ELEVATOR TO THE HILL

Many people are still of the opinion that the present elevator talk is to wind up with talk. Not so. If the Live Wires and the City Council has their way. There is only one good plan for an elevator and that is for municipal ownership. If a franchise is given to an individual or corporation, no one in the end, will be satisfied.

The maintenance and operation of an elevator service to the hill section where ninety-five per cent of the City's population resides, would be small, while the convenience to the public generally is beyond question. Hill property would then be as valuable as that on the lower elevation, and the residence district made as convenient as that now almost exclusively devoted to business, and vice versa.

The committee appointed by the Live Wires will do its part, but the people must stand behind the members thereof in order to be assured of success.

The best evidences of the get-together feeling existing here are always displayed at the gatherings of the Commercial Club, but better still at the Annual Ball. This year this event will be held Wednesday, April 24, and present indications point to the best and largest time in the Club's and Oregon City's history, but this does not mean that you should stay at home. We hope to see you among the happy number.

Economic Value to Public of Big Business Cannot Be Overlooked

By Former Judge PETER S. GROSSCUP of Chicago

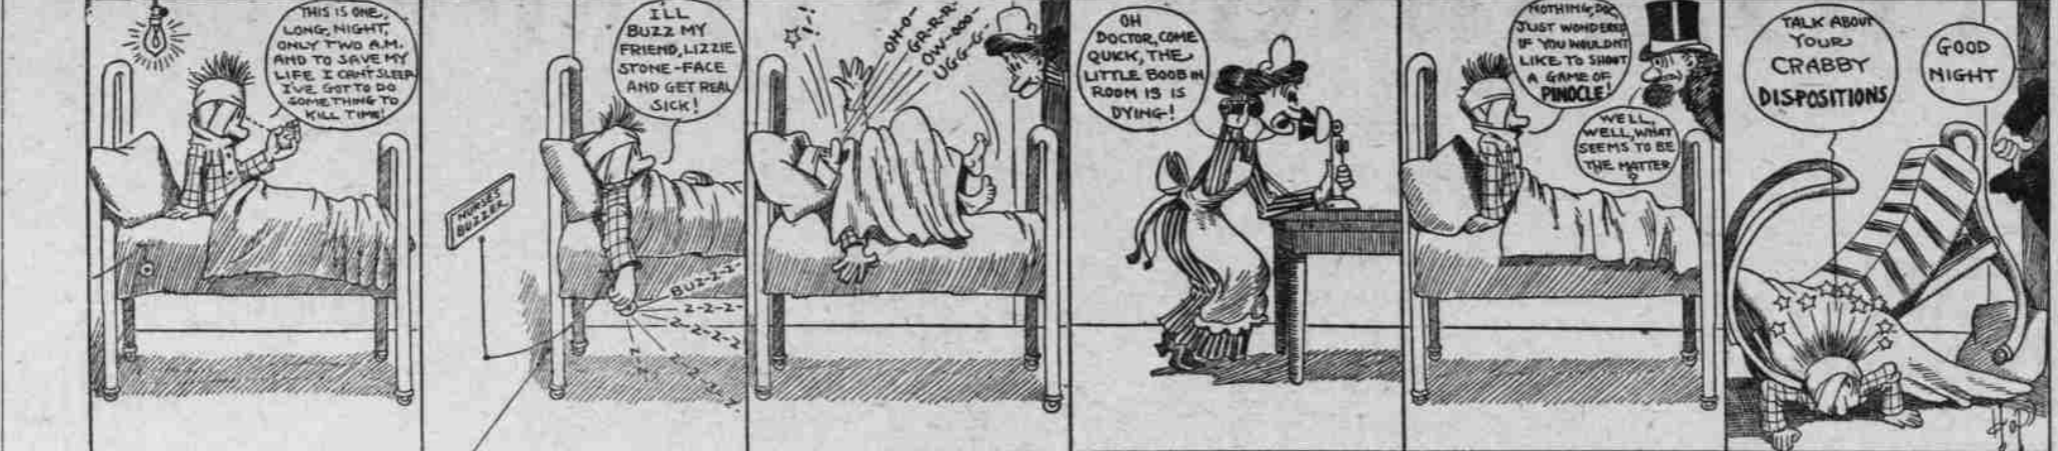

BIG business must be FOSTERED AND ENCOURAGED.

THE ECONOMIC VALUES TO THE PUBLIC OF CONCENTRATION OF BUSINESS CANNOT BE OVERLOOKED. ROB BIG BUSINESS OF EXORBITANT PREMIUMS AND THEN GIVE IT FULL ROOM AND FREEDOM, BUT FIRST REMOVE ITS STINGER BY PERMITTING CONCERT AND CONFERENCE WHOLLY AND ONLY THROUGH ASSOCIATIONS NATIONALLY INCORPORATED, THE ACTS OF WHICH ARE FIRST SUBMITTED TO A BUREAU, COMMISSION OR DEPARTMENT OF CORPORATIONS FOR APPROVAL.

Self aggrandizement, the motive of organization of powerful combinations fifty years ago, cannot be taken as the measuring stick today. The rule must be whether or not the "big business" demands an EXORBITANT PREMIUM. If the supreme court, when the Sherman act is brought fairly and squarely to its notice, says that that law discourages concentrated business exacting small premiums then congress should AMEND THE LAW.

The trust problem must be solved by a jury of "thoughtful men." This "jury" should include business men UNALLIED WITH TRUSTS and men of the INTELLIGENT MASSES who oppose trusts without the expectation of political advantages. If these men can be brought to a "common ground" they will solve the problem without peril to business.

MAY ROBSON AT HEILIG THEATRE 7 NIGHTS BEGINNING SUNDAY APRIL 21. The charming and favorite comedienne and actress, May Robson will present her new comedy success, "A Night Out," at the Heilig Theatre, 677 and Taylor streets, Sunday-Monday-Tuesday-Thursday and Saturday matinee Saturday. On Wednesday and Friday nights and at the special price Matinee Wednesday, her famous comedy success, "The Revival of Aunt Mary."

MAY ROBSON has achieved the unusual distinction of being the best delineator of eccentric women having a quaint humor. It has been stated, and the statement frequently repeats that women in general have no keen sense of humor. Miss Robson is assuredly a living contradiction to this assertion. May Robson is an actress of exquisite pose, enunciation clear and distinct, and her transitions from touching paths to joviality are a revelation. In the new play "A Night Out" she will appear in the character of a good natured but eccentric old lady who is held in great esteem by her two grandsons, since she simply dotes on them and enters into their love troubles, acting as a sort of guardian; therefore she easily persuades the boys to take her to a fashionable restaurant in New York. She is entirely the novelty of the surroundings when the police raid the place. "Grannum" and the boys are hustled into the street by Mitza, the dancing girl, and a policeman whom Grannum has bribed. Arriving home, they find the doors locked, and the lights out. The boys overcome this by climbing up the ivy, and assisting Grannum through the window. Her hat is crushed, her jacket torn, appearance generally not of the very best. The complications arising from this early morning return, form the basis of the humor and ludicrous.

The character of Grannum affords Miss Robson full opportunity for her natural gifts in the portrayal of eccentric characters in which the expressions of pathos and humor are alternately and naturally expressed. Miss Robson will open at the Heilig Theatre on Sunday, April 21, for seven nights. By special request Miss Robson will present for the last time in Portland "The Revival of Aunt Mary" on Wednesday matinee, Wednesday night and Friday night. Special price matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

RICHARD VIVIAN OF THE BAKER STOCK COMPANY

THE SPOILERS AT THE BAKER Popular Stock Company to Present Rex Beach Play This Week

A high class melodrama—a tale of the early gold rush to the Klondike, is Rex Beach's thrilling Alaskan play the Spoilers which the Baker Stock Company will present all this week opening Sunday Matinee. Every act thrills with excitement and action and the scenes vividly portray different phases of the wild life led by those early miners and intrepid prospectors, many of whom were from Portland, or whose friends and acquaintances were. The Northwest sent thousands of the very first prospectors into the Alaskan country—many came back wealthy, many poor and broken in health and spirits, and still more never returned at all. The Spoilers deals with the vicious attempt of an organized crowd of grafters to get possession of the valuable Midas Mine discovered and rightly owned by two intrepid young Americans who put up a fight that would be a credit to any country. The climax comes swiftly and there is plenty of action and excitement all through. The love interest is particularly strong and many comedy scenes and characters such as are always found in these wild surroundings are introduced affording plenty of good laugh between breaths. Those who are admirers of the famous Rex Beach novels know well his wonderful power to depict character and to tell a most thrilling story of romance and adventure in the fewest words. One of the strong scenes of the Spoilers is the Dance Hall at Nome, familiar to many Portlanders today who were there and witnessed many such as well as the terrific fight that ends the act. It will be portrayed at the Baker with startling vividness as well as the tense situation at the Midas Mine later on when the claim jumpers are beaten and everything ends happily for the young miners and their families and sweethearts. A big feature of the Baker these weeks is the popular Monday Bargain nights when all seats are sold at just half Sunday and Saturday. Following the Spoilers comes an elaborate production of the superb play, the Sign of the Cross, which has never before been seen here.

OREGON CITY WINS SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP

In a one-sided baseball game at Canemah Park Saturday afternoon, the Oregon City high school team defeated Molalla high school, 22 to 2. The Molalla boys played gamely to the end but were outclassed at all stages of the game. This is the second game which the Oregon City High school has won in the Clackamas County Interscholastic Baseball League. The league consists of five teams. The standings are: Oregon City High School—Games 2; Won 1; Lost 0. Milwaukie—Games 1; Won 0; Lost 1. Canby—Games 2; Won 1; Lost 1. Parkplace—Games 1; Won 0; Lost 1. Molalla—Games 2; Won 1; Lost 1. This victory places Oregon City in the lead for the championship and as each contestant was only to play two games Oregon City claims the championship being the only high school winning both games. The following was the line-up: Oregon City: Holmes, c.; Rowland, p.; Wilson ss.; Beatie lb.; Griffin, 2b.; Morris 3b.; Hedgese-Betel, l. f.; Greene c. f.; Dungray, r. f. Molalla: Coll, c.; Shaver, p.; Vick, c.; Schame lb.; Robbins, 2b.; Eckhard, 3b.; Paulfrey, l. f.; Engle, c. l.; Schaffer, r. f. Time 2 hours, attendance 100, umpires Telford and Noland.
