COLONEL AND WILSON IN ILLINOIS TOURS

CHICAGO, April 5.—With Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey being today a two days' tour of Illinois in the interest of his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination; with Colonel Roosevelt expected here tomorrow with representatives of three other presidential aspirants actively at work, Illinois is in the midst of a spirited primary campaign. Governor Wilson expects to duplicate the result of the Wisconsin primary, when he carried that state. The way through Illinois was paved for him by Senator Gore of Oklahoma. Wilson spoke today at Joliet, Dwight, Pontiac, Bloomington, Lincoln and Springfield and at Peoria. The governor declared that he has been busy recently in the interest of his campaign, but that he is not at all overworked. He is busy with his work by investigating 143 bills passed by the state legislature. Congressman Martin of South Dakota and former Governor Bachevalier of New Hampshire represent the candidacy of President Taft in the Illinois Republican primary. They will be assisted tomorrow by Senator Townsend of Michigan and Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson. Spellbinders of Chicago are boosting Colonel Roosevelt in preparing for the coming of the Colonel tomorrow. Local talent is also assisting the supporters of Senator La Follette. Senator Stone, of Missouri, who opened Champ Clark's final campaign in a speech here last night, spoke in several places today in the interests of the Democratic leader of the House. Clark is being backed in Illinois by the alliance between Mayor Carter Harrison and William R. Hearst.

Beyond this at a distance of an inch and a half is another parallel band which continues in square effect two bands the material is daintily embroidered by hand. In addition to the embroidery and lace used on the bodice the sleeve has an inserted band of fine tucks. The vest consists of bands and the lace and embroidery and also has a central motif of heavy lace.

POULTRY CAR TO BE HERE 2 DAYS

EXPERTS OF OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE WILL GIVE DEMONSTRATIONS
LECTURE PLANNED FOR CHILDREN
Questions From Audience Are Urged Regarding Problems That Apply To Particular Locations

The poultry demonstration car equipped by the extension division of the Oregon Agricultural College, to be sent over the Southern Pacific Lines for forty-five stops in various towns of the state, will reach here on Saturday morning, April 7, at 10 o'clock. C. C. Lamb, of the college poultry department will be in charge, and will be assisted by R. B. Thompson of Portland, a junior in the agricultural course. Professor James Dryden, head of the poultry department, is to have the general supervision of the trip, and has arranged an interesting program of lectures and demonstrations for the time the car is to be in town. First there will be a lecture and demonstration especially for the school children, which will last from half an hour to an hour. Following that there will be a half hour lecture for the general public on "Poultry Feeding," and afterward for an hour or an hour and a half those interested will be given a demonstration and a chance to inspect the car exhibits. Another half-hour lecture for the general public on "Housing Chickens," and a demonstration and exhibit of an hour or more will close the program. There will be an opportunity for everyone to ask questions regarding the solution of problems of their own particular location, so that the greatest possible amount of practical help may be given to all. Since the car is to be in this city for so short a time, it will be absolutely necessary for the school children, who are to have the first lecture, should be there promptly. Superintendent L. R. Alderman has arranged for this visit to the car with the teachers of the schools all along the route and H. E. Lounsbury, general freight agent of the railroad, has sent out an itinerary showing the exact time the car arrives and leaves, so no one should have any difficulty in being there. This is to be a thirty-day tour of the Willamette, Umpqua and Rogue River valleys, and the car, leaving Corvallis Saturday morning, April 6, visits Albany, Grants Pass, Medford, Central point, Ashland, Marlin, Gold Hill, Glendale, Riddle, Myrtle Creek, Roseburg, Willbur, Sutherlin, Oakland, Yreaval, Cottage Grove, Drain, Creswell.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

Frenchwomen Wear Jeweled Crosses With Tailor Mades.
A French fad that has recently crossed the water is that of wearing a huge cross of precious stones or one of the large French disks suspended on a chain outside the coat just below the revers closing in suits of heavy rough goods such as tweed and Scotch mixtures.
The fashion has been revived of suspending a small bead or mesh purse from a long neck chain. The top of the purse to be modish should be set with jewels to match those of the chain. The purse is hung just below the bust or as far as the waist line, never lower.

Women who motor are wearing white ratine coats with roll collars and cuffs of some brilliant shade and buttons to match.
The new flit lace jumpers showing a design worked out in wool embroidery are very smart, and any girl who embroiders can make a waist of this kind with little trouble.

WOMAN FINDS KIN THROUGH 'ENTERPRISE'

Mrs. H. A. Carothers, of Oregon City, who celebrated her eighty-eighth birthday recently has learned through an article in the Morning Enterprise that she had more relatives than she knew of. One of them is W. G. Hagerty, of McMinnville, who is secretary of the Oregon Fire & Relief Association with headquarters in McMinnville. Mrs. Carothers and family came to Oregon in 1853, and did not know she had relatives here until she read the article in the Morning Enterprise. Mr. Hagerty has lived in Oregon for about twenty years and visited at the home of Mrs. Carothers and her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Plummer recently. Mr. Hagerty read of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Carothers, and decided to become acquainted with his aunt, who is among the prominent Oregon pioneers.

Joseph Chamberlain, M. F., And His American Wife

EVEN in England, where public men frequently achieve their most signal political triumphs after they reach threescore and ten Joseph Chamberlain is remarkable as a statesman rejoicing in perennial youth. He has always been thought of as a young man in politics, and now, at the age of seventy-six, in spite of illness which has for some years compelled his abstention from actual leadership in the house of commons, he presents the appearance of a man barely sixty. Mr. Chamberlain's forceful personality and his disregard of old political friendships—be deserted Gladstone when he advocated Irish home rule—have made him one of the best loved and best hated men in England. He is idolized, for example, by his Birmingham Unionist constituents and branded as Judas by the Irish Nationalists. His wife is an American, the daughter of the late William C. Endicott, secretary of war under President Cleveland.

Temple replaced Steiger in the box for Portland. Metzger singled, scoring Heimuller, Driscoll lined to Rodgers. Boles singled, scoring Dillon. Reams tripled scoring Metzger and Boles. Life is what we are alive to. It is not a length, but breadth. To be alive only to appetite, pleasure, pride, money making, and not to goodness and kindness, purity and love, history, poetry and music, flowers, God and eternal hopes, is to be all but dead.—Babcock.
