mrs. J. S. Smith went to Oregon City Monday on business.

Mrs. H. M. Heninger, of Oswego, and daughter, Lela, accompanied by Harry Worthington, were callers here and in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. Virgil Clark and son, George, went to Portland Tuesday.

C. B. Bunnell went to Tigardville Tuesday to visit his brother, Byron Bunnell. Mr. Bunnell spent four days last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rilla Dowling, near Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Hugh Krum and Mrs. Mary Krum attended a birthday party at their cousin's home in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Sweeney has enlarged her bakery and now has a larger dining room and store room to display her goods.

The M. E. church has the church wred and is putting in electric light fixtures so as to have lights all thro' the church, adding much to its appearance.

The Oak Grove girls' band will give a band concert some time in April. They are practicing hard and will show great advancement in their music.

Some one was mistaken about wild geese flying, it was only the stork, who called on Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Riebhoff, leaving a son, Wednesday, March 6.

A good time and music, "the very best" by Busch's orchestra was the verdict of those who attended the young folk's hop Saturday night.

Brno Frederick started to Oregon City Sunday when his horse became frightened at an auto and ran away, breaking and upsetting the buggy. Autoists seem to enjoy this sort of a thing and fully half do not "toot" coming up behind teams. The river road is too narrow for teams and autos to pass in most places, especially around
