

E. B. TONGUE HAS A FINE LEGAL SUPPORT

Members of Bar, Irrespective of Party, Give Endorsement

ASTORIA, ALSO, COMES FORWARD

Has Marked Success as a Prosecutor for the State

To the voters of the fifth judicial district:

We, the undersigned, friends of E. B. Tongue, who is now serving his first term as prosecuting attorney for the fifth judicial district of the state of Oregon, comprising the counties of Columbia, Clatsop, Clackamas and Washington, and who is now a candidate for re-nomination, beg to submit for the favorable consideration of the voters of said district the recommendations of the republican members of the bar of the different counties of said district, together with our own.

The following, signed by every lawyer in Hillsborough, Oregon, Mr. Tongue's own home city, both democratic and republican, with one exception, speaks for itself of the high regard in which he is held by them.

"We, the undersigned, members of the Hillsborough bar, having the highest confidence in the legal ability and personal as well as official integrity of E. B. Tongue, a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of prosecuting attorney for the fifth judicial district of the state of Oregon, of which Washington county is a part, hereby announce our support of his candidacy and ask that he be given that due consideration by the voters of this district which his official and personal record warrants and that he be given a second term."

The following from the republican lawyers of Astoria, county seat of Clatsop, and the home of Mr. Norblad, and which is signed by every republican attorney, except Norblad, his associate and one other:

"The fifth judicial district never had a prosecutor who worked harder or was more conscientious or more efficient than the present prosecutor, and we heartily believe that he should be re-nominated and re-elected, and we recommend that this action be taken by the voters of this district."

The following signed by every republican lawyer in Columbia County, with one exception:
"We, the undersigned lawyers of Columbia County, believe the faithful, conscientious and efficient service of a public official should be rewarded by the election of a second term. The Circuit Judge of this district, in charging the grand jury, often refers to E. B. Tongue as one of the ablest prosecutors in the State of Oregon. He should be re-nominated and re-elected."

W. H. Cooper
The following signed by all the republican members of the bar of Oregon City, the county seat of Clackamas County.

"We, the undersigned lawyers of Clackamas County, hereby recommend that E. B. Tongue be re-nominated and re-elected to the office of District Attorney for the Fifth Judicial District, comprising the counties of Clackamas, Columbia Clatsop and Washington. This should be done as a reward for the faithful and efficient service he has performed during his term. As an able, conscientious and hardworking prosecutor he stands second to none in the State of Oregon."

The following record of Mr. Tongue during his first and present term tells a simple story of success. He lost only 17 cases out of over 630 Circuit Court cases in the different counties, a few of which are still pending; he has won every criminal case tried in the Supreme Court. The number of cases above set forth does not include the hundreds of Justice or Police court cases—simply the Circuit and Supreme court cases; those of importance consisting of murder, burglary, highway robbery, rape, etc., the list including six murder cases—5 convictions and one acquittal.

We know that Mr. Tongue will honestly, vigorously, faithfully and impartially perform the official duties without fear or favor and accord to every individual, irrespective of party, politics or personality, a square deal under the law, keeping always uppermost in his mind the interests of the taxpayers, and that he will protect the innocent, as well as prosecute the guilty; that he will require every case to stand upon its own merits and prevent private cases from being tried at public expense; that he cannot be clubbed, slandered, bluffed or driven to squander the taxpayers' money on useless, frivolous or malicious prosecutions.

We, therefore, respectfully submit that Mr. Tongue merits reelection, and should be supported by the voters of the Fifth Judicial District

WARNER GRANGE IS AGAINST ROAD BONDS

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held by Warner Grange was that at New Era Saturday. More than 100 members were in attendance. The sentiment of the grange almost was unanimous against the bonding system for building roads. Captain J. T. Apperson spoke on agriculture and declared that growing vegetables was more profitable than growing the usual farm products. C. T. Dickinson, of Oswego, state deputy and Miss Hazel Paquet, of Evening Star Grange, of Multnomah County, also spoke. A. J. Lewis, formerly fruit inspector gave an interesting lecture on tree spraying. Mrs. F. J. Meindl, of Portland, spoke of equal suffrage.

YOUTH VS. OLD AGE ON LINKS

McDermott's Play In Scotland Will Afford Contrast.

YOUNG MAN LEADS IN AMERICA

Ahead the Leading Golfers Are Men In Their Forties, While on This Side of the Atlantic the Best Players Are Young Men.

The advance of John J. McDermott, open champion of the United States, on the British title at Muirfield, Scotland, will afford one of the most striking contrasts between golf in this country and Great Britain in that youth leads in the United States, while age is at the forefront abroad.

It has been suggested that if we were to select the twenty leading amateurs on this side of the big pond not more than five of them would be men who have passed the thirty-five-year-old mark. Chick Evans, the Chicago marvel, the first American amateur to win a big event open to professionals, left the Northwestern university when he was a junior to enter business. He is generally regarded as America's most representative golfer. Albert Seckel, who won the western amateur championship last year, is a student at Princeton. Henry Heyburn, the Pennsylvania state champion, is an undergraduate at the University of Pennsylvania.

Jerome D. Travers, the metropolitan and New Jersey state title holder, is still in the twenties. All the leading players in Chicago, a city famed for its big players, are men who are either in college or have but recently graduated. Prominent among them, in addition to Evans and Seckel, are Mason Phelps, a former western champion; Warren K. Wood, national runner up in 1910; D. E. Sawyer and Paul and Robert E. Hunter. The same is true of the New York players. Of the older players there are only Walter J. Travis, Findlay Douglas and John M. Ward.

Our present national open champion, John McDermott, the Philadelphia boy who is the professional at the Country club at Atlantic City, is only twenty-two years old.

Abroad the leading golfers, both amateur and professional, are men in the forties. Harold Hilton, the international champion, is past forty, as is John Ball. These two men have held the British amateur championship between them for years. The leading professionals, Harry Vardon, James Braid, Taylor, Duncan and other big "pros," are approaching the half century mark.

ROSE AFTER MORE HONORS.

Great Shot Putter Aspires to Be Amateur Wrestling Champion.
Ralph Rose wants to attain other honors at the Olympic games in Sweden than as the weight man of the American aggregation. Lawyer Rose in fact, doesn't see any reason why he should not add to his other laurels the title of amateur heavyweight wrestling champion of the world. And hereby hangs a story.

Once the idea entered his mind, Rose went to Professor George Meihling of the Olympic club of San Francisco and suggested that he would like a few pointers.

"Sure," answered Meihling. "Come right out on the mat."
Ralph, nothing loath, stripped for action. Meihling explained a few of the holds and then proceeded to demonstrate them in person. That was where the trouble commenced. Meihling, a lilliputian compared to the giant Rose, discovered that he couldn't execute the holds on the monster. His arms were not long enough to reach around Rose's body, and, all in all, it was a miserable failure. So Meihling, full of resources, did the next best thing. He stood at one side and explained the holds in theory, if not in practice.

"The worst about the whole thing," was the comment of the instructor, "is that when I am on the floor with Rose on the aggressive the referee can't even see me, much less figure out whether Rose is entitled to a fall."

Picture in Disguise.

Many odd strange have been the vicissitudes of some of the world's greatest pictures, and a fine painting which is owned in England has an interesting history. This remarkable picture, which for some years consisted of a painting of flowers, was pronounced by an art dealer to be merely a mask for some other picture, and on his receiving permission he gradually cleaned off the flowers, discovering underneath a very fine portrait of Charles I. by Van Dyck. It is supposed that the portrait was thus disguised in order to save it from destruction by the Roundheads at the time of the commonwealth.—London Standard.

MISS CHARMAN HOSTESS OF BACHELOR GIRLS

The Bachelor Girls met at the home of Miss June Charman Friday evening and were entertained in a most delightful manner at five hundred, the prize, a pretty Haviland plate being won by Miss Clara Caulfield. Refreshments were served.

Present were: Miss Van Brakle, Miss Nieta Harding, Miss Clara Caulfield, Miss Nell Caulfield, Miss Belle Mattley, Miss Wynne Hanny, Miss Myrtle Parker, Miss Nettie Kruse, Miss Maude Galogly, Miss Ethelwyne Albright, of Hood River and Mrs. Kenneth Stanton.

A Man of Memory.

Sir Thomas Lawrence, who afterward became president of the British Royal academy, was not only one of the greatest of English portrait painters, but was in addition the possessor of a marvelous memory. His father was the landlord of the Bear Inn, Devizes, which was on the coach road to Bath, and by the time "little Tommy" was five years old he would say to the ladies and gentlemen who stopped for their meals at his inn: "Here's my son. Will you have him recite from the poets or take your portraits?" This was no idle boast, for he could do either with equal facility and could roll off reams of Shakespeare, Milton and Pope with wonderful elocutionary effect.

SOUTHERN DEMAND FOR SPUDS HALTS

The buying movement of potatoes for the San Francisco market has suddenly ceased in the local territory. Bids of the San Francisco buyers have been quickly reduced from $2 per cental at country shipping points to $1.75 to $1.85. Some are not anxious to take hold of extra fancy even at the lower figure.

There remains, however, a very good demand from the southwest and additional business is passing with Arizona. For this account shippers are bidding from $1.50 to $1.60 per cental in the Willamette valley and from $1.25 to $1.35 at eastern Oregon points.

Only one or two firms are now in the buying field for potatoes so far as outside account is concerned. Others have called in their buyers and are awaiting development before again entering. Owing to the extreme strength that the market has shown here recently and the high prices that have been in effect, it is not likely that farmers will begin to offer more freely for a few days at least.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:

- DRIED FRUITS—(Buying)—Prunes on basis of 6 1/4 pounds for 45-50's.
- Fruits, Vegetables.
- HIDES—(Buying)—Green hides, 7c to 9c; salted, 5c to 6c; dry hides, 12c to 14c; sheep pelts, 25c to 75c each.
- HAY, Grain, Feed.
- HAY—(Buying)—Timothy, $12 to $15; clover, $8 to $9; oat hay, best, $9 to $10; mixed, $9 to $12; alfalfa, $15 to $16.50.
- OATS—(Buying)—Gray $31; wheat $30; oil meal, selling $35; Shady Brook dairy feed, selling $1.25 100 pounds.
- FEED—(Selling)—Shorts, $25; bran, $24; rolling barley, $39; process barley, $40.
- FLOUR—$4.50 to $5.25.
- Butter, Poultry, Eggs.
- POULTRY—(Buying) Hens 11c to 14c; spring, 10c to 11c, and roosters 8c.
- Butter—(Buying)—Ordinary country butter, 25c to 30c; fancy dairy, 40c.
- EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs, 18c.
- SACK VEGETABLES—Carrots, $1.25 to $1.50 per sack; parsnips, $1.25 to $1.50; turnips, $1.25 to $1.50; beets, $1.50.
- POTATOES—Best buying $1.25 to $1.35 per hundred.
- ONIONS—Oregon, $1.25 to $1.50 per hundred; Australian, $2 per hundred.
- Livestock, Meats.
- BEEF—(Live weight)—Steers, 5c and 5 1/2-; cows, 4 1/2-; bulls, 3 1/2-
- VEAL—Calves bring from 8c to 13c, according to grade.
- MUTTON—Sheep, 3c and 3 1/2-; lambs, 4c and 5c.

PLAN TO DIVIDE COUNTY DISCUSSED

the southern boundary of the county. He said that the area contained 5,000 people, property which was assessed at $5,500,000 and that at the present did not receive one-hundredth of the county revenues when it was by right entitled to at least one-third if not nearly a half.

J. E. Gibson, of Boring, and H. S. Barclay, of Estacada, spoke at some length upon the proposition. It was the unanimous sentiment to go ahead with the plan of the campaign and upon motion of Mayor Reed it was decided to send a committee to the Logan, Springfield, Curriaville, Garfield, Viola and other nearby towns to make speeches and outline the objects of organizing a new county.

Representatives of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company were present at the meeting, in the persons of W. T. Buchanan, publicity agent; J. E. Werlein and R. M. Townsend. Mr. Buchanan said that the company did not take a position in the matter, that it could not morally and would not. He asserted that it was a matter purely for the citizens to decide and it was a local issue in which the company could not consistently take part.

SALOON MAN ARRESTED FOR SELLING TO BOYS

J. A. Butler, proprietor of a saloon on Main Street near Fourth, pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling liquor to minors in Recorder Stipp's court Saturday, and will be given a hearing Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The evidence against Butler was worked up by Night Policeman Frost, who Wednesday night found William Reece, seventeen years of age, in an intoxicated condition. The boy was so drunk that he suffered from fits. Friends explained that drinking had caused the fits. Reece was locked up and Saturday said that he and three companions had bought wine in Butler's place. He gave the names of the other boys and they corroborated his statement. Officer Shaw appeared against the saloonkeeper when he was taken to the Recorder's court. The penalty for selling liquor to minors is a fine or forfeiture of license.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS FALLS CITY BAND DANCE

The dance given at Busch's Hall Saturday night by Falls City Orchestra was attended by about eighty couples. The orchestra which is composed of Oscar Woodfin, Chester Simonson, Frank Busch, Carl Schoenheinz and Roy Baxter, rendered excellent music. The dance was a big success.
