Clackamas County's Rose Society is preparing for one of its busiest years; for the best rose season Oregon has ever experienced and for the best Rose Show ever held in the County with roses of quality the equal of any ever shown in the state.

The ladies in the management of this society deserve much encouragement in their work. Before the society was formed there were very few roses raised in our district but since organizing each succeeding year brings new enthusiasts, who at the same time while beautifying their own property, do much to beautify the city as well. Their show will be held in June. The whole county is eligible to enter. Now is the time to get the bushes in trim and ready for the class in which you are most interested. Prizes should be offered for the best roses of any kind from each district so as to awaken those who have just as good as we have but are timid about coming to the front. Come out and defeat those who are now in the runing. Competition is the life of trade. It is also the greatest stimulant to do greater and better things, to raise better roses and thereby better yourselves as also your city and county.

We are pleased to learn that our brothers in the eastern end of our county are not displeased with the management of the county and with the treatment they have had at the hands of the county government. We are from Missouri and if Etseada citizens can show us that it is for the best interests of the entire population or the majority thereof, that the county should be divided and a new county formed we will fall in line and aid the cause. At the same time, those championing the new cause should consider the task ahead of them, the great expense of properly advertising the plan throughout our Great State, of abstracting the present county records in case the voters of the state see the matter as they do also, the fact that the world knows Clackamas county and it has taken sixty years for the world to get the knowledge. All this expense must fall on the small population within the district to secure.

They may be right—we are good listeners and reasonable, in fact, re-

National Banking Helped to Make Country's Prosperity

By E. C. STOKES, Former Governor of New Jersey

THE present banking system has helped to make the prosperity of this country. It is an INDEPENDENT SYSTEM. It has enabled every community to finance itself through its own wealth and its own citizens. It has freed the pioneer, whether industrial or agricultural, from the domination of the money center. Under it character has often been the asset that has secured capital for a start in life. It does several great things. It has furnished money as good as gold the world over. A noteholder of a national bank has NEVER LOST A DOLLAR THROUGH THE FAILURE OF A BANK. And yet in this land today an active campaign, supported by a large fund, is being carried on to change this system that FINANCED THE GREATEST CIVIL WAR OF THE WORLD, that for nearly fifty years has served the public better and at less cost than any other system ever devised and that has FINANCED THE GREATEST PROSPERITY THE WORLD EVER SAW and to substitute for it a system so complicated that the wayfaring man will be LOST IN ITS LABYRINTHIAN MAZE. THE PRESENT BANKING SYSTEM HAS BEEN OUT SERVICE-ABLE TO BE CHANGED WITHOUT SERIOUS THOUGHT AND LONG CONSIDERATION.

ally convinient, but we always stand for what is best for the greatest number, although, of course, also considering ourselves.

OXFORD OARSMEN BEAT CAMBRIDGE

LONDON, April 1.—Finishing in a driving rain and hail storm, Oxford easily won today the annual boat race with Cambridge on the river Thames here by six boat lengths. The result was never in doubt, the Oxonians winning as they pleased. Oxford's time was 23 minutes, 3 seconds. The Cambridge crew started away at 30 strokes to the minute after the Oxford captain had won the toss and chosen the Middlesex side, which was partially sheltered from the wind. The shells ran on practically even terms for the first half mile, the Oxford crew rowing 22 strokes to the minute to this distance and rounding the half-mile mark only three feet ahead of Cambridge. The coxswain of the Oxonians here asked for more speed, and the crew instantly responded by sending the craft away in the lead, Cambridge hit it up to 28, but could not overtake the Oxford shell. At Herods, the half way distance, Oxford was three lengths in the lead. The crew slackened its pace, allowing the Cambridge shell to make a slight gain. At the three-quarters point Oxford was still to lengths to the good. At this time a rain and hail storm started and the Oxonians pulled away easily from their rivals, finishing six boat lengths to the good.

ARBUCKLE HEIRS CANNOT FIND WILL

NEW YORK, April 1.—Five days after the death of John Ar buckle, the coffee millionaire, who died here on Wednesday, his lawyers and relatives have about given up hope of finding a will, and it is now believed he died intestate. His estate is estimated at more than $20,000,000. No children survive to inherit it, and Mrs. Ar buckle, his wife, died five years ago. Mrs. Robert Jamieson and Miss Christina Ar buckle, sisters are the nearest relatives. William Ar buckle Jamieson, a nephew succeeded Charles Ar buckle, brother of John Ar buckle, in the management of the business of the Ar buckle Brothers, several years ago. He and the other relatives, and William N. Dyke-man, principal attorney for John Ar buckle, have gone to Pittsburg for the burial.

MRS. KURNICK AND HUSBAND REUNITED

Mrs. Peter Kurnick, who deserted her three children and went to St. Johns to seek work in a woolen mill, was dismissed at a hearing before Recorder Stipp Monday. The woman's husband, who is employed in Seattle, was in court with her, and after the case was disposed of they and their children left for the Washington city. Mrs. Kurnick said that she had left her children while half crazed through not hearing from her husband and fearing they and herself would starve. She went to St. Johns to obtain work in a woolen mill where she had been employed before she was married and intended sending for her children. Mrs. Kurnick was brought here Sunday by the Chief and police of St. Johns and was cared for until the arrival of her husband, at the home of S. R. Green.

Bust of Admiral Peary For Museum of Natural History

A MARBLE bust of Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary will soon be placed in the American Museum of Natural History in New York. It is the work of William Couper, to whom the explorer gave sittings soon after his return from the discovery of the north pole. It represents the admiral also in a more fitting than that of his rank in the navy. It is fitting also that the bust should have a place in the museum, for Peary's explorations were rendered possible largely through the money contributed by the institution and those connected with it. It will be remembered that the camp pitched by Peary at the pole was called Camp Morris K. Jesup after the principal patron of the Museum of Natural History. The commission for the bust was given by a wealthy resident of New York who is deeply interested in science, but prefers that his name shall not be made public. Other niches in the hall in which it will be placed contain the busts of such scientists as Audubon, Faraday and Franklin.

NATIONS TAKING UP MARATHONING

Running Game on Boom in This Country as Well as Elsewhere.

THREE EVENTS AT OLYMPIAD.

The Marathon, 10,000 and 5,000 Meter Events Programmed for the Games to Be Held in Stockholm, Sweden, Next Summer.

Distance running is on the boom in America wherever athletics are fostered. Moreover, it is on the boom in practically every country in the world. France, Germany, England, Egypt, Austria, Hungary, Sweden, Greece, Italy and even Japan are all "in the game," doing their best to develop runners who can negotiate several miles in world beating time.

For in the Olympic games at Stockholm next summer there are three long distance races programed—5,000 meters, 10,000 meters and the Marathon. It is the first of the modern Olympiads with more than two long races.

If any one nation could annex all three of these events, thereby adding fifteen points to its score, it would be greatly advanced toward capturing the team trophy. The United States is generally considered superior to any of the other countries in track and field athletics as a result of the triumphs in recent Olympiads, but there is a possibility of a surprise being sprung by any one of three or four of the rival teams. It is a practical certainty that Uncle Sam's men will not win a majority of the points, as in the past, even though they get a plurality of the points and win the big prize.

England, for one, is waking up athletically. For some time past it had appeared that the supremacy of Great Britain in the long distance events was due to become a thing of vague and remote memories, but England is coming back. England's Olympic tryouts are set for May 18 at Stamford Bridge. F. W. Parker, coach of the London Athletic club, has volunteered his services to every man on the island who thinks he can learn to run distances. Parker is one of the most capable distance running authorities in England and has exhibited an ability to impart his knowledge to the few men with whom he was experimented, notably Lieutenant Halswell, who astonished the world by his great quarter mile running several years ago, and W. Scott of the Broughton Harriers, who became one of the best in the world over the four

mile route. Already over half a hundred youngsters have sent Parker their names as being ambitious to go over the longer course in the Olympic runs. In France interest in the distance game is also growing to national proportions. The Frenchmen have turned out a man who is capable of running any athlete in the world off his feet at five and ten miles in the person of Jean Boinin. This fellow has smashed two world records—the one hour and the half hour run. In each he averaged close to five minutes per mile.

From present indications Boinin is the man the Americans will have to beat to get away with a victory in the 5,000 and 10,000 meter runs. Boinin has announced his intention of running both these races at Stockholm. The 5,000 meters is a little over three miles and the 10,000 is about six miles. As for the Marathon run, there is tremendous interest abroad—more, probably, than is being shown just now in this country. The Swedes have set their hearts on winning this event, as have also the Greeks, England and Germany likewise are developing men for the nerve racking test, which will be almost a man killer under the new rules, which prohibits a man having an attendant or getting nourishment along the way. The Enterprise automobile contest is the most popular thing ever pulled off in the Willamette Valley. Watch the automobile contest.

DEMAND FOR LIVE STOCK IS STRONG

The Portland Union Stock Yards Company reports as follows: Receipts for the past week have been Cattle 1590; calves 6; hogs 1147; sheep 444; horses 12.

In the cattle division both steers and cows had a good stiff demand with not enough offering to supply the numerous buyers in the yards. Top steers sold as high as $6.65, though most of the receipts were below top quality and the majority of sales ranged around $6.30 to $6.50. Top cows brought $5.75 with very few on the market of any kind. No veal calves were sold today and bulls ranged steadily strong at former quotations. With very little in sight at the present for next week prospects are bright for a continued advance in all lines.

Hogs opened the week's sales at $7.20 but by the end of the week top prices were easily bringing $7.50 with buyers anxious to secure more. Heavy hogs at present are selling around $5.50 to $6.75 being quite an advance over former quotations. Mutton sheep of all kinds continue to be very scarce and the market is quoted a quarter higher on all classes. Sheared lambs brought $5.60. Seven cars of sheep on the market this morning not yet sold so we are unable to give latest quotations. However, as long as receipts are light prices will undoubtedly keep an upward tendency.

Table with 3 columns: Item, Quantity, Price. Includes: 22 Steers 1419 $6.65, 48 steers 1296 6.90, 368 steers 1229 6.30, 231 steers 1096 6.30, 25 cows 1023 5.75, 129 cows 961 5.70, 27 cows 1009 5.60, 36 cows 924 5.50, 5 calves 482 4.50, 1 stag 1140 5.25, 3 bulls 1340 4.65, 6 bulls 1450 4.50, 130 hogs 188 7.50, 305 hogs 189 7.25, 324 hogs 210 7.20, 10 hogs 416 6.75, 123 lambs 83 6.00, 200 lambs sheared 79 5.90, 548 wethers 101 5.45, 84 ewes 97 4.85.
