RAIDER, STARVING, BROWN DEPOSITS BLOCK OF VOTES GIVES HIMSELF UP

INDICATING DESIRE TO SURRENDER

FUGITIVE POINTS PISTOLS IN AIR INSURANCE MAN EAGER FOR TOURING CAR TO USE IN BUSINESS

VIRGINIA OUTLAW HAPPY IN JAIL WILSON DUE TO SPRING

Posse In Belief That Others Soon Will Be Arrested

HILLSVILLE, Va., March 28 .-Starving, sleepless and fatigued, Claude Swanson Allea came out of the laurel thicket in the Blue Ridge today, pointed two six-shooters toward the sky and gave himself up to the posse which for nearly two weeks has hunted him.

Complacent and almost happy, sat tonight, sheltered from a driving storm in the little brick jail a stone's throw from the Carroll Courthouse, where, March 14, the Allen gang vengefully killed the judge, the prosecutor, the Sheriff, a juror and a by-

All day the posses, divided into small numbers, had been following a trail thought to be that of Wesley Edwards, a nephew of the Allens. Suddenly Detective Lucas and four men a figure creeping stealthily through the undergrowth.

The posse threw their rifles to their shoulder and Allea stepped out into the road, his hands upraised, a pistol they started back to Hillsville.

hope that the capture of the three winning the grand prize—a Ford five-remaining fugitives—Sidna Allen, his passenger, fore-door touring car. nephew Friel and Wesley Edwards. Claude stoutly dealed any know-greatest number of votes during the ledge of the hiding place of the three. fifteen days which these contests run,

VIOLA TEACHER IS

Thomas Lovelace, teacher of the ing for. Viola school, who was attacked by F. Miss McCord won the last special E. Cockerline, one of the directors a contest and is working like a Trojan that he had been dismissed. The di- It is the same old story however rectors held a meting at the school house, and decided that another teach- thing, so it is hard to pick the winner er should be engaged. Lovelace was this far in advance. Kent Wilson's ished by Cockerline, declares that the borthday celebration for all of us? attack was unprovoked. Witnesses, Thanks, but we will continue to have however, say the director was pro- the same birthday kick-ups that pleasvoked into making the assualt.

Mrs. Rose Taken To Asylum

had been in the asylum before Watch the automobile contest

Capture Of Claude Allen Encourages Merchandise Certificate To Be Given Contestant Depositing Largest Number of Votes Saturday

	00000000000000000	0
	STANDING OF CANDIDATES
	® Ruby McCord	0
	 Joseph Sheahan	0
	* Kent Wilson 28,600	š
	* John Brown
	⊕ Charles Beatie 6,800	6
	® John Weber 6,800	ě
Į	⊕ John Haleston 6,000	P.
	& Mahle March 1900	2
ı	 ♦ Mable Marsh 1,200 ♦ McColly Dale 1,000 	8
1	Bdna Hutchinson 1,000	4
1	⊕ Royce Brown 1,000
1
	 ⊕ Barnett Howard 1,000 ⊕ Dellas Armstrong 1,000
1		5.79
ł
i
1	Harry Miller 1,000
	* Fred Metzner 1,000
Į	⊕ Frank Bruce 1,000
l	⊕ Leo Shaver 1,600
I	Mable Marsh
ı	⊗ A. G. Kindler 1,400	0
ĺ		٠

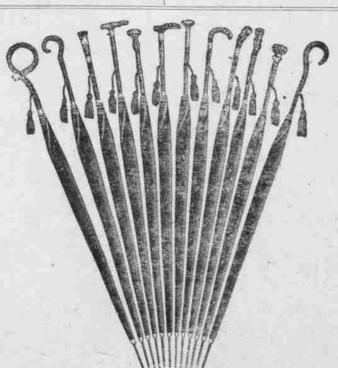

To those contestants in the race for the Enterprise automobile who are "Im glad to get a chance to come desirous of becoming the local Beau in," he said. "I haven't slept in a Brummels, it may be well to state bed since the shooting. I'm hungry." that the Special Fifteen Day Contest The young mountaineer swung in new running closes next Saturday between the men of the posse and evening. These special contests are a boon to the winners for the votes Claude's capture gives renewed which win them also count toward

To the person who deposits belongs a $15 merchandise coupon on one of Oregon City's frominent stores. These coupons give the winner his or her unrestricted choice of $15 worth of merchandise in the specified store. Every vote cast, in an effort to win these coupons, counts in the grand totals of the various contest-ants when the final count is taken next June. So it is a chance to win double money-therefore worth fight-days ago, was notified Thursday to "cop the prize" on next Saturday. Every candidate is doing the same ed our forefathers.

connection with the Oregon Fire Re-lief Association of McMinnville, has Mrs. Ollie Ann Rose of Jennings Lodge, was taken to the asylum at Salem Thursday evening. Mrs. Rose subscriptions. His business takes him out among the farmers and when

(Continued on page 3.)

Special Sale of Urbrellas

Save Money By Buying Now

Beginning today we are placing on sale our entire stock of fine ladies and gents umbrellas-fitted with detachable handles---at 20 per cent off from regular prices. Every umbrella guaranteed to wear and give satisfaction.

Regular $1.00 umbrella now 80c Regular $1.50 umbrella now $1.20 Regular $2.00 umbrella now $1.60 Regular $2.50 umbrella now $2.00 Regular $3.00 umbrella now $2.40 Regular $4.00 umbrella now $3.20 Regular $6.00 umbrella now $4.50 Regular $7.50 umbrella now $6.00

BURMEISTER & ANDRESON

Saspension Bridge Corner.

Oregon City Jewelers

PERPETRATED BY WALT MEDOUGALL :

The Junior Number of the Hespergiven five days' notice as provided by law. Although he has been dismissed the teacher was informed that he ler suggests doing with men when they will be placed on sale today at Hont could make a defense at a meeting reach their sixtieth birthday—And will be held next Tuesday even while speaking about it, wouldn't the ley Bros. Company. The magazine is will be placed on sale today at Hunt-Lovelace, who was severely pun- good doctor's suggestion make fine replete with interesting stories, poems etc., and reflects credit upon the students. An evidence of what may be expected by prospective purchasers is the table of contents which follows: John Brown, of Boring, with his March (poem) A day dream, A Mother's quest, True Friendship, Old Faithful, editorial, school notes, Class notes, society, music, locals, domestic science, alumni, athletics, exchanges, quips and cranks. The staff is composed of the following: Ambrose Brownell, editor-in-chief; Elsie Tel-ford, associate editor: Echo Spence, assistant editor; Marie Sheahan, literary editor; Carmen Schmidli, assistant literary editor; Louise Huatley, school notes; Mary Barbur, Shelby Shaver, alumni; Edward Busch athletics and Leonard Williams, quips

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS START DEBATES TODAY

ones to be held between the sophomores and juniors of the Oregon City Mexico City. Madero and his follow-High School will be held this morning. The preliminary debates are for the purpose of determining the teams in the contest between the classes, each team to be composed of four members. The judges of the debate between the sophomores today will be O. D. Eby, Mrs. H. B. Cartildge and Superintendent Tooze and of the debate between the juniors, J. E. Hedges, Mrs. H. B. Cartlidge and Super-Tooze, "Resolved, that electricity is of more benefit to mankind than steam" will be the subject and the classes will be represed

Sophomores-affirmative, Kent Wilson, Lyle Kellogg, Alice Downer and Ivita Dixon; negative, Charles Beatie, loe Hedges, Ray Morris, and Charles

Juniors-affirmative, Carmen Sch midli, Marie Sheahan, Edward Busch and Ambrose Brownell; negative, Louise Huntley, Shelby Shaver, Elsie Telford and Lorraine Ostrom

SNAP

11/2 acres in Gladstone, Oregon, fronts on Clackamas river, clear, Deep rich soil. Good fishing at the door. Price $1,000. Terms. Cyrus Powell, Oregon City, Oregon. Stephens Build-

MADERO REPORTED

GEN, PASCUAL OROZCO

WASHINGON, March 28,-Reports hat President Madero of Mexico is reparing to flee from the capital reached here today, from Mexico City, following official advices declaring ers are said to be greatly alarmed at the proportions which the revolution assuming.

El Paso, Texas, March 28.-Hemmed in at Corralitos, Mexico, by the main body of General Trucy Aubert and 1,-300 federal veterans today face either defeat or capitulation to the revolutionists, according to dipatches receiv-

General Tellez, leading 500 governmeat soldiers is rushing to Corralitos to reinforce General Aubert but it is not believd the federals can reach there in time to be of assistance. In the event of a rebel victory today, General Oroza, it is reported, will start his march on Mexico City at

W. A. Clayburn and Murlbretta Thompson, of Portland, were married Wednesday in this city, the Rev. S.

U'REN AND JAGGAR TO

to meet W. S. U'Ren Saturday night at the opera house to debate single tax, Frank Jaggar Thursday announced that he would oppose Mr. C'Ren. Mr. Jaggar has made a study of the question and his friends say he will have no trouble in exploiting the fallacies of the Henry George Theory, Judge Dimick and Mr. U'Ren debated the question at Beaver Creek several weeks ago, and two or three days later Mr. U'Ren issued his challenge Judge Dimick said he would be glad to debate with the single taxer in this city, but could not do so Saturday night for he had an appointment which was made before the letter was re ceived. Besides Judge Dimick clared he wanted to wait until a tax roll was published which Mr. U'Ren mentioned in the Beaver Creek debate.

ELEVATOR PLANS AND PRICES DISCUSSED

Plans for the proposed elevator at the bluff were discussed at a meet-ing of the Committee of the Live Wires Thursday evening and it is vir-Debates preliminary to the final that General Zapata today demanded will be made. The plans were rethe surrender of Puebla, 70 miles from ported by O. D. Eby, chairman and W. L. Mulvey, secretary, and Ernest Rands furnished preliminary estimates. Contractors have been consulted and approximate prices of the two hest types of elevators will be reported at the quarterly meeting of the ive Wires next Tuesday evening Everybody so far consulted is in fav-or of the immediate construction of an elevator in a central location, and no opposition is expected.

> SUES FOR LOT SOLD ON INSALLMENT PLAN

Philp Schaoerr, through attorneys Brownell & Stone, Thursday filed suit against Jesse Marco for possession of a lot in Westlynn. The plaintiff sold the property to the defendant on the installment plan, and after paying half of the price agreed on Marco is alleged to have ceased payments. Fore-closure is asked. The court also is asked to rule that the defendant forfeit all money paid on the property, and that the title revert to plaintiff-

JOINT DISCUSSION

W. S. U'Ren and Hon. Frank Jaggar Will discuss the proposed bill to exempt from taxes all personal property and improvements on land, commonly called the

SINGLE TAX BILL

At Shiveley's Hall Sat. Evening, March 30, at 8 o'clock ADMISSION FREE

Mr. Jaggar will set forth the reasons he believes the bill should not be adopted. Mr. U'Ren will speak for the bill.

EVERYBODY INVITED

Questions from the audience are invited and will be answered.

DR. CLYDE MOUNT, CUE EXPERT, COMMITTEE DECIDES UPON .IN-IS HUMBLED BY COMPARA-

TIVE YOUTH

BILLIARD MEET

Joe Justin Wins Prize For Most Taciturn Player-Has Risibles Under

Perfect Control At All

Leaders In Tournament H. A. Montgomery 42 • W. M. Wilson

William Stone Theodore Osmund J. E. Hedges A. B. Buckles Charles Parker E. P. Carter

Club Billiard tournament were won ker the first night went down to ignominious defeat. W. Stokes clearly outclassed the Ozark Mountain cham-It was apparent at the start that Hedges had lost his stroke, and that nothing but cannon shots, multiplying his chances for success, could save time. Time and again his cue ball Harding and Mrs. Rosina Fouts representing the Rose Society met with from such a consistent player as opponent Joe Justin, was not in form. will give a prize of $10 for the best He played hurdle shots when he in- rose exhibited, and will donate the tended to make draws, and draws front page of the June number of Or when tried to make draws, and draws when tried to make follows. The cus-ions too were in the wrong places for him. Otherwise he did admirably. Justin proved the champion taciturn Publicity Department will be headplayer of the meet. He also had his quarters of the officers of the rose risibles well under control. Not once show from now on. during the game did he utter a word ers, and he did.

who essayed the role of opponent nev-In fact Hedges and was heartily cheered when victory perched upon his banner. It was emarked as he gracefully withdrew rom the table after the ovation had subsided, that he had a great future before him at billiards if he would ouly grasp it. This encomium elicited no response from the hero who at that moment was the cynosure of all eyes.

John Cooke, who tried to play R. O.

Young 100 to 90, like all of the other handicap men, met his Waterloo. Young made 45 while Cooke was making 42. The last half of the game promises to be exciting and Cooke says he will win yet.

F. C. Burk evidently had matters relating to the city council on his mind, for he was clearly outclassed by A. Buckles. However, Burk thinks ne will redeem himself next time.

E. P. Carter led I, T. Rau by a fully, and was confident throughout, while Rau showed traces of nervous-

The tournament will be continued Monday night.

MRS. THOMAS H. TURNER.

Wife of "Cotton Duck King" Was Formerly His Ward.

Photo by American Press Association

RUNAWAY STOPPED BY MRS. CHAMBERS

Mrs. Stephen Chambers, formerly Miss Anna Johnson, who lives at Fourteenth street near Main, proved a heroine Thursday morning when she stopped a runaway horse. The horse was hitched to a milk wagon. The milkman was delivering milk at a idence near Twelfth street and left the horse standing on Washington street, between Eleventh and Twelfth

The horse became frightened at an automobile and started to run at a furious rate up Washington street where, near the Oregon City Hospital Mrs. Chambers ran into the road grabbed the runaway by the bridle and stopped it. Her bravery was witnessed by many persons attracted to the scene by the rattling of the milk cans and bottles in the wagon.

BOOSTER DAY TO SMASHES IDOLS SET NEW RECORD

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

DUSTRIAL SHOWS INSTEAD OF CIRCUS VARIETY

OZARK MAN MEETS CRUSHING DEFEAT ALL EXHIBITIONS FREE TO PUBLIC

ing June Carni-

Rose Society Committee Confers With

Promotion Department Regard-

The Publicity Department of the Commercial Club has decided to have bration Saturday, April 27. The advertising and boosting, under the supervision of Marshall Lazalle, secretary of the department, will be started at once. The street exhibitions will be of an industrial nature instead of be-as last year. All the shows will be free to the public. The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company has promised to have an electrical show with demonstrators present, and the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company will have an exhibit The honors in the big Commercial showing how paper is made. It is lub Billiard tournament were won expected that all mills will have dis-Thursday night by J E. Hedges, R. O. plays. The merchants will be urged Young, A. B. Buckles, Charles Parker, to have demonstrations in their show Joe Justin and E P. Carter. Gilbert bile parade will be given in the morn-bile parade will be given in the morning, and all the vehicles in the pa-geant will be gally decorated. Mr. Lazelle expects to induce the management of the Oregon Agricultural

ing furnished by a caraival company

College to send its demonstration train to Oregon City that day, Mrs. A. C. Warner, Mrs. George A and connected with the object ball, the Publicity Department and the rose but not often enough to snatch victory show was discussed. The exhibition will be held in June, and all the stores will be asked to make the day a bar-Dr. Clyde Mount, who had for an gain one. The Publicity Department

The committee is negotiating with and not once did he smile a smile. It the Portland Railway, Light & Power was the consensus of opinion that Joe Company to erect a large electrical was out to defeat his worthy oppon- sign over the suspension bridge. It J. E. Hedges played just like he 100 feet above the span to it can be is the desire that the sign be at least didn't have a cent, and Dr. L. G. Ice seen by persons on steam and elecwill contain the words, "Oregon City, played a scientific game throughout, is intended to be permanent and will be illuminated every night.

> PLANING MILL STARTS OPERATION IN THIS CITY

> The Adkins Lumber Company started its planing mill in the northern part of the city Wednesday, and there s a crew of seven men at work filling orders that have been placed with the company. About $5000 worth of lumber was shipped to the company's plant this week from the Lower Columbia river.

CANS

Purchased at Barlow's Grocery to

Of Syrup

be given away FREE

Today

3 cans at 1 o'clock 6 cans at 8 o'clock 6cansat 9:30 oclock

Chances on 10c tickets

THE