

First Methodist Church to Have Re-opening Today WEST PLANS CHANGE OF PRISON CONTROL

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

From the beginning of the Wesleyan movement the Methodists have been pioneers. They have gone before in the march of civilization westward. The circuit rider has a forerunner of American and Christian evangelization. The cross and the flag have gone together, and been planted as the standards of the new order in industrial and social, education and christian progress.

The Methodists were among the first to enter the old Oregon country with purposes and plans of conquest. The original Methodist church edifice erected in this city in 1842-3, was the first protestant church building erected west of the Rocky mountains. It is the oldest of all the churches in the Northwest. It is the mother church. It has a historical setting that no other church in all this country has.

The Church of England has its Westminster abbey. The Protestant Episcopal church of America has its Trinity church of New York. The Methodists of America have their St. Johns church. The Methodist of Oregon have the First Methodist Episcopal church edifice of Oregon City.

It is fitting that this church, having been newly carpeted, calomined, and otherwise beautified, and made one of the most attractive auditoriums in the city, should have a re-opening, and this will be today.

Prominent ministers and laymen will be in attendance and will officiate in the morning and evening services. G. F. Johnson, manager of the Sherman Clay Company of Portland, will speak this morning at 11 o'clock service. Father Flynn, a former pastor, ninety-five years of age, full of life, of Irish humor and eloquent, will be present and speak. The Rev. Dr. Joslyn, one of the foremost preachers of the church in the Northwest, who spent his boyhood days in Clackamas county, will read an account of the early struggles in this old church. T. L. Jones, one of the most popular and beloved preachers of Oregon, will also be present.

In the afternoon J. W. Day of Portland, and Robert Hughes, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate will deliver addresses and the Woman's Relief Corps and Meade Post, Grand Army of the Republic, will attend in a body and present to the church an American flag.

In the evening Judge J. C. Moreland clerk of the supreme court of Oregon, will speak in the open forum pulpit of the church.

WEST PLANS CHANGE OF PRISON CONTROL

SALEM, Or., April 13.—Announcing that he is heartily in favor of placing the control of the state penitentiary in the hands of the state board, where the control of all of the other state institutions now reposes and that he is engaged in preparing a bill to be introduced in the next legislature which will bring the change into effect, Governor West today answered those who have been attacking his prison policy on the ground that he is trying to bolster up his administration by use of the state prison.

The governor said the bill would provide for general revision of laws governing state institutions and would cut the institutions loose from much of the red tape that now hinders the state board from bringing them up to the highest efficiency.

The bill Governor West is preparing if enacted into law, will provide for cooperation between the various institutions that is impossible under the present laws. It will permit the exchange of commodities among institutions and thus give opportunity for great savings to the state. Now, if one institution has a surplus of products of any kind, any revenue received by disposing of it must be turned into the state's general fund.

"I believe that the management of the state prison should be in the same hands as the management of the insane asylum and other state institutions," said Governor West. "If the management of other institutions is in a board, that is where the management of the state prison should be. But inasmuch as the people have placed control of that institution in the hands of the governor, I purpose to conduct its affairs in accordance with my own ideas."

$75,000,000 CHECK FIGURES IN BIG DEAL

BOSTON, April 13.—A check for $75,000,000, supposed to have figured in transactions surrounding the birth of the Amalgamated Copper Company, was produced in court in connection with a hearing before Acting United States Commissioner Darling. Thomas W. Lawson was giving a deposition to be used in the suit of Louis Foss and others against the Parrott Silver & Copper Mining Company and the Anaconda Mining Company. The suit will be tried in Butte, Mont.

United States District Attorney French produced the check that purported to be signed by William C. Rockefeller, payable to William H. Bogert. The District Attorney said Mr. Rockefeller failed to recognize the check. He asked Mr. Lawson if he would do so. Mr. Lawson said that he knew nothing of it.

Mr. Lawson later told of the founding of the "Amalgamated"; how he made the original suggestion to Henry H. Rogers, William G. Rockefeller and others; how stock in several companies was purchased for the combination at $47,000,000, and later capitalized for $75,000,000.

The plaintiff contends that control of the Parrott Copper Company was gained by Anaconda interests in violation of the Sherman law, and the as-

LOWER ELECTRIC RATES

As a result of economic methods and the acquirement of additional facilities, the PORTLAND RAILWAY, LIGHT & POWER COMPANY takes a great deal of pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Oregon City and the surrounding territory an important reduction in its electric light and power rates.

IMPORTANT

It has been the constant policy of the Company to give good service at reasonable rates. The Company is more interested than anybody else in building up a bigger, busier and better Portland, and it fully recognizes the important influence of low rates and good service. The new lighting rate is 9, 7 and 4c per kilowatt hour. Details of this reduction and the conditions involved can be secured upon application at any of the Company's offices. Several months will be required to change over the 31,000 accounts which this reduction in lighting rates will affect. In order that our patrons may be put to the least possible inconvenience, new contracts will be mailed beginning May 1st. The Company earnestly requests that these be signed, witnessed and returned to the Company's representative in Oregon City as promptly as possible, thus avoiding the possibility of waiting in line at the office.
