THE LAST OF A RACE

Because it compels a comparison between the conditions which he witnessed in his closing years and those which he saw in his early prime, the death of Crazy Snake, the aged Creek chief, will be of interest to the country. If he himself knew his exact age he never told it to anybody, but he was active as fighter long before the opening of the civil war. His own tribe belongs to the five civilized clans who were located in the Indian Territory, now the State of Oklahoma three-fourths of a century ago, but civilization, or the thin veneer of decorum superimposed over savagery which masqueraded under the name in the Old Indian Territory, had no attractions for Crazy Snake. Rather was he, so far as circumstances permitted, a spiritual descendant of Weatherford, Osceola, and the rest of the fighters produced by the great Muskogee confederation of Georgia, Florida and Alabama, of a century

LOWER ELECTRIC RATES

As a result of economic methods and the acquirement of additional facilities, the PORTLAND RAILWAY, LIGHT & POWER COMPANY takes a great deal of pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Oregon City and the surrounding territory an important reduction in its electric light and power rates.

IMPORTANT

It has been the constant policy of the Company to give good service at reasonable rates. The Company is more interested than anybody else in building up a bigger, busier and better Portland, and it fully recognizes the important influence of low rates and good service. The new lighting rate is 9, 7 and 4c per kilowatt hour. Details of this reduction and the conditions involved can be secured upon application at any of the Company's offices. Several months will be required to change over the 31,000 accounts which this reduction in lighting rates will affect. In order that our patrons may be put to the least possible inconvenience, new contracts will be mailed beginning May 1st. The Company earnestly requests that these be signed, witnessed and returned to the Company's representative in Oregon City as promptly as possible, thus avoiding the possibility of waiting in line at the office.
