

Stories from Out of Town

WILSONVILLE.

Mr. Frary, of Kansas, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Joe Thornton, this week.

Mr. Gould visited in our village on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thornton were in Portland on Tuesday.

Miss Johnson, of Portland, has been visiting Miss Mary Brobst.

Mrs. Clutter, of the Rose City, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brobst.

Mrs. Norris Young visited friends in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Aden, Dr. W. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were Portland visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Brobst was a Portland visitor during the week.

Mrs. Cronin and family and Mrs. Ed Walters were in Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wall were in Portland Friday.

Mrs. Gordon Young has been visiting a good many of the schools near Wilsonville, in the interest of the juvenile fair, to be held in our village in August.

Quite a large crowd attended the dance Saturday evening and report a very enjoyable time.

Pearl and Mae Baker arrived home Saturday afternoon, after spending a week at the home of the Nendel family in Starton.

The social held at the parsonage at Hood View, given by the Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church, on Friday evening, was well attended and a fine program was rendered after which refreshments were served.

The teachers' institute, held at Wilsonville on Saturday, March 30th, was well attended. The meeting was presided over by County Superintendent Cary. The opening discussion on primary language was given in splendid manner by Mrs. Aubrey Wood, and was participated in by Mrs. Chas. Wagner, Miss Straw, Mrs. Hawley, Mr. Brobst and others. The program, given by the attending schools, was an excellent one. Miss Mary Brobst and Sherman Seely delighted the audience with music, and a very elaborate dinner was given by the ladies at noon.

Wilsonville residents are cordially invited to attend a necktie social at the Corral Creek school on Saturday evening, April 13th, at eight o'clock. The program will consist of songs, dialogues, humorous recitations, drills, etc. Ladies are requested to bring a plain box of lunch, with name on the box, also to wear a bow of ribbon, bringing one identically the same in a sealed envelope. The masculine persuasion are requested to bring 50c for a necktie which will guarantee a box of good home-made lunch. Don't fail to attend.

STAFFORD.

Farmers and gardeners begin to fear a drought as we have had a week of sunshine.

The majority of those who have been seriously sick, are improving, we are glad to say.

Reint DeNieu and a force of men are improving the highways. Autos are whizzing by again and all kinds of farm work is being pushed ahead.

Mrs. Gage and her friend, Miss Fradenburg, went to Portland and St. Helens to visit and do some shopping, and were gone a number of days.

Mr. Miles found his valuable mare, Nellie, dead in her stall this week.

The Circle met with Mrs. Weddle last week and spent the afternoon sewing carpet rags.

A minister, from St. Johns, occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church last Sunday. Preaching in the evening to an attentive audience.

A genuine dirty hobo passed through Stafford one day this week begging for food. We fortunately do not see many of the tribe.

We hear of many who are preparing to come to Oregon just as soon as the snow drifts melt.

Ed White, who has been here before, and now owns property in St. Johns, is selling out in Michigan and expects to come this spring.

One man, who had a tempting offer to return to Arkansas, and accepted, after staying in the West a number of months, writes he is coming back to Oregon if he has to hunt and fish for a living.

WILLAMETTE

Leo Rice, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Rice is seriously ill.

Judge Hayes spoke on the single tax question to a large audience at the school house Monday night. The judge is a forceful speaker and judging from the comments made of many who heard his talk there will be few single tax votes in Willamette.

Ed Burdine of Portland, visited friends in Willamette Sunday.

Andrew Franzen one of Oregon's most popular poets, has just finished a handsome residence at the corner of Eleventh and Railroad Avenue.

Sam Baidorf sold two valuable lots located back of the church and it is reported a modern bungalow will be built upon them.

Some of the friends of Miss Etta Rogers gave her a very pleasant surprise on her seventeenth birthday. Games were played until a late hour and all wished her many happy birthdays. Those present were Mr. Ed Burdine, Arthur Waldron, Sidney Waldron, Arlie Johnson, Bill Pollock, Ross Grimm, Miss Ester Larsen, Mae Oliver, Elizabeth Rea.

The game of ball between Willamette and Eastham school boys resulted in the defeat of the Willamette boys, 7 to 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ross are preparing to move to Portland where he has accepted a position with the "Portland General."

Mrs. Bertha LaMay and baby who have been under the care of doctors for two weeks are much improved.

Mr. Fromong has gone to Nebraska. Mr. Fromong expects to be gone all summer visiting in Nebraska and Colorado.

LOGAN.

The band boys' entertainment at Logan was a very successful and pleasant affair.

There was a basket social at the North Logan school Saturday night, the total proceeds amounting to $53. A good crowd and a good program is reported.

Those who have been enrolled on the sick list are getting along fine, and a few more of these spring days will do much to aid the doctor in his work.

Miss Wyrte Zimmerman, who spent the winter with relatives here, has returned to her home in Missouri.

Christensen Bros., who own land up in the Clackamas bottom, are going to log on quite an extensive scale, as they have taken an immense donkey engine out to begin with. Also one from the Diamond mill.

The base ball boys are shaking the dust from their suits and the indications are that the season will open soon.

The Clear Creek Creamery Co. held the annual stockholders' meeting on Monday, March 18, at the creamery. The same board of directors was elected for the ensuing year: A. O. Hollingsworth, secretary, was voted a raise in salary, as the secretary's work requires most of his time. He therefore rented his farm and moved to Gladstone. Total pounds of cream received, 548,338; total pounds butter fat, 173,262; total proceeds, $66,621.47; average price, 32 9-10 cents per pound. The secretary's annual report shows the Creamery in a prosperous condition.

For February the patrons received 40 cents per pound for butter fat. This report was sent in two weeks ago but failed to reach its destination.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

The fruit trees in this burg are out in full bloom.

We have been having fine weather but it is raining now.

The Bible Study Class will meet next week on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Stillwell.

Alfred Linn and family have moved into their new home on Seventh and Polk streets, next door to his parents.

Brand has moved his house which was facing on Molalla avenue, back and it now fronts on Mountain View street, opposite J. E. Calavan's residence.

Charlie Clark and family have moved into the house lately vacated by Alfred Linn and family, just back of F. Welsh's lumber yard.

J. M. Gillett spent last Saturday and Sunday among friends in Portland and viewing the large new buildings and city park.

J. Lowellen is learning to run an automobile so that he can manage his own.

Died, March 30, 1912, Mrs. J. W. Baty, aged 68 years. She leaves a husband, four sons, one daughter, 10 grandchildren and three great grandchildren to mourn her loss.

A short program of Easter exercises will be held next Sunday at the close of the Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn are spending this week at New Era.

Charlie Robison and wife are moving into the house belonging to their sister, Mrs. Ingram, on Molalla avenue.

CLARKES.

E. L. Lee was buried last week, the 28th of March, in the afternoon.

W. G. Kleinsmith was sawing wood for the Buol Bros.

The Buol Bros. are breaking land which they have cleared.

Mr. Bottmiller finished sowing oats last week.

W. C. Mangum, the Watkins man, of Canby, was out in Clarkes last week.

Harry Lee, of Portland, was out to attend his brother's funeral.

Mr. Bergman took a load of potatoes to town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxson went to town Monday.

Charlie Harrington and his partner are blasting stumps on land which they are clearing for Sam Elmer. They are hauling new planks to repair the road near the Clarkes store.

Oscar Hale, from Portland, was out to attend Mr. Elmer's funeral.

Ed Grace came home from Montana last week.

Mr. Buchee, from Highland, is hauling lumber to build a house on his place in Timber Grove.

MARQUAM.

Quite a number of people are looking for land around here.

The farmers have had a busy time for the last two weeks, hauling off potatoes, plowing and seeding.

John Barth has commenced to work the roads which have been in a bad condition.

We need the fruit inspector to visit this part of the county. Why should he be slighted?

Roy Nicholson and mother went to Rock Creek last Sunday to see Charles Taylor, who was hurt in a sawmill last week. He will soon be out again.

Caroline Jackson is working for Mrs. Hattie Myers.

Miss Thompson has gone to Mrs. Melby's for a few days' stay.

C. Schuebel, of Oregon City, was up here last week to tell us what he would try to do if he was elected representative, but the people were a little tenderfooted for fear he was a single taxer.

There is to be an entertainment in the hall Thursday night, April 4, given by some Hubbard parties.

The Easter services and program will be given by the little folks next Sunday at the M. E. church.

HIGHLAND.

There will be an Easter dinner and entertainment at the M. E. church Sunday.

Frank Shute made a trip to Oregon City Monday.

There was a surprise party given on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hettman Monday night. The evening was spent in games and cards. Light refreshments were served and a pleasant time was had by all present.

Mrs. Curtis Kandle and Miss I. Mann spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Miss Mann's parents, at Clackamas Heights.

Mrs. Pope, of Portland, is visiting her daughters, Miss Ruth Pope and Mrs. F. Wirtz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Miller are visiting their daughters, Esther and Etile, who are attending high school at Oregon City.

Mrs. H. Mudgett and son made a trip to Oregon City Saturday.

MULINO.

March went out bright and clear with the temperature at 64 degrees in the shade. Who wouldn't live in Oregon? Think it would puzzle the oldest inhabitant to recall a more pleasant March in Oregon, or anywhere else.

Mr. and Mrs. Seavey, father and mother of Mrs. Fletcher, have returned to Oregon and say that they expect to stay here the rest of their lives, this being the third time that they have made the trip from the East.

Mr. Schuebel spoke to a large crowd at the Grange hall Saturday evening on the political issues of the day. It is a question whether he gained or lost votes by his argument.

Farm work is progressing rapidly during the pleasant weather and considerable grain has been sown in this vicinity.

Miss Olga Seward has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Bert Wallace, for a few days, returning to her home at Macksburg Sunday.

Mr. Mallatt was an over Sunday visitor at Mulino.

Clarence Mallatt, who has been working at Mr. Damm's sawmill, has moved back to Mulino.

Miss Marie Harvey has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Smith, the past week.

Mrs. C. T. Howard and Mrs. Bayne Howard and children spent the day with Mrs. Churchill and daughter, Vest, Wednesday.

John Carson has put up a neat wire fence along the road on his place, doing away with the unsightly rail fence.

HIGHLAND.

The Alberta Debating Society met Saturday evening and elected officers for the ensuing year. They are: Mrs. R. G. Miller, president; Ralph Holland, vice-president; G. R. Miller, secretary; Miss Bertha Klinger, treasurer; John Hahn, marshal. The next debate will be with Shubel.

Miss Irene Moehne will visit at home for the week's end.

Mr. Holland is planting potatoes.

Lou Fellows has been repairing his fences.

We had a heavy hail storm Thursday but no damage to crops has been reported.

The residents of Highland mourn the loss of their highly respected citizen and neighbor, E. L. Lee.

Lee Parish was plowing Saturday.

REDLAND.

The entertainment given at Logan by the Redland brass band, was a grand success, and the boys will also give an entertainment at Fir Grove school house at Redland April 6th.

Mrs. Hinkle and two children, Adaline Oldham, and Eunice Courtwright, have been seriously ill with pneumonia. All are recovering, except the Hinkle baby. Drs. Hugh and Guy Mount have been attending them.

The rock crusher has been running full blast for the last ten days and road work is nearly finished.

Miss Bales closes a seven months' term of school at Evergreen the 5th of April.

The school at Fir Grove has closed for two weeks as the children are sick with whooping cough.

The class party will meet at Mr. Brock's the evening of the 4th.

EAST CLACKAMAS.

Mr. Gardner, superintendent of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland, has moved into his small farm, formerly owned by Al Tate.

Mrs. E. R. Capps and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Mills, of Portland, have moved out onto P. Welch's farm. They intend to stay here this summer.

Walter Capps, of California, and his brother, Will, of Idaho, are visiting relatives here.

Miss Knutson and Ralph Boyer spent Thursday evening at the Zig Zag farm.

Mrs. C. N. Larkins, well known at Clarkes, Oregon, visited with Katie Clark the fore part of the week.

Joe Braut, a printer of the Oregonian, called on Mrs. E. R. Capps last week.

Stale Bread Day.

A traveler says that a curious weakness of grownup Moors is the love of eating newly baked bread. The cald of Azemmoor, in Morocco, discovered that old bread was thrown away as waste. To waste food is a serious offense in the eyes of a Moslem. The cald of Azemmoor therefore issued a bylaw prohibiting the baking of bread upon one day in each week. The citizens, he declared, must eat up the bread already baked, and he fixed Wednesday as the "bitalah," or holiday.

Great Expectations.

"I expect to be rich some day."
 "That so? Somebody likely to leave you money?"
 "That's it exactly. You don't suppose I expect to earn a fortune, do you?"—Detroit Free Press.

Canby and North Clackamas

CANBY.

A. W. Butterfield was a Sunday Portland visitor.

J. E. Sutherland went to Portland Tuesday on business.

Frank Palmer, manager of the Big Six, was in Portland Tuesday on business.

The house owned by Sophia Koehler and occupied by D. B. Pope, caught fire from a defective terra cotta pipe, but was soon put out by the quick arrival of the neighbors, not much damage was done. A few shingles were burned on the roof.

Jesse Martin left Thursday for Idaho to look after his interest in the mine.

Ed Wardson and family have rented Mr. Olson's place for a year and moved there.

Smith and Willis are having a beautiful ice cream parlor fitted up in the rear of their confectionery store. Blaine White and Warren Kendall are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Morley Mack and children were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Macksburg.

C. Wang & Co. are building a small warehouse at the rear of their store, dimensions 12x30 feet. Mr. Kieve is doing the carpenter work.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. M. J. Lee last Wednesday. The afternoon was spent in sewing.

Clackamas County Fruit Inspector O. E. Freytag visited Canby last week and notified all orchardists to clean up and spray their orchards.

Mrs. Jake Smith, who was quite sick last week, is slowly improving.

Miss Anna Stefani won first prize and Miss Hattie Hutchinson second in the contest just closed at the Big Six. Miss Stefani took the robe and Miss Hutchinson took the graphophone.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer are moving into Will Kendall's bungalow.

Mrs. Geo. Ogle and Maudie Sumnerfelt were calling on friends in New Era last Monday.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church was sewing for Mrs. M. J. Lee last Thursday.

Charles Moshberger was in Woodburn last Tuesday on business. Mr. Moshberger intends moving back to Woodburn next week.

O. L. Barber and friend, of Portland, were in Canby Tuesday. They came up to try their luck for the speckled beauties, but nothing doing. Mr. Barber called at the Ogle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moshberger and little daughter, of Woodburn, were visiting relatives in Canby last Sunday. James Hendricks, Mrs. Moshberger's brother, came with them.

Mrs. Henry Yergon and sister are visiting friends and relatives in Portland the past week.

Mr. Bradford was a Portland visitor two days last week.

Harry Blair and a party of relatives and friends were out Wednesday trying his new six cylinder which he recently purchased through the agency of Grant White.

The young people of Canby are organizing a tennis club. The tennis court will be on the ground owned by Dr. Dedman.

Mr. Burdette is kept pretty busy now spraying fruit trees for his neighbors.

Gina Alsted and Tillie Melhus were visiting in Sellwood, and shopping in Oregon City last week.

O. R. Mack was given a surprise party Tuesday night. The occasion was his forty-third birthday. Mr. Mack was certainly surprised as he had not the least inkling that his friends were coming. A most enjoyable time was had by all; games and music furnished the amusement. After refreshments were served Mr. Mack was called upon to make a speech, in the midst of which he was showered with postcards. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Mack, Mrs. Estella Moshberger, Mrs. Geo. Ogle, Louis Mitts, Wayne Gurley, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Mack, Hilton Mack, Ashel Mack, Earl Mack, Kenneth Mack, Mina Graham and Keith Mack. All departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Mack many happy returns of the day.

TWILIGHT

Miss Anna Scheffe of Oregon City is visiting with her sister Mrs. Carl Schmecke.

Lester Boylan of Oregon City was calling on old friends Saturday.

Miss Anna Whitehart was a guest of her sister Mrs. James Hyton last Sunday.

Albert Scheer is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harvey entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bolles of Portland at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Lazelle attended the Woman's Club at Oregon City Thursday.

M. J. Lazelle was in Portland Sunday, a guest of his sister, Mrs. F. J. Meindl.

Walter Bullard and Bertha Bullard spent several days in Portland with relatives this week.

H. Scheer, who has been in Portland undergoing medical treatment, has returned home much improved in health.

BARLOW.

Mrs. Shaw visited the school Thursday and conducted the field test in arithmetic and spelling as Barlow was fortunate enough to be one of the 10 highest contestants in Clackamas county.

The Ladies' Aid of the United Lutheran, met with Mrs. Tiedeman last Wednesday.

Freddy Rodby, of Portland, has been visiting old friends here for several days, returning home Tuesday evening.

B. Johnson left Tuesday for Alberta, Canada, where he may locate if he finds a good homestead.

S. B. Berg has purchased a new auto and the family is sure enjoying it.

I. L. Van Winkle has arrived here with his family. Mr. Van Winkle is an artist and will erect a tent in this vicinity where he will be prepared to do all kinds of photography in the near future.

Mrs. Drews, of Portland, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Larson.

The Aurora dance Saturday night was well attended by the young folks from here.

Joe King came home from Portland Tuesday.

The basket social was a decided success and the program was good. After the baskets were sold the young folks played games and danced till a late hour.

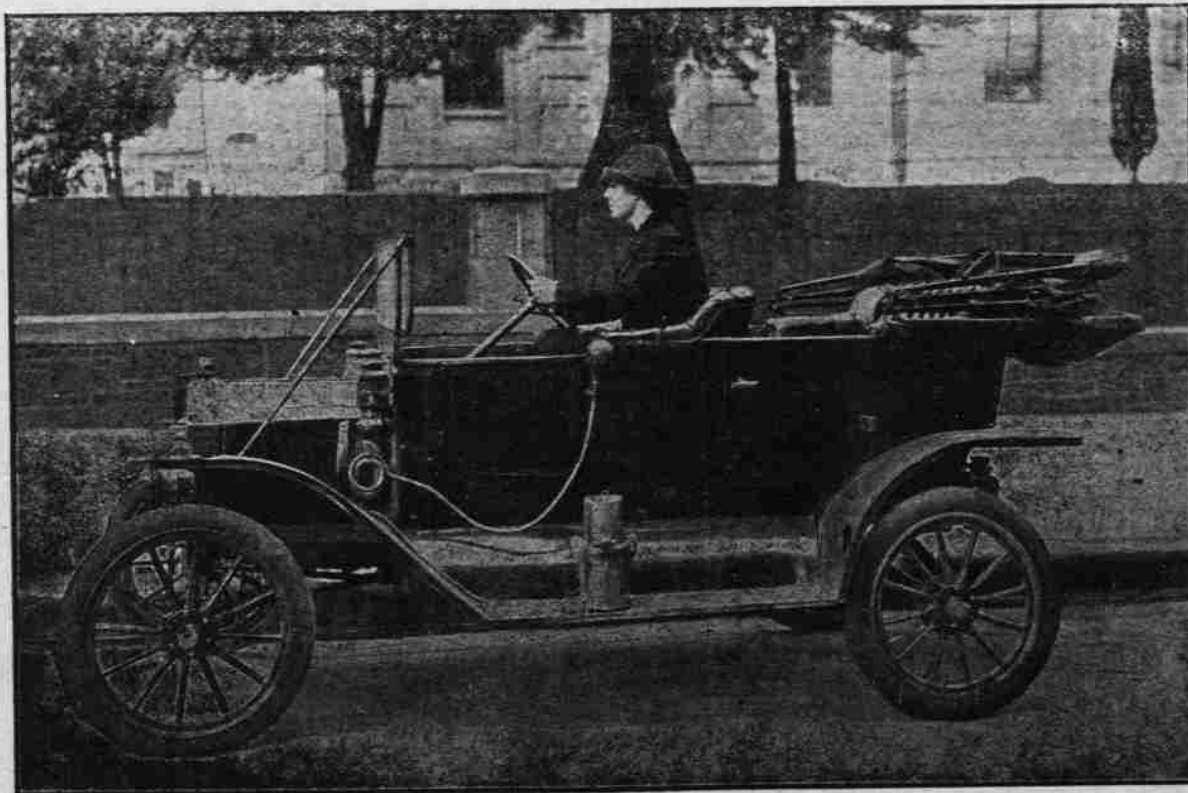

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harms, of Platteville, Wis., who have been visiting several days with H. T. Melvin and Mrs. Andrus, uncle and aunt, left Monday for Spokane, Wash., where they will visit friends before returning to Wisconsin.

STOP! LOOK! Listen?

Working for the other fellow and Get Busy for Yourself What can be won with a little work a fine prize every 10 days BESIDES THE AUTO To what people are saying and you will see how popular you are THEN GET IN AND WIN

Yours for the asking

Don't it look good to you

To stimulate interest in the voting and to give each one a chance to profit by their work we will give a prize every ten days. These prizes will not affect the final count in any way as all votes will count on

THE GRAND AUTOMOBILE

These prizes will be given to the one that hands in the largest number of votes very ten days.

The Fourth Special Prize for the best 10 days showing will be an order on some local merchant. This order is good for anything in his store worth up to $15.00 or can be applied on a larger account. This order had ought to be worth every effort you can put forth.