HAYES AND LODER TO SPEAK IN OPEN FORUM THIS EVENING

GORDON E. HAYES

Gordon E. Hayes and John W. Loder will speak in the open forum pulpit of the Methodist church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. GIVEN CHARIVARI ON 20TH ANNIVERSARY

While Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nash were chatting with friends Thursday at their home on Aber Heights they were startled by an explosion in the yard. In a moment the place was one shriek of tin pans, horns and cowbells, as a reminder that twenty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Nash listened to a charivari.

The revelers were invited by the hostess to come in and make merry. The bride was presented with an engagement ring, the huge diamond in which put the famous Kohinoor to shame. Promptly at 9 o'clock the bride party entered to the strains of a two-step, played by Miss Alice Bailey. The bride wore a veil of mosquito netting, held in place by apple blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white lilacs. The bride was given away by R. D. Wilson. A massive ring of brass was borne on a soft pillow by Mrs. George Hankins. Mrs. Thomas U. Randall acted as a flower girl, while the bridesmaids were Mrs. William Andresen and Mrs. Elmer Bailey. The bridegroom wore corduroys and slippers. Mr. Bert Roake was best man. The bride threw her bouquet, and it was caught by Mrs. William Andresen.

A Haviland tea set was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Nash in behalf of the guests, the presentation speech being made by Rev. E. A. Smith and which was graciously accepted by Mr. and Mrs. Nash. Luncheon provided by the invaders, was served by Mrs. Bert Roake, Mrs. E. E. Bailey, Mrs. R. D. Wilson, Mrs. Schrader. Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Andresen, Mr. and Mrs. George Hankins, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Deverous, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nash, Miss Alice Bailey, Miss Florence Reed, of Portland; R. V. D. Johnston, G. Fletcher, D. W. CANDIDATES WON'T REVEAL STRENGTH

DOUBLE VOTE OFFER DOES NOT BRING MANY VOTES FROM 'HIDING PLACE'

MAY NOT HAVE SAME CHANGE AGAIN
Contest Most Successful Ever Given In County But Entrants Are Not Doing Their Best

STANDING OF CANDIDATES
Ruby McCord 119,200
Joseph Sheahan 47,200
Kent Wilson 32,600
John Brown 15,000
John Weber 6,800
John Halston 6,000
A. G. Kandler 7,200

The contest manager is disappointed over the showings, or rather lack of showings, made by the contestants in the great automobile contest Saturday. Although it is known that several of the contestants have thousands of votes in reserve they made no effort to poll them yesterday and take advantage of the double vote offer. Probably they think a similar offer will be made in the future—maybe it will and maybe it will not, and if it is not somebody is going to be a big loser.

The manager does not want to scold. In fact he is a genial fellow, and his face is usually wreathed in smiles. But Saturday afternoon when the candidates did not put in appearance and take advantage of the unprecedented offer to boost their standings his face took on a scowl, no not a scowl, but rather a look of disappointment. He could not understand the apparent lack of interest, or failure to take advantage of a great opportunity on the part of the entrants. Surely a $750 Ford touring car is worth having. Why there were more Fords in the big automobile parade Saturday than all other makes of cars. Surely the candidates would like to win the automobile. The manager reasoned with himself, however, and came to the conclusion that the contestants were so interested in the booster day festivities that they neglected to work, and decided to wait for another double vote offer to poll their reserve ballots.

Surely the second prize—$100 in gold is worth working for. If you don't think you can win the first go after the second one. It will more than pay you for your labor. The better plan, however, is to set your mind on winning the automobile, and if a rival beats you out you have the money, which will go a long way to buy another one. Get word soothing you in any way to busy and win the auto or the second prize, and your friends will think all the more of you.

The contest has been a great success but it should set a record that will not be equaled for years. The prizes are the biggest ever offered in the county. You can win if you will work.

Couple Gets License
A license to marry was issued Saturday to Aurora Link and Fred Lee Whitlock. The girl who is under eighteen years of age, obtained her mother's consent to marry.

CREW RESCUED AS SCHOONER SINKS

VESSEL DRIVEN AGAINST SPIT AT ENTRANCE TO BAY CITY HARBOR

LIFE-SAVERS RESPOND AT ONCE
Men Plunge Into Surf And Pick Up Sailors Who Had Jumped As Ship Went Down

BAY CITY Or., April 27.—Driven from her course in entering the harbor here tonight the fishing schooner Vida, of Seattle, struck the North Spit at the entrance to the bay and was wrecked. Her crew of five men were rescued with difficulty by the life-saving crew from Garibaldi. The Vida will be a total loss.

In command of George Nelson, the Vida, which is a gasoline-driven craft had been outside the harbor's entrance exploring the halibut banks. As she was retracing this evening at about the boat was forced from the channel by the swift current and, despite efforts of all aboard, pounded onto the spit. The schooner struck at 6:30.

The boat's plight was seen at Garibaldi and the life-saving crew hurried to the scene and removed the five men on board from the craft, which now lies partially submerged with the waves breaking over her. The Vida was loaded with fish caught during the day.

Besides Captain Nelson, whose home is at Seattle, other men saved are Joseph Johnson, engineer, Seattle; Edward Martin, steward, Seattle; Herman Tieson and George Thomson both of Bay City.

Struck by a heavy wave, the schooner's rudder was carried away, and, helpless, she drifted until she struck the north spit.

The rescue of the boat was accomplished largely by the life-saving crew, who plunged into the surf and reached the vicinity of the wrecked craft, where they picked up the five men who had been forced to leap from the schooner into the breakers that the lifesavers might pull them into the boat.

WRONG POSITION GIVEN BY TITANIC

ERROR OF OPERATORS AND ICE PREVENTED SHIP GOING TO RESCUE

ANOTHER STEAMER SEEN NEAR WRECK
Captain of Mount Temple Denounces As "Most Unwise" Action Of Commander Of Big Liner

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Failure to give her exact position, a great field of floating ice that offered a rigid barrier to ships hurrying to the rescue and the mistake of her captain in rushing at top speed through an ice-covered sea combined to send the Titanic and her 1600 victims to their watery grave in the North Atlantic according to testimony today before the Senate committee investigating the ocean tragedy.

Captain James H. Moore, of the steamer Mount Temple, which hurried to the Titanic in response to wireless calls for help, told of the great stretch of field ice which held him off. Within his view from the bridge he discerned, he said, another strange steamer, probably a "tramp" and a schooner which was making her way out of the ice.

Captain Moore denounced as "most unwise" the action of the Titanic's commander in rushing at 21 knots through the night, when he had been advised of the ice. The Mount Temple's commander testified that he had spent 27 years in the North Atlantic. Whenever ice was found, he said, he doubled his watch and reduced his speed. If he happened to get caught in an ice pack he stopped his engines and drifted until he was clear.

The witness was also emphatic in his assertion that the position sent out by the Titanic was wrong. He said the ship was eight miles further eastward than its operators reported. This, he said, he proved by observations the first thing on the day following the disaster.

SHOWER TENDERED MISS MAY ROBACKER

A miscellaneous shower was extended Miss Ophelia May Robacker at Mount Pleasant Friday afternoon in honor of her approaching marriage to Mr. Clinton Black, of Mount Pleasant, an employe of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company. Miss Robacker's home is at Twilights, but the affair was given at the home of Mr. Black's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Black, and proved a most delightful surprise. The bride-elect was presented with many pretty and useful articles by her friends. Refreshments were served and the rooms were prettily decorated with lilacs. The bride-elect came to Oregon about a year ago with her parents. During her residence at Twilight she has made many friends, about thirty of whom were in attendance at the shower given in her honor. Her marriage to Mr. Black will be solemnized May 1. Mr. Black was assisted in the entertaining of her guests by Mrs. William McCord, Miss Ruby McCord and Miss Bertha Bullard.

CANDIDATES DISCUSS PLAN OF CAMPAIGN

The Republican nominees for county offices met in the office of Livy Stipp, chairman of the County Central Committee, Saturday morning. The candidates have no fear of the outcome but they do not intend to overlook any opportunities to obtain votes for themselves and the other Republican candidates. Chairman Stipp has called a meeting of the County Central Committee for 10 o'clock at Willamette Hall next Saturday when the candidate will be present and discuss with the committee plans for the campaign. Mr. Stipp will be re-elected chairman of the committee, unless he should urge the election of another. A secretary also will be elected.

WANT HIGH SCHOOL FUND ON BALLOT

At a meeting of representatives of Molalla, Wilsonville, Mountain Road, Milwaukie, Clatskanie, Maple Lane and other sections of the county in the County Superintendent of Schools Gary's office Saturday it was decided that the high school fund law should be placed on the ballot at the election in November. The law was passed at the last session of the legislature, but has to be approved by the voters of each county before it is put into operation. The decision to have the proposition placed on the ballot was approved by all but one of the persons attending the meeting.

BOOSTER DAY BALL CROWDS BIG HALL

The big booster day dance given by the Modern Brotherhood of America at Busch's hall Friday night was one of the most successful social functions ever held in Oregon City. There were 165 couples in attendance and the festivities continued until midnight. Refreshments were served. Milton Price, who had charge of the dance, is being congratulated upon its success.

POULTRY DEMONSTRATION CAR OF AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE IS FEATURE

AUTO AND HORSE PARADE ATTRACT

Three Bands Render Music Throughout Day And Hose Company Races Thrill Great Holiday Crowd

One of the most successful Booster Day celebrations ever observed in Oregon City was that Saturday, when thousands of persons of various parts of the county and Portland were here. Everybody was in good humor, and the weather was ideal. The ice cream, peanut stands and all the merchants of the city did a rushing business, and it was necessary in all cases to have extra clerks to wait on the customers. Many of the merchants had on special sales and gave souvenirs to the visitors. Many flags were raised on the buildings and everything presented a "Fourth of July" appearance. Long before 9 o'clock the wagons and carriages and automobiles carrying passengers began arriving in the city. The stables were filled and many of the horses were tied to hitching posts and even these were at a premium.

M. J. Lazelle, who had charge of the arrangements is deserving of much of the credit for the manner in which the program was carried out during the day. Last year and the year previously Carnival companies were engaged but it was decided to dispense with these attractions this year.

Among the attractions were the open air concert given by three bands, the Philharmonic Band under the direction of R. V. D. Johnston, Oak Grove Girls' Band under the direction of L. E. Armstrong and Professor York, leader, and the Falls City Band under the direction of Charles Schenck. The music was the best that has ever been given in Oregon City, and the players were generous in responding to encores, of which there were many. The latest two-steps, ragtimes were hugely appreciated by the large throngs of people. The slide for life from the Oregon City suspension bridge by David Minor and the horse walking and head the attractions, as well as the demonstration car from the Oregon Agricultural College, which was in charge of Professor Dryden, who has been in charge of the poultry department of that institution for the past four and one half years. Before being engaged by the Oregon Agricultural College Mr. Dryden was a professor in colleges in Utah and Montana. He is a man of experience. He was assisted by C. C. Lamb, foreman of the poultry department, and student, C. M. Wilcox and H. Morgenstern. These young men are taking a special course in poultry raising. There are forty-four students taking the special course, but during the winter, when many of the farmers' sons can be spared from their homes the number of students is increased to more than 100. The demonstration car, since starting out three weeks ago in Southern Oregon, has been visited by 15,000 persons, all of whom were shown every courtesy by the men in charge. Western Oregon has been visited, the car remaining in each town or city for half a day, and more than fifty places have been visited. The car left for Portland and from that city will be transferred on the West Side visiting Sherwood, Newberg, and many of the cities and towns in that section.

The poultry exhibit in the demonstration car gave to the public an idea of the excellent work that is being done at the experimental station at the Oregon Agricultural College. Some of the finest breeds of chickens, which were mostly of the White Leghorn and Plymouth Rocks, of which the College is making a specialty, were on exhibition. One pen contained a White Leghorn hen, which laid 100 eggs in twelve months, and another of the same breed, and of the same size having a record of 230 eggs in the same length of time. Other pens contained Barred Plymouth Rocks, one of which produced forty-four eggs in twelve months, and another 201 in twelve months. The highest average is 259 eggs for one year, this being the champion hen of the United States, and is still at the experimental station of the College, while the lowest is six eggs in one year. A Light Brahma cock, which was loaned by Edward Sheard, of Milwaukie, and a White Wyandotte loaned by E. Lee Paret, of Oak Grove, were also on exhibition in this car, and a pair of Rhode Island Reds loaned by Howard Keim, of Newberg. It is the effort of this College to breed for the chickens producing two ounce eggs and a record of 200 per year. Charts on an exhibition showed that some of the hens had the following record during the year: 259, the highest; 213, 219, 257, 240, and as low as six.

The Oregon Agricultural College Poultry experimenting station's motto is, "Better Eggs and More of them." Mr. Dryden explained how many of the poultrymen had been negligent in packing, sorting and shipping eggs, which caused a loss of 50,000,000 to the poultrymen of the United States a year. In the exhibition was a glass case containing samples of eggs, which were in the hard-boiled process and cut in halves, showing
