BOOSTER DAY

Booster Day is near. Our business men are doing their part and the Publicity Committee promises a greater event than last year. Saturday, April 27th, has been set as the date, and it is noted with interest by many of our people that the Carnival company is a thing of the past. Notwithstanding the claims of the new management for a cleaner and better show the people who come here this year will be entertained only by a legitimate means.

The Annual Horse Show is looked forward to from one end of the state to the other and horsemen this year will be greatly benefited by the lectures to be delivered by one of the professors of Corvallis College.

Stockmen in general should make this day their day and come and join us.

Oregon City will in this as in all other matters, extend the right hand of sociability, to all the visitors.

Salmon fishing at the great falls of the Willamette is at its height. Many rodmen are at it early and late for fear the season will end immaturely and they will be robbed of their sport looked forward to from year to year. Many of our own people do not know how famed these fishing grounds are, and look at the falls simply as a scenic point and valuable for power purposes. Oregon City is known the world over for its fishing from a sportsman's point of view. Many people come here annually from far and near and at least one man visits our city annually from New York to get into the game from a purely sport standpoint.

We, here, do not appreciate our natural resources high enough, we don't think or don't know, some of us, that we are living in one of the beauty spots of the Western Hemisphere, if not of the entire world and should be proud of it. There are more fish here this year than for years past and the sport is bringing many hundreds of visitors daily.

YOUNG WOMEN TO GIVE BIG LEAP YEAR DANCE

A limited number of invitations have been issued for the Leap Year dancing party to be given at Busch's hall next Thursday evening, under the direction of Professor Montrose M. Ringler of Portland. This will be a novelty in dancing parties and to the leap year idea will be carried out through the entire program. The Falls City orchestra will furnish the music and a fine time is anticipated.

MAPLE LANE CLUB HOLDS SPELLING MATCH

The women of the Maple Lane Mutual Improvement Club entertained their husbands in a most delightful manner at the Grande hall Friday evening. Among the features of the evening was an old-fashioned spelling match, which was much enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

ELSIE JANIS IN THE MUSICAL COMEDY, "THE SLIM PRINCESS" AT HEILIG APRIL 15, 16, AND 17.

The Brilliant musical comedy success, "The Slim Princess," with the charming comedienne, Elsie Janis, supported by the favorite comedian, Joe Canthorn, will be the attraction at the Heilig Theatre, 7th and Taylor streets for three nights beginning Monday, April 15, with a special price Matinee Wednesday.

Miss Elsie Janis is coming to the Heilig Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, April 15, 16, 17th, with a special price matinee Wednesday to present for Portland's Wednesday that dainty musical comedy, "The Slim Princess," which broke the business records of many theatres last year. Since it was first seen in New York in its rather formative state, the Ade-Blossom musical comedy has been considerably quickened in action and enlivened in incident. This during a run of nearly a year at Charles Dillingham's Globe Theatre in New York. Joseph Cawthorn, Queenie Vassar and Julia Frary, notable favorites of last year's cast, still remain in support of the protean little Miss Janis, who has added to her list of caricatures as screamingly funny burlesque of Madame Sarah Bernhardt in her great moment as "Camille." The eminent French artiste saw Miss Janis do this "stunt" in New York and complimented her on what she called "diabolically simian cleverness." Seats are now

JULIE OPP

KOESTNER EASY FOR OAK BATTERS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—(Special.)—Oakland won its ninth straight victory today—a victory that came about in the first inning when Elmer Koestner was slammed so hard he was forced to retire. The local men took all the nip and tuck out of the Beavers with a quartet of runs that were scored right off the jump. Oakland gathered all of its runs in the first inning, when Koestner was found for four hard drives. The score was 4 to 1.

The results Saturday were as follows: At San Francisco—Oakland 4, Portland 1. At Los Angeles—Vernon 6, Los Angeles 2. At Sacramento—San Francisco 5, Sacramento 0.

Table with columns: National League, American League, W, L, Pct. Rows include Philadelphia, Boston, Los Angeles, Vernon, Sacramento, San Francisco, and Portland.

WILLIAM FAVERSHAM.

"The Faun" which William Faversham will present at the Heilig Theatre, Seventh and Taylor streets, April 18, 19, 20, with special price matinee Saturday is one of the few really distinctive and captivating novelties of recent years. Although the title is suggestive of mythology, the play itself, is a comedy of the briskest, most startling type, and even to the most casual theatre-goer its delightful, fantastic treatment merely enhances its charm.

This piece relates the experiences of a faun or wood-god, who forsakes his native haunts of wilds and forests, and streams, for the super-cultivated and restrained surroundings of modern society. The distinguishing features of the ensuing story are a healthy optimism, a gay joyousness in every phase of life, and a pointed wholesomeness that combine to make a delicious comedy surprise. One can readily imagine the humorous possibilities of suddenly introducing a fearless, discerning creature from another world into a sphere where nearly everything is restrained, and many circumstances markedly wrong.

Above all, Mr. Knoblauch's faun is a messenger of happiness and he takes a primitive pleasure in spreading delight, banishing trouble, and breeding joy according to the straightforward creed of nature's world. Few plays of recent years have been more thoroughly and legitimately amusing and at the same time contained so much that makes for mental stimulus.

In his creation of this unique stage character, Mr. Faversham has been credited with one of the comedy achievements of the generation, bringing again into conspicuous evidence, the gift for comedy that was so happily manifested in his superb portrayal of "Alky" in "Lord and Lady Alky."

Several fish in the window of Thomas Brown's market attracted attention Saturday. They were planted in 1906 in the South Fork of Boulder Creek by Mr. Brown and Edward Rechner, and were caught by Mr. Rechner with a spoon hook. William E. Pratt, who is president of the Blackburn Club, will serve the fish to members of the club today. Mr. Brown was in charge of the hatchery where the fish were planted.

The Favorite Comedienne May Robson in Her New Comedy Success "A Night Out" and "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary"

The other members show marked superiority that is quickly appreciated by the critical audiences the Baker Company always attracts. Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch which is just closing the second week is a great big production that has made a positive hit almost amounting to a sensation and it will be followed this week by the Witching Hour, a powerful and fascinating play of modern life by Augustus Thomas, which ran a whole year in New York, and has been reviewed time and again in all the principal magazines and newspapers all over the land. It was played by the well known actor, John Mason whose methods and personality Mr. Mack greatly resembles and for this reason it was selected as one of his offering here. It will be one of the most important of all the plays the Baker Company will present and should play to immense business. It deals with the subject of occupation or modern thought which is attracting the attention of the entire reading and thinking world just now, and the matter is treated in a most masterful manner, powerful in theme and thrilling with strange dramatic situations. The Witching Hour is a play that is of supreme interest to all classes of theatre goers. Every Monday night is Bargain Night at the Baker when the regular prices are split in half and this performance has become immensely popular being packed to the doors all the time. Matinees are given Sundays and Saturdays.

the use? It takes space, means nothing more, and cost money. I am asking and seeking only for the INDOSEMENT OF THE VOTERS at the polls on April 19th. My work as an attorney has been passed upon by FOUR municipal bodies of my home county by their electing me their attorney. The city government of my home city (Astoria) by resolution adopted a few months ago said that I had done for $125.00 per month three times the amount of work that for two years prior to my term cost about twice as much. This is a matter of public record. Mr. Tongue has been in office FOUR years. Do you, Mr. Voter, want him another FOUR years? You and not a small portion of the attorneys of this district are qualified to state who shall receive the Republican nomination, I am content to leave the matter in your hands." (Paid Adv.)

Wm. Hammond Lawyer

To the voters of Justice District No. 4 and especially the members of the Republican party, as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Justice of the Peace in your district I will allow no influence except Law and Justice to govern my decisions if I am nominated and elected to serve the people in the said office. No man or body of men have any political strings tied to me and if I am elected I will have no political debts to pay. I will give my best efforts and use all my ability to give every one a square deal and to deal out justice without fear or favor. I will not enter into any combination with either plaintiffs or defendants, but will give every person, regardless of their station in life, their wealth or social influence a fair and impartial trial. Justice District No. 4 includes Oregon City No's. 1, 2, 3 and 4; West Oregon City, Willamette, Canumah, Maple Lane, Abernethy and Gladstone.
