BOOSTING AND KNOCKING

While the people of our city and county are now thoroughly imbued with the booster spirit as practiced by our commercial organizations, we still have among our numbers men, who think, they are boosters but who continually have their hammers ringing out the old familiar knock, knock, knock, we used to hear from so many quarters. This continual knock does them no good—makes them no friends and at the same time does the city, county and state more harm than many years of effectual boosting can overcome. Our committees are on the lookout for new people, new farmers, new business men and above all new capitalists with additional or new enterprises. Industries where more men will find employment. At the same time these continual fault finders, with their little part to do, cause many of these investors to flinch shy of our state, and, particularly of our part thereof. It is therefore, in our opinion, the next thing in order that the Commercial Club, as a body, or a new organization be formed to wipe out of existence the avenues for the abuse. No one with right sense will invest where larger investors are being persecuted. That appears to be our present position. We have it within our power to correct. Shall we do it, or allow the minority to rule—to continue to knock, knock knock. We need the help of every booster.

NEW PASTOR TO BE GIVEN RECEPTION

The members of the First Baptist church will give a reception this evening to the new pastor, the Rev. W. T. Milliken. The program will be as follows: Instrumental music, Prayer, Rev. G. N. Edwards, Pastor Congregational church; anthem by the choir; address of welcome in behalf of the church by S. P. Davis; Welcome from church organizations (in two minute addresses): (1) The Sunday school, by H. E. Croos, Superintendent. (2) The Ladies' Aid Society, by Mrs. A. F. Parker, President. (3) The Woman's Mission Circle, by Mrs. D. C. Latourette. (4) The Baptist Brotherhood, by J. W. Loder, President. (5) The Young People's Society, by Miss Anna Smith, President. (6) The Juniors, by Mrs. Oglesby, Superintendent. (7) Canemah Sunday School, by Ross Eaton, Superintendent. Vocal Solo, by Mrs. L. H. Olmstead, Choir leader. Address by the church's County Missionary, Rev. E. A. Smith. Welcome in behalf of other church of the city, by the Rev. Dr. Ford, pastor of the Methodist church. Welcome to the city, by Mayor Dimmick. Anthem by the choir. Address by the Pastor, Rev. W. T. Milliken. D. D. Singing by the congregation. 1st and 2nd stanzas of 'Onward Christian Soldiers.' Benediction. The above exercises will be held upstairs. Then down stairs in charge of the reception and refreshment committee will follow: introductions and greetings to pastor and family with social and refreshments.

Ten Commandments For Girls

By the Rev. W. B. MILLARD, Pastor of the Park Congregational Church, Chicago. Thou shalt not deceive thy mother. Thou shalt not think of thyself first, disregarding others. Thou shalt not esteem silk petticoats and diamond rings as of greater value than the family's general welfare. Thou shalt not regard false pretense as the highway to popularity. Thou shalt not gossip. Thou shalt not use loud speech nor bold manner to attract attention. Thou shalt not think more of the culture of thy heels than of thy head. Thou shalt not hold the cup to thy brother's lips nor to the lips of somebody else's brother. Thou shalt not imitate the fine lady's language while thy mother washes the dishes and sweeps the house. Thou shalt find joy in the service of God, who created thee.

A FASHION HINT.

Freshen Up Last Season's Gown With a Tunic.

BRILLIANT GOWN IN CHIFFON AND VELVET.

If a silk frock of last season needs freshening up there is nothing that will do the trick so well as to drape it with a chiffon tunic. These tunics come in lovely embroidered and beaded designs already made in the shops, and the most inexperienced dressmaker can fit them to the frock they are to adorn. The costume illustrated has a chiffon tunic weighted with a deep hem of velvet and also with heavy embroidery and gold cord. The tunic falls in slender lines over a drop skirt of satin. The waist line is high, in the prevailing empire style. The long tight sleeves of satin add to the dignity of this costume. But the brilliant color scheme—rich of course does not show in the reproduction—makes one forget these severe lines, for the satin is rich dark red, and the red chiffon tunic above the red satin lining is made brilliant by the gold embroidery.

Figures In the Mountain Tragedy at Hillsville, Va.

Photos by American Press Association.

If any glamour of romance attached at the beginning to the Allen clan, whose members murdered Judge Massie and four others at the Hillsville courthouse, it has been dispelled by the march of events. Most of the outlaws seem even to have been lacking in the "never surrender" spirit that was supposed to animate them and have been taken by the authorities without any more bloodshed. The Allens appear not to have had the excuse which is urged in behalf of many of the lawless southern mountaineers—poverty and ignorance. They were well to do, and some of them at least appear to have had reasonable educational advantages. While those who have given themselves up have not lived up to dime novel expectations, one may accord to them the merit of having recognized their desperate situation if they continued to defy the authorities and of having saved the state whose laws they have outraged the further expenditure of blood and money to bring them to justice. The upper of the two illustrations shows Fred Allen, one of the younger outlaws, brought into town by his captor (the man with the rifle); the other the Allens' attorneys, H. W. Hairston (left) and R. B. Willis (right).

POCATELLO SELECTS BITULITHIC

Twenty-five blocks in the Business Heart of the City to be paved. Twenty-five streets in the business heart of the city are to be paved with the popular bitulithic paving, the city council having recently awarded the contract after a thorough investigation of the merits of the different kinds of paving. During this investigation the reports of various committees sent out by other cities to inspect pavings were taken into consideration; the report of J. Duder, assistant engineer of Salt Lake City having special weight. As the result of a three weeks trip through the east by Mr. Duder recommendations will be made to the city commission of the Utah Capital that bitulithic paving be used in all medium traffic and residence streets, says the Pocatello Tribune. Mr. Duder was sent by the city commission for the special purpose of investigating paving matters, as he is to have charge of the paving and general public improvement work of the engineering office. D. H. Bloom, City Engineer, will have charge of the water works, engineering and general supervision. The engineer visited Pueblo, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha and Chicago. In these cities bitulithic paving has been used to considerable extent. Mr. Duder reports that his investigation demonstrated that the bitulithic material is very efficient. He says he finds it especially adapted to streets with steep grades where a rough surface is employed, and he thinks it will be found satisfactory in Salt Lake. He found cheaper paving, but in the matter of wearing qualities, he deprecates, they were not satisfactory and he does not believe it would pay to adopt them.
