LARGE MACHINE GOES TO CAMAS

We are to lose the new 184 inch machine of the Crown-Columbia Paper Company on account of our propensity for laws hard on the employer.

Our water power will produce the pulp but it will be transported as to be made into paper, at great loss to the paper manufacturer in freight, but considered a good investment as insurance against defeat at the hands of some of our politicians.

We stand for equality to employer and employee; for laws which will govern them to this end, and the strict enforcement thereof. We must sit up and take notice.

COLORADO LIKE INDIA

Two babies, one 16 years and the other 12 years old were married in Denver, Col., Sunday with their parents' consent. While the firms thought would probably bring that idea of spanking children with such ideas in their hands, a second consideration leads us to believe that the parents of both parties to the contract should receive the chastising for allowing them to follow out their dream.

It is a pity that the law allows such youthful alliance in the bonds of matrimony. Oregon is ahead of Colorado on this point, even with parental consent.

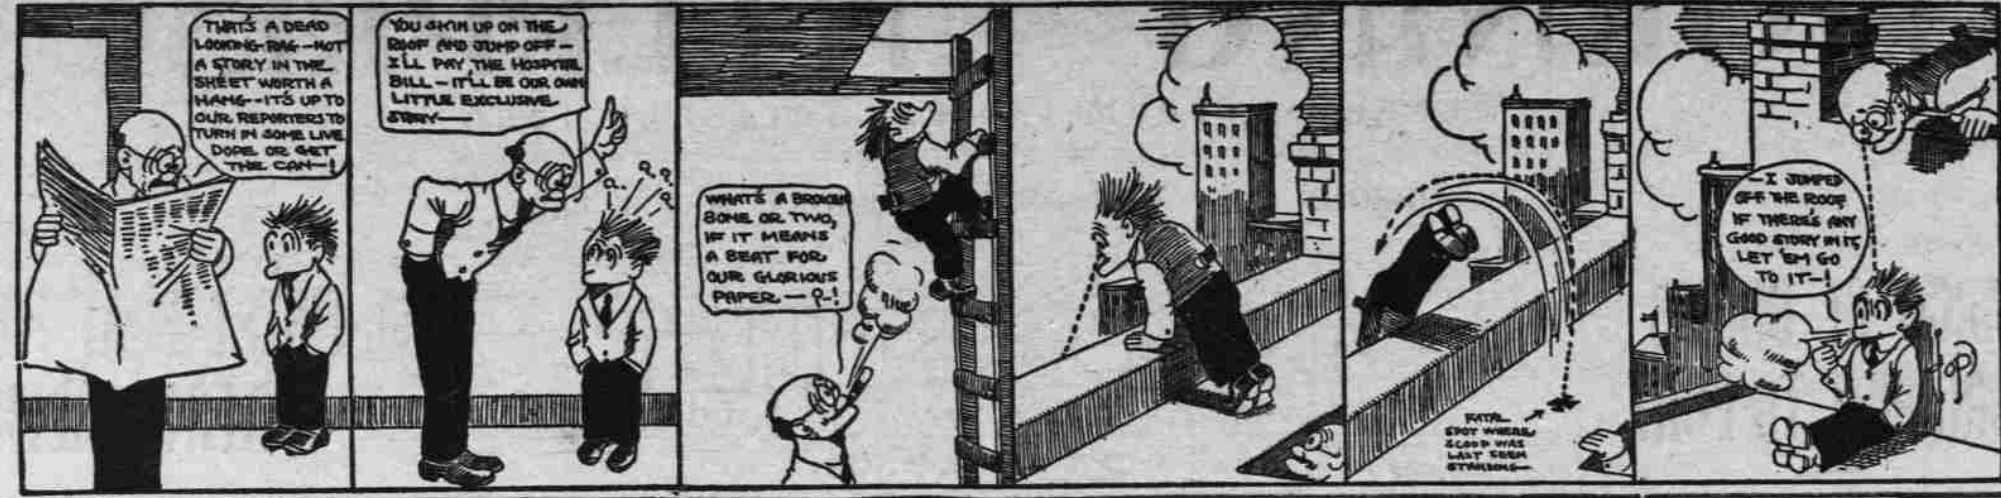

The combined committees of the Commercial Clubs of Canamag, Gladstone, Jennings Lodge and Oregon City are still figuring upon ways and means of securing their wants from the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, without enlisting the aid of the Railroad Commission of Oregon, and is it to be hoped that success will soon reward their efforts.

Armor Plate on Warships Not Essential

By HUDSON MAXIM, Inventor of Explosives. TEN YEARS FROM NOW ARMOR PLATE ON BATTLESHIPS WILL BE A THING OF THE PAST. IT IS USELESS TODAY. NAVAL FIGHTING IS NOW A QUESTION OF SPEED AND GUNS.

By 1920 we will have cruisers traveling FORTY KNOTS AN HOUR with sixteen inch guns mounted on decks. With such craft armor plate is not alone useless, but is a HINDRANCE. The armored vessels may as well do without the cumbersome weight, for it is possible to send fourteen inch shells through armor plate eighteen inches thick as if the steel were so much CHEESE.

happy crowd such as we had in town Saturday last.

Oregon Daily Journal editorially says: "Here is the Willamette valley in its springtime robes. It is a beautiful and wonderful color study in green." While we agree on these points with our contemporary the language reminds us of the Irisman who was about to have his house painted and when answering the painter's question as to the color he wanted used, stated, "It makes no difference what color you use, as long as it is green."

Our good ladies of the Woman's Club are to banquet their husbands, brothers and sweethearts. Now many of us men will see to it that our wives become boosters and get into the betterment plans of their sister citizens, so next time they can also be among the happy throng, for it surely will be a happy one to sit around the festive board. Here is to continued success to the Woman's Club.

It is said that a feather on a log is no sign of a duck's nest, at the same time 10,000 people, one-fourth of the population, visiting the county seat on one day and everyone looking for and having a good time is a pretty good sign of prosperity.

COMPANY KNEW OF SHIPWRECK EARLY

WASHINGTON, April 30.—When the Senate committee investigating the Titanic disaster resumed its hearing today, Senator Burton announced he had examined Fourth Officer Boxhall last night and had learned from that officer that J. W. Andrews, builder of the Titanic, who went down with the ship, told Captain Smith after the collision that the boat would sink within an hour.

Andrews had gone over the ship immediately after the crash and discovered that her hull had been ripped open. E. J. Dunn, an importer of New York, the first witness, said that a day or so ago a friend told of the receipt of the Western Union Telegraph Company of a wireless message which was transmitted to "Islefrank" between 7:30 and 8 o'clock Monday morning. The code address is that of P. A. S. Franklin, vice-president of the International Mercantile Marine.

"What was your informant's name?" asked Senator Smith. "I can't tell you," replied Dunn. "I am under pledge not to reveal his name. He promised to come over here to testify but today I received the following telegram: 'Regret present circumstances do not permit departure.—No signature.' 'Did you informant tell you why you should not give his name?' 'Simply a matter of protecting his father. He said his father was employed by the Western Union and that if this matter came out and it was known that he gave it, his father would lose his position.' Dunn temporarily was excused.

"What about the information in the mysterious message?" Senator Smith was asked. "Dunn has not disclosed it on the stand, but I know what it was," said the Senator. "It showed the White Star people had information about the fate of the Titanic hours before they made it public."

"Did the message refer to an attempt to reinsure the Titanic?" "I cannot say now," the Senator replied. Franklin suggested that the committee call on the Western Union to produce the message. "We want this matter sifted to the bottom and we want you to have every message, sent or received, that has any bearing on the disaster," said Franklin.

How strong are you going in the tripe automobile contest?

TY COBB NEVER ASKS ANY FAVORS.

All players are not jealous of Ty Cobb. One never hears of them saying anything detrimental to the great Tyra. though he causes most of them a great deal of trouble during the season. But what is true of Cobb is not so with Joe Jackson. That worthy made himself decidedly unpopular last fall when he went around the circuit begging for base hits in order that he might win the automobile. A catcher on the Nationals told this story. "You can't help but admire Cobb, because he asks no favors, but makes his game a success by his wonderful ability. Not so with Jackson. He was around last fall begging catchers to tell him what was coming so that he could get base hits, and he had an average of .400 at the time. It will take Jackson several years and a lot of good conduct to live that down. Ball players, like other humans, like fair play."

GREAT PLAY BY BESCHER.

Mike Mitchell Tells of Wonderful Catch in Game With Cleveland. At a fanning bee in baseball headquarters at Cincinnati recently outfielder Mike Mitchell said Bob Beschler made the greatest play he has ever seen. It happened in Cleveland on Oct. 14 of last season. At the end of the tenth inning the score stood 5 to 5. In the Reds' half of the eleventh they got two runs.

Starting the batting for Cleveland, Center Fielder Birmingham doubled to right. Second Baseman Hal hit one between Beschler and Bates. It looked to be good for at least two bases. Beschler came steaming in, made a flying stab at the pellet and captured it just at his shoe tops. He was traveling at such terrific speed that he fell down as he caught the sphere.

In the meantime Birmingham was at third, ready to make the dash for the plate. Beschler rolled over twice, lay a fraction of a second until he could regain his wind, then got up and completed the double play by pegging the ball to Emson at second.

Of course the people yelled. But they did more than that. They stood up on their feet and shouted themselves hoarse in approbation of Beschler's work. Turner singled, but Easterly fanned, and the game went to Cincinnati, 7 to 5.

HANS WAGNER AS CAPTAIN.

Manager Clarke Believes Shortstop Will Make Excellent Field Leader. It's Captain Hans Wagner of the Pirates. If you please. The "Flying Dutchman" will direct the movements of the Buccaroos on the field this season and will endeavor to share with Fred Clarke the glory of winning the National league championship.

"Wagner has been playing ball with me a great many years," said Clarke recently in discussing the appointment. "and he knows just what my ideas are and what is necessary to be done to carry them out. One strong point in his favor is the fact that he

HANS WAGNER, PITTSBURGH'S NEW CAPTAIN plays an infield position. The captain should be an infielder if possible. The Dutchman is anxious to show what he can do as captain. He is naturally retiring and somewhat diffident, but such traits are manifested off the field. On the diamond he is a perfect baseball machine, with his entire attention focused on the game. When it was suggested to Manager Clarke that Wagner might not be temporarily fitted for the captaincy he replied: "You don't know Wagner. He will make an excellent captain; take my word for it."

Helena, the "Babies' Queen" Of Italy, and Her Children

It has been suggested that the war against Turkey may have been inspired by the queen of Italy, who is the daughter of King Nicholas of Montenegro, the tiny kingdom lying on the Adriatic borders of the Ottoman empire. The Montenegrins are the hereditary enemies of the Turks and have been for centuries subject to incursions by Moslem bands, which delighted in carrying away Christian captives for the Turkish harems. Naturally a Montenegrin princess could have little love for such neighbors, and it is pretty certain that the queen, who is reported to be enthusiastic over the war, did not regret its breaking out even if she had no hand in it. Queen Helena is one of the few handsome women of European royal families. She has been so active in establishing free nurseries and hospitals for children that she is affectionately called the "babies' queen." The photograph here reproduced shows her with her own children, Princess Iolanda, Princess Mafalda, Prince Humbert (her heir apparent) and Princess Giovanna.
