REPUBLICANS HELP PASS WOOL BILL

TARIFF MEASURE APPROVED IN HOUSE BY VOTE OF 189 TO 82

ALL AMENDMENTS ARE DEFEATED

Difference in Cost of Production Starts Lively Debate And Serious Charges Are Made By Speakers

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Democratic wool bill, known as the Underwood bill, passed the House today, 189 to 82, with 20 "progressive" Republicans voting for it. Representative Rucker of Colorado, who opposed it in debate and answered "present" on the roll call, and Representative Francis of Ohio, who voted against it, were the only Democrats who did not line up with the majority.

The 20 Republicans who voted for the bill were: Anderson, Lindbergh, Miller, Nelson, Nye, Steenerson, Stevens, Volstead of Minnesota, Haugen, Hubbard of Iowa, Akin of New York, Jackson Murdock, Young of Kansas, La Follette, Warburton of Washington, Lafayette of Oregon, Hanna of North Dakota, Kent of California, and Norris of Nebraska.

Supporters of the bill said it would not cut the government's revenue but would save more than $50,000,000 a year to consumers because of the readjustment of rebates. All attempts of the Republicans to amend the bill to increase the rates were lost. The tariff board came in for criticism in the speechmaking.

Representative Kitchen charged that Senators Smoot and Warren deliberately had imposed on the tariff board to maintain the high duty on wool.

The new sensation, the club contests are announced with this issue. To the contestant who deposits three separate subscriptions for one year each before next Saturday evening, will be given 500 free votes. Five separate subscriptions for one year each, will entitle the holder to 1000 free votes.

This contest runs for one week only, closing Saturday, April 6, at 4:30 p. m. This will give each candidate ample time to win several thousand free votes. These clubs of three or five do not need to come from the same locality or postoffice, the only requirement being that they shall all be deposited at once. This still leaves the territory unexplored for club candidates. Main street club contest prizes practically easy to win.

Another special fifteen day contest begins this morning. On April 15 someone will again win a $15 merchandise coupon redeemable at one of the mercantile establishments in this city. Miss McCord won one last Saturday evening which was redeemable at J. Levitt's popular store. With the sale which is a progress at that store, during which so many useful bargains are offered, she was undoubtedly able to get considerably more than face value for her certificate.

The gorgeous display of automobiles which made Main street one continual swirl of dust all day Sunday, and the poor, puffing, perspiring pedestrians who for machines so that they could outdistance the awful germ laden swirl which surrounded them. A nice car would have given each an opportunity to have spent the day on the mossy banks of one of Clackamas County's many fine trout streams—contemplating what might have happened if the trout season had opened one day sooner.

Days so spent—not in such possibly sad contemplations—but in the woods, next to nature and where we all feel free to enjoy ourselves, will be a God send to many of us before the summer is over. Of course, we can't all have them but some one crowd or family, depending upon who wins the Enterprise automobile will have many happy and enjoyable trips of such kind. And it is a safe bet to say that they will all be appreciated.

Never before has such a prize been offered in a newspaper contest in this locality as is now offered by the Enterprise. Once several years ago, the Enterprise had another contest on the prize for which was to be a jar of money amounting to approximately $100. One day this jar was left unguarded in the front office for a few minutes—when it mysteriously disappeared. Of course this is ancient history now, but is repeated here merely as a means of comparison. We are not afraid that the prize now offered will be stolen and the lucky candidate does not need worry after it becomes his or her property. They are sometimes appropriated for a few hours but are usually recovered in a mighty short time.

GORBETT HENS LAY EGGS BIG AS PEARS

W. S. Gorbett, a prominent farmer and poultry fancier of Bolto, and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gorbett, of this city, has some fine Black Minorca hens which are making laying records. During the past few days these chickens have laid unusually large eggs some of them measuring 8 1/2 inches lengthwise, and 6 1/2 inches in circumference, the weight of several being four ounces.

MINISTERS LAUDED BY J. E. HEDGES

LAWYER, HOWEVER, DECLARES THERE ARE SOME UNWORTHY ONES IN PULPIT

CHRISTIAN CHARACTER IS GROWING

Conquest Of World Certain To Be Made By Church Workers—Judge Moreland Will Be Next Speaker

J. E. Hedges, who spoke in the open forum of the Methodist church Sunday night on "What is the Matter with Preachers," said that for the most part they were all right. He described the work the church is accomplishing in spreading civilization, and declared that much of the glory for it belonged to the ministers. The attendance was large and the speaker was given the closest attention.

Dr. T. B. Ford, pastor of the church, announced that there would be elaborate Easter services next Sunday and that on the following Sunday Judge Moreland, clerk of the Supreme Court, and G. F. Johnson, of Portland, would be the Open Forum speakers.

Mr. Hedges spoke in part as follows: "My subject, 'What is the matter with the preachers?' is chosen by your pastor for me, and I confess that I am somewhat embarrassed when I, a lawyer, who has given much of my time for twenty years to the practice of that profession, am asked to go into the realm of another and judge whether or not there is something wrong with the members of that other."

FAIRCLOUGH AND JENKINS LEADERS

BILLIARD EXPERTS PUT TWO INFERRIOR PLAYERS OUT OF CONTEST

WILLIE HOPPE PARKER ELIMINATED

V. R. Hyde Is Second Man To Humble Dr. Clyde Mount, Who, Despite Reverses Holds On

With each a game to his credit and no defeats against him John Fairclough, Dr. G. L. Jenkins and Gilbert L. Hedges are leading the big Commercial Club billiard tournament. Jenkins Fairclough and Hedges played like well regulated machines Monday night and their opponents did not have a "look in." Jenkins put R. L. Holman out of the running, Hedges eliminated Willie Hoppe Parker and Fairclough sent the Morning Enterprise aspirant back to the minors. All the victories were clean cut and the best men unquestionably won. Albeit they have a long and rocky path before them and there is no telling what will happen.

Dr. Clyde Mount was another man who suffered a set back Monday night. V. R. Hyde led him by a score of 50 to 40. Dr. Mount, however, still has a chance for the game will be 100 points. Dr. Mount also has an unfinished game to play with Joseph Justis, who is leading. While G. L. Hedges won from Willie Hoppe Parker he faces probable defeat at the hands of W. Stokes who led at the end of the first half by a large margin.

Pete Long easily disposed of L. A. Smith, the game being one sided from the start. Smith had everything in the state fright line and nothing that appertains to billiards while Long, though a young man played like a veteran. While Smith usually is in the same class with Long, something was wrong with him Monday night, and his friends called that something "nervousness." Hyde played cautiously throughout, and made some of the most startling shots of the tournament. No shot was too difficult for him, and some of those that counted almost took the big audience from its feet. Mr. Hyde clearly demonstrated that he will be a contender at the finish.

DISCORD PRECEDES FINE PARK CONCERT

"STANDING ROOM ONLY" IS WELCOME GIVEN OREGON CITY BAND

MUSICIANS TURN BENCH MAKERS

Crowd Refuses To Vacate Seats For Men Who Are To Furnish Entertainment—Players Laugh At Incident

An amusing circumstance which came near being serious marked the first park concert, which was given Sunday afternoon by the Oregon City Band. New benches had been placed in the park for the benefit of the audience, but the attendants forgot to put seats in the bandstand for the use of the musicians. As a result when R. V. D. Johnston, the director, Dr. Clyde Mount, B. T. McBain and the other soloists and members of the organization arrived they found nothing upon which to sit. Finally Mr. Johnston asked several of the members of the audience if they would not allow the use of the benches they were occupying for the musicians, but no one would move. They declared that they had come early to obtain seats and did not propose to give them up.

"But you won't hear any music if the band has to stand up," argued the director.

This plea, however, was not effective, and finally seats were improvised of planks and stones for the band while the audience occupied the comfortable new benches. The players accepted the situation with good grace, and the concert was such a success that the city council will be called upon to arrange for concerts in the park each Sunday afternoon the coming summer.

Persons who heard Sunday's concert speak in the highest terms of the musical organization. The program was enjoyed by a large crowd many of whom were from outside of the city. The following numbers were given:

- "Nibelungen March," Wagner
- "Selections from Grand Opera," Buffalo
- "Piccolo Concert Polka," Roecker
- "Ballade," Chopin
- "Duet from two cornets, Dr. Clyde Mount and L. Moehne," Levi
- "Descriptive Fantasia (Napoleonic)," Proctor
- "Patrol," "The Blue and the Gray," Gray

ELOPING WIFE AND AFFINITY CAUGHT

MICHAEL PATCH TRACES ERRING SPOUSE AND TONY NORWICH TO THIS CITY

WOMAN COLLAPSES WHEN ARRESTED

Man Is Charged By Husband With Having Stolen $1,340—Three Little Children Found With Pair

Tony Norwich and Mrs. Annie Patch, who are alleged to have eloped from a mining town in Illinois, were arrested at the instance of the woman's husband, Michael Patch, Monday afternoon by Policemen Green and Frost. The couple, with the woman's three children have been living on John Quincy Adams Street for about eight or ten days. They are here three weeks ago.

Patch, who is a miner, arrived in this city Sunday night and told the children of his quest. He said he had traced his wife and Norwich to this city. When shown a photograph of the missing woman Policeman Frost said he had seen her. A search was made and she, Norwich and the children were traced to the house on John Quincy Adams street. When told that she was under arrest Mrs. Patch broke down and sobbed like a child. Norwich did not say a word. They were taken before Recorder Stipp who held the man in $500 bonds for a hearing this afternoon. Mrs. Patch was allowed her freedom on her own recognizance.

Patch declares that Norwich stole $1,340 before eloping with his wife. The husband says $40 of the money was taken from him. According to his story Norwich was a boarder at his home. He says he noticed about a month ago that the boarder was paying undue attentions to his wife, but thought he would await developments, and before he made any remonstrance the pair with his three children had eloped. He refused to divulge how he learned they had come to Oregon City, but when he obtained the information he started for this city at once.

It was upon the husband's request that Recorder Stipp agreed to let Mrs. Patch go on her own recognizance. The youngest child who is a boy, is only nine months old. The other children are girls, one being four and the other five years of age. After her arrest, Mrs. Patch said she was sorry she had left her husband and it is probable if he will not take her back, she will return with him to Illinois.

SUSPECT IN AUTO SHOOTING TRAILED

SHERIFFS MASS AND STEVENS BELIEVE SOLUTION OF TRAGEDY NEAR

REVENGE GIVEN AS MOTIVE OF MAN

Authorities Think Slain Motorist Were Victims Of Mistaken Identity—Oswego And Steamer Searched

While they refuse to give details, Sheriff Mass and Stevens, of Multnomah county, believe they have a clue that will result in the capture of the lone highwayman who killed two and seriously injured a third member of an automobile party on the White House road Friday night. The water front at Oswego was searched by the sheriff's last night, but the man was not captured.

The steamer Pomona which arrived in this city Monday afternoon and went from here to Portland also was searched for the suspect. It is now the belief of the authorities that the motive of the desperado was not robbery, but revenge, and that the young men who were killed were victims of mistaken identity. Just who the slayer intended to kill, and why, the authorities declined to divulge. Sheriff Mass spent Monday night in Portland working on the case. Sheriff Mass and Stevens are reported as having said late Monday night that they expected to capture the suspect today.

The funeral George Hastings was held at 1:30 Monday from the First Presbyterian church. Hastings was 23 years old and was a student of the Medical College, before that having studied in Lincoln High School, and at Hill Military Academy. Rev. John H. Boyd preached the sermon and there was a program of singing at the church which was crowded.

The pallbearers were six fraternity brothers of the deceased, three being from the medical fraternity, Alpha Kappa Kappa, and three from the High School fraternity, Phi Chi. Those from the Alpha Kappa Kappa were Dr. Stanley L. Wang, Harry C. Bair, and Leo Ford, and those from the Phi Chi were Newton C. Smith, Jack M. Hickson and H. A. Meier. The members of the student body of the Medical College attended the services in a body, and many of his former schoolmates from Hill's and from the High School were there, bringing offerings of flowers which completely hid the casket and which required an extra carriage for their transport to the cemetery. The interment was in Riverview cemetery where he was laid by the side of his father in the family lot.

Donald McCloud Stewart the second victim of the highwayman was buried Sunday afternoon from the home of his parents at 233 East Third street North, with services by Rev. C. Earl Dubois, pastor of the church of the Strangers. The grounds surrounding the house were crowded by friends and the floral offerings completely filled the room where the body lay. Music was furnished by four of the young man's friends, the Misses Wells and Marks and Messrs. Coxy and Bowles, who sang "Nearer My God To Thee," and "Abide With Me." The pallbearers were Bruce D. Stewart, H. L. Tabb, Orme Dowling, Robert McMurray, Denton Cotterlin and Jack Day. Mr. Stewart would have reached his majority this fall had he lived.

The third victim of the murderer, Irving Linton, still lies in the Samaritan Hospital, and is a sinking along as well as could be expected, though suffering much from his wounds.

GOOD "FEED" AWAITS DIRECTORS OF SCHOOLS

The Domestic Science Class of the Oregon City High School has extended an invitation to the board of directors to partake of a breakfast at the High School building at 9:30 o'clock this morning. All have accepted and no doubt will be given a feast.

PORTLAND READY FOR CONTEST TODAY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April.—All the Beavers arrived here in good condition this morning, and went to Washington Park to look over the grounds. This afternoon they will take a short workout there. The citizens of Santa Maria gave the boys a rousing send-off last night at the station, just before the train left, the larger portion of the population assembling there to give the champions a last farewell.

There will be a large parade tomorrow before the game and the gates will open at 1:30 p. m. It is expected to have the largest automobile parade in the history of the city, which will traverse the downtown streets and wind up at the park, where Mayor Alexander will pitch the first ball over the plate.

Manager Dillon, of the Angels, says that his team is far from being in its best condition owing to over-exercising so much bad weather, but has hopes of making a good start adding that he has the best pitching staff in the circuit. McCredie disputes the latter claim. The Angels will line up in the following order: Daley, C. L.; Page, 2d b.; Hettmuller, I. F.; Dillon, 1st b.; Metzner, 3d b.; Leber, I. F.; Brooks, c.; Boles, s. s.; Leverenz, p. Manager McCredie has not decided on his batting order.

PORTLAND SOCIETY COUPLE DIVORCED

Judge Campbell Monday granted G. W. Gates a divorce from Adeline Meek Gates, the charge being desertion. Mr. and Mrs. Gates are members of Portland's "400." He is a rich lumberman. The defendant was awarded alimony of $250 a month as long as she remains single and the custody of their child, George Walter Gates, Jr. The decree gives the plaintiff free access to the child, and the right to take charge of his education. George Walter Gates, Jr. is eleven years of age. The couple were married in Louisville Ky., February 1, 1899, and the plaintiff alleged the defendant deserted him in December 1909.

Lee S. Oslin was granted a divorce Monday from Sadie L. Oslin, the allegation being desertion. Akivo Shigemori was awarded a decree from M. Shigemori and the custody of their 11 year old child, Martha Ann Brooks was granted a divorce from G. M. Brooks, and given the custody of their four children. Beatrice Johnson won her suit for divorce against C. E. Johnson, and was awarded the custody of their child and given $20 a month alimony.
