White Star Employee Tells How He Ordered Owner To Get Out Of Lifeboat In Hurry

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Openly charging that an attempt had been made to shape the course of the inquiry of the United States senate sub-committee into the wreck of the liner Titanic and declaring that such "interference" would be no longer tolerated, Chairman Smith issued a caustic statement today, believed to be aimed at J. Bruce Ismay, managing director of the White Star line, when the investigation into the disaster was resumed here today.

Senator Smith exonerated the officers and crew of the Titanic from being implicated in the alleged attempt to block a full expose of the shipwreck and veiledly hinted that he had reference to Ismay.
