OREGON CITY, OREGON, SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1912.

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

MEMBER OF ALLEN BAND IS CAPTURED

RAIDER FOUND EXHAUSTED IN RAMSHACKLE HOUSE BY POSSE

PRISONER SAYS HE IS INNOCENT

Search For Other Raiders Of Virginia Court Is Being Pushed By Author-ities

HILLSVILLE, Va., March 22.—Sidna Edwards, a tall rugged mountaineer of 22, sat calmly in the darkness of the little brick jail here tonight, the first catch of the posses that have been scouring the mountains for those of the Allen gang who escaped after the courthouse assassination of March 14, when a judge, prosecutor, sheriff and two bystanders were killed and two others seriously wounded.

Young Edwards, emaciated and worn from a week's wandering, tonight protests his innocence and the hunters, spurred on by a day's success, are in the blue ridge, hunting his brother, Wesley Edwards, his uncle, Sidna Allen, and his cousins, Claude and Friel Allen.

Detectives Legrand Felts and W. W. Phaut, heading a posse, came upon Edwards at four o'clock this morning, asleep in an empty hut, near his home. He was unarmed and made no resistance.

Jack Allen, his uncle, one of the Allens, who was not at the courthouse on the day of the tragedy, joined his nephew on the way in and galloped along with the party. They entered in and paused while moving picture men clicked off a few hundred feet of film. Detectives carrying rifles followed closely.

ESTACADA IS MADE "CITY BEAUTIFUL"

It was clean-up day for the city of Estacada Friday. Following out a rearranged definite plan all places of business closed at 9 o'clock to remain closed for the remainder of the day, and merchants and clerks donned their overalls and with rakes shovels proceeded to their tasks under the direction of the various captains, including the secretary of the Commercial Club and the Mayor of the city.

About 100 men and 20 teams reported for work and the city presented a spectacle never before beheld.

Men from every walk of life were to be found working side by side throughout the entire day. In one gang there were two preachers, one lawyer, one doctor, the Mayor of the city and the president of the bank and four clerks from the various stores. And before night the entire city presented a neat and tidy condition and might be a pattern for other cities, and when Governor West visits today on his way to the Garfield grange where he is to speak, the city will present a far different appearance than on previous trips.

YOUNG TO HAVE EXHIBIT AT PANAMA EXPOSITION

George Young, the curio dealer, will have an exhibit at the Panama Exposition. He expects to win a prize. Mr. Young received Wednesday several rare Indian relics, among them being two sashes elaborately decorated with beaded work, two beaded necklaces, a shirt which is also ornamented with beads and a collar and cuffs, tomahawk, and Indian baskets. These specimens were brought from Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Mr. Young says that when he goes to the fair in 1915 he is going to show what Oregon can do and will come back with one of its prizes.

FALLS CITY ORCHESTRA TO GIVE BIG DANCE

The Falls City Orchestra will give the first of a series of dancing parties at Busch's hall Saturday night. This orchestra will furnish the music for the dancing, and there will be about twenty dances. The members of the orchestra are well known young men of this city.

Today is the free vote day in the third special contest which closes next Saturday. The candidate polling the most votes today will be awarded 2,000 free votes which represents two one-year subscriptions, and needless to say every entrant will be an active participant in the wild scramble to gain the extra votes. Ballots may be cast in the big ballot box in the Enterprise office any time from 8 o'clock this morning till 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which time the votes cast for the day will be counted. While the entrants are having no great difficulty in landing subscription, the idea of 2,000 free votes is pleasing to all and has in the past proven an incentive for extra hard work and it is predicted by some that a number of the entrants are planning a big surprise. Sheahan badly needs the free votes to help regain his former location at the top of the list, and he would have little trouble if it were not for one person. This "one person" is Miss Ruby McCord, who unassisted is holding her own in splendid style. Miss McCord is certainly a hard worker and fully deserves all the success she is having getting votes, for every one likes to help a person who is willing to hustle and is always on the job.

What will Wilson do? The "what" is bothering more than one entrant, who remembers this young High school athlete's phenomenal run of more than 20,000 votes two weeks ago, on his first day in the race. If he should make another spurt, similar to the gain the last special vote day, he would head the list of candidates which is the coveted goal of every one entrant in the race for the fore-door Ford. That chap Brown is very apt to "spring" something today too, so taking it all in all there will probably be some interesting developments.

The base ball boys seem to be alive to the wonderful opportunity presented to easily obtain new outfits and they will probably nominate one of their number whom they will, to a man, support in his efforts to land the big black touring car. They can win "hands down" if they only work half as hard in this contest as they struggle to win ball games, and the $750 which they could easily procure for the fore-door Ford, would buy them complete outfit of uniforms, bats and balls as well as leave a handsome sum for the improvement of the ball park.

One week from today, the special contest prize, a $15 merchandise bond on the J. Levitt store will be presented to the contestant gaining the most votes between the 15th and 30th.

In the attempt to capture first honors this time rivalry is intense, but permeated with a spirit of good fellowship and "may the best man win."

Watch tomorrow's paper for the name of the winner of the 2,000 votes and the standing of the candidates to date.

LIBRARY SITE IS HELD IN ABEYANCE

McLOUGHLIN PARK FAVORED BUT WOMAN'S CLUB OBJECTS

FLOOD DANGER IS TO BE ABATED

Portland Railway, Light & Power Company Probably Will Be Asked To Raise Walk To Canemah

The city council, at a special meeting Friday evening, was unable to agree upon a site for the Carnegie Library, and the mayor will call another meeting in a few days to give further consideration to the subject. The Woman's club was represented by a delegation, which opposed the location of the library in McLoughlin Park. It was through the efforts of the club that the home of Dr. McLoughlin was preserved. The members of the club fear if the library is located there the park would eventually become known as "Carnegie Park." Representatives of the Library also were present. The council was enlightened upon the work of the Woman's Club and what the Library Association proposes to do.

A report of the committee of ten appointed by the council to find a site for the library was heard, nine of the members favoring the southeast corner of McLoughlin Park. The report was opposed by the delegation from the Woman's Club, short addresses being made by Mesdames J. W. Norris, L. E. Jones, W. A. Shewman, George A. Harding and David Caulfield.

Captain J. T. Apperson, through S. P. Davis, made the following offer, but no action was taken upon it:

"As agent for Captain J. T. Apperson, who still owns a little property in this city. I this day had an interview with him with respect to the gift for the site for the talked of Carnegie Library. I called attention to lot No. 4, in block 51, situated at the northwest corner of Ninth and Washington Streets, as one which it seemed to me is ideal in location for that purpose, and asked whether he would not be good enough to make a gift of that lot for purposes named. Thereupon he called my attention to the fact that that lot and the one immediately adjoining it he now owes the city for library improvements to the sum of $798.43. He authorized me to inform your honorable body that if you are willing to make a rebate of said sum due for street improvement on the two lots named, he will execute and deliver to you a warranty deed for the corner lot (the one at the northwest corner of Washington and Ninth Streets) on condition that it is to be used for a library building."

It was voted to have a special meeting on call of the mayor. The meeting is to be held in private, and the site for the library determined.

A delegation of Canemah citizens and members of the Canemah Commercial Club, fifty strong, appeared before the council, and explained the danger to the city in case of another flood like the one in 1890 and the inconveniences to residents of Canemah under the existing road conditions during high water. Messrs. Hodges and Spencer told their experiences and explained why high water now causes more trouble than it did before the dam was built at the crest of the falls. It was agreed that a committee of three Canemah citizens meet with the mayor and street committee to consider the work. It was the opinion of all that the walk should be raised by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company.

WOMAN TEACHER IS HIGH SCHOOL SPEAKER

Miss Isabelle Grover, of the Department of History, McMinnville College, lectured at the High School Friday evening on "Need of the World." She declared that it was the duty of everyone to lead as perfect a life as possible not only for his own good but for the example that it would set for others. Miss Grover is an excellent speaker, and her address was considered one of the best that has been delivered of the High School series. Upon the invitation of Superintendent of City Schools Toose several citizens attended.

GEORGE C. BROWNELL SCORES SINGLE TAX

Although his address was necessarily a short one, persons who attended the political meeting at Gladstone Thursday evening, declare that George C. Brownell made one of the best arguments against the single tax that has been made since the theory was advanced in this county. Mr. Brownell showed the theory if put into practice would work a hardship upon the small land owners, and virtually would result in the confiscation of their property. He declared the passage of a law embodying the single tax would retard the development of the state and Clackamas County. Mr. Brownell was enthusiastically applauded throughout his address.

To Establish Branch
A. S. Nicol formerly of Oregon City, but recently of Rowe River, has entered into partnership with H. E. Straight of this city, to establish a branch plumbing shop and also to act as agents of the Saxton water system. They have the agency of Marion and Linn and Clackamas counties. C. H. Daucher, of Parkplace, had a water system installed at his home at Parkplace this week.

DIMICK-U'REN DEBATE DEFERRED

SINGLE TAXER SUGGESTS THAT THEY MEET SATURDAY NIGHT

MAYOR WANTS TO SEE TAX ROLL

Fight Being Made Without Money, He Says, Against Fels Fund Of $25,000 Or $30,000

The proposed debate between W. S. U'Ren and Grant B. Dimick in Oregon City on "Single Tax" is in abeyance. Mr. U'Ren wrote Mayor Dimick Friday that he had rented Shively's Opera House for a debate next Saturday night. The Mayor replied that he would be in Mount Angel that evening. He also took exceptions to parts of the letter.

The correspondence follows:

"Dear Mr. Dimick:—
"Yours of the 20th inst. at hand in reply to my third invitation and gives me much joy. I have rented Shively's Hall for Saturday night, March 30th, and shall be glad to meet you. If the printing of the tax roll is not complete, I will have the original books at the Hall and in the meantime you can consult them at your pleasure in my office. I would no more think of being personal in such a debate than you would. I never attack a man's private character in a political discussion.

Sincerely yours,
"W. S. U'REN."

"Dear Sir:—
"Your letter of March 22nd, stating that you had rented Shively's Hall for the evening of March 30th, duly received, and as I will be in Mt. Angel on that date I will not be able to meet you. In any event I will have something to say when this meeting will be held, and as far as I am concerned it will not be held until after your promised tax list is published and circulated. You stated at Beaver Creek at our former meeting that you expended the Fels Fund on the single tax measures last year, and that you would spend twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars of the Fels Fund this year if necessary. I want that tax roll published as you agreed it would be, so there will be no slight-of-hand performances in this debate.

"We are making our fight on single tax on principal without money, and if we are compelled to fight twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars of the Fels Fund, we have a just right to ask for the printed evidence or tax roll that was promised. Your original roll would be very little use, unless we could take it and make desired comparisons with the present roll.

"The last paragraph of your letter to me of this date is wholly uncalled for, but as it is in keeping with your methods, I pardon you. Yours,
"G. B. Dimick."

BARCLAY BASEBALL TEAM BEATS HIGH SCHOOL NINE
Much enthusiasm was manifested at the baseball game at the Canemah Park Friday afternoon between the teams of the Barclay grammar school and the Oregon City High School. The score was 11 to 2 in favor of Barclay. The Barclay pitcher held the High School five innings to a score of 4 to 3, there was much excitement among those witnessing the game.

The time to read the Morning Enterprise is at the breakfast table or a little before.

MAIN STREET SITE BRINGS $35,000

JAGGAR BUYS STRATTON PROPERTY ON SEVENTH STREET CORNER

BIG HOTEL MAY BE BUILT SOON

Lots Bought About Thirty Years Ago For $600—Purchaser Recently Deposited Check For $115,000

Two lots, 99 by 105 feet on Main street, which about thirty years ago sold for $600 were bought Friday by Frank Jaggar for $35,000. The property is at the northeast corner of Seventh and Main streets, which is one of the most desirable locations in the city. While Mr. Jaggar has not made a definite decision as to his plans, it is believed that he will erect a hotel on the site.

The purchaser recently created a stir when he deposited a check for $115,000 in the Bank of Oregon City. This is the largest check that has ever been deposited in a local bank, and Mr. Jaggar is regarded as the Croesus of Clackamas County. The money was derived from the sale of a lot at Washington Street and West Park, Portland, which belonged to the Benjamin and Louis Jaggar estates. That lot sold for $230,000, having been bought by them during Cleveland's administration for $30,000. The remarkable enhancement in value of the Portland property is not any greater, in proportion to the size of the cities, than that of the lot which Mr. Jaggar purchased Friday.

The property here, which was sold by Mrs. Helen Stratton and four heirs, was held for many years by the late M. A. Stratton, who was chief clerk in the Oregon City Woolen Mills. Part of the property originally owned by Mr. Stratton was sold twenty-five years ago to the city for a site for the city hall. J. W. Cole occupies the corner building as a saloon, and the other buildings are occupied as a restaurant, fish market, meat market and pool and billiard hall.

The farewells reception tendered the Rev. S. A. Hayworth at the Baptist church Friday evening was attended by a large and representative crowd.

REV. HAYWORTH GIVEN FAREWELL RECEPTION

The Rev. E. A. Smith, missionary pastor was master of ceremonies. Mr. Burden gave a piano solo and Rev. Mr. Mulkey pronounced the invocation. Dr. Ford of the Methodist church spoke for the city ministerial association. He expressed regret at the breaking of ties. Rev. S. P. Davis on behalf of the deacons spoke very kindly of Mr. Hayworth and his work and expressed a hope that some time Mr. Hayworth might come back to the coast. Mrs. Almsed sang a solo, "Within a Mile of Edenboro" with exquisite tenderness. Miss Anna Smith, president of the Young People's Society of the church, spoke of the retiring pastor's relation to the young people and their work.

Miss Ona Renner sang "Good Bye Sweet Day".
Rev. George Nelson Edwards of the Congregational church responded in part of the sister churches. He said that long pastorates are the most fruitful of good and wished that Mr. Hayworth might have a long stay at his new call. Mr. Smith, prelate of Cataract Lodge No. 76, K. of P., presented in a very eloquent address an emblematic badge as a token of the lodge's love and esteem for Mr. Hayworth. D. C. Latourette on behalf of Mr. Hayworth's friends in the church presented him with a beautiful gold ring. Mr. Latourette said the ring represented both God and His love. "The circle had neither beginning nor ending, the gold as the substance most enduring and least tarnishable." All of the speakers spoke most kindly of both the pastor and his splendid co-worker, Mrs. Hayworth.

Mr. Hayworth spoke most tenderly and feelingly in reply to all the interests represented. He said he held the church above all other institutions but that did not debar fraternal relationship with the noblest and best of the fraternal organizations which are seeking to uplift humanity.

Mr. Hayworth will preach Sunday morning and evening and Monday he will start for Washington, Ind., where he will take up his work.

DR. MOUNT FINDS BABY GIRL IN AUTO

FOUNDLING THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN LEFT BY PORTLAND WOMAN

INFANT TAKEN TO ST. AGNES HOME

Clothing Of Best Texture And Parents Evidently Well-to-do—No Clue To Their Identity

As Dr. H. S. Mount was leaving his touring car which he had placed in the garage at his home at 9 o'clock Friday night, he heard a faint cry, as if coming from the rear of the machine. He looked into the car and espied a bundle. He opened the bundle and there snugly ensconced was a bright-eyed baby girl, about ten days old. Dr. Mount is an authority on babies, but for the nonce he was puzzled. Then collecting his wits he took the infant into the house where it was given every attention.

Dr. Mount reported the finding of the baby to Night Policeman Green, and it was finally decided that the best thing to do with it was to take it to a home. So a few minutes later the physician with the foundling snugly wrapped up took it in his automobile to St. Agnes' Home at Parkplace, where it will be tenderly cared for by the sisters.

The baby's clothing was of the best texture and Policeman Green is of the opinion that its parents are well-to-do. There were no marks or lettering on the clothing to give a clue to the identity of the infant's parents. Policeman Green thinks probably that the baby was left in the automobile by a woman who came to the city on the 8:27 o'clock train. He found tracks made by a woman near where the automobile stood. Dr. Mount left the automobile in front of his home about 6:30 o'clock. It is thought that the woman got off the rear coach of the train when it stopped and going through Ninth street saw the automobile, and decided it would be a good place to leave her charge.

RIVAL CANDIDATES IN TOWN SAME DAY

The candidates for the Republican nomination for District Attorney—E. B. Tongue and A. W. Norblad, called upon their constituents in Oregon City Friday. Mr. Tongue, the incumbent, lives in Hillsboro, and Mr. Norblad is city attorney of Astoria. It was a coincidence that both of them came to Oregon City the same day, for neither knew the other would be here. Mr. Tongue left early in the afternoon, but Mr. Norblad established headquarters at a hotel and decided to remain until tonight in order to become acquainted with the wary voters. Mr. Tongue, it is said, thinks he will win the nomination easily, and Mr. Norblad declared that he would be the party's nominee. Gilbert L. Hedges, candidate for the democratic nomination for the office, who served as district attorney by appointment two years, also was a busy man Friday, and thinks he will be the choice of the people. The candidates did not meet.

The location of the Milwaukie high school will be settled next Monday by the votes of the taxpayers of that district. It will be erected either on the present school grounds, in connection with the grammar school on Main and Harrison streets, or a new site will be selected in Minthorn, in the eastern part of the district. If a location is selected in Minthorn it will mean the purchase of about one acre of land for a site with the additional expense of the purchase price but the residents in that part of the district want the building located and erected in Minthorn, where there is a considerable settlement. They are working hard to secure the new building wherever located it will be a central high school to which the surrounding districts have agreed to send their high school students. Cost of the new building will be about $10,000.
