WOOL RATES ORDERED

WASHINGTON, April 12 .- In a weeping decision handed down today the interstate commerce commission ordered big reductions in rates on wool, hides and pelts from every point west of the Mississippi river to every point east. This ruling entirely upsets the present wool rate system, which has been maintained since 1896.

The commission ruled that he present rates were unreasonable. The decision orders that the present "blank et system" of freight charges on wool be supplanted by graded freight rates and prescribes lower rates for baled wo.ol. The ruling also allows western growers to bale their own products and in addition to establishing cheaper carload rates, it gives intermediate cities the privilege of cleaning and treatng wool in transit.

Under certain restrictions the decision gives the railroads permission to charge a lower rate on wool from the Pacific coast to the east than from the intermountain district. The complaint of the Oregon railroad commis sion and that of the National Growers' assocation precipitated the case.
